CONN'S, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(unaudited)

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation. The accompanying unaudited, consolidated financial statements of Conn's, Inc. and all of its wholly-owned subsidiaries (the "Company") have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. The accompanying financial statements reflect all adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature, except as otherwise described herein. The Company's business is moderately seasonal, with a higher portion of sales and operating profit realized during the quarter that ends January 31, due primarily to the holiday selling season. Operating results for the nine-month period ended October 31, 2013 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full fiscal year ending January 31, 2014. The financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2013, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 4, 2013.

The Company's balance sheet at January 31, 2013, has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for a complete financial presentation. Please see the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for a complete presentation of the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2013, together with all required footnotes, and for a complete presentation and explanation of the components and presentations of the financial statements.

Principles of Consolidation. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Conn's, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Conn's, Inc. is a holding company with no independent assets or operations other than its investments in its subsidiaries. All material intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

In April 2012, the Company transferred certain customer receivables to a bankruptcy-remote, variable-interest entity ("VIE") in connection with a securitization. The VIE, which is consolidated within the accompanying financial statements, issued debt secured by the customer receivables that were transferred to it, which were included in customer accounts receivable and long-term portion of customer accounts receivable on the consolidated balance sheet as of January 31, 2013. On April 15, 2013, the VIE redeemed the then outstanding asset-backed notes and the remaining customer receivables were transferred back to the Company.

The Company determined that the VIE should be consolidated within its financial statements due to the fact that it qualified as the primary beneficiary of the VIE based on the following considerations:

- The Company directed the activities that generated the customer receivables that were transferred to the VIE;
- The Company directed the servicing activities related to the collection of the customer receivables transferred to the VIE;
- The Company absorbed losses incurred by the VIE to the extent of its interest in the VIE before any other investors incurred losses; and
- The Company had the right to receive benefits generated by the VIE after paying the contractual amounts due to the other investors.

Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Table of Contents

Earnings per Share. Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share include the dilutive effects of any stock options and restricted stock units granted, to the extent not anti-dilutive, which is calculated using the treasury-stock method. The following table sets forth the shares outstanding for the earnings per share calculations:

|  | Three Months EndedOctober 31, |        |

| (in thousands)                                       | 2013                              | 2012   |
| Weighted average common shares outstanding - Basic   | 35,955                            | 32,553 |
| Assumed exercise of stock options                    | 790                               | 829    |
| Unvested restricted stock units                      | 220                               | 157    |
| Weighted average common shares outstanding - Diluted | 36,965                            | 33,539 |
|  | Nine Months EndedOctober 31,  |        |
| (in thousands)                                       | 2013                              | 2012   |
| Weighted average common shares outstanding - Basic   | 35,686                            | 32,387 |
| Assumed exercise of stock options                    | 892                               | 689    |
| Unvested restricted stock units                      | 217                               | 131    |
| Weighted average common shares outstanding - Diluted | 36,795                            | 33,207 |

There were no anti-dilutive stock options or restricted stock units for the three and nine months ended October 31, 2013. The weighted average number of stock options and restricted stock units not included in the calculation due to their anti-dilutive effect was 0.3 million and 0.7 million for the three and nine months ended October 31, 2012, respectively.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments. The fair value of cash and cash equivalents and accounts payable approximate their carrying amounts because of the short maturity of these instruments. The fair value of customer accounts receivables, determined using a discounted cash flow analysis, approximates their carrying amount. The fair value of the Company's debt approximates carrying value due to the recent date at which the facility has been renewed. The Company's interest rate cap options are presented on the balance sheet at fair value. Fair value of these instruments were determined using Level 2 inputs of the GAAP hierarchy, which are defined as inputs not quoted in active markets, but are either directly or indirectly observable.

2. Charges and Credits

The Company recorded the following charges during the first nine months of fiscal year 2014:

As further discussed in Note 5, the Company closed two stores, revised its estimate of future obligations related to other closed stores and relocated certain other facilities during the three months ended October 31, 2013. This resulted in a pre-tax charge of $2,834 thousand ($1,834 thousand after-tax). This amount is reported within the retail segment and classified in charges and credits in the consolidated statement of operations.

The Company recorded the following charges during the first nine months of fiscal year 2013:

During the three months ended October 31, 2012, the Company incurred $641 thousand in pre-tax costs ($415 thousand after-tax) in connection with the relocation of certain of its corporate operations from Beaumont to The Woodlands, Texas. This amount is reported within the retail segment and classified in charges and credits in the consolidated statement of operations. Additionally, the Company amended and restated its asset-based loan facility with a syndicate of banks on September 26, 2012. In connection with the transaction, the Company expensed $818 thousand ($530 thousand after-tax) of previously deferred transaction costs associated with lenders which are no longer in the current syndicate of banks. This amount is reported within the credit segment and classified in loss on extinguishment of debt in the consolidated statement of operations.

During the three months ended July 31, 2012, the Company incurred $346 thousand in pre-tax costs ($224 thousand after-tax) in connection with the relocation of certain of its corporate operations from Beaumont to The Woodlands, Texas.

This amount is reported within the retail segment and classified in charges and credits in the consolidated statement of operations.

During the three months ended April 30, 2012, the Company accrued the lease buyout costs related to one of its store closures and revised its estimate of future obligations related to its other closed stores. This resulted in a pre-tax charge of $163 thousand ($106 thousand after-tax). This amount is reported within the retail segment and classified in charges and credits in the consolidated statement of operations.

3. Supplemental Disclosure of Customer Receivables

Customer accounts receivable are originated at the time of sale and delivery of the various products and services. The Company records the amount of principal and accrued interest on customer receivables that is expected to be collected within the next twelve months, based on contractual terms, in current assets on its consolidated balance sheet. Those amounts expected to be collected after twelve months, based on contractual terms, are included in long-term assets. Typically, customer receivables are considered delinquent if a payment has not been received on the scheduled due date. Accounts that are delinquent more than 209 days as of the end of a month are charged-off against the allowance for doubtful accounts and interest accrued subsequent to the last payment is reversed and charged against the allowance for uncollectible interest.

As part of its efforts in mitigating losses on its accounts receivable, the Company may make loan modifications to a borrower experiencing financial difficulty that are intended to maximize the net cash flow after expenses, and avoid the need for repossession of collateral. The Company may extend the loan term, refinance or otherwise re-age an account. Accounts that have been re-aged in excess of three months or refinanced are considered Troubled Debt Restructurings (“TDR”).

The Company uses risk-rating criteria to differentiate underwriting requirements, potentially requiring differing down payment and initial application and documentation criteria. The following tables present quantitative information about the receivables portfolio managed by the Company, segregated by segment:

| (in thousands)   | Total Outstanding Balance |             |                      |             |             |             |

(1) Amounts are based on end of period balances. As an account can become past due after having been re-aged, accounts may be presented in both the past due and re-aged columns shown above. The amounts included within both the past due and re-aged columns shown above as of October 31, 2013 and January 31, 2013 were $24.7 million and $20.7 million, respectively. The total amount of customer receivables past due one day or greater was $228.7 million and $172.4 million as of October 31, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively. These amounts include the 60 days past due totals shown above.

In addition to the amounts included in restructured accounts, there are $1.4 million and $1.9 million as of (2) October 31, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively, of accounts re-aged four or more months included in the re-aged balance above that did not qualify as TDRs because they were not re-aged subsequent to January 31, 2011.

(1) Includes provision for uncollectible interest, which is included in finance charges and other.

Charge-offs include the principal amount of losses (excluding accrued and unpaid interest), and recoveries include principal collections during the period shown of previously charged-off balances. Net charge-offs are calculated as the net of principal charge-offs and recoveries.

The Company records an allowance for doubtful accounts, including estimated uncollectible interest, for its customer accounts receivable, based on its historical cash collections and net loss experience using a projection of monthly delinquency performance, cash collections and losses. In addition to pre-charge-off cash collections and charge-off information, estimates of post-charge-off recoveries, including cash payments, amounts realized from the repossession of the products financed and, at times, payments received under credit insurance policies are also considered.

The Company determines reserves for those accounts that are TDRs based on the present value of cash flows expected to be collected over the life of those accounts. The excess of the carrying amount over the discounted cash flow amount is recorded as a reserve for loss on those accounts.

The Company typically only places accounts in non-accrual status when legally required. Payment received on non-accrual loans will be applied to principal and reduce the amount of the loan. Interest accrual is resumed on those accounts once a legally-mandated settlement arrangement is reached or other payment arrangements are made with the customer. Customer receivables in non-accrual status were $11.0 million and $9.0 million at October 31, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively. Customer receivables that were past due 90 days or more and still accruing interest totaled $55.3 million and $36.6 million at October 31, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively.

4. Supplemental Disclosure of Finance Charges and Other Revenue

The following is a summary of the classification of the amounts included as finance charges and other for the three and nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012:

| (in thousands)                                   | Three Months Ended |          | Nine Months Ended |           |
|--|--------------------|----------|-------------------|-----------|
|  | October 31,        |          | October 31,       |           |
|  | 2013               | 2012     | 2013              | 2012      |
| Interest income and fees on customer receivables | $40,260           | $32,458 | $109,667         | $90,915  |
| Insurance commissions                            | 13,132             | 6,280    | 31,688            | 17,001    |
| Other  | 438                | 340      | 1,067             | 857       |
| Finance charges and other                        | $53,830           | $39,078 | $142,422         | $108,773 |

Interest income and fees on customer receivables is reduced by provisions for uncollectible interest of $4.2 million and $1.9 million, respectively, for the three months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, and $9.4 million and $5.9 million, respectively, for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012. The amount included in interest income and fees on customer receivables related to TDR accounts was $1.1 million and $0.9 million for each of the three months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and $3.2 million and $3.1 million for each of the nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively. The Company recognizes interest income on TDR accounts using the interest income method, which requires reporting interest income equal to the increase in the net carrying amount of the loan attributable to the passage of time. Cash proceeds and other adjustments are applied to the net carrying amount of TDR accounts such that it always equals the present value of expected future cash flows.

5. Accrual for Store Closures

During the three months ended October 31, 2013, the Company revised its estimates related to remaining lease obligations, net of estimated sublease income, for certain facilities closed prior to January 31, 2013. The loss of a sublease tenant and other market events during the quarter resulted in a $2.0 million charge to income and a related increase in the recorded obligation. Additionally, the Company closed two retail locations that did not perform at a level the Company currently expects for mature store locations and relocated certain other facilities, incurring related costs of $0.8 million. Reported within charges and credits for the retail segment in the accompanying, facility-related closure costs totaled $2.8 million for the quarter ended October 31, 2013.

During fiscal 2013 and 2012, the Company closed two and 11 retail locations, respectively, that did not perform at a level the Company expects for mature store locations. Certain of the closed stores had unexpired leases, resulting in the accrual of the present value of remaining lease obligations and anticipated ancillary occupancy costs, net of estimated sublease income. Revisions to these projections for changes in estimated marketing times and sublease rates are made to the obligation as further information related to the actual terms and costs become available. The estimates were calculated using Level 2 fair value inputs. The following table presents detail of the activity in the accrual for store closures during the nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012:

6. Debt and Letters of Credit

The Company's long-term debt consisted of the following at the period ended:

| (in thousands)                               | October 31,2013 | January 31,2013 |
|--|---------------------|---------------------|
| Asset-based revolving credit facility        | $421,328           | $262,401           |
| Asset-backed notes, net of discount of $205 | —                   | 32,307              |
| Other long-term debt                         | 1,360               | 349                 |
| Total debt                                   | 422,688             | 295,057             |
| Less current portion of debt                 | 527                 | 32,526              |
| Long-term debt                               | $422,161           | $262,531           |

The Company's asset-based revolving credit facility with a syndicate of banks had capacity of $585 million as of October 31, 2013. The revolving credit facility provides funding based on a borrowing base calculation that includes customer accounts receivable and inventory. The amended and restated credit facility bears interest at LIBOR plus a spread ranging from 275 basis points to 350 basis points, based on a leverage ratio (defined as total liabilities to tangible net worth). In addition to the leverage ratio, the revolving credit facility includes a fixed charge coverage requirement, a minimum customer receivables cash recovery percentage requirement and a net capital expenditures limit. The asset-based revolving credit facility restricts the amount of dividends the Company can pay and is secured by the assets of the Company not otherwise encumbered.

As of October 31, 2013, the Company had immediately available borrowing capacity of approximately $162.3 million under its asset-based revolving credit facility, net of standby letters of credit issued, for general corporate purposes. The Company pays additional fees in the amount of 25 basis points for the additional commitment amount.

The Company's asset-based revolving credit facility provides it the ability to utilize letters of credit to secure its deductibles under the Company's property and casualty insurance programs, among other acceptable uses. At October 31, 2013, the Company had outstanding letters of credit of $1.3 million under this facility. The maximum potential amount of future payments under these letter of credit facilities is considered to be the aggregate face amount of each letter of credit commitment, which totals $1.3 million as of October 31, 2013.

The Company was in compliance with its financial covenants at October 31, 2013.

On April 30, 2012, the Company's VIE issued $103.7 million of asset-backed notes which bore interest at 4.0% and were sold at a discount to deliver a 5.21% yield, before considering transaction costs. The principal balance of the notes, which was secured by certain customer receivables, was reduced on a monthly basis by collections on the underlying customer receivables after the payment of interest and other expenses of the VIE. While the final maturity for the notes was April 2016, the Company repaid the outstanding note balance in April 2013. In connection with the early repayment of the asset-backed notes, the Company accelerated the amortization of deferred financing cost resulting in an additional $0.4 million of interest expense during the first quarter of fiscal 2014.

7. Contingencies

The Company is involved in routine litigation and claims incidental to its business from time to time, and, as required, has accrued its estimate of the probable costs for the resolution of these matters, which, individually or in the aggregate, are not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows. These estimates have been developed in consultation with counsel and are based upon an analysis of potential results, assuming a combination of litigation and settlement strategies. However, the results of these proceedings cannot be predicted with certainty, and changes in facts and circumstances could impact the Company's estimate of reserves for litigation.

Selling, general and administrative expenses include the direct expenses of the retail and credit operations, allocated overhead expenses and a charge to the credit segment to reimburse the retail segment for expenses it incurs related to occupancy, personnel, advertising and other direct costs of the retail segment which benefit the credit operations by sourcing credit customers and collecting payments. The reimbursement received by the retail segment from the credit segment is estimated using an annual rate of 2.5% times the average portfolio balance for (a) each applicable period. The amount of overhead allocated to each segment was $2.9 million and $2.3 million for the three months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and $8.0 million and $6.5 million for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively. The amount of reimbursement made to the retail segment by the credit segment was $5.6 million and $4.2 million for the three months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and $15.3 million and $12.2 million for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

9. Subsequent Event

On November 25, 2013, the Company completed an expansion and extension of its asset-based loan facility with a syndicate of banks. Under the amended terms, the revolving credit facility commitment increased $265.0 million to $850.0 million and the maturity date was extended to November 2017. The amended credit facility bears interest at LIBOR plus a spread ranging from 250 basis points to 325 basis points, based on a leverage ratio (defined as total liabilities to tangible net worth).

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that involve risks and uncertainties. Such forward-looking statements include information concerning our future financial performance, business strategy, plans, goals and objectives. Statements containing the words “anticipate,” “believe,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “project,” “should,” or the negative of such terms or other similar expressions are generally forward-looking in nature and not historical facts. Although we believe that the expectations, opinions, projections, and comments reflected in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, we can give no assurance that such statements will prove to be correct. A wide variety of potential risks, uncertainties, and other factors could materially affect our ability to achieve the results either expressed or implied by our forward-looking statements including, but not limited to: general economic conditions impacting our customers or potential customers; our ability to continue existing or offer new customer financing programs; changes in the delinquency status of our credit portfolio; higher than anticipated net charge-offs in the credit portfolio; the success of our planned opening of new stores and the updating of existing stores; technological and market developments and sales trends for our major product offerings; our ability to fund our operations, capital expenditures, debt repayment and expansion from cash flows from operations, borrowings from our revolving credit facility, and proceeds from accessing debt or equity markets; and the other risks detailed in our United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) reports, including but not limited to, our Annual Report on Form 10-K for our fiscal year ended January 31, 2013. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. Except as required by law, we are not obligated to publicly release any revisions or update to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this report or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

General

Conn’s is a leading specialty retailer that offers a broad selection of high-quality, branded durable consumer goods and related services in addition to a proprietary credit solution for its core credit constrained consumers. We operate a highly integrated and scalable business through our retail stores and website. Our complementary product offerings include home appliances, furniture and mattresses, consumer electronics and home office products from leading global brands across a wide range of price points. Our credit offering provides financing solutions to a large, underserved population of credit constrained consumers who typically are unbanked and have credit scores between 550 and 650. We provide customers the opportunity to comparison shop across brands with confidence in our low prices as well as affordable monthly payment options, next day delivery and installation, and product repair service. We believe our large, attractively merchandised stores and credit solutions offer a distinctive shopping experience compared to other retailers that target our core customer demographic.

We operate over 70 retail locations in Texas, Louisiana, Arizona, Oklahoma and New Mexico. The Company’s primary product categories include:

- Home appliance, including refrigerators, freezers, washers, dryers, dishwashers and ranges;
- Furniture and mattress, including furniture and related accessories for the living room, dining room and bedroom, as well as both traditional and specialty mattresses;

Consumer electronic, including LCD, LED, 3-D and plasma televisions, Blu-ray players, home theater and video game products, camcorders, digital cameras, and portable audio equipment; and Home office, including computers, tablets, printers and accessories.

Additionally, the Company offers a variety of products on a seasonal basis.

Our stores typically range in size from 18,000 to 50,000 square feet and are predominately located in areas densely populated by our core customer and are typically anchor stores in strip malls. We utilize a “good-better-best” merchandising strategy that offers approximately 2,300 branded products from approximately 200 manufacturers and distributors in a wide range of price points. Our commissioned sales, consumer credit and service personnel are well-trained and knowledgeable to assist our customers with product selection and the credit application process. We also provide additional services including next day delivery and installation capabilities, and product repair or replacement services for most items sold in our stores.

Unlike many of our competitors, we provide multiple financing options to address various customer needs including a proprietary in-house credit program, a third-party financing program and a third-party rent-to-own payment program. The majority of our credit customers use our in-house credit program and typically have a credit score of between 550 and 650, with the average score of new applicants for the three months ended October 31, 2013 of 598. For customers who do not qualify for our in-house program, we offer rent-to-own payment plans through RAC Acceptance. For customers with high credit scores, we have partnered with GE Capital to offer long-term, no interest and revolving credit plans. RAC Acceptance and GE Capital manage their respective underwriting decisions, management and collection of their credit programs. For the three months ended October 31, 2013, we financed approximately 79.5% of our retail sales, including down payments, under our in-house financing program.

We believe our extensive brand and product selection, competitive pricing, financing alternatives and supporting services combined with our customer service-focused store associates make us an attractive alternative to appliance and electronics superstores, department stores and other national, regional, local and internet retailers.

Due to the holiday selling season, our business is moderately seasonal, with a greater share of our revenues, operating and net income historically realized during the quarter ending January 31.

Operational Changes and Operating Environment

We have implemented, continued to focus on, or modified operating initiatives that we believe should positively impact future results, including:

- Opening expanded Conn's HomePlus stores in new markets. During the first nine months of 2013, we opened new stores in Mesa, Phoenix and Tempe, Arizona; Las Cruces, New Mexico; and Tulsa, Oklahoma. Additionally, we opened new stores in each of our existing Houston and Dallas, Texas markets and we plan to open seven additional new stores by January 31, 2014. We plan to open 15 to 20 new stores during fiscal 2015;

- Remodeling existing stores utilizing the new Conn's HomePlus format to increase retail square footage and improve our customers shopping experience;

- Expanding and enhancing our product offering of higher-margin furniture and mattresses;

- Focusing on higher-price, higher-margin products to improve operating performance;

- Reviewing our existing store locations to ensure the customer demographics and retail sales opportunity are sufficient to achieve our store performance expectations, and selectively closing or relocating stores to achieve those goals. In this regard, we have closed a total of 15 retail locations since the beginning of fiscal 2012 that did not perform at the level we expect for mature store locations;

- Assessing the ability to approve customers being declined today, as retail margin and portfolio yield increases may provide the ability to finance these customers profitably;

- Increased use of interest-free credit programs, with terms of 12 months or less, during fiscal 2014 with the intent to accelerate cash collections, while modestly reducing portfolio interest and fee yield; and

- Focusing on improving the execution within our collection operations to reduce delinquency rates and future charge-offs.

While we have benefited from our operations being historically concentrated in the Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma region in the past, continued weakness in the national and state economies, including instability in the financial markets and the volatility of oil and natural gas prices, have and will present significant challenges to our operations in the coming quarters.

Historical Static Loss Table

The following static loss analysis calculates the cumulative percentage of balances charged off, based on the year the credit account was originated and the period the balance was charged off. The percentage computed below is calculated by dividing the cumulative net amount charged off since origination by the total balance of accounts originated during the applicable fiscal year. The net charge-off was determined by estimating, on a pro rata basis, the amount of the recoveries received during a period that was allocable to the applicable origination period (dollars in thousands).

Results of Operations

The presentation of our results of operations may not be comparable to some other retailers since we include the cost of our in-home delivery and installation service as part of selling, general and administrative expense. Similarly, we include the cost related to operating our purchasing function in selling, general and administrative expense. It is our understanding that other retailers may include such costs as part of their cost of goods sold.

The following tables present certain operations information, on a consolidated and segment basis:

(a) Selling, general and administrative expenses include the direct expenses of the retail and credit operations, allocated overhead expenses and a charge to the credit segment to reimburse the retail segment for expenses it incurs related to occupancy, personnel, advertising and other direct costs of the retail segment which benefit the credit operations by sourcing credit customers and collecting payments. The reimbursement received by the retail segment from the credit segment is estimated using an annual rate of 2.5% times the average portfolio balance for each applicable period. The amount of overhead allocated to each segment was $2.9 million and $2.3 million for the three months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and $8.0 million and $6.5 million for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively. The amount of reimbursement made to the retail segment by the credit segment was $5.6 million and $4.2 million for the three months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and $15.3 million and $12.2 million for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Segment Overview

The following provides an overview of our retail and credit segment operations for the three and nine months ended October 31, 2013. A detailed explanation of the changes in our operations for the comparative periods is included below:

Retail Segment

Revenues were $257.5 million for the quarter ended October 31, 2013, an increase of $89.8 million, or 53.6%, from the prior-year period. The increase in revenues during the quarter was primarily driven by a 35.1% increase in same store sales as well as new store openings. Revenues for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 increased by 36.4% over the prior-year period, driven by same store sales growth of 23.7% and new store openings.

Retail gross margin was 40.1% for the quarter ended October 31, 2013, an increase of 460 basis points over the 35.5% reported in the comparable quarter last year. This increase was driven by continued margin improvement across all major product categories due primarily to the continued focus on higher price-point, higher margin products and realization of sourcing opportunities. Retail gross margin for the nine-month period increased from 34.4% in the prior-year period to 39.6% in the current period reflecting a favorable shift in product mix and margin expansion in each of the product categories.

Selling, general and administrative (“SG&A”) expense was $69.9 million for the quarter ended October 31, 2013, an increase of $22.6 million, or 47.9%, over the quarter ended October 31, 2012. The SG&A expense increase was primarily due to higher sales-driven compensation, advertising costs, facility-related costs and delivery expenses. As a percent of segment revenues, SG&A expense was 27.2% in the current period, down 100 basis points when compared to the prior-year quarter primarily due to the leveraging effect of higher revenues. SG&A expense for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 increased $48.5 million from the prior-year period but declined slightly as a percentage of segment revenues as the leveraging effect of higher revenues was partially offset by the costs of new store openings.

Credit Segment

Revenues were $53.4 million for the three months ended October 31, 2013, an increase of $14.7 million, or 37.8%, from the prior-year quarter. The increase was primarily driven by year-over-year growth in the average balance of the customer receivable portfolio and increased origination volumes. The impact of portfolio growth was tempered by a 150 basis point year-over-year decline in interest and portfolio yield as a result of increased short-term, no-interest financing. Total revenues for the nine-month period increased by $33.4 million as compared to the prior year period also due to the rise in the average balance of the customer receivable portfolio.

SG&A expense for the credit segment was $20.4 million for the quarter ended October 31, 2013, an increase of $6.5 million, or 46.5%, from the same quarter last year primarily due to portfolio growth resulting in increased compensation and related expenses. SG&A expense as a percent of revenues was 38.2% in the current year period, which compares to 36.0% in the prior-year period. For the nine-month period, credit segment SG&A increased by $13.6 million also due to increased compensation and related expenses.

Provision for bad debts was $22.5 million for the three months ended October 31, 2013, an increase of $9.3 million from the prior-year quarter. This additional provision was driven primarily by a $220.6 million, or 32.7%, year-over-year growth in the average receivable portfolio outstanding, which included an increase of $88.4 million during the current quarter. Additionally, the provision for bad debts rose due to year-over-year deterioration in portfolio delinquency rates. The percentage of the customer portfolio balance greater than 60 days past due was 8.5% as of October 31, 2013, which compares to 7.0% a year ago. The provision for bad debts increased $23.5 million for the nine-month period also due to substantial growth in the portfolio balance and a deterioration in portfolio delinquency rates.

Net interest expense for the quarter ended October 31, 2013 was $3.7 million, a decrease of $0.8 million from the prior-year period primarily due to a decline in our effective interest rate. The decline in our effective interest rate reflects the redemption of outstanding asset-backed notes over the twelve month period ended April 2013. For the nine months ended October 31, 2013, net interest expense declined by $2.4 million also due to the asset-backed note repayment. Additionally, the Company recorded approximately $0.4 million of accelerated amortization of deferred financing costs related to the early repayment of asset-backed notes during the first quarter of fiscal 2014.

sequentially, to 17.8%, as a result of increased short-term, no-interest financing. Short-term, promotional receivables averaged 32.7% of the total portfolio balance during the quarter ended October 31, 2013, which compares to 22.3% in the prior-year quarter. Insurance commissions were favorably impacted by increased front-end commissions due to higher retail sales and increased retrospective commissions due to lower claims experience.

For the three months ended October 31, 2013, the increase in SG&A expense was primarily driven by higher compensation, occupancy costs and delivery costs.

Table of Contents

The SG&A expense increase in the retail segment was primarily due to higher sales-related compensation and delivery costs, facility-related costs and advertising expenses. As a percent of segment revenues, SG&A expense declined 100 basis points as compared to the prior-year quarter primarily due to the leveraging effect of higher revenues.

The increase in SG&A expense for the credit segment was driven by portfolio balance growth resulting in higher compensation costs related to collections personnel.

The provision for bad debts is primarily related to the operations of our credit segment, with approximately $0.2 million for both of the three-month periods ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, included in the results of operations for the retail segment.

The provision for bad debts of the credit segment increased by $9.3 million from the prior-year period. This additional provision was driven primarily by the substantial year-over-year growth in the average receivable portfolio balance outstanding, which includes an increase of $88.4 million during the current quarter. Additionally, the provision for bad debts rose due to deterioration in portfolio delinquency rates. The percentage of the customer portfolio balance greater than 60 days past due was 8.5% as of October 31, 2013, which compares to 7.0% a year ago.

During the third quarter of fiscal 2014, we recorded a $2.8 million charge related to the closure and relocation of certain retail locations and other facilities. Of this amount, $2.0 million was related to the revision of estimated lease obligations of previously closed stores.

The Company relocated certain of its corporate operations from Beaumont to The Woodlands, Texas during the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The Company incurred $0.6 million in pre-tax costs in connection with the relocation.

| Interest expense | $3,714                           | $4,526 | $(812 ) |

Net interest expense for the three months ended October 31, 2013 declined $0.8 million from the prior-year period primarily due to the repayment of outstanding asset-backed notes, which carried a higher effective interest rate. The entirety of our interest expense is included in the results of operations of the credit segment.

Interest income and fees and insurance commissions are included in the finance charges and other for the credit segment, while other income is included in finance charges and other for the retail segment.

Interest income and fees of the credit segment increased over the prior year level primarily driven by an 25.6% increase in the average balance of the portfolio. Portfolio interest and fee yield declined 70 basis points year-over-year, to 17.9%, due primarily to increased short-term, no-interest financing. Short-term, promotional receivables averaged 31.1% of the total portfolio balance during the nine months ended October 31, 2013, which compares to 19.3% in the prior-year period. Insurance commissions were favorably impacted by increased front-end commissions due to higher retail sales and increased retrospective commissions due to lower claims experience.

Product gross margin expanded 520 basis points as a percent of product sales from the nine months ended October 31, 2012. Margin improvement was reported in each of the major product categories – reflecting the benefit of the sale of higher-price point, higher margin goods and the realization of sourcing opportunities. Product gross margin was also influenced by a favorable shift in product mix.

For the nine months ended October 31, 2013, the increase in SG&A expense was driven by higher compensation, occupancy costs and delivery costs.

The SG&A expense increase in the retail segment was primarily due to higher sales-related compensation and delivery costs, occupancy costs and advertising expenses. As a percent of segment revenues, SG&A expense in the current period declined 40 basis points as compared to the prior-year period due to the leveraging effect of increased revenues partially offset by costs associated with new store openings.

The increase in SG&A expense for the credit segment was driven by customer receivable portfolio growth resulting in higher compensation costs related to collections personnel.

The provision for bad debts is primarily related to the operations of our credit segment, with approximately $0.4 million and $0.6 million for the nine month periods ended October 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, included in the results of operations for the retail segment.

The provision for bad debts of the credit segment increased by $23.5 million from the prior-year period. This additional provision was driven by the substantial year-over-year growth in the average receivable portfolio balance outstanding, which includes an increase of $151.3 million during the current-year period. Additionally, the provision for bad debts rose due to deterioration in the delinquency rate for accounts greater than 60 days past due from 6.7% as of April 30, 2013 to 8.5% as of October 31, 2013.

During the nine months ended October 31, 2013, we recorded a $2.8 million charge related to the closing and relocation of certain retail locations and other facilities. Of this amount, $2.0 million was related to the revision of estimated lease obligations of previously closed stores.

During the first nine months of fiscal 2013, we recorded $1.0 million in pre-tax charges related to the relocation of certain corporate operations from Beaumont to The Woodlands, Texas. Additionally, we incurred $0.2 million in charges related to the adjustment of future lease obligations for closed stores.

Net interest expense for the nine months ended October 31, 2013 declined by $2.4 million primarily due to the repayment of outstanding asset-backed notes, which carried a higher effective interest rate, over the twelve-month period ended April 2013. The entirety of our interest expense is included in the results of operations of the credit segment.

The Company amended and restated its asset-based loan facility with a syndicate of banks on September 26, 2012. In connection with the transaction, the Company expensed $0.8 million in previously deferred transaction costs associated with lenders which are no longer in the current syndicate of banks. This amount is included in the results of operations of the credit segment.

Table of Contents

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash flow

Operating activities

During the nine months ended October 31, 2013, net cash used in operating activities was $109.7 million, which compares to net cash provided by operating activities of $15.2 million during the prior-year period. The year-over-year improvement in operating performance was more than offset by the impact of the use of cash to fund a $249.7 million increase in customer accounts receivable during the nine months ended October 31, 2013.

Investing activities

Net cash used in investing activities increased to $37.1 million in the current period, as compared to $21.0 million in the prior period, primarily due to the construction of new stores and remodeling of existing store locations. We expect during the next twelve months to invest between $30 million and $40 million, net of landlord-funded tenant improvement allowances, in capital expenditures for new stores, remodels and other projects.

Financing activities

Net cash provided by financing activities was $146.6 million during the nine months ended October 31, 2013, as compared to $3.7 million in the prior period. The year-over-year increase was primarily driven by borrowings used to fund the growth of the customer receivable portfolio. During the nine months ended October 31, 2013, we received $10.8 million in cash proceeds and $4.7 million in tax benefit related to the exercise of stock options. Additionally, the balance in restricted cash declined $4.7 million with the retirement of the asset-backed notes.

Liquidity

We require capital to finance our growth as we remodel existing stores and add new stores and markets to our operations, which in turn requires additional working capital for increased customer receivables and inventory. We have historically financed our operations through a combination of cash flow generated from earnings and external borrowings, including primarily bank debt, vendor credit, issuance of securitized asset-backed notes and the issuance of common stock.

As of October 31, 2013, our asset-based revolving credit facility had capacity of $585.0 million and was scheduled to mature in September 2016. We completed an expansion and extension of the facility on November 25, 2013, under which the commitment level increased $265.0 million to $850.0 million, the maturity date was extended to November 2017 and the interest rate spread was reduced 25 basis points. The facility provides funding based on a borrowing base calculation that includes customer accounts receivable and inventory. The amended facility bears interest at LIBOR plus a spread ranging from 250 basis points to 325 basis points, based on a leverage ratio (defined as total liabilities to tangible net worth). In addition to the leverage ratio, the revolving credit facility includes a fixed charge coverage requirement, a minimum customer receivables cash recovery percentage requirement and a net capital expenditures limit.

As of October 31, 2013, we had immediately available borrowing capacity of $162.3 million under our asset-based revolving credit facility, net of standby letters of credit issued, available to us for general corporate purposes. After giving effect to the November 25, 2013 amendment, we would have had $231.1 million of immediately available borrowing capacity as of October 31, 2013, and an additional $196.3 million that could become available upon increases in eligible inventory and customer receivable balances under the borrowing base.

We expect, based on current facts and circumstances, that we will be in compliance with the above covenants for the next twelve months. The weighted average interest rate on borrowings outstanding under the asset-based revolving credit facility was 3.0% at October 31, 2013.

On April 30, 2012, our VIE issued $103.7 million of notes which bore interest at 4.0% and were sold at a discount to deliver a 5.21% yield, before considering transaction costs. The principal balance of the notes, which was secured by certain customer receivables, was reduced on a monthly basis by collections on the underlying customer receivables after the payment of interest and other expenses of the VIE. On April 15, 2013, the VIE redeemed the then outstanding notes and the remaining receivables were transferred back to us.

Table of Contents

We have interest rate cap options with a notional amount of $100 million. These cap options are held for the purpose of hedging against variable interest rate risk related to the variability of cash flows in the interest payments on a portion of its variable-rate debt, based on the benchmark one-month LIBOR interest rate exceeding 1.0%. These cap options have monthly caplets extending through August 2014.

The weighted average effective interest rate on borrowings outstanding under all our credit facilities for the three months ended October 31, 2013 was 4.0%, including the interest expense associated with our interest rate caps and amortization of deferred financing costs.

A summary of the previous and subsequently amended significant financial covenants that governed our credit facility compared to our actual compliance status at October 31, 2013, is presented below:

|   | Actual         | Required Minimum/Maximum |                   |
|---|----------------|--------------------------|-------------------|
|   |                | Previous Covenants       | Amended Covenants |
| Fixed charge coverage ratio must exceed required minimum                          | 1.92 to 1.00   | 1.10 to 1.00             | 1.10 to 1.00      |
| Total liabilities to tangible net worth ratio must be lower than required maximum | 1.10 to 1.00   | 2.00 to 1.00             | 2.00 to 1.00      |
| Cash recovery percentage must exceed stated amount                                | 5.06%          | 4.74%                    | 4.50%             |
| Capital expenditures, net must be lower than stated amount                        | $18.6 million | $40.0 million           | $75.0 million    |

Note: All terms in the above table are defined by the revolving credit facility and may or may not directly correlate to the financial statement captions in this document. The covenants are required to be calculated quarterly on a trailing twelve month basis, except for the cash recovery percentage, which is calculated monthly on a trailing three month basis.

Payments received on customer receivables which averaged approximately $52.3 million per month during the three months ended October 31, 2013, are available each month to fund new customer receivables generated.

We plan to fund our operations and expected growth through a combination of cash flow generated from operations, existing credit facilities, vendor credit, expansion of our existing credit facilities, new debt financing and other sources of capital. We believe these sources of capital will be sufficient to fund our operations, store expansion and updating activities and capital programs for at least the next twelve months, subject to continued compliance with the covenants in our debt and other credit arrangements. If the repayment of amounts owed under our debt and other credit arrangements is accelerated for any reason, we may not have sufficient cash and liquid assets at such time to be able to immediately repay all the amounts owed under our facility.

The revolving credit facility is a significant factor relative to our ongoing liquidity and our ability to meet the cash needs associated with the growth of our business. Our inability to use this program because of a failure to comply with its covenants would adversely affect our business operations. Funding of current and future customer receivables under the borrowing facility can be adversely affected if we exceed certain predetermined levels of re-aged customer receivables, write-offs, bankruptcies or other ineligible customer receivable amounts.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

On April 15, 2013, we retired the fixed-rate notes that were issued by our VIE on April 30, 2012. There have been no other significant changes to our market risk since January 31, 2013.

For additional quantitative and qualitative disclosures about market risk, see Item 7A. "Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk," of Conn's, Inc. Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2013.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Based on management's evaluation (with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO)), as of the end of the period covered by this report, our CEO and CFO have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)), are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in SEC rules and forms, and is accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

For the nine months ended October 31, 2013, there have been no changes in our internal controls over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal controls over financial reporting.

Amendment to the Company's Bylaws. On December 3, 2013, the Board of Directors amended and restated the Company's Bylaws to change the standard for the election of directors in uncontested elections from a plurality voting standard to a majority voting standard. Under the amended provisions, the Secretary of the Company will determine whether or not an election is contested as of the tenth (10th) day before the date on which the Company files its definitive proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In a contested election, directors will continue to be elected by a plurality of the votes properly cast on the election of directors. In connection with this amendment, the Board also amended the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and adopted a director resignation policy.

A copy of the Amended and Restated Bylaws is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.2 and incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing summary of our Amended and Restated Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Amended and Restated Bylaws.

Table of Contents

Amendments to Executive Severance Agreements. On December 3, 2013, the Company entered into a First Amendment to Executive Severance Agreement with each of Theodore M. Wright, Michael J. Poppe, Brian E. Taylor and David W. Trahan (collectively, the “First Amendments”). The terms of the First Amendments replace the mandatory reduction in benefits in connection with a change-in-control with a provision providing for a reduction of benefits if the net after-tax benefit of such reduction is greater than the net after-tax benefit if such reduction is not made. The foregoing description of the First Amendments does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the First Amendments, filed hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, and 10.4 and are incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment to Stock Ownership Guidelines. The Company’s Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee previously adopted minimum stock ownership guidelines to increase the alignment of the Company’s directors and named executive officers’ financial interests with those of its stockholders. On December 3, 2013, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee amended the Company’s Stock Ownership Guidelines to require that the Company’s (i) non-executive directors own shares of the Company’s common stock worth 3 times his or her annual cash retainer, instead of 2 times as previously required, (ii) Chief Executive Officer own shares of the Company’s common stock worth 4 times his or her annual base salary, instead of 2 times as previously required and (iii) other named executive officers own shares of the Company’s common stock worth 2 times his or her annual base salary, instead of 1.5 times as previously required.

Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers. On December 2, 2013, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, in connection with an evaluation of executive compensation, and after considering the recommendation of the independent compensation consultants, approved increases to the annual compensation for certain of its named executive officers, effective as of February 1, 2014. Such increases were ratified by the Company’s Board of Directors on December 3, 2013. The increases in annual base salary and other compensation for those named executive officers for the Company’s fiscal year ending January 31, 2015 are set forth in the tables and narrative below:

| Name               | Title   | Current Annual Base Salary | Fiscal 2015 Annual Base Salary |
|--------------------|---|----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Theodore M. Wright | Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer       | $700,000                  | $850,000                      |
| Michael J. Poppe   | Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer  | $425,000                  | $460,000                      |
| David W. Trahan    | President-Retail                                      | $345,000                  | $410,000                      |
| Brian E. Taylor    | Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer | $295,000                  | $400,000                      |

In addition, the Company’s named executive officers are eligible to receive equity awards as described in more detail in our Proxy Statement for the 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 18, 2013 (the “Proxy”). For any grants that may be issued in fiscal year 2015, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Wright’s target value of annual long-term equity award from 100% of annual base salary to 100% of the aggregate amount of his annual base salary plus his target-level cash bonus award (described below). The target value, as a percentage of annual base salary, for any annual long-term equity awards that may be granted to our other named executive officers will remain unchanged.

On December 3, 2013, the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors adopted our fiscal 2015 cash bonus program (“Cash Bonus Program”). Our named executive officers, as well as certain of our other executive officers and employees are eligible to participate in the Cash Bonus Program.

The purpose of the plan is to promote the interests of the Company and our stockholders by providing key employees with financial incentives upon the achievement of specified business objectives and our financial performance, as well as to help us attract, retain and motivate key employees by providing competitive compensation opportunities linked to individual and Company performance.

The Committee established three bonus levels for the Cash Bonus Program: threshold, target and maximum. Each participant in the Cash Bonus Program is eligible to receive cash bonus payments upon the attainment of certain pre-determined operating pre-tax profit levels for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2015. If we do not attain the threshold level, no payment will be made to any individual under the Cash Bonus Program. Linear interpolation will be used to calculate payments under the Cash Bonus Program for amounts that may fall in between threshold, target and maximum levels of performance.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee has set Mr. Wright's target and maximum-level awards under the Cash Bonus Program at 100% and 200% of annual base salary, respectively, an increase from 60% and 120% of annual base salary, respectively, under the Company's fiscal 2014 cash bonus program. The target and maximum award levels for our other named executive officers under the Cash Bonus Program remain unchanged from the 2014 cash bonus program.

The Committee made these changes in total compensation for certain of our named executive officers, in consultation with its independent compensation consultant, as part of a continuing shift towards a market median compensation approach for all elements of named executive officer compensation. The compensation changes are intended to enhance the competitiveness of base salaries relative to market median. The changes in annual base salary do not impact the fiscal 2014 annual incentive bonus determinations.
