Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

On August 31, 2004, the Company, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated as of August 31, 2004, with Thomas, Vitarich Laboratories, Inc., a Florida corporation (Vitarich-Florida), and AGAX/VLI Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation (VLI) and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, acquired Vitarich-Florida by way of a merger (the Merger) of Vitarich-Florida with and into VLI, with VLI as the surviving company of the Merger. Upon consummation of the Merger, VLI changed its name to Vitarich Laboratories, Inc., which is referred to hereafter as Vitarich. Vitarich-Florida (now Vitarich) is in the business of formulating, packaging and distributing whole food dietary, herbal and nutritional supplements and related products, which are marketed globally to retail, wholesale and private label customers, including network marketing companies, health food stores, mass merchandisers, drug stores, food stores, and Internet and mail-order companies.

In connection with the Merger, the Company and Thomas entered into a certain Registration Rights Agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement), dated as of August 31, 2004; Vitarich and Thomas entered into a certain Employment Agreement (the Employment Agreement), dated as of August 31, 2004; and Vitarich and Vitarich Farms, Inc (Farms), a Florida corporation, entered into a certain Supply Agreement (the Supply Agreement), dated as of August 31, 2004.

Table of Contents

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each outstanding share of Vitarich-Florida's common stock (Stock) was exchanged for the Merger Consideration (as described below) and, upon receipt of the Merger Consideration, such shares of Vitarich-Florida common stock were cancelled. Thomas owned all of the outstanding shares of Vitarich-Florida common stock before the Merger. Following the Merger, the officers of Vitarich are as follows: Rainer Bosselmann, Chairman of the Board; Kevin J. Thomas, Senior Operating Executive; Gerry David, President; Craig Woldinger, Executive Vice President; Haywood Miller, Vice President and Secretary; Arthur Trudel, Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer; and Steve Ashkinos, Vice President Finance.

Under the Merger Agreement, the total merger consideration to be paid by the Company to Thomas (the Merger Consideration) is an amount equal to the sum of the Initial Consideration and the Additional Consideration (each as described below), determined and paid in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, and each share of Stock is entitled to receive a sum equal to the Merger Consideration divided by the total number of shares of the Stock.

The Merger Agreement provides that the Initial Consideration (the Initial Consideration) shall be an amount equal to $12,443,750, paid at closing: (1) $6,050,000 in cash (the Initial Cash Consideration); and (2) through the issuance of 825,000 shares of the Company common stock (the Initial Stock Consideration), subject to adjustment as provided in the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, notwithstanding the fact that the closing price of the Company's common stock on August 30, 2004 was $6.00 per share, for purposes of calculating the consideration due under the Merger Agreement, the value of each share of the Company common stock was deemed to be $7.75, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement further provides that, in the event the net worth of Vitarich-Florida as of the closing date of the Merger is less than $1,200,000, then such deficiency will reduce, dollar for dollar, the Initial Consideration paid to Thomas, which reduction, if any, shall be allocated proportionately to the Initial Cash Consideration and the Initial Stock Consideration. Upon the determination of the adjustment to the Initial Consideration, the amount by which the Initial Consideration has been reduced, if any, shall be repaid by Thomas to the Company in proportionate amounts of cash and the Company common stock (with the value of the Company common stock deemed to be $7.75).

The Merger Agreement provides that, in addition to the Initial Consideration, Thomas shall have the right to receive additional consideration (the Additional Consideration) equal to: (1) 5.5 times the Adjusted EBITDA of Vitarich for the 12 months ended February 28, 2005; (2) less the Initial Consideration (provided, however, that in no event shall the Additional Consideration be less than zero or require repayment by Thomas to the Company of any portion of the Initial Consideration), such amount to be paid 50% in cash (the Additional Cash Consideration) and 50% through issuance of the Company common stock (the Additional Stock Consideration). For purposes of determining the number of shares of the Company common stock to be issued to Thomas as Additional Stock Consideration, the value of each share of the Company common stock shall be deemed to be $7.75.

The Merger Agreement also provides that, if between the closing date and the Additional Consideration payment date (which is expected to be on or before June 1, 2005), the Company raises additional capital by issuance of the Company stock pursuant to a public or private offering for a price less than $7.75 per share (the Additional Capital Subscription Price), then the number of shares of the Company common stock issued to Thomas as the Initial Stock Consideration pursuant to the Merger Agreement shall be adjusted to the number of shares of the Company common stock that would have been issued at the closing of the Merger had the value of each share of the Company common stock been the Additional Capital Subscription Price, and the Company shall issue to Thomas on the Additional Consideration payment date the number of additional shares of the Company common stock that would have been issued as a part of the Initial Stock Consideration at closing had the value of the Company common stock been the Additional Capital Subscription Price. In addition to the foregoing, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company also paid Thomas $507,514 at closing, such amount in full satisfaction of all loans made by Thomas to Vitarich-Florida prior to the closing. The Company also agreed to grant options to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company common stock to certain employees of Vitarich-Florida (now Vitarich) in the future.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company agreed to use its best efforts to prepare and file a registration statement with the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 to effect the registration of the Initial Stock Consideration within 120 days after the closing of the Merger which was August 31, 2004.

Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Vitarich agreed to employ Thomas as its Senior Operating Executive for an initial term of three years. The agreement provides for successive automatic one year renewal terms after the initial term, unless either party provides three months prior written notice of its election not to renew. The agreement provides for Thomas to receive during the employment period an annual base salary of $150,000, subject to increase in the discretion of the board of Vitarich, and an annual bonus (commencing with the fiscal year of Vitarich ended January 31, 2006) of up to $250,000 based upon the Pre-Tax Earnings of Vitarich (as defined and described in the agreement). The agreement also provides that Thomas may receive such additional bonuses as the board of directors of Vitarich may determine in its discretion. The agreement also provides for Thomas to receive severance in the event that Thomas is terminated by the Company without cause (as defined in the agreement) or in the event that Thomas quits with good reason.

Pursuant to the Supply Agreement, Farms, which harvests and processes powdered vegetable grains, agreed to supply to Vitarich, and Vitarich agreed to purchase from Farms, the products produced by Farms as and to the extent required by Vitarich in the conduct of its business. The term of the agreement is one year. The price of products to be purchased under the agreement shall be as agreed upon by the parties, but shall not exceed the market price for the products at the time of purchase, subject to a 10% quality control premium, as applicable, on account of products being grown and processed in accordance with the specifications set forth in the agreement. Thomas owns approximately 60% of Farms and also serves as its President.

Copies of the Merger Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Employment Agreement are attached hereto as Exhibits 2.1, 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3. The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Employment Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the complete copies of the agreements attached hereto as exhibits.
