BARCLAYS PLC

Barclays to acquire EquiFirst from Regions Financial Corporation

Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays") announces that it has entered into an agreement to purchase EquiFirst Corporation, the non-prime mortgage origination business of Regions Financial Corporation ("Regions"), for a consideration of approximately US$225 million (GBP115 million). Completion is expected in the first half of 2007, subject to the receipt of the required licences and applicable regulatory approval. In the third year of ownership, Barclays expects to achieve an annual post-tax return on this investment in excess of 20%. Barclays will finance the transaction out of existing cash resources.

EquiFirst is the 12th largest non-prime wholesale mortgage originator in the United States. It originates its loans through over 9,000 brokers in 47 states. It will be combined with Barclays mortgage servicing and capital markets capabilities to create a vertically integrated mortgage franchise. Barclays believes that a vertically integrated mortgage franchise can deliver significant synergies through linking our established capital markets business with servicing and origination capabilities.

Barclays Capital currently has an active wholesale loan mortgage business in the US which involves the purchase and securitisation of mortgages on a principal basis. All the loans originated by EquiFirst are expected to be securitised or sold on an ongoing basis after an average hold period of approximately 2 to 3 months. This acquisition builds on the recent purchase of HomEq, a mortgage servicing platform, acquired by Barclays in November 2006.

Grant Kvalheim, Co-President of Barclays Capital, commented, "I am delighted to acquire such a strong management team within EquiFirst and we welcome the EquiFirst staff to Barclays Capital. This acquisition offers Barclays Capital an excellent opportunity to further vertically integrate and expand our existing US mortgage business."

Dowd Ritter, President and CEO of Regions Financial (NYSE:RF), said, "This sale is the result of a tighter focus on our strategic priorities. Regions is concentrating on customer relationships and core businesses in our 16-state footprint. We operate in very attractive markets in the South, Midwest and Texas and believe they represent the greatest potential for success."

Jeff Tennyson, CEO of EquiFirst, said, "Regions' ownership of EquiFirst over the last 8 years has allowed us to build a premier mortgage lender in the non-prime industry. Barclays Capital is a leading international investment bank that will strengthen our position as an industry leader and greatly enhance our access to the global capital markets. The sale of EquiFirst to Barclays Capital is a clear positive event for all stakeholders."

Forward-looking statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of Barclays plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition and performance, in particular with respect to Barclays Capital. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as 'aim', 'anticipate', 'target', 'expect', 'estimate', 'intend', 'plan', 'goal', 'believe', or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding Barclays future financial position, income growth, impairment charges, business strategy, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, projected costs, estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, global as well as US economic and business conditions, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, and the impact of competition - a number of which factors are beyond Barclays control. As a result, Barclays actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in Barclays forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Barclays speak only as of the date they are made. Barclays does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the SEC.
