On March 25, 2003, Riverwood Holding, Inc. ("Riverwood"), Graphic Packaging International Corporation ("GPIC") and Riverwood Acquisition Sub LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Riverwood ("Acquisition Sub"), entered into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, as amended by an Amendment No. 1, dated as of July 11, 2003 (the "Merger Agreement"), providing, among other things, for the merger of GPIC with and into Acquisition Sub, with Acquisition Sub continuing as the surviving company (the "Merger"). The Merger Agreement was approved by the stockholders of GPIC on August 7, 2003, and the Merger was consummated on August 8, 2003. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, on August 8, 2003, Riverwood filed a Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of Delaware ("Closing Date"), and the Merger was effective as of the filing of such certificate

("Effective Time"). On June 6, 2003, the board of directors of Riverwood approved the name change of Riverwood to Graphic Packaging Corporation.

Prior to the completion of the Merger, Riverwood entered into a rights agreement, containing customary terms and conditions for a stockholder rights plan, and designated 500,000 shares of Riverwood preferred stock as Series A junior participating preferred stock, such shares to be reserved for issuance upon the exercise of the rights.

Edgar Filing: ADOLPH COORS JR TRUST - Form SC 13D

At the completion of the Merger, each share of GPIC common stock, par value $0.01, issued and outstanding immediately before the completion of the Merger, together with the associated rights issued under the GPIC stockholder rights plan, but excluding shares of GPIC common stock owned by Riverwood, GPIC, or any of their respective subsidiaries, was converted into one share of Company Common Stock of Riverwood and associated rights issued under the stockholder rights plan.

In connection with the Merger, the Reporting Persons, CDR Fund V, EXOR Group S.A. In addition, Riverwood, The 1818 Fund II, L.P., HWH Investment Pte. Ltd, J.P. Morgan Partners (BHCA), L.P., First Plaza Group Trust, Madison Dearborn Capital Partners, L.P., Wolfensohn-River LLC (collectively, the "Other Riverwood Stockholders"), the Reporting Persons, CDR Fund V, and Exor entered into the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 25, 2003 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), providing those stockholders with the right to request registration of their Company Common Stock or participate in registered offerings by the Company under certain circumstances. This Schedule 13D describes the Stockholders Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement in Item 6.

The Merger Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, and the Registration Rights Agreement (collectively, the "Agreements") are incorporated by reference hereto as Exhibits 99.3, 99.4, 99.5, respectively, and are incorporated into this Item 3 by reference. Any summary of these documents and agreements and the transactions described in this Schedule 13D is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Agreements.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Company.

With respect to each Reporting Person, the information relating to the amount of shares beneficially owned, the percent of class, and number of shares as to which such person has sole or shared power to vote or direct the vote, or to dispose or to direct the disposition, are incorporated by reference from such Reporting Person's cover page. The following is a summary of the Stockholders Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement.

Stockholders Agreement

Board of Directors. The Stockholders Agreement provides that the board of directors of the Company will consist of nine members, classified into three classes. Each of the three classes will consist initially of three directors, the initial terms of which will expire, respectively, at the first, second and third annual meetings of stockholders following the completion of the Merger.

Immediately after the Effective Time, the board of directors will consist of Jeffrey H. Coors (Executive Chairman); Harold R. Logan, Jr. and John D. The stockholders party to the Stockholders Agreement have further expressed their intention that the board of directors of Graphic Packaging International, Inc., the principal operating entity of the Company, will have the same composition after the completion of the Merger as the Company's board of directors.

Coors Family Representative. Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, each Reporting Person has appointed Jeffrey H. Coors and, in case of his inability to act, William K. Coors, as such Reporting Person's attorney-in-fact, with full power of substitution (the "Coors Family Representative") to serve as the representative of such Reporting Person to perform all such Reporting Person's obligations under the Stockholders Agreement, including, but not limited to, Reporting Person's obligations with respect to the election of directors and a business combination involving the company. Each Reporting Person retains voting power with regard to all other matters and sole dispositive power with respect to the shares issuable to such Reporting Person.

Designation Rights. The Stockholders Agreement provides that the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, and Exor will have the right, subject to requirements related to stock ownership, to designate a person for nomination for election to the board of directors. Each such director will be designated to that class of directors whose initial term expires at the third annual meeting of stockholders following the completion of the Merger.

The Coors Family Representative is entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the board for so long as the Reporting Persons, in the aggregate, own at least 5% of the fully diluted shares of the Company's common stock. CDR Fund V will be entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the board: (1) for so long as it owns at least 5% of the fully diluted shares of the Company Common Stock, or (2) for so long as it owns less than 5% of such shares but the Other Riverwood Stockholders, CDR Fund V, and Exor continue to own, in the aggregate, at least 30% of the fully diluted shares of the Company Common Stock. Exor will be entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the board for so long as it owns at least 5% of the fully diluted shares of the Company Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: ADOLPH COORS JR TRUST - Form SC 13D

Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, at each meeting of the stockholders of the Company at which directors of the Company are to be elected, the Company will recommend that the stockholders elect to the board of directors of the Company the designees of the individuals designated by the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, and Exor. In addition, for so long as Stephen M. Humphrey serves as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, the Stockholders Agreement provides that he will be nominated for election to the board at any meeting of the stockholders at which directors of his class are to be elected.

Independent Directors. The Stockholders Agreement further provides that each of the other directors, not designated in the manner described above, will be a Company independent director (as defined below) designated for nomination by the nominating and corporate governance committee of the board. In the event that the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, or Exor loses the right to designate a person to the board, such designee will resign immediately upon receiving notice from the nominating and corporate governance committee that it has identified a replacement director, and will resign in any event no later than 120 days after the designating person or entity loses the right to designate such designee to the board. At such time as Mr. Humphrey is no longer the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, he will similarly resign upon receipt of notice from the nominating and corporate governance committee and, in any event, no later than 120 days after ceasing to serve as Chief Executive Officer.

A "Company independent director" is a director who (1) is not an officer or employee of the Company or any of its affiliates; (2) is not an officer or employee of any stockholder party to the Stockholders Agreement or, if such stockholder is a trust, a direct or indirect beneficiary of such trust; and (3) meets the standards of independence under applicable law and the requirements applicable to companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Agreement to Vote for Directors and Against Certain Business Combinations; Vacancies. Each party to the Stockholders Agreement agrees to vote all of the shares owned by such stockholder (i) in favor of Mr. Humphrey (for so long as he is the Chief Executive Officer of the Company) and each of the parties' designees to the board, and to take all other steps within such stockholder's power to ensure that the composition of the board is as contemplated by the Stockholders Agreement and (ii) against any merger, consolidation, or sale of substantially all the assets of the Company if such business combination has not been approved by at least a majority of the directors then in office.

As long as the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V or Exor, as the case may be, has the right to designate a person for nomination for election to the board, at any time at which the seat occupied by such party's designee becomes vacant as a result of death, disability, retirement, resignation, removal, or otherwise, such party will be entitled to designate for appointment by the remaining directors an individual to fill such vacancy and to serve as a director. Riverwood and each of the stockholder parties to the Stockholders Agreement has agreed to take such actions as will result in the appointment to the board as soon as practicable of any individual so designated by the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, or Exor.

At any time at which a vacancy is created on the board as a result of the death, disability, retirement, resignation, removal, or otherwise of one of the independent directors before the expiration of his or her term as director, the nominating and corporate governance committee will notify the board of a replacement who is a Company independent director. Each of the Company and the stockholders party to the Stockholders Agreement have agreed to take such actions as will result in the appointment of such replacement to the board as soon as practicable.

Each stockholder party to the Stockholders Agreement has agreed (i) not to vote, or give any proxy or consent, in favor of the removal as a director of the Company of any individual so designated by the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, or Exor without the prior written consent of the other parties to the Stockholders Agreement, and (ii) not to give any proxy entitling the holder of such proxy to vote on, or give any proxy or consent with respect to, the election of directors unless the holder of such proxy shall have agreed to comply with such stockholder's obligations under the Stockholders Agreement.

If in connection with the election of any designee of the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, or Exor, any party to the Stockholders Agreement indicates that it will not, or fails or refuses to, vote as required by the Stockholders Agreement, or votes or gives any proxy or consent in contravention of the Stockholders Agreement, such party to the Stockholders Agreement is thereby deemed to constitute and appoint the party to the Stockholders Agreement whose interests are detrimentally affected by such failure or refusal, as such party's irrevocable proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote any and all of the shares held or controlled by such party in accordance with the Stockholders Agreement. This proxy will revoke any other proxy previously given by the defaulting party in contravention of the Stockholders Agreement.

Actions of the Board; Affiliate Agreements. The Stockholders Agreement provides that actions of the board will require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the directors present in person or by telephone at a duly convened meeting at which a quorum is present, or the unanimous written consent of the board, except that a board decision regarding the merger, consolidation, or sale of substantially all the assets of the Company will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. In addition, a decision by the company to enter into, modify, or terminate any agreement with an affiliate of the Reporting Persons, the CDR Fund V, or Exor will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors not nominated by a stockholder which, directly or indirectly through an affiliate, has an interest in that agreement.

Board Committees. The Stockholders Agreement provides for the board to have an audit committee, a compensation and benefits committee and a nominating and corporate governance committee as follows:

The audit committee will have three members, consisting of one Company independent director and the directors designated by the Coors Family Representative and CDR Fund V, or such other members as the Coors Family Representative and CDR Fund V may mutually agree. The audit committee will have the authority, at its discretion, to invite the director designated by Exor to attend meetings of the audit committee as a non-voting observer.

The compensation and benefits committee will have three members, consisting of one Company independent director and the directors designated by the Coors Family Representative and CDR Fund V, or such other members as the Coors Family Representative and CDR Fund V may mutually agree. No employee of the company or its subsidiaries will serve on this committee. The director designated by Exor will have the right to attend meetings of the compensation and benefits committee as a non-voting observer.

The nominating and corporate governance committee will have five members, consisting of two Company independent directors and the directors designated by the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, and Exor, or such other members as the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, and Exor shall mutually agree. No employee of the company or its subsidiaries (other than Jeffrey H. Coors) will serve on this committee.

Each of the Company and the stockholders party to the Stockholders Agreement have agreed to take all steps within their power to ensure that the composition of the board's committees are as provided in the Stockholders Agreement. The rights described above of each of the Coors Family Representative, CDR Fund V, and Exor to have its director designee sit as a member of board committees will cease at such time as, in the case of the Coors Family Representative, the Reporting Persons, and in the case of CDR Fund V and Exor, such stockholder holds less than 5% of the fully diluted shares of the Company Common Stock, except that CDR Fund V will continue to have such right so long as the stockholders of Riverwood immediately before the completion of the Merger own, in the aggregate, at least 30% of the fully diluted shares of the Company's common stock. The board will fill any committee seats that become vacant in the manner provided in the preceding sentence with Company independent directors. The board is prohibited from forming an executive committee.

Observation and Information Rights; Directors Emeritus. The Stockholders Agreement provides that The 1818 Fund II, L.P., a stockholder of Riverwood before the completion of the Merger, will have the right to designate Lawrence C. Tucker to attend meetings of the board of directors and to receive copies of all written materials provided to the board. This right will terminate at such time as The 1818 Fund II, L.P. transfers (other than to affiliated permitted transferees) 50% or more of the Company's common stock held by such entity at the completion of the Merger. Mr. Tucker will not have any right to vote on any matter presented to the board.

Under the Stockholders Agreement, the Coors Family Representative will have the right to designate William K. Coors as an emeritus director of the Company, and CDR Fund V will have the right to designate B. Charles Ames as an emeritus director of the Company. In such capacities, Mr. William Coors and Mr. Ames will have the right to attend meetings of the board and to receive copies of all written materials provided to the board. Mr. William Coors' position as emeritus director will terminate at such time as the Reporting Persons, in the aggregate, hold less than 5% of the fully diluted shares of the Company Common Stock. Mr. Ames' position as emeritus director will terminate at such time as CDR Fund V holds less than 5% of the fully diluted shares of the Company Common Stock and the stockholders of Riverwood immediately before the completion of the Merger hold, in the aggregate, less than 30% of the fully diluted shares of the Company Common Stock. Mr. William Coors and Mr. Ames will not have any right to vote on any matter presented to the board.

Mr. Tucker, Mr. William Coors, Mr. Ames and each of the recipients of information rights will be obliged to maintain the confidentiality of information received in connection with the exercise of their respective rights. As Mr. Tucker, Mr. William Coors and Mr. Ames will not be serving as directors of the Company, they will not have director fiduciary duties to the Company or its stockholders.

Transfer Restrictions. The stockholders party to the Stockholders Agreement have agreed not to transfer any shares of the Company Common Stock during the restricted period (defined below), except for (1) transfers to certain affiliated permitted transferees that agree to be bound by the Stockholders Agreement, and (2) a sale to the public pursuant to an effective registration statement filed under the Securities Act. After the expiration of the restricted period, each such stockholder may also transfer Company Common Stock pursuant to Rule 144 or other applicable exemptions from registration, subject to any holdback obligations that such stockholder may have under the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 25, 2003, among Riverwood, the Reporting Persons, CDR Fund V, Exor, and the Other Riverwood Stockholders. The "restricted period" begins at the effective time of the Merger and continues until the earlier of (1) such time as 50% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company Common Stock have been publicly distributed or sold (including shares issued upon the exercise of employee stock options), or are being actively tracked on a national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system, and (2) 18 months after the effective time of the Merger.

The share certificates owned by each of the stockholder parties to the Stockholders Agreement will bear customary legends with respect to transfer restrictions.

Fee Payable to Clayton Dubilier & Rice, Inc. ("CD&R"). On August 8, 2003, under the terms of the Stockholders Agreement, the Company paid a transaction fee of $10 million to CD&R as consideration for its assistance in connection with negotiation of all aspects of the transaction, including the contribution analysis, financial and business due diligence, structure of the proposed refinancing, and arranging for proposals by and handling negotiations with financing sources to provide funds for the refinancing.

Termination. The Stockholders Agreement will remain in effect until terminated by unanimous agreement of the Company and the stockholders party to the Stockholders Agreement or until such time as no more than one of the Reporting Persons; CDR Fund V; or CDR Fund V, Exor, the Other Riverwood Stockholders in the aggregate hold 5% or more of the outstanding common stock of the Company on a fully diluted basis. In addition, the Stockholders Agreement will terminate as to any stockholder party at such time as such stockholder no longer owns any shares of the Company Common Stock. The confidentiality provisions of the agreement will survive termination.

Registration Rights Agreement

The Reporting Persons, Riverwood, CDR Fund V, Exor, and the Other Riverwood Stockholders entered into the Registration Rights Agreement, under which the parties agreed to amend and restate Riverwood's previous Registration and Participation Agreement, dated as of March 27, 1996. The Registration Rights Agreement became effective upon the completion of the Merger. The following is a summary of the Registration Rights Agreement.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that, after the expiration of 90 days from the effective time of the Merger, holders of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of the Company Common Stock may request that the Company effect the registration under the Securities Act all or part of such holder's registrable securities (as defined below). Upon receipt of such a request, the Company is required to promptly give written notice of such requested registration to all holders of registrable securities and, thereafter, to use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of all registrable securities which it has been requested to register pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement. After the expiration of 180 days after the closing of an initial secondary offering, holders of 5% or more of the outstanding shares of the Company Common Stock may again request that the Company effect the registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such holder's registrable securities. In all cases, the Company's obligations to register the registrable securities are subject to the minimum and maximum offering size limitations set forth below.

With respect to the first two requests to effect registration of registrable securities, the Company will not be required to effect such registration if such requests relate to less than 15% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock or, without the approval of the board of directors, more than 25% of the outstanding shares. Any request for registration of registrable securities after the first two requests will be subject to a minimum offering size of 5% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock.

"Registrable securities" means:

all shares of Company Common Stock owned by the CDR Fund V, Exor, or the Other Riverwood Stockholders;

all shares of Company Common Stock issued to the Reporting Persons in connection with the Merger;

all securities that were registrable securities under the original registration rights agreement;

all shares of Company Common Stock issued after March 25, 2003 to members of management or directors of the Company for so long as any such shares constitute restricted securities; and any securities issued or issuable with respect to any Company Common Stock referred to above as a result of a conversion, exchange, stock dividend or distribution, stock split or reverse stock split, combination, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, or other reorganization thereof.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that such securities cease to be "registrable securities" when:

a registration statement (other than a registration on Form S-4 or S-8 pursuant to which such securities were issued by the Company) with respect to the sale of such securities has become effective under the Securities Act and such securities have been disposed of in accordance with such registration statement;

such securities have been distributed to the public in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act;

such securities have been otherwise transferred in compliance with the Securities Act, new certificates for such securities not bearing a legend restricting further transfer have been delivered by the Company and subsequent disposition of such securities does not require registration or qualification of such securities under the Securities Act or any similar state law then in force; or such securities have ceased to be outstanding.

If a stockholder party to the Registration Rights Agreement requests registration of any of its shares, the Company is required to prepare and file a registration statement with the SEC as soon as possible, and no later than 60 days after receipt of the request.

The Company will pay all expenses in connection with the first four successfully effected registrations requested.

The stockholders party to the Registration Rights Agreement have the right to request that any offering requested by them under the Registration Rights Agreement be an underwritten offering. The Company will have the right to select one or more underwriters to administer the requested offering, but the selection of underwriters will be subject to approval by the holders of a majority of the shares to be included in the offering.

The Registration Rights Agreement also provides that, with certain exceptions, the parties thereto will have certain incidental registration rights in the event that the Company at any time proposes to register any of its equity securities and the registration form to be used may be used for the registration of securities otherwise registrable under the Registration Rights Agreement.

If the holders of a majority of the registrable securities for which registration is being requested determine that the number of securities to be sold in any offering should be limited due to market conditions or otherwise, or in the event that the number of shares of registrable securities for which registration is being requested exceeds the maximum number of shares permitted to be included in such registration, holders of registrable securities proposing to sell their securities in such registration shall share pro rata in the number of securities being offered and registered for their account, such sharing to be based on the number of registrable securities as to which registration was requested by such holders, except that securities being offered by the Company will have first priority in any such registration.

In addition to the provisions set forth above, the Registration Rights Agreement contains other terms and conditions including those customary to agreements of this kind.

The Registration Rights Agreement will terminate on the earliest of its termination by unanimous consent of the parties, the date on which no shares subject to the agreement are outstanding, or the dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the Company.
