ITEM 1. BUSINESS

Business Development

The Company's business began in 1974 when Vaso Boreta, the Company's Chairman of the Board, opened a Las Vegas Discount Golf and Tennis retail store in Las Vegas, Nevada. This store, which is still owned by Mr. Boreta, subsequently began distributing catalogs and developing a mail order business for the sale of golf and tennis products. In 1984, the Company began to franchise the Las Vegas Discount Golf & Tennis retail store concept and commenced the sale of franchises. As of February 26, 1997 when the franchise business was sold, the Company had 43 franchised stores in operation in 17 states and 2 foreign countries.

The Company was incorporated in Nevada on March 6, 1984, under the name Sporting Life, Inc. The Company's name was changed to St. Andrews Golf Corporation on December 27, 1988, to Saint Andrews Golf Corporation on August 12, 1994, and to All-American SportPark, Inc. (AASP) on December 14, 1998.

Sports Entertainment Enterprises, Inc. (SPEN), formerly known as Las Vegas Golf & Tennis, Inc. (LVDG), a publicly traded company, acquired the Company in February 1988, from Vaso Boreta, who was the Company's sole shareholder. Vaso Boreta also served as SPEN's Chairman of the Board, President, and CEO until February 2005.

In December 1994, the Company completed an initial public offering of 1,000,000 Units, each Unit consisting of one share of Common Stock and one Class A Warrant. The net proceeds to the Company from this public offering were approximately $3,684,000. The Class A Warrants expired unexercised on March 15, 1999.

In 1996, the Company sold 500,000 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to Three Oceans, Inc. (TOI), an affiliate of SANYO North America Corporation, for $5,000,000 in cash pursuant to an Investment Agreement between the Company and TOI. The Company used these proceeds to fund part of the development costs of its All-American SportPark property in Las Vegas. In March 2001, the Company repurchased all of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock from TOI for $5,000 in cash. Once repurchased, the shares were retired.

On December 16, 1996, the Company and its majority shareholder, SPEN, entered into negotiations pursuant to an Agreement for the Purchase and Sale of Assets to sell all but one of the four retail stores owned by SPEN, all of SPEN'S wholesale operations and the entire franchising business of the Company to Las Vegas Golf & Tennis, Inc., an unaffiliated company. On February 26, 1997, the Company and SPEN completed this transaction.

In connection with the sale of the above-described assets, SPEN and the Company agreed not to compete with the buyer in the golf equipment business except that the Company is permitted to sell golf equipment at its Callaway Golf Center business. In addition, the Buyer granted Boreta Enterprises, Ltd., a limited partnership owned by Vaso Boreta, Ron Boreta, Vaso's son and President of the Company, and John Boreta, Vaso's son and a principal shareholder of SPEN, the right to operate Las Vegas Discount Golf & Tennis stores in Southern Nevada, except for the Summerlin area of Las Vegas, Nevada.

On July 12, 1996, the Company entered into a lease agreement covering approximately 65 acres of land in Las Vegas, Nevada, on which the Company developed its Callaway Golf Center and All-American SportPark, (SportPark) properties. The property is located on the world famous Las Vegas Strip at the corner of Las Vegas Boulevard and Sunset Road which is just south of McCarran International Airport and the Mandalay Bay and MGM Resorts. The property is also adjacent to the Interstate 215 beltway that encircles the entire Las Vegas valley. On 42 acres of the property is the Callaway Golf Center that opened for business in October 1997. The remaining 23 acres was home to the discontinued SportPark that opened for business in October 1998 and was disposed of in May 2001.

On June 20, 1997, the lessor of the 65-acre tract (Landlord) agreed with the Company to cancel the original lease and replace it with two separate leases. The lease for the SportPark commenced on February 1, 1998 with a base rent of $18,910 per month and was cancelled in connection with disposition of the SportPark in May 2001; the lease for the Callaway Golf Center is for fifteen years with options to extend for two additional five-year terms. The lease for the Callaway Golf Center commenced on October 1, 1997 when the golf center opened with a base rent of $33,173 per month.

During June 1997, the Company and Callaway Golf Company (Callaway) formed All-American Golf LLC (LLC), a California limited liability company that was owned 80% by the Company and 20% by Callaway; the LLC owned and operated the Callaway Golf Center. In May 1998, the Company sold its 80% interest in LLC to Callaway. On December 31, 1998, the Company acquired substantially all the assets of LLC subject to certain liabilities that resulted in the Company owning 100% of the Callaway Golf Center.

On October 19, 1998, the Company sold 250,000 shares of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to SPEN for $2,500,000. SPEN had earlier issued 2,303,290 shares of its common stock for $2,500,000 in a private transaction to ASI Group, L.L.C. (ASI). ASI also received 347,975 stock options for SPEN common stock. ASI is a Nevada limited liability company whose members include Andre Agassi, a former professional tennis player.

SPEN owned 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock and 250,000 shares of the Company's Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. In the aggregate, this represented approximately two-thirds ownership in the Company. On April 5, 2002, SPEN elected to convert its Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into common Stock on a 1 for 1 basis. On May 8, 2002, SPEN completed a spin-off of the Company's shares held by SPEN to SPEN's shareholders. This resulted in SPEN no longer having any ownership interest in the Company.

On June 15, 2009, the Company entered into a Stock Transfer Agreement with Saint Andrews pursuant to which the Company transferred 49% of the outstanding common stock of All-American Golf Center, Inc. ("AAGC"), a subsidiary of the Company, to Saint Andrews Golf Shop, Ltd. ("Saint Andrews") in exchange for the cancellation of $600,000 of debt owed by the Company to Saint Andrews. The transfer of 49% of the common stock of AAGC was authorized by the Company's Board of Directors at which all of the Company's Directors voted in favor of the transfer, except that Ronald Boreta abstained from such vote. In connection with this transaction, the Company engaged Houlihan Valuation Advisors ("HVA") to provide an estimate of the fair market value of a 49% interest in AAGC. As a result of their analysis, HVA was of the opinion that the fair market value of a 49% interest in AAGC was approximately $600,000. The Board of Directors determined to use this value as the amount to be received from Saint Andrews for the 49% interest.

Saint Andrews is owned by Ronald Boreta and John Boreta, his brother. John Boreta is also a principal shareholder of the Company. The debt owed by the Company to Saint Andrews was from advances made in the past by Saint Andrews to provide the Company with working capital.

On June 19, 2009, AAGC entered into a Customer Agreement with Callaway Golf Company ("Callaway") and Saint Andrews pursuant to which Callaway has agreed to make certain cash payments and other consideration to AAGC and Saint Andrews in exchange for an exclusive marketing arrangement for the Callaway Golf Center operated by AAGC. Callaway is a major golf equipment manufacturer and supplier.

Saint Andrews, which subleases space at the Callaway Golf Center and operates a golf equipment store at the Callaway Golf Center, is owned by Ronald Boreta, the Company's President, and John Boreta, the brother of Ronald Boreta and a principal shareholder of the Company.

The Customer Agreement with Callaway provides that Callaway will provide Saint Andrews with a $250,000 annual advertising contribution in the form of golf related products. In addition, Saint Andrews will have an opportunity to earn additional credits upon reaching a sales threshold.

In connection with the signing of the Customer Agreement, AAGC received a one-time payment of $750,000 marked for operating expenses or other business expenses. AAGC also received a contribution of $500,000 used for upgrading the driving range at the Callaway Golf Center. In addition, AAGC received $750,000 to remodel and improve the facilities at the Callaway Golf Center, which included the pro shop and retail area; upgraded fitting bay technology and graphics; and enhanced exterior signage. Callaway also is providing staff uniforms, range golf balls and rental golf equipment for AAGC's use at the Callaway Golf Center.

Both AAGC and Saint Andrews have agreed to exclusively sell only Callaway golf products at the Callaway Golf Center for the term of the Customer Agreement. The Customer Agreement will terminate on December 31, 2013 if Callaway gives notice during November 2013 and if no notice is given it will terminate on December 31, 2018.

As part of the Customer Agreement, Saint Andrews has agreed to reimburse AAGC for marketing expenses on an annual basis as agreed upon by the parties.

BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

In June 1997, the Company completed a final agreement with Callaway to form a limited liability company named All-American Golf, LLC (the "LLC") for the purpose of operating a golf facility, to be called the Callaway Golf Center ("CGC"), on approximately forty-two (42) acres of land located on Las Vegas Boulevard in Las Vegas, Nevada. The CGC opened to the public on October 1, 1997.

The Company's operations consist of the CGC, located on 42 acres of leased land and strategically positioned within a few miles of the largest hotels and casinos in the world. There are over 151,000 hotel rooms in Las Vegas and, according to the Nevada Commission on Tourism, nineteen of the top twenty-five largest hotels in the world are within a few miles of the CGC including the MGM Grand, Mandalay Bay, Luxor, Bellagio, the Monte Carlo, and the new City Center. The CGC is also adjacent to McCarran International Airport, the 17th busiest airport in the world with 40,460,310 in passenger traffic during 2009 according to Airports Council International. The Las Vegas valley residential population is approximately 1.8 million.

The CGC includes a two tiered, 110-station, driving range. The driving range is designed to have the appearance of an actual golf course with ten impact greens and island greens. Pro-line equipment and popular brand name golf balls are utilized through Callaway Golf. In addition to the driving range, the CGC has a lighted, nine-hole, par three golf courses, named the Divine Nine. The golf course has been designed to be challenging, and has several water features including lakes, creeks, water rapids and waterfalls, golf cart paths and designated practice putting and chipping areas. At the entrance to the CGC is a 20,000 square foot clubhouse which includes an advanced state of the art golf swing analyzing system developed by Callaway, and two tenant operations: (a) the St. Andrews Golf Shop featuring the latest in Callaway Golf equipment and accessories, and (b) a restaurant, which features an outdoor patio overlooking the golf course and driving range with the Las Vegas Strip in the background.

The CGC has a lease agreement with St. Andrews Golf Shop ("Saint Andrews") for the provision of sales of golf retail merchandise. The lease is for fifteen years ending in October 2012. Saint Andrews pays a fixed monthly rental for its office and retail space.

The LLC's original ownership was 80% by the Company and 20% by Callaway. Callaway agreed to contribute $750,000 of equity capital and loan the LLC $5,250,000. The Company contributed the value of expenses incurred relating to the design and construction of the golf center and cash in the combined amount of $3,000,000. Callaway's loan to the LLC had a ten-year term with interest at ten percent per annum. The principal was due in 60 equal monthly payments commencing five years after the CGC opened.

On May 5, 1998, the Company sold its 80% interest in the LLC to Callaway for $1.5 million in cash and the forgiveness of $3 million in debt, including accrued interest thereon, owed to Callaway by the Company. The Company retained the option to repurchase the 80% interest for a period of two years on essentially the same financial terms that it sold its interest. The sale of the Company's 80% interest in the LLC was completed in order to improve the Company's financial condition that, in turn, improved the Company's ability to complete the financing needed for the final construction stage of the SportPark.

On December 30, 1998, the Company acquired substantially all the assets of the LLC subject to certain liabilities. This resulted in the Company owning 100% of the CGC. Under the terms of the asset purchase agreement, the Company paid $1 million to Active Media Services in the form of a promissory note payable in quarterly installments of $25,000 over a 10-year period without interest. In turn, Active Media delivered a trade credit of $4,000,000 to the CGC. This promissory note was paid in full to Active Media in September of 2008.

In connection with this acquisition, the Company executed a trademark license agreement with Callaway pursuant to which the Company licenses the right to use the marks Callaway Golf Center and Divine Nine from Callaway for a term beginning on December 30, 1998 and ending upon termination of the lease on the CGC. The Company paid a one-time fee for the license agreement that was a component of the purchase price the Company paid for the CGC upon acquisition of the facility on December 30, 1998. Pursuant to this agreement, Callaway has the right to terminate the agreement upon the occurrence of any Event of Termination as defined in the agreement.

On June 1, 2001, the Company completed a transition pursuant to a Restructuring and Settlement Agreement with Urban Land of Nevada, Inc. (the Landlord) to terminate the land lease for the discontinued SportPark, and to transfer all of the leasehold improvements and personal property located on the premises to the Landlord.

As part of the agreement, the Landlord agreed to waive all liabilities of the Company to the Landlord with respect to the discontinued SportPark, and with the exception of a limited amount of unsecured trade payables, the Landlord agreed to assume responsibility of all other continuing and contingent liabilities related to the SportPark. The Landlord also agreed to cancel all the company's back rent obligations for the CGC for periods through April 30, 2001. The CGC remains the only operating business of the Company.

As part of the transaction, the Company transferred to the Landlord a 35 percent ownership interest in the Company's subsidiary that owns and operates the CGC. This subsidiary is All-American Golf Center, Inc. (AAGC). However, in connection with the settlement of litigation with the Landlord in 2008, the Landlord relinquished its ownership interest in AAGC.

LIABILITY INSURANCE

The Company has a comprehensive general liability insurance policy to cover possible claims for injury and damages from accidents and similar activities. Although management of the Company believes that its insurance levels are sufficient to cover all future claims, there is no assurance it will be sufficient to cover all future claims.

MARKETING

The marketing program for the CGC is focused primarily on the local individual customer s with increasing emphasis on the individual tourist market because of CGC s proximity to most of the major resorts in Las Vegas. The CGC focuses its marketing efforts principally on print media that has proven to be effective for the local market. For the tourist market, the Company has instituted a taxi program, rack cards, and print media in tourist publications that are located in the Las Vegas hotels and hotel rooms. Also, the CGC, has implemented programs to attract more group events, clinics, and other special promotional events. In February of 2004, a 30 ft. pylon sign with a reader board was installed in front of the CGC. The sign makes the general public aware of various programs, specials and information on events and other activities taking place within the CGC. Once installed, the CGC began random customer information surveys to provide information on how guests heard of the CGC. Over half stated that they came into the CGC because they saw the new sign.

The CGC, which includes a nine-hole par 3 golf course, driving range, and clubhouse, is designed to provide a country club atmosphere for the general public.

The marketing efforts toward establishing additional CGC-type locations have been directed towards a number of large existing and potential markets for which there can be no assurance of financial success. Further, to expand the concept for CGC-type facilities beyond the Las Vegas location could require considerably more financial and human resources than presently exists at the Company.

Because of the agreement with Callaway that was signed in June of 2009, $250,000 in marketing dollars are designated to the facility each year for the next three years. The Company has hired R and R Partners, a local marketing and public relations firm to plan and implement strategic marketing for the facility that will best reach their target audience and increase awareness of the facility to both local residents and tourists for 2010.

FIRST TEE PROGRAM

In March 2002, the CGC became the official home in southern Nevada for the national First Tee program. The First Tee program is a national initiative started in November 1997 by the World Golf Foundation. First Tee is a program sponsored by the PGA Tour, the LPGA, the PGA of America, the United States Golf Association, and Augusta National Golf Club. The First Tee program was formed to eliminate access and affordability issues for children, especially economically disadvantaged children, to participate in the game of golf. In research conducted by the National Golf Foundation, it was noted that only two percent of children through age 17 ever try golf and only five percent of our nation s golfers were minorities. The CGC is proud to be part of the First Tee program and believes it will offer many opportunities for the Company in the years ahead.

COMPETITION

In the Las Vegas market, the Company has competition from other golf courses, family entertainment concerts, and entertainment provided by hotel/casinos. Company management believes the CGC has a competitive advantage in the Las Vegas market because of its strategic location, product branding, alliances, and extent of facilities balanced with competitive pricing that is unlike any competitor in the market.

The Company's competition includes other golf facilities within the Las Vegas area that provide a golf course and driving range combination and/or a night lighted golf course. Management believes that the CGC is able to compete because it is unique in providing a branded partnership with Callaway and giving the Las Vegas community one of the largest golf training facilities in the western United States. In addition, several Las Vegas hotel/casinos own their own golf courses that cater to high-roller/VIP tourists. The CGC is able to compete against these facilities because it offers a competitively priced golf facility with close proximity to the Las Vegas Strip properties where a non-high-roller/VIP tourist can come to enjoy a Las Vegas golf experience.

EMPLOYEES

As of March 30, 2010, there were 5 full-time employees and 1 part-time employee at the Company's executive offices, and 10 full-time and 22 part-time employees at CGC.

Not required.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

The following information should be read in conjunction with the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements and the Notes thereto included in this report.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

Our consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP). In connection with the preparation of the financial statements, we are required to make assumptions and estimates about future events that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, expenses and the related disclosures. We base our assumption and estimate on historical experience and other factors that management believes is relevant at the time our consolidated financial statements are prepared. On a periodic basis, management reviews the accounting policies, assumptions and estimates to ensure that our financial statements are presented fairly and in accordance with GAAP. However, because future events and their effects cannot be determined with certainty, actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions, and such differences could be material.

Our significant accounting policies are discussed in Note 2, Summary of Significant Accounting Policies in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements. The following accounting policies are most critical in fully understanding and evaluating our reported financial results.

STOCK BASED COMPENSATION.

In accordance with accounting standards concerning Stock-based Compensation, the Company accounts for all compensation related to stock, options or warrants using a fair value based method in which compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the value of the award and is recognized over the service period. The Company uses the Black-Scholes pricing model to calculate the fair market value of options and warrants issued to both employees and non-employees. Stock issued for compensation is valued on the date of the related agreement and using the market price of the stock. The company currently does not have any options that are not fully vested.

LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS AND EQUIPMENT

Leasehold improvements and equipment are stated at cost and are depreciated or amortized using the straight-line basis over the lesser of the lease term (including renewal periods, when the Company has both the intent and ability to extend the lease) or the useful lives of the assets, generally 3 to 15 years.

REVENUES

The Company primarily earns revenue from golf course green fees, driving range ball rentals and golf and cart rentals, which are recognized when received as payments for the services provided. The Company also receives marketing revenue associated with the Callaway Agreement which is realized on an equal monthly basis over the life of the agreement. Lease and sponsorship revenues are recognized as appropriate when earned.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

The FASB Accounting Standards Codification is the single official source of authoritative, nongovernmental, U.S. GAAP, in addition to guidance issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. This codification is designed to simplify U.S. GAAP into a single, topically ordered structure.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard that requires disclosures about fair value of financial instruments not measured on the balance sheet at fair value in interim financial statements as well as in annual financial statements. Prior to this accounting standard, fair values for these assets and liabilities were only required be disclosed annually. This standard applies to all financial instruments within its scope and requires all entities to disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments. This standard does not require disclosures for earlier periods presented for comparative purposes at initial adoption, but in periods after the initial adoption, this standard requires comparative disclosures only for periods ending after initial adoption. This accounting standard became effective for us beginning with the quarter ended on June 30, 2009; however, it did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard amending the accounting and disclosure requirements for transfers of financial assets. This accounting standard requires greater transparency and additional disclosures for transfers of financial assets and the entity's continuing involvement with them and changes the requirements for derecognizing financial assets. In addition, it eliminates the concept of a qualifying special-purpose entity (QSPE). This accounting standard is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and we do not expect this standard to have a material effect on our consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the FASB also issued an accounting standard amending the accounting and disclosure requirements for the consolidation of variable interest entities (VIEs). The elimination of the concept of a QSPE, as discussed above, removes the exception from applying the consolidation guidance within this accounting standard. Further, this accounting standard requires a company to perform a qualitative analysis when determining whether or not it must consolidate a VIE. It also requires a company to continuously reassess whether it must consolidate a VIE. Additionally, it requires enhanced disclosures about a company's involvement with VIEs and any significant change in risk exposure due to that involvement, as well as how its involvement with VIEs impacts the company's financial statements. Finally, a company will be required to disclose significant judgments and assumptions used to determine whether or not to consolidate a VIE. This accounting standard is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and we do not expect this standard to have a material effect on our consolidated financial statements.

In August 2009, the FASB issued an Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2009-05 regarding measuring liabilities at fair value. This ASU provides additional guidance clarifying the measurement of liabilities at fair value in circumstances in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available. Under those circumstances, a reporting entity is required to measure fair value using one or more of valuation techniques, as defined. This ASU is effective for the first reporting period, including interim periods, beginning after the issuance of this ASU, and the adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

In December 2009, the FASB issued ASU No. 2009-17 regarding consolidations and improvements to financial reporting by enterprises involved with VIEs. This ASU changes how a company determines when an entity that is insufficiently capitalized or is not controlled through voting should be consolidated. The determination of whether a company is required to consolidate an entity is based on, among other things, an entity's purpose and design and a company's ability to direct the activities of the entity that most significantly impact the entity's economic performance. This statement is effective for us beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2011 (October 1, 2010). We are currently assessing the potential impact that the adoption of ASU No. 2009-17 will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-01 regarding equity and accounting for distributions to shareholders with components of stock and cash. This ASU addresses the diversity in practice related to the accounting for a distribution to shareholders that offers them the ability to elect to receive their entire distribution in cash or shares of equivalent value with a potential limitation on the total amount of cash that shareholders can elect to receive in the aggregate. Historically, some entities have accounted for the stock portion of the distribution as a new share issuance that is reflected in earning per share (EPS) prospectively. Other entities have accounted for the stock portion of the distribution as a stock dividend by retroactively restating shares outstanding and EPS for all periods presented. The amendments in this ASU clarify that the stock portion of a distribution to shareholders that allows them to elect to receive cash or shares with a potential limitation on the total amount of cash that all shareholders can elect to receive in the aggregate is considered a share issuance thus eliminating the diversity in practice. The amendments in this ASU affect entities that declare dividends to shareholders that may be paid in cash or shares at the election of the shareholders with a potential limitation on the total amount of cash that all shareholders can elect to receive in the aggregate. This ASU is effective for interim and annual periods ending on or after December 15, 2009, and it is to be applied retrospectively. The adoption of this ASU did not have an impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-02 regarding accounting and reporting for decreases in ownership of a subsidiary. Under this guidance, an entity is required to deconsolidate a subsidiary when the entity ceases to have a controlling financial interest in the subsidiary. Upon deconsolidation of a subsidiary, an entity recognizes a gain or loss on the transaction and measures any retained investment in the subsidiary at fair value. In contrast, an entity is required to account for a decrease in its ownership interest of a subsidiary that does not result in a change of control of the subsidiary as an equity transaction. This ASU clarifies the scope of the decrease in ownership provisions, and expands the disclosures about the deconsolidation of a subsidiary or de-recognition of a group of assets. This ASU is effective for beginning in the first interim or annual reporting period ending on or after December 31, 2009. We are currently evaluating the impact of this ASU; however, we do not expect the adoption of this ASU to have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-06 regarding fair value measurements and disclosures and improvement in the disclosure about fair value measurements. This ASU requires additional disclosures regarding significant transfers in and out of Levels 1 and 2 of fair value measurements, including a description of the reasons for the transfers. Further, this ASU requires additional disclosures for the activity in Level 3 fair value measurements, requiring presentation of information about purchases, sales, issuances, and settlements in the reconciliation for fair value measurements. This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2010, and for interim periods within those fiscal years. We are currently evaluating the impact of this ASU; however, we do not expect the adoption of this ASU to have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In February 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-09 regarding subsequent events and amendments to certain recognition and disclosure requirements. Under this ASU, a public company that is a SEC filer, as defined, is not required to disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated. This ASU is effective upon the issuance of this ASU. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

OVERVIEW

Our operations consist of the management and operation of the Callaway Golf Center (CGC). The CGC includes a par 3 golf course fully lighted for night golf, a 110-tee two-tiered driving range, and a 20,000 square foot clubhouse, which includes the Callaway Golf fitting center, Saint Andrews Golf Shop exclusively carrying Callaway Golf product and Back 9 Bar and Grill. CGC was listed as the number one driving range in America by Golf Digest Magazine in their August 2009 issue.

The CGC has an ideal location at the end of the Las Vegas strip and near the international airport; however, much of the land immediately adjacent to the CGC has not yet been developed.

The Town Square mall, which opened in November of 2007, is expected to result in increased revenues for the Golf Center. The Town Square is a 1.5 million square foot super regional lifestyle center with a mix of retail, dining, and office space that is being developed across the street from the CGC. In addition, traffic from time-shares and casinos going up at the far south end of the strip is expected to draw more local and tourist business to the CGC.

On June 19, 2009, All-American Golf Center, Inc. (AAGC), a subsidiary of All-American SportPark, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Customer Agreement with Callaway Golf Company (Callaway) and Saint Andrews Gold Shop, Ltd. (Saint Andrews).

The Customer Agreement with Callaway provides that Callaway will provide a $250,000 annual advertising contribution in the form of golf-related products that are received by Saint Andrews Golf Shop (SAGS) as reimbursement for marketing dollars annually. The money from the value in product is then paid by SAGS to the Company as reimbursement for actual marketing expenditures. In 2009, Callaway provided $125,000 of advertising dollars in addition to a onetime payment of $750,000 to be used for operating expenses or other business expenses; a contribution of approximately $500,000 designated to upgrade range-landing area at the Callaway Golf Center; and $750,000 used to remodel and improve the facilities at the Callaway Golf Center. The facility remodel, which was completed in October of 2009, included the remodeling of SAGS, as well as the lobby and activities area of the CGC as well as indoor and outdoor signage. The range landing area remodel was completed in November of 2009. As part of the agreement, Callaway provided initial staff uniforms, range golf balls, and rental golf equipment. Additionally, Callaway will continue to provide the uniforms, golf balls, and rental equipment as needed throughout the terms of the agreement. In return, AAGC and Saint Andrews have agreed to exclusively sell Callaway golf products at the Callaway Golf Center for the term of the Customer Agreement which will terminate on December 31, 2013 with notice from Callaway during the preceding month; or, if no notice is given, December 31, 2018. We are recognizing approximately $14,000 each quarter and will continue to recognize monthly income throughout the life of the agreement, which coincides with the golf center land lease.

We believe that the advertising contribution provided by the Customer Agreement will help us to differentiate ourselves in the marketplace. In addition, the $750,000 of operating cash is expected to give us a competitive edge in the marketplace by allowing us to attract quality employees, and improve our services while lowering our interest expenses. The combined contribution of approximately $1,250,000 for improvement of our facilities is expected to provide other competitive advantages, primarily due to the lack of capital available for improvements among our competitors, giving us the benefit of a state-of-the art driving range, upgraded fitting bay technology, graphics, and marketing improvements such as exterior signage.

As part of the Customer Agreement, Callaway Golf will provide up to 15,000 dozen driving range balls to the facility on a yearly basis as well as all employee uniforms. Prior to this agreement, we were paying approximately $40,000 a year to supply the driving range with quality golf balls to enhance the driving range experience. This will provide significant operational cost savings each year to the Callaway Golf Center.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2009 VERSUS YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2008.

REVENUES. Revenues of the Callaway Golf Center (CGC) for 2009 decreased by $256,793 to $2,083,640 compared to $2,340,433 in 2008. Golf course green fees decreased by $59,843 in 2009 to $655,073 in 2009 compared to $714,916 in 2008. This was due to the general economic downtrend that Las Vegas felt as a city during the first half of 2009 and the unseasonably cold weather in December of 2009. Driving Range revenue decreased for 2009 by $121,152 to $728,614 in 2009 compared to $849,766 in 2008. This difference is attributed to Las Vegas experiencing an economic downturn during the first half of 2009. Additionally, in October of 2009 we closed our driving range for 45 days to remodel it pursuant to the new Callaway agreement. Rentals for golf carts and golf clubs decreased in 2009 by $46,815 to $313,387, as compared to $360,202 for rentals in 2008. With less tourists visiting Las Vegas, there was less need for rental clubs and rental carts during 2009. Golf lessons were down by $45,522 to $124,055 for 2009 compared to $169,577 for 2008. This decrease is attributed to the closing of the driving range for 45 days and the unseasonably cold weather in December that prevented the golf instructors from giving lessons.

COST OF REVENUES

Costs of revenues decreased $97,947 to $493,825 for 2009 as compared to $591,322 in 2008. This decrease is attributed to the lower overall revenue taken in for golf lessons during the year. There was a slight increase in payroll costs from $362,039 in 2009 over $358,824 in 2008. Other cost of goods, mainly comprised of miscellaneous golf supplies decreased significantly by $50,074 to $59,918 in 2009 as compared to $109,992 in 2008. This is the biggest immediate benefit we have seen from the new Callaway agreement. That agreement provides us with free golf balls for the driving range, where as in 2008 we were purchasing those ourselves. That was the single biggest expense for the driving range annually.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE (G&A)

G&A expenses consist principally of administrative payroll, rent, professional fees, and other corporate costs. These expenses decreased by $169,876 to $1,964,247 in 2009 from $2,134,123 in 2008. Due to the Callaway deal, we remodeled our driving range, which decreased the overall amount of water we were using at our facility by $31,000 for the year. Generally, we were able to decrease our expenses across the board by monitoring purchases and making every department accountable for their expense usage. Our legal expenses were down by $18,427 to $38,248 in 2009 as compared to $56,675 in 2008. This was due to the Urban Land case being settled in 2008.

DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION

Depreciation and amortization increased $3,896 in 2009 to $88,897 in 2009 from $85,001 in 2008. This was due to writing off some fixed assets that were no longer in use and offset by the improvements completed on the facility and range landing area.

OTHER INCOME AND INTEREST EXPENSE

Interest expense decreased in 2009 by $58,297 to $470,748 in 2009 from $529,045 in 2008. This was due to a continued effort by the company to pay down past loans and notes as money becomes available.

NET INCOME (LOSS)

In 2009, the net loss was $941,383 (before non-controlling interest) as compared to net income of $92,754 in 2008. This loss is directly attributable to the decrease in revenues due to the economic downturn that faced Las Vegas in 2009.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Working capital needs have been helped by favorable payment terms and conditions included in our notes payable to related parties. Management believes that additional notes could be negotiated, if necessary, with similar payment terms and conditions.

The Company has various notes payable to related parties (See ITEM 12 CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS). In December 2007, three notes totaling $110,000 and related interest of $102,788 were to mature but the maturity dates were extended until June 30, 2008. In December 2006, four notes totaling $220,000 and related interest of $223,651 were to mature but the maturity dates were extended until March 31, 2007. This extension was extended until June 30, 2009. These notes are now payable upon demand.

Our plan for satisfying our cash requirements for the next twelve months is by relying less on-related party financing and using the funds available through our Callaway agreement to help with any cash flow deficiencies. Because we have not anticipated generating sufficient amounts of positive cash flow to meet our working capital requirements, we have secured a customer agreement with Callaway Golf that will add additional capital to help fund our operations.

Given our operating history, predictions of future operating results are difficult to make. Thus, our prospects must be considered in light of the risks, expenses and difficulties frequently encountered by companies in their various stages of commercial viability. Such risks include, but are not limited to, an evolving business model and the management of growth. To address these risks we, among other things, plan to continue to modify our business plan, implement and execute our marketing strategy, develop and upgrade our facilities in a response to our competitor's developments.

We believe that continued development of the south strip directly adjacent to the property of the golf center, will continue to result in increased revenues.

Nevertheless, for reasons described below and in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, in its report dated March 26, 2010 the Company's independent auditors have expressed substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

As of December 2009, the Company had a working capital deficit of $7,828,775 as compared to a working capital deficit of $8,094,198 in December 2008. This change was due primarily to the continued increase in the interest associated with the notes payable for which the company currently is responsible.

Management continues to seek out financing to help fund working capital needs of the Company. In this regard, management believes that our continuing operations may not be sufficient to fund operating cash needs and debt service requirements over at least the next 12 months. Although our recent transactions with Callaway Golf and the subsequent remodel of the driving range have provided us with greater cash flow, we nonetheless need to obtain additional financing to fund payment of obligations and to provide working capital for operations. Management believes additional borrowings against the CGC could be arranged although there can be no assurance that the Company would be successful in securing such financing or with terms acceptable to the Company. Management is always seeking additional financing, and is now looking for a merger or acquisition candidate. It is management's objective to review the acquisition of interests in various business opportunities, which in their opinion will provide a profit to the Company. Callaway Golf was one of these additional financing opportunities and management believes these efforts will generate sufficient cash flows from future operations to pay the Company's obligations and working capital needs. There is no assurance any of these transactions will occur. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might result should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Among its alternative courses of action, management of the Company may seek out and pursue a business combination transaction with an existing private business enterprise that might have a desire to take advantage of the Company's status as a public corporation. There is no assurance that the Company will acquire a favorable business opportunity through a business combination. In addition, even if the Company becomes involved in such a business opportunity, there is no assurance that it would generate revenues or profits, or that the market price of the Company's common stock would be increased thereby.

John Boreta has been employed by All-American Golf Center (AAGC), a subsidiary, as its general manager for over 12 years. On June 15, 2009, AAGC entered into an employment agreement with John Boreta. ("AAGC"), a subsidiary of the Company, to Saint Andrews Golf Shop, Ltd. ("Saint Andrews") in exchange for the cancellation of $600,000 of debt owed by the Company to Saint Andrews. The transfer of 49% of the common stock of AAGC was authorized by the Company's Board of Directors at which all of the Company's Directors voted in favor of the transfer, except that Ronald Boreta abstained from such vote. In connection with this transaction, the Company engaged Houlihan Valuation Advisors ("HVA") to provide an estimate of the fair market value of a 49% interest in AAGC. As a result of their analysis, HVA was of the opinion that the fair market value of a 49% interest in AAGC was approximately $600,000. The Board of Directors determined to use this value as the amount to be received from Saint Andrews for the 49% interest.

Saint Andrews is owned by Ronald Boreta and John Boreta, his brother. John Boreta is also a principal shareholder of the Company. The debt owed by the Company to Saint Andrews was from advances made in the past by Saint Andrews to provide the Company with working capital.

The Company's Board of Directors believes that the terms of the above transactions were on terms no less favorable to the Company than if they transactions were with unrelated third parties.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders
All-American SportPark, Inc.
Las Vegas, NV

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of All-American SportPark, Inc. and Subsidiary (the Company) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders deficit, and cash flows for each of the years in the two year period ended December 31, 2009. The Company s management is responsible for these consolidated financial statements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of All-American SportPark, Inc. and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the two year period ended December 31, 2009 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1d to the consolidated financial statements, the Company s current liabilities exceed current assets and has incurred recurring losses, all of which raise substantial doubt about the Company s ability to continue as a going concern. Management s plans in regards to these matters are also described in Note 1d. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

ALL-AMERICAN SPORTPARK, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

a. PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements of All-American SportPark, Inc. (AASP), include the accounts of AASP and its wholly owned subsidiary, All-American Golf Center, Inc. (AAGC), collectively the Company . All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. The Company 's business operations consists solely of the Callaway Golf Center (CGC) are included in AAGC.

b. BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

The CGC includes the Divine Nine par 3 golf course fully lighted for night golf, a 110-tee two-tiered driving range, a 20,000 square foot clubhouse which includes the Callaway Golf fitting center and two tenants: the St. Andrews Golf Shop retail store, and a restaurant.

Because our business activities are not structured on the basis of different services provided, the above activities are reviewed, evaluated and reported as a single reportable segment. The Company is based in and operates solely in Las Vegas, Nevada, and does not receive revenues from other geographic areas although its tourist customers come from elsewhere. No one customer of the Company comprises more than 10% of the Company's revenues.

c. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK

The Company has implemented various strategies to market the CGC to Las Vegas tourists and local residents. Should attendance levels at the CGC not meet expectations in the short-term, management believes existing cash balances would not be sufficient to fund operating expenses and debt service requirements for at least the next 12 months.

d. GOING CONCERN MATTERS

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As shown in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, for 2009, the Company had net loss of $941,383. As of December 31, 2009, the Company had a working capital deficit of $8,917,815 and a shareholders' equity deficiency of $9,577,750.

AASP management believes that its continuing operations may not be sufficient to fund operating cash needs and debt service requirements over at least the next 12 months. As such, management plans on seeking other sources of funding including the restructuring of current debt as needed, which may include Company officers or directors and/or other related parties. In addition, management continues to analyze all operational and administrative costs of the Company and has made and will continue to make the necessary cost reductions as appropriate.

The inability to build attendance to profitable levels beyond a 12-month period may require the Company to seek additional debt, restructure existing debt or equity financing to meet its obligations as they come due. There is no assurance that the Company would be successful in securing such debt or equity financing in amounts or with terms acceptable to the Company.

Nevertheless, management continues to seek out financing to help fund working capital needs of the Company. In this regard, management believes that additional borrowings against the CGC could be arranged although there can be no assurance that the Company would be successful in securing such financing or with terms acceptable to the Company.

Among its alternative courses of action, management of the Company may seek out and pursue a business combination transaction with an existing private business enterprise that might have a desire to take advantage of the Company's status as a public corporation. There is no assurance that the Company will acquire a favorable business opportunity through a business combination. In addition, even if the Company becomes involved in such a business opportunity, there is no assurance that it would generate revenues or profits, or that the market price of the Company's common stock would be increased thereby.

The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability of assets and the classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

e. ESTIMATES USED IN THE PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that may require revision in future periods.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the differences between the financial statements and tax basis of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. The effect of a change in tax rates on deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. The Company records net deferred tax assets to the extent the Company believes these assets will more likely than not be realized. In making such determination, the Company considers all available positive and negative evidence, including future reversals of existing taxable temporary differences, projected future taxable income, tax planning strategies and recent financial operations. A valuation allowance is established against deferred tax assets that do not meet the criteria for recognition.

In the event the Company were to determine that it would be able to realize deferred income tax assets in the future in excess of their net recorded amount, the Company would make an adjustment to the valuation allowance which would reduce the provision for income taxes.

The Company follows the accounting guidance which provides that a tax benefit from an uncertain tax position may be recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits. Income tax positions must meet a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold at the effective date to be recognized initially and in subsequent periods. Also included is guidance on measurement, derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

b. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company accounts for all compensation related to stock, options or warrants using a fair value based method whereby compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the value of the award and is recognized over the service period, which is usually the vesting period. The Company uses the Black-Scholes pricing model to calculate the fair value of options and warrants issued to both employees and non-employees. Stock issued for compensation is valued using the market price of the stock on the date of the related agreement.

c. LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS AND EQUIPMENT

Leasehold improvements and equipment (Note 5) are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization is provided for on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the lease term (including renewal periods, when the Company has both the intent and ability to extend the lease) or the following estimated useful lives of the assets:

Furniture and equipment	3-10 years
Leasehold improvements	15-25 years

d. ADVERTISING

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Advertising costs charged to continuing operations amounted to $22,866 and $40,000 in 2009 and 2008, respectively.

e. REVENUES

The Company primarily earns revenue from golf course green fees, driving range ball rentals and golf and cart rentals, which are recognized when received as payments for the services provided. The Company also receives marketing revenue associated with the Callaway Agreement that they realize equally on a monthly basis over the life of the agreement. Lease and sponsorship revenues are recognized as appropriate when earned.

f. COST OF REVENUES

Cost of revenues is primarily comprised of golf course and driving range employee payroll and benefits, operating supplies (e.g., driving range golf balls and golf course scorecards, etc.), and credit card/check processing fees.

g. GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

General and administrative expenses consist principally of management, accounting and other administrative employee payroll and benefits, land lease expense, utilities, landscape maintenance costs, and other expenses (e.g., office supplies, marketing/advertising, and professional fees, etc.).

h. IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS

Long-lived assets, including property and equipment, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the long-lived asset may not be recoverable. If the long-lived asset or group of assets is considered to be impaired, an impairment charge is recognized for the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset or group of assets exceeds its fair value. Long-lived assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell. Long-lived assets were evaluated for possible impairment and determined not to be impaired as of December 31, 2009.

i. LEGAL DEFENSE COSTS

The Company does not accrue for estimated future legal and related defense costs, if any, to be incurred in connection with outstanding or threatened litigation and other disputed matters but rather, records such as period costs when the services are rendered.

j. LEASES

The Company leases land and equipment. Leases are evaluated and classified as operating or capital leases for financial reporting purposes. The lease term used for lease evaluation related to the land includes option periods as the Company believes the option period can be reasonably assured and failure to exercise such option would result in an economic penalty. For equipment, option periods are included only in instances in which the exercise of the option period can be reasonably assured and failure to exercise such options would result in economic penalty.

k. RECENT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The FASB Accounting Standards Codification is the single official source of authoritative, nongovernmental, U.S. GAAP, in addition to guidance issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. This codification is designed to simplify U.S. GAAP into a single, topically ordered structure.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard that requires disclosures about fair value of financial instruments not measured on the balance sheet at fair value in interim financial statements as well as in annual financial statements. Prior to this accounting standard, fair values for these assets and liabilities were only required to be disclosed annually. This standard applies to all financial instruments within its scope and requires all entities to disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments. This standard does not require disclosures for earlier periods presented for comparative purposes at initial adoption, but in periods after the initial adoption, this standard requires comparative disclosures only for periods ending after initial adoption. This accounting standard became effective for us beginning with the quarter ended on June 30, 2009; however, it did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard amending the accounting and disclosure requirements for transfers of financial assets. This accounting standard requires greater transparency and additional disclosures for transfers of financial assets and the entity's continuing involvement with them and changes the requirements for derecognizing financial assets. In addition, it eliminates the concept of a qualifying special-purpose entity (QSPE). This accounting standard is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and we do not expect this standard to have a material effect on our consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the FASB also issued an accounting standard amending the accounting and disclosure requirements for the consolidation of variable interest entities (VIEs). The elimination of the concept of a QSPE, as discussed above, removes the exception from applying the consolidation guidance within this accounting standard. Further, this accounting standard requires a company to perform a qualitative analysis when determining whether or not it must consolidate a VIE. It also requires a company to continuously reassess whether it must consolidate a VIE. Additionally, it requires enhanced disclosures about a company's involvement with VIEs and any significant change in risk exposure due to that involvement, as well as how its involvement with VIEs impacts the company's financial statements. Finally, a company will be required to disclose significant judgments and assumptions used to determine whether or not to consolidate a VIE. This accounting standard is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and we do not expect this standard to have a material effect on our consolidated financial statements.

In August 2009, the FASB issued an Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2009-05 regarding measuring liabilities at fair value. This ASU provides additional guidance clarifying the measurement of liabilities at fair value in circumstances in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available. Under those circumstances, a reporting entity is required to measure fair value using one or more of valuation techniques, as defined. This ASU is effective for the first reporting period, including interim periods, beginning after the issuance of this ASU, and the adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

In December 2009, the FASB issued ASU No. 2009-17 regarding consolidations and improvements to financial reporting by enterprises involved with VIEs. This ASU changes how a company determines when an entity that is insufficiently capitalized or is not controlled through voting should be consolidated. The determination of whether a company is required to consolidate an entity is based on, among other things, an entity's purpose and design and a company's ability to direct the activities of the entity that most significantly impact the entity's economic performance. This statement is effective for us beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2011 (October 1, 2010). We are currently assessing the potential impact that the adoption of ASU No. 2009-17 will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-01 regarding equity and accounting for distributions to shareholders with components of stock and cash. This ASU addresses the diversity in practice related to the accounting for a distribution to shareholders that offers them the ability to elect to receive their entire distribution in cash or shares of equivalent value with a potential limitation on the total amount of cash that shareholders can elect to receive in the aggregate. Historically, some entities have accounted for the stock portion of the distribution as a new share issuance that is reflected in earning per share (EPS) prospectively. Other entities have accounted for the stock portion of the distribution as a stock dividend by retroactively restating shares outstanding and EPS for all periods presented. The amendments in this ASU clarify that the stock portion of a distribution to shareholders that allows them to elect to receive cash or shares with a potential limitation on the total amount of cash that all shareholders can elect to receive in the aggregate is considered a share issuance thus eliminating the diversity in practice. The amendments in this ASU affect entities that declare dividends to shareholders that may be paid in cash or shares at the election of the shareholders with a potential limitation on the total amount of cash that all shareholders can elect to receive in the aggregate. This ASU is effective for interim and annual periods ending on or after December 15, 2009, and it is to be applied retrospectively. The adoption of this ASU did not have an impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-02 regarding accounting and reporting for decreases in ownership of a subsidiary. Under this guidance, an entity is required to deconsolidate a subsidiary when the entity ceases to have a controlling financial interest in the subsidiary. Upon deconsolidation of a subsidiary, an entity recognizes a gain or loss on the transaction and measures any retained investment in the subsidiary at fair value. In contrast, an entity is required to account for a decrease in its ownership interest of a subsidiary that does not result in a change of control of the subsidiary as an equity transaction. This ASU clarifies the scope of the decrease in ownership provisions, and expands the disclosures about the deconsolidation of a subsidiary or de-recognition of a group of assets. This ASU is effective for beginning in the first interim or annual reporting period ending on or after December 31, 2009. We are currently evaluating the impact of this ASU; however, we do not expect the adoption of this ASU to have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-06 regarding fair value measurements and disclosures and improvement in the disclosure about fair value measurements. This ASU requires additional disclosures regarding significant transfers in and out of Levels 1 and 2 of fair value measurements, including a description of the reasons for the transfers. Further, this ASU requires additional disclosures for the activity in Level 3 fair value measurements, requiring presentation of information about purchases, sales, issuances, and settlements in the reconciliation for fair value measurements. This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2010, and for interim periods within those fiscal years. We are currently evaluating the impact of this ASU; however, we do not expect the adoption of this ASU to have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In February 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-09 regarding subsequent events and amendments to certain recognition and disclosure requirements. Under this ASU, a public company that is a SEC filer, as defined, is not required to disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated. This ASU is effective upon the issuance of this ASU. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

3. EARNINGS (LOSS) PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share excludes any dilutive effects of options, warrants, and convertible securities. Basic earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of shares of common stock and common stock equivalent shares outstanding during the period. Common stock equivalent shares are excluded from the computation if their effect is antidilutive. The Company did not have any stock equivalent shares for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008.

Loss per share is computed by dividing reported net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. The weighted-average number of common shares used in the calculation of basic loss per share was 3,570,000 and 3,519,000 in 2009 and 2008.

In March 2009, we engaged the services of an independent third party business valuation firm, Houlihan Valuation Advisors, to determine the fair value of the business and the corresponding minority interest. Based on the Minority Value Estimate presented in connection with this appraisal, which included valuations utilizing the income, market and transaction approaches in its valuation methodology, the fair value of a 49% interest totaled $ 600,000 .

The land underlying the CGC is leased under an operating lease that expires in 2012 and has two five-year renewal options. In March 2006, the Company exercised the first of two options, extending the lease to 2018. Also, the lease has a provision for contingent rent to be paid by AAGC upon reaching certain levels of gross revenues. The Company recognizes the minimum rental expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, which includes the two five year renewal options.

The Company is also obligated under a non-cancelable operating lease for equipment that expire year in 2009.

At December 31, 2009, minimum future lease payments under non-cancelable operating leases are as follows:

2014	$	529,840.00
Thereafter	$	4,371,184.00

Total rent expense for all operating leases was $481,673 for 2009 and $486,060 for 2008.

Customer Agreement

On June 19, 2009, we entered into a Customer Agreement with Callaway Golf Company and St. Andrews Golf Shop, Ltd. through our majority owned subsidiary AAGC. Pursuant to this agreement, we have agreed to market and sell Callaway products exclusively through AAGC for a period of approximately three and one half years with an automatic extension to December 31, 2018 unless written notice of termination is received by November 2013. Pursuant to the agreement, Callaway Golf Company has agreed to provide funding and resources in the minimum amount of $2,750,000 to be allocated as follows: 1) $750,000 towards operating expenses; 2) $750,000 facility improvements; 3) $500,000 in range landing area improvements and 4) three payments each of $250,000 for annual advertising expenses which will be repaid in golf merchandise. On July 1, 2009, we received the initial installment of $750,000. The annual payments for advertising will continue as long as Callaway Golf Company and AAGC agree to maintain that relationship. We have recognized approximately $33,000 of income this year and will continue to recognize income in the amount of $4,600 per month through the life of the agreement, which continues through December 2018 and has an additional 5-year option to coincide with the golf center land lease.

The facility has realized approximately $600,000 in facility improvements including remodeling of SAGS, the lobby and activities area of CGC, the range landing area and indoor and outdoor signage.

8. INCOME TAXES

Income tax expense (benefit) consists of the following:

	2009	2008
Current	$ (320,070)	$ 31,536
Deferred	320,070	(31,536)

The components of the deferred tax asset (liability) consisted of the following at December 31:

	2009		2008
Deferred tax liabilities
Temporary differences related to:
Depreciation	$ (232,902)	$	(260,317)
Deferred tax assets:
Net operating loss carryforward	7,135,286		6,815,216
Related party interest	1,316,970		1,172,987
Deferred marketing revenue	234,816		-
Deferred rent liability	12,596		192,387
Other	110,175		11,406
Net deferred tax asset before valuation allowance	8,466,766		7,931,679
Valuation allowance	(8,466,766)		(7,931,679)

As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company has available for income tax purposes approximately $210.0 and $20.0 million respectively in federal net operating loss carryforwards, which may be available to offset future taxable income. These loss carryforwards expire in 2019 through 2028. The Company may be limited by Internal Revenue Code Section 382 in its ability to fully utilize its net operating loss carryforwards due to possible future ownership changes. A 100% valuation allowance has been effectively established against the net deferred tax asset since it appears more likely than not that it will not be realized.

The provision (benefit) for income taxes attributable to income (loss) from continuing operations does not differ materially from the amount computed at the federal income tax statutory rate.

9. CAPITAL STOCK, STOCK OPTIONS, AND INCENTIVES

a. CAPITAL STOCK

There are no unusual rights or privileges related to the ownership of the Company's common stock.

In 2008, the Company issued a total of 68,000 shares of common stock to two people in a private transaction. The shares were issued to employees for their service to the Company. Since the shares were for prior services, the Company expensed the stock issuance as bonus expense based upon the grant date fair value of the stock issued totaling $15,300.

b. STOCK OPTION PLANS

The Company's Board of Directors adopted an incentive stock option plan in 1994 (the "1994 Plan").

In 1996, 325,000 options were granted to the Company's President under the 1994 Plan at an exercise price of $3.06, the fair market value on the grant date. These options expired unexercised in April 2001. Because of this expiration, 325,000 new options were granted to the Company's President at an exercise price of $0.055, the market value on the date of grant; these options expired in April 2006.

In April 2000, 50,000 options were granted at an exercise price of $0.8125 per share, the closing market price on the date of grant. These options expired unexercised in April 2005.

In 1998, the Board of Directors and shareholders approved the 1998 stock incentive plan (the "1998 Plan").

Pursuant to the 1998 Plan, in 1999, the Board of Directors of the Company approved an award to the President of the Company, stock appreciation rights ("SAR") equal to 125,000 shares independent of any stock option under the Plan. The base value of the SAR is $6 per share, however no SAR may be exercised unless and until the market price of the Company's common stock equals or exceeds $10 per share. Amounts to be paid under this agreement are solely in cash and are not to exceed $500,000. The SAR expired on October 26, 2008.

The 1998 Plan has now expired.

In 1998, Urban Land of Nevada Inc. (Urban Land) (Note 10), the landlord of the property underlying the CGC, was granted 75,000 stock options. These options are exercisable at $4.00 per share through the year 2008. 10,000 of these options vested upon grant of the options, and 10,000 per year thereafter until fully vested. As of December 31, 2008, these options had expired.

A summary of changes in the status of the Company's outstanding stock options for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 is presented below:

Forfeited	-	-	-	-
Expired	-	-	(75,000)	-
End of year	-	-	-	-
Exercisable at end of year	-	-	-	-

There are no outstanding stock options at December 31, 2009.

10. LEGAL MATTERS

The Company was plaintiff in a lawsuit against Western Technologies and was awarded a judgment of $660,000 in March 2003. Western Technologies had appealed the judgment to the Nevada Supreme Court (the "Court"). Western Technologies was required to and did file a bond in the amount of the judgment to date, which was approximately $1,180,000 including the judgment, interest, and attorney's fees. In October 2006, the "Court" ruled in favor of the defendant, but it was not until August 2007 that an agreement was reached and all parties signed a Settlement Agreement. The Company received a total of $550,000 and a net after attorney's fees of $300,000, which was used to finish repairs on the facility and for some upgrades.

In December 2005, the Company commenced an arbitration proceeding before the American Arbitration Association against Urban Land of Nevada ("Urban Land") seeking reimbursement of the $800,000 paid in settlement of a legal matter involving Sierra SportService plus fees and costs pursuant to the terms of the Company's agreements with Urban Land which owns the property on which the CGC is located. Urban Land filed a counterclaim against the Company seeking to recover damages related to back rent allegedly owed by Company of approximately $600,000. In addition, Urban Land claimed the Company misused an alleged $880,000 settlement related to construction defects lawsuits.

Urban land also filed another lawsuit against the Company and claims against other parties in the arbitration proceeding. The claims against the Company were essentially identical to the claims above. The other parties included, among others, Ronald S. Boreta, the President of the Company; Vaso Boreta, Chairman of the Board of the Company; and Boreta Enterprise, Ltd., a principal shareholder of the Company. The other party claims alleged that the Company and others defrauded or otherwise injured Urban Land in connection with Urban Land entering into certain agreements in which the Company is a party. A summary judgment was issued in this case in the favor of the Company in June 2008.

On February 10, 2006, Urban Land filed a notice of default on the CGC ground lease claiming that certain repairs to the property had not been performed or documented. The Company filed a lawsuit in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County Nevada to prevent Urban Land from declaring the Company in default of its lease. The claims in the notice of default were added to the arbitration proceeding. A summary judgment was awarded to the Company in February 2008 in this proceeding.

On September 15, 2008, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with Urban Land pursuant to which all of the outstanding claims between Urban Land, the Company and certain other related parties. As a result of the settlement agreement, the appeal pending before the Nevada Supreme Court and the arbitration proceedings involving the parties were ended.

Under the terms of the settlement agreement, Urban Land agreed to pay the Company $850,000 for the Sierra SportService matter. Further, Urban Land will not charge any rent for the ground lease on the Callaway Golf Center for the months of October 2008 through March 2009.

Effective on April 1, 2009, the minimum rent under the lease will be approximately $40,140 per month which amount will be subject to certain increases in October 2012 and October 2017. In addition, Urban Land's 35% interest in the Company's All American Golf Center, Inc. subsidiary was cancelled. For the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company recognized other income totaling $478,054.

As part of the settlement, Urban Land also paid ASI Group, LLC, a principal shareholder of the Company, $185,877 for legal expenses and released certain other related parties from any liability in connection with the legal proceedings.

11. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Upon our evaluation of events and transactions that have occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date, we have determined that there are no additional material events which have occurred after the balance sheet date that would be deemed significant or require recognition or additional disclosure.
