THE FIRST ADDS WIGGINS TO ITS BANKING LOCATIONS

David Johnson, Chief Executive Office of The First, announced today that the merger with First National Bank of Wiggins has been completed and The First is now offering financial services to the Wiggins area.

The merger comes in the midst of extraordinary growth for the bank in south Mississippi. A decade ago, The First opened a small office in Oak Grove and in ten years has become the first bank in Mississippi to grow to $543,000,000 in home loans closed... to 20,000 customers...to approximately 1,200 shareholders... in Hattiesburg, Oak Grove, Laurel, Purvis, Picayune, Pascagoula, Bay St. Louis and now Wiggins.

The First offers free First checking, free debit cards, free on line bill pay, banking by phone-internet, person, long term fixed rate mortgages, special accounts for customers 50 and over, and convenient locations from the coast to Laurel. Johnson says the goal of The First, "is to create a banking system in south Mississippi that offers individuals real personal service, financial services they want, at convenient locations. In Johnson's words, "the growth of the bank clearly indicates that the communities we serve have responded to the need of banking and our employees are carrying out our promise to be.....Just the Bank for You!"
