Kerry A. Shiba

Joins Superior Industries Board of Directors

VAN NUYS, CALIFORNIA – April 15, 2013 -- Superior Industries International, Inc. (NYSE:SUP) today announced the appointment of Kerry A. Shiba to its board of directors.

Mr. Shiba, 58, is executive vice president and chief financial officer of Superior. His appointment fills a board seat vacancy that expires in 2014.

“Kerry joins our board at a critical juncture, as the company is in a proxy contest and the board thought it prudent to protect shareholder value by appointing him to this seat,” said Steven J. Borick, chairman, president and chief executive officer. “We welcome the financial guidance and strategic direction that Kerry will provide as a board member as we embark on a major capital project—investing $125 million to $135 million to construct a new manufacturing plant in Mexico—that we believe will help propel the company’s next stage of growth.”

The company said that the board’s action also provides the additional time needed to identify and recruit an experienced and qualified independent candidate to sit as a director.

Mr. Shiba also is a member of the board of directors of Tulsa-based Ramsey Industries LLC. Prior to joining Superior in 2010 as senior vice president and chief financial officer, he was senior vice president/chief financial & restructuring officer and president of the original equipment business unit of Remy International, Inc., a supplier of components to automobile and truck manufacturers. Mr. Shiba previously held senior management positions with Kaiser Aluminum Corporation, including vice president and chief financial officer, and served in senior financial management roles with The BF Goodrich Company.

Superior also said that its definitive proxy statement and accompanying letter to shareholders in connection with the proxy contest is being mailed today.
