Cautionary Statement

This Annual Report on Form 20-F contains certain statements that are neither reported financial results nor other historical information. These statements are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions, risks and uncertainties, actual future results may differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements. Many of these assumptions, risks and uncertainties relate to factors that are beyond National Grid Transco's ability to control or estimate precisely, such as delays in obtaining or adverse conditions contained in regulatory approvals; competition and industry restructuring; changes in economic conditions; currency fluctuations; changes in interest and tax rates; changes in energy market prices; changes in historical weather patterns; changes in laws; regulations or regulatory policies; developments in legal or public policy doctrines; technological developments; the failure to retain key management; the availability of new acquisition opportunities; or the timing and success of future acquisition opportunities. Other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in this document include the ability to continue to integrate the US and UK businesses acquired by or merged with the Group or to realise expected synergies from such integrations, the failure to achieve reductions in costs or to achieve operational efficiencies, unseasonable weather impacting on demand for electricity and gas, the behaviour of UK electricity market participants on system balancing, the timing of amendments in prices to shippers in the UK gas market, the performance of National Grid Transco's pension schemes and the regulatory treatment of pension costs, the impact of any potential separation and disposal by National Grid Transco of any of its UK gas distribution networks and any adverse consequences arising from outages on or otherwise affecting energy networks owned and/or operated by National Grid Transco. For a more detailed description of these assumptions, risks and uncertainties, together with any other risk factors, please see Items 3 and 5 of this report (and in particular Risk factors under Item 3). Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. National Grid Transco does not undertake any obligation to revise these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this report.

Property, plants and equipment

United Kingdom

National Grid Transco's Corporate Centre operates principally from offices at 1-3 Strand, London (leasehold) and 130 Jermyn Street, London (leasehold).

UK gas distribution. The gas network in Britain comprises approximately 170,000 miles of distribution pipelines and approximately 4,200 miles of high pressure national transmission pipelines. Agreements with landowners or occupiers are only required for those pipes that cross private land. These agreements largely comprise perpetual easements in England and Wales and deeds of servitude in Scotland. Any land issues impacting on normal agricultural activity local to pipelines and their associated easement or servitude are covered by national agreements with the National Farmers Union, the Country Land and Business Association of England and Wales and the Scottish Landowners Association.

Through Transco plc, we own the freeholds of the substantial majority of the operational sites where there are larger operational plant and gas storage facilities used in our UK Gas Distribution business. The vast majority of office buildings, depots and stores used by UK Gas Distribution are leased from another Group company, SecondSite Property.

UK electricity and gas transmission. In England and Wales, the Group, through Transco, owns the freehold of the majority of all sites associated with its UK Transmission business. The remainder are held on long-term leaseholds. In Scotland the majority are owned outright through a disposition purchase. The remainder are owned through a feudal disposition where purchase was subject to various rights retained by the previous owner, for example mineral or forestry rights. In addition, Transco has three Commercial Lettings, at St Fergus to Shell and Mobil, and at Theddlethorpe to ConocoPhillips.

Agreements with landowners or occupiers are required for the overhead lines and underground cables which make up our electricity network in England and Wales. The majority of agreements are in the form of terminable wayleaves. The remainder are in the form of perpetual easements under which rights have been granted in perpetuity in return for a lump sum payment. The sites at which we have electricity substations are split between freehold and leasehold. Of the leasehold sites, the large majority are substations located on the premises of generators and are held on long-term leases for nominal rental payments. Of the remaining sites, most are held as ground rents (market price payable for land only) from the respective landlords, who include electricity distribution companies.

The Group, through National Grid Company, also owns the freehold of its control centre in Berkshire and the learning and development centre at Eakring in Nottinghamshire. It has major offices in Warwick (leasehold) and Leeds (freehold).

United States

The National Grid USA companies own in fee the office buildings that comprise their principal business premises in Westborough and Northborough, Massachusetts and in Syracuse, Albany and Buffalo, New York. Substantially all of the Group's US properties and franchises are subject to the liens of mortgage indentures and deeds of trust under which mortgage bonds have been issued. At present, environmental issues are not preventing the companies from utilising any material operating assets in the course of their business.

US electricity transmission. The Group's US Transmission systems are comprised of approximately 14,000 circuit miles of transmission and sub-transmission lines located within right-of-way corridors that traverse both public and private property. Statutory authority, legislative charters and municipal franchise grants generally provide the National Grid USA companies with the rights required to locate transmission and sub-transmission facilities within and across public ways. Right-of-way corridors that cross privately owned land have generally been acquired in fee ownership (freehold) or pursuant to grants of perpetual easements. Transmission and sub-transmission substation facilities are principally located on properties that are owned in fee.

US electricity distribution and US gas distribution. The Group's US distribution systems are comprised of approximately 62,000 circuit miles of electric distribution lines located on rights-of-way in New England and New York, and approximately 8,000 miles of gas distribution pipelines located on rights-of-way in New York. Statutory authority, legislative charters and municipal franchise grants generally provide the National Grid USA companies with the rights required to locate distribution facilities within and across public ways. Right-of-way corridors that cross privately owned land have principally been acquired in fee ownership or pursuant to grants of perpetual easements. Electric distribution substations and gas distribution regulator stations are principally located on properties owned in fee.

Item 7. Major Shareholders and Related Party Transactions

Major shareholders

As at 11 June 2004, National Grid Transco had been notified of beneficial interests in 3% or more of its issued share capital by the following companies:

	% of issued share capital	Number of ordinary shares
The Capital Group Companies, Inc.	9.97	308,024,616
Legal and General Investment Management Ltd	3.6	111,143,102
Barclays plc	3.1	95,005,274
Franklin Resources, Inc.	3.0	93,240,377

The percentages and numbers of ordinary shares set forth above are as of the date of notification by the respective company. The Capital Group Companies, Inc. holding was first disclosed to National Grid Group plc as 3.0% in July 2001. From this point it steadily increased to 8.0% in January 2002, at which point the holding was diluted following the issuance of shares in relation to the acquisition of Niagara Mohawk. From a restated holding of 7.3% in February 2002 the holding again steadily increased to 10.0% in October 2002, when the holding was again diluted following the issuance of shares in respect of the merger with Lattice Group plc. The holding then increased steadily from 5.7% to 10.0%, and in June 2004 was reduced to the level disclosed above.

All ordinary shares have the same voting rights. The only other class of share in the Company is the Special Share (one special rights non-voting redeemable preference share of £1) which is no longer in issue, having been redeemed on 5 May 2004.

The information set forth under the headings Analysis of shareholdings on page 134, Related party transactions on page 49 and Note 28 Related party transactions on page 102 of the Company's Annual Report and Accounts 2003/04 contained in Exhibit 14.1 is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. The Offer and Listing

The information set forth under the headings Market prices on page 134 and Trading markets for ordinary shares on page 134 of the Company's Annual Report and Accounts 2003/04 contained in Exhibit 14.1 is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 10. Additional Information

Memorandum and Articles of Association

The following description is a summary of the material terms of National Grid Transco's Memorandum and Articles of Association (the Articles). The following description is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Articles, which are listed as an exhibit to this report.

General:

National Grid Transco is incorporated under the name National Grid Transco plc and is registered in England and Wales with registered number 4031152. The Company's objects are set forth in the fourth clause of its Memorandum of Association and cover a wide range of activities, including the following:

- carrying on the business of a holding company;
- employing the funds of the Company to develop and expand its business; and
- carrying on any other activity supplemental to the foregoing or capable of enhancing the Company's profitability.

The Memorandum of Association grants National Grid Transco a broad range of corporate powers to effect these objectives.

Directors:

Under the Articles, a Director must disclose any personal interest in a contract and may not vote in respect of that contract, subject to certain limited exceptions.

The compensation awarded to the Executive Directors is decided by the Remuneration Committee (see details on pages 53 and 54 of the Company's Annual Report and Accounts 2003/04 contained in Exhibit 14.1), which consists entirely of Non-executive Directors. The fees of the Non-executive Directors are determined by the Executive Directors with the guidance of the Chairman and after taking appropriate external advice.

The Directors are empowered to exercise all the powers of National Grid Transco to borrow money, subject to the limitation that the aggregate principal amount outstanding of all borrowings shall not exceed an amount equal to four times National Grid Transco's share capital and aggregate reserves, calculated in the manner described in the Articles, unless sanctioned by an ordinary resolution of the Company's shareholders.

There is no specific requirement for a director to retire when he/she reaches the age of 70. However, upon appointment or retirement by rotation, the age of a person aged 70 or over must be declared in the notice convening the relevant shareholder meeting, or in any document accompanying the notice.

A Director is not required to hold shares of National Grid Transco in order to qualify as a Director.

Special Share:

The Special Share is a redeemable non-voting preference share of £1. Its ownership is restricted to certain persons who must be ministers of the Crown (eg a Secretary of State or another person acting on behalf of the Crown) (the Special Shareholder). In summary, the rights of the Special Shareholder ensure that it can control certain actions carried out by the Company in respect of (i) itself; (ii) National Grid Company (as the holder of the Transmission Licence); and (iii) Transco, as well as prohibiting changes to various provisions in the Company's Articles including a provision which sets out certain limitations on the number of voting shares in the Company which a person can hold.

However, on 5 May 2004, the Special Shareholder exercised its right of redemption, following which the Special Share was redeemed for its par value of £1. Resolutions will be tabled at the Annual General Meeting to amend the Articles to remove references to the Special Share, those provisions which are no longer appropriate for inclusion in the Company's Articles in view of the redemption of the Special Share (including the control on certain actions and limitation on shareholdings provisions), and to cancel the Special Share from being comprised within the Company's authorised share capital.

Rights, preferences and restrictions:

National Grid Transco may not pay any dividend otherwise than out of profits available for distribution under the Companies Act and the other applicable provisions of English law. In addition, as a public company, National Grid Transco may make a distribution only if and to the extent that, at the time of the distribution, the amount of its net assets is not less than the aggregate of its called-up share capital and undistributable reserves (as defined in the Companies Act). Subject to the foregoing, National Grid Transco may, by ordinary resolution, declare dividends in accordance with the respective rights of the shareholders but not exceeding the amount recommended by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may pay interim dividends if the Board of Directors considers that National Grid Transco's financial position justifies the payment.

Except insofar as the rights attaching to any share otherwise provide, all dividends will be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up (otherwise than in advance of calls) on the shares.

All dividends or other sums payable unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board of Directors for the benefit of National Grid Transco until claimed. Any dividend or interest unclaimed for 12 years from the date when it was declared or became due for payment will be forfeited and revert to National Grid Transco.

Edgar Filing: NATIONAL GRID TRANSCO PLC - Form 20-F

Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares and to any other provisions of the Articles, at any general meeting on a show of hands every shareholder who is present in person will have one vote and on a poll every shareholder will have one vote for every share which he holds. On a poll, shareholders may cast votes either personally or by proxy and a proxy need not be a shareholder. Under the Articles all special and extraordinary resolutions must be decided on a poll.

Directors must stand for reappointment at the first Annual General Meeting following their appointment to the Board. Each Director must stand for reappointment at least every three years and each year one-third of the Board will stand for reappointment.

In a winding-up, a liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of National Grid Transco and any other sanction required by applicable provisions of English law, (a) divide among the shareholders the whole or any part of National Grid Transco's assets (whether the assets are of the same kind or not) and may for this purpose value any assets and determine how the division should be carried out as between different shareholders or different classes of shareholders or otherwise as the resolution may provide, or (b) vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator, with the sanction of a special resolution, determines, but in neither case will a shareholder be compelled to accept assets upon which there is a liability.

Variation of Rights:

Subject to applicable provisions of English law and the rights attached to any specific class of shares, the rights attached to any class of shares of National Grid Transco may be varied with the written consent of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

General Meetings:

Annual General Meetings must be convened upon advance written notice of 21 clear days. An Extraordinary General Meeting must be convened upon advance written notice of 21 clear days for the passing of a special resolution and 14 clear days for any other resolution. The notice must specify the nature of the business to be transacted. The notice must also specify the place, the day and the time of the meeting.

Rights of Non-Residents:

There are no restrictions under National Grid Transco's Memorandum and Articles of Association that would limit the rights of persons not resident in the UK, as such, to vote ordinary shares.

Disclosure of interests:

A shareholder may lose the right to vote his shares if he or any other person appearing to be interested in those shares fails to comply within a prescribed period of time with a request by National Grid Transco under the Companies Act to give the required information with respect to past or present ownership or interests in those shares. In the case of holders of more than 0.25% in nominal amount of any class of the share capital of National Grid Transco, in addition to disenfranchisement, the sanctions that may be applied by National Grid Transco include withholding of the right to receive payment of dividends and other monies payable on shares, and restrictions on transfers of the shares.

The Companies Act provides that a person (including a company and other legal entities) that acquires an interest of 3% or more in any class of shares constituting an English public company's relevant share capital (ie National Grid Transco's issued share capital carrying the right to vote in all circumstances at a general meeting of National Grid Transco) is required to notify the company of its interest within two business days following the day on which the obligation arises. After the 3% level is exceeded, similar notifications must be made in respect of increases or decreases of 1% or more.

For purposes of the notification obligation, the interest of a person in shares means any kind of interest in shares including interests in any shares (a) in which a spouse, or child or stepchild under the age of 18 is interested, (b) in which a corporate body is interested and either (i) that corporate body or its directors generally act in accordance with that person's directions or instructions or (ii) that person controls one-third or more of the voting power of that corporate body or (c) in which another party is interested and the person and that other party are parties to a concert party agreement. A concert party agreement is one which provides for one or more parties to acquire interests in shares of a particular company and imposes obligations or restrictions on any one of the parties as to the use, retention or disposal of such interests acquired under the agreement, and any interest in the company's shares is in fact acquired by any of the parties under the agreement. Some of the interests (eg those held by certain investment fund managers) may be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the 3% threshold, but the obligations of disclosure will still apply where those interests exceed 10% or more of any class of the company's relevant share capital and to increases or decreases of 1% or more thereafter.

Edgar Filing: NATIONAL GRID TRANSCO PLC - Form 20-F

In addition, section 212 of the Companies Act provides that a public company may send a written notice to a person whom the company knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be, or to have been at any time during the three years immediately preceding the date on which the notice is issued, interested in shares constituting the company's relevant share capital. The notice may require that person to state whether he has an interest in the shares, and in case that person holds or had held an interest in those shares, to give additional information relating to that interest and any other interest in the shares of which that person is aware.

Where a company serves notice under the provisions described above on a person who is or was interested in shares of the company and that person fails to give the company any information required by the notice within the time specified in the notice, the company may apply to an English court for an order directing that the shares in question be subject to restrictions prohibiting, among other things, any transfer of those shares, the taking up of rights in respect of those shares and, other than in a liquidation, payments in respect of those shares.

A person who fails to fulfil the obligations imposed by those provisions of the Companies Act described above is subject to criminal penalties.

Material contracts

Save for the contracts described below, no contracts (other than contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business) have been entered into by the Group within the two years immediately preceding the date of this document which are, or may be material; or which contain any provision under which any member of the Group has any obligation or entitlement which is material to the Group at the date of this document.

(a) Credit agreement dated 18 November 2003 between National Grid Transco plc; HSBC Bank plc (the facility agent); HSBC USA (the swingline agent); and certain banks and financial institutions (the banks) which provides a $1.485 billion 364-day multi-currency revolving credit facility with 12-month term-out option.

(b) Offering circular issued by NGG Finance plc on 20 August 2001 summarising the trust deeds, subscription agreements and paying agency agreements relating to the 1,250,000,000 5.25% guaranteed bonds due 2006 and the 750,000,000 6.125% guaranteed bonds due 2011 issued by NGG Finance plc and guaranteed by National Grid Transco.

Exchange controls

There are currently no UK laws, decrees or regulations that restrict the export or import of capital, including, but not limited to, foreign exchange control restrictions, or that affect the remittance of dividends, interest or other payments to non-UK resident holders of ordinary shares except as otherwise set out in Taxation below and except in respect of the governments of and/or certain citizens, residents or bodies of certain countries (described in applicable Bank of England Notices or European Union Council Regulations in force as at the date of this document).

Taxation

The following summary describes the principal US Federal income and UK tax consequences to beneficial owners of ADSs or ordinary shares who are residents of the United States. The summary is not a complete analysis or listing of all the possible tax consequences of ownership and does not discuss special tax rules that may be applicable to certain classes of investors including banks, insurance companies, securities dealers, investors with a functional currency other than the US dollar and any corporation which alone, or together with one or more corporations which are treated as associated for the purposes of the US/UK taxation convention relating to income and capital gains (the Income Tax Convention), directly or indirectly controls 10% or more of the voting share capital of National Grid Transco. The statements regarding US Federal tax laws set out below are based (i) on the US Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and regulations issued thereunder, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect and (ii) in part on representation of The Bank of New York as depositary (the Depositary) and assume that each obligation provided for in or otherwise contemplated by the deposit agreement entered into by and among National Grid Transco, the Depositary and the registered holders of ADRs pursuant to which ADRs have been issued dated as of 21 November 1995 and amended and restated as of 31 January 2002 (the Deposit Agreement) and any related agreement will be performed in accordance with its terms. The statements regarding UK tax set out below are based on what is understood to be the practice of the UK Inland Revenue as at such date and are subject to any change therein (including any change having retroactive effect). Beneficial owners of ADSs who are residents or citizens of the United States will be treated as the owners of the underlying ordinary shares for the purposes of the Code.

The US and UK signed a new convention for the avoidance of double taxation with respect to income and capital gains on 24 July 2001 (the New Treaty). The New Treaty entered into force following the exchange of instruments of ratification on 31 March 2003 and is effective for withholding taxes beginning 1 May 2003. This summary notes the changes to the treatment of distributions and disposals as a result of the entry into force of the New Treaty, which affects distributions and disposals in National Grid Transco's taxable year 31 March 2004.

Edgar Filing: NATIONAL GRID TRANSCO PLC - Form 20-F

For the purposes of this discussion, the term "US Holder" refers to a beneficial owner of ADSs or ordinary shares who is a resident of the United States for US Federal income tax purposes and, as to the description under "Taxation of dividends" and "Taxation of capital gains" below, is also a resident of the United States for the purposes of the 1975 Income Tax Convention (the "Old Treaty").

Taxation of dividends:

Under the terms of the Old Treaty, effective for withholding tax purposes through to 30 April 2003, dividends paid to US corporate shareholders controlling less than 10% of the voting capital of National Grid Transco and dividends paid to all US non-corporate shareholders were not subject to withholding taxes in the United Kingdom. The Old Treaty nominally allowed such US shareholders to claim the refundable tax credit for dividends which was available to UK shareholders for UK income tax purposes. The amount of such credit, however, was 10% of the sum of the dividend and the credit, reduced by 15% of the sum of the dividend and the credit, resulting in no net refundable credit for US shareholders.

Under the terms of the New Treaty, effective for withholding tax purposes beginning on 1 May 2003, the United Kingdom is allowed to impose a 15% withholding tax on dividends paid to US shareholders controlling less than 10% of the voting capital of National Grid Transco. The United Kingdom does not, however, currently impose a withholding tax on such dividends. If it were to impose such a tax, the treaty provides for an exemption from withholding taxes for dividends paid on shares held through a tax exempt pension fund, 401(k) plan, or similar pension scheme. The New Treaty eliminates the refundable tax credit provision found in the Old Treaty. To obtain benefits under the New Treaty, a US holder must otherwise satisfy the requirements of the limitations on benefits article of the New Treaty.

Dividends paid by National Grid Transco to US shareholders are subject to tax in the United States. Such dividends may qualify for the reduced tax rate of 15% if the US shareholder has held the National Grid Transco ADSs or ordinary shares for the requisite holding period.

Taxation of capital gains:

Under the Old Treaty, a US Holder who was not resident or ordinarily resident for UK tax purposes in the UK was not liable for UK taxation on capital gains realized or accrued on the sale or other disposal of ADSs or ordinary shares unless the US Holder carried on a trade, profession or vocation in the UK through a branch or agency and such ADSs or ordinary shares were used, held or acquired for the purposes of such trade, profession or vocation or such branch or agency. A US Holder was, however, liable for US Federal income tax on gains on the sale of ADSs or ordinary shares to the same extent as on any other gains from sales of stock. Gain, if any, was generally US source.

Under the Old Treaty, a US citizen who was resident or ordinarily resident in the UK, a US corporation which was resident in the UK by reason of its business being managed and controlled in the UK or a US citizen who, or a US corporation which, was trading or carrying on a profession or vocation in the UK through a branch or agency and used, held or acquired ADSs or ordinary shares for the purpose of such trade, profession or vocation or such branch or agency, was possibly liable for both UK and US tax on a capital gain recognized on the disposal of ADSs or ordinary shares. Such holder, however, was generally entitled to foreign tax credit, subject to certain limitations, against any US Federal tax liability for the amount of any UK tax (namely capital gains tax in the case of an individual and corporation tax on chargeable gains in the case of a corporation) which was paid in respect of such gain.

A US Holder who became resident in the UK after a period of temporary non-residence (of up to five years) following an earlier period of residence in the UK was also potentially liable to UK capital gains tax under the Old Treaty.

The taxation of capital gains remains broadly unchanged under the New Treaty. However, a US Holder must comply with the limitation on benefits article in the New Treaty in order to obtain treaty benefits.

UK stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax (SDRT):

Transfers of ordinary shares Generally speaking SDRT at the rate of 0.5% of the amount or value of the consideration paid is payable where an agreement to transfer ordinary shares is not completed by a duly stamped transfer to the transferee. Where an instrument of transfer is executed and duly stamped before the expiry of the period of six years beginning with such date, the SDRT liability will be cancelled, and any SDRT which has been paid will be refunded. SDRT is due whether or not the agreement or transfer of such chargeable securities is made or carried out in the UK and whether or not any party to that agreement or transfer is a UK resident. Purchases of ordinary shares completed by execution of a stock transfer form will generally give rise to a liability to UK stamp duty at the rate of 0.5% (rounded up to the nearest £5) of the actual consideration paid. Paperless transfers under the CREST paperless settlement system will generally be liable to SDRT at the rate of 0.5%, and not stamp duty. The transfer of ordinary shares where there is no change of beneficial ownership will generally attract fixed rate stamp duty of £5 per transfer. SDRT is generally the liability of the purchaser and UK stamp duty is usually paid by the purchaser or transferee.

Transfer of ADSs No UK stamp duty will be payable on the acquisition or transfer of existing ADSs or beneficial ownership of ADSs, provided that any instrument of transfer or written agreement to transfer is executed outside the UK and remains at all times outside the UK. An agreement for the transfer of ADSs in the form of ADRs will not give rise to a liability for SDRT. On a transfer of ordinary shares from the London, England office of The Bank of New York as agent of the Depository (the Custodian) to a holder of ADSs upon cancellation of the ADSs, only a fixed stamp duty fee of £5 per instrument of transfer will be payable. Any transfer for value of the underlying ordinary shares represented by ADSs may give rise to a liability on the transferee to UK stamp duty or SDRT. A charge to stamp duty or SDRT may arise on the issue or transfer of ordinary shares to the Depository or the Custodian. The rate of stamp duty or SDRT will generally be 1.5% of either (i) in the case of an issue of ordinary shares, the issue price of the ordinary shares concerned, or (ii) in the case of a transfer of ordinary shares, the value of the consideration or, in some circumstances, the value of the ordinary shares concerned. The Depository will generally be liable for the stamp duty or SDRT. In accordance with the terms of the Depository Agreement, the Depository will charge any tax payable by the Depository or the Custodian (or their nominees) on the deposit of ordinary shares to the party to whom the ADSs are delivered against such deposits. If the stamp duty is not already a multiple of £5, the duty will be rounded up to the nearest multiple of £5.

US information reporting and backup withholding:

A US resident Holder who holds ADSs may in certain circumstances be subject to information reporting to the IRS and possible US backup withholding at a rate of 30% with respect to dividends on ADSs and proceeds from the sale or other disposition of ADSs unless such holder furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number or is otherwise exempt.

UK inheritance tax:

An individual who is domiciled in the US for the purposes of the convention between the US and the UK for the avoidance of double taxation with respect to estate and gift taxes (the Estate Tax Convention) and who is not a national of the UK for the purposes of the Estate Tax Convention will generally not be subject to UK inheritance tax in respect of the ADSs on the individual's death or on a gift of the ADSs during the individual's lifetime, unless the ADSs are part of the business property of a permanent establishment of the individual in the UK or pertain to a fixed base in the UK of an individual who performs independent personal services. Special rules apply to ADSs held in trust. In the exceptional case where the shares are subject both to UK inheritance tax and to US Federal gift or estate tax, the Estate Tax Convention generally provides for the tax paid in the UK to be credited against tax paid in the US.

Item 16C. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent registered public accounting firm, served as auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ended 31 March 2004.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for the audit of the Company's financial statements and regulatory reporting for the fiscal year ended 31 March 2004, and the review of interim financial statements for the sixth months ended 30 September 2004 were £5 million. Fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for the audit of the Company's financial statements and regulatory reporting for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003, and the review of interim financial statements for the sixth months ended 30 September 2003 were £4 million.

Audit-Related Fees

The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for assurance and related services that were reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements and are not disclosed under "Audit Fees" above were £2 million in fiscal 2003/04, and £3 million in fiscal 2002/03. Services comprising these fees included £1.5 million in fiscal 2003/04 of assurance services associated with the separation of UK based gas distribution networks, and £2 million in fiscal 2002/03 relating to the merger of National Grid and Lattice. The remaining amounts, in both years, relate to services provided on bond programs, audit of pension schemes and the provision of accounting advice.

Tax Fees

Aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning were £1 million in fiscal 2003/04, and £3 million during fiscal 2002/03.

All Other Fees

Aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for all other services in fiscal 2003/04 were £2 million, which related to vendor due diligence work associated with the proposed disposal of UK-based gas distribution networks. Aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for all other services in fiscal 2002/03 were £3 million, which largely related to services supplied by the consulting business unit of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP which was sold to IBM United Kingdom Limited on 30 September 2002.

Subject to the Company's Articles of Association, the Audit Committee is solely and directly responsible for the approval of the appointment, re-appointment, compensation and oversight of the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee must approve in advance all non-audit work to be performed by the independent auditors.

During fiscal 2003/04, all of the audit, audit-related and non-audit services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Item 16D. Exemptions from the Listing Standards for Audit Committees

Not applicable.

Item 16E. Purchases of Equity Securities by the Issuer and Affiliated Purchasers

Not applicable.

PART III

Item 17. Financial Statements

The Company has responded to Item 18 in lieu of this Item.

Item 18. Financial Statements

The information set forth under the headings Statement of Directors responsibilities for preparing the accounts on page 69, Accounting Policies on pages 71 to 73, Group Profit and Loss Account on page 74, Balance Sheets on page 75, Group Cash Flow Statement on page 76, Group Statement of Total Recognised Gains and Losses on page 76 and Notes to the Accounts on pages 77 to 128 of the Company's Annual Report and Accounts 2003/04 contained in Exhibit 14.1 is incorporated herein by reference. The audit report on these financial statements is presented below.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm
To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of National Grid Transco plc

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated Balance Sheets and related consolidated Profit and Loss Account, Cash Flow Statement, Statement of Total Recognised Gains and Losses and the related notes present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of National Grid Transco plc and its subsidiaries at 31 March 2004 and 2003, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended 31 March 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United Kingdom. These accounts are the responsibility of the Company's Directors and management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these accounts based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these accounts in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the accounts are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the accounts, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall accounts presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1 to the accounts, the Company has changed its accounting policy for treasury stock during the year ended 31 March 2004.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United Kingdom vary in certain significant respects from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Information relating to the nature and effect of such differences is presented in Note 32, as restated, to the consolidated accounts.
