(d)

On January 4, 2008, Apple Inc. (the "Company") appointed Andrea Jung to its Board of Directors (the "Board").

Upon her appointment to the Board, Ms. Jung received an automatic stock option grant to purchase 30,000 shares of the Company's common stock, to which all new non-employee directors are entitled under the Company's 1997 Director Stock Option Plan. This automatic stock option grant will become exercisable in equal installments on each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date. On the fourth anniversary of her appointment to the Board and on each subsequent anniversary thereafter, Ms. Jung will receive an automatic stock option grant to acquire 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock. Each annual option will be fully vested and immediately exercisable on the date of grant. As a non-employee director, Ms. Jung will also receive the standard $50,000 annual retainer for Board services, paid in quarterly installments.

In connection with the appointment, the Company entered into an indemnification agreement with Ms. Jung, the terms of which are identical in all material respects to the form of indemnification agreement that the Company has previously entered into with each of its directors, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 10.A.8 to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 26, 1997.

There are no relationships or related transactions between Ms. Jung and the Company that would be required to be reported under Section 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
