Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously announced, on July 28, 2008, Meadow Valley Corporation (Meadow Valley) entered into a merger agreement (the Merger Agreement) with Phoenix Parent Corp. (Investor) and Phoenix Merger Sub, Inc. (Merger Sub) both affiliates of Insight Equity I LP. On December 2, 2008, Meadow Valley, Investor and Merger Sub entered into a letter agreement pursuant to which the parties agreed to extend the date after which either Meadow Valley or Investor may terminate the Merger Agreement from December 31, 2008 to January 7, 2009. The purpose of the extension is to allow the parties additional time to discuss a possible resolution to Investor s recent claim that Meadow Valley may have suffered a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement) as a result of an alleged decrease in the fair market value of Meadow Valley in excess of $6.0 million since July 28, 2008. This claim was set forth in a press release issued on December 1, 2008 by Meadow Valley and reported on a Form 8-K. There is no assurance any such discussions will be successful. In the interim, other than the seven-day extension, the current terms of the Merger Agreement remain in full force and effect and each of the parties thereto is proceeding on such basis. If the discussions between the parties prove unsuccessful in the near term, Meadow Valley intends to promptly file a definitive proxy statement and hold a special meeting of its stockholders to vote on the merger and proceed toward closing the transaction.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this release are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements due to numerous factors. Such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made and Meadow Valley does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this release, except as may be required by law.
