Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

After market close on August 23, 2010, RadioShack Corporation (RadioShack) entered into accelerated share repurchase agreements (ASR Agreements) with Bank of America N.A. and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Banks) under which RadioShack will repurchase shares of its common stock. RadioShack is repurchasing shares under the ASR Agreements as part of its previously announced share repurchase program. Under the ASR Agreements, RadioShack will pay an aggregate of $300 million to the Banks on August 24, 2010 for a number of shares of common stock at a per share price equal to the discounted average of the volume-weighted average prices per share of RadioShack common stock during the ASR Agreements' respective valuation periods (in each case, the ASR Price).

The valuation periods in the ASR Agreements begin on August 24, 2010, with alternating valuation days for each Bank, and are expected to end no later than the end of the fourth quarter of 2010. However, each Bank may accelerate the end of the valuation period in its ASR Agreement to any date after September 24, 2010. Certain events, such as market disruption events or regulatory disruption events, may result in the valuation periods being extended.

When RadioShack makes its $300 million payment on August 24, 2010, it will receive from the Banks approximately 11.7 million shares of common stock, which is currently estimated to be approximately 70% of the total number of shares to be repurchased under the ASR Agreements at a pre-arranged price per share (the Initial Price). At the end of the valuation period under each ASR Agreement, there will be a make-whole adjustment, such that the relevant Bank will deliver the remaining shares, if any, to be repurchased and, (i) if the relevant ASR Price is less than the Initial Price, the relevant Bank will owe RadioShack additional shares, or (ii) if the relevant ASR Price is greater than the Initial Price, RadioShack will be obligated to pay to the relevant Bank, in cash or shares of its common stock, a make-whole amount.

In connection with the ASR Agreements, we expect that each Bank, on alternating days, will purchase (or otherwise acquire long positions in) shares of RadioShack common stock in the open market until it has acquired (or otherwise has long positions in) the number of shares RadioShack has agreed to repurchase under the ASR Agreement with that Bank. We expect that these acquisitions (and other transactions) will include covering purchases to close out stock borrow positions taken on by the Banks to make their initial deliveries of shares to us. In addition, we expect that the Banks may be purchasing or selling, or both purchasing and selling (and possibly taking on other long and/or short positions in) RadioShack common stock on their respective alternating valuation days in other hedging transactions related to the ASR Agreements. We expect that much of this activity will take place during each Bank's respective alternating valuation days during the ASR Agreements' respective valuation periods. All of these market transactions in our shares (or in derivative or other transactions related to our shares) will be for the Banks' own accounts.

The ASR Agreements are subject to terms customary for similar agreements, including providing for the effects of extraordinary corporate transactions and setting forth circumstances under which the agreements may be terminated or unwound early, including if the price of RadioShack common stock is equal to or lower than 30% of the closing price of RadioShack's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on August 23, 2010.

The foregoing description of the ASR Agreements is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the ASR Agreements, copies of which will be filed as exhibits to RadioShack's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the third quarter of 2010.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.
