About information contained in this report:

Performance data is historical and reflects historical expenses and historical changes in net asset value. Historical results are not indicative of future results.

If RMR Advisors had not waived fees or paid all of each fund's organizational costs and a portion of each Fund's offering costs, each fund's returns would have been lower.

Investment in each fund's shares is subject to material risks, including but not limited to those described in each Fund's annual report on Form N-CSR filed with the SEC for the period ended December 31, 2004, or with respect to RMR Preferred Dividend Fund, the registration statements filed with the SEC related to the initial public offering of common and preferred shares.

RMR Real Estate Fund

June 30, 2005

To our shareholders,

In the pages that follow, you will find data summarizing our financial results for the first six months of 2005 and our financial position as of June 30, 2005.

As a result of our investment activities for the first six months of 2005, our net asset value was $16.75 per common share as of June 30, 2005, a 0.8% increase from $16.61 per common share six months earlier. In addition to this increase in net asset value per common share, we made monthly distributions totaling $0.60 per common share during the first six months of 2005.

For the first six months of 2005, our allocation in the manufactured homes sub-sector increased from 4.5% to 6.6% of total investments, our largest sub-sector increase. During the same time period, our allocation in the apartments sub-sector decreased from 18.6% to 13.2% of total investments, our largest sub-sector decrease. These changes partly reflect trading activity based upon our view of the strengths and weaknesses of these sub-sectors and the companies that operate in them and partly reflect the impact of stock market conditions. During the remainder of 2005, we will continue to monitor market conditions and position our portfolio according to our view of those conditions.

For shares that we held continuously during the first six months of 2005, our three best performing investments were Equity Office Properties Trust, Colonial Properties Trust and U-Store-It Trust, with total returns during this period of 17.3%, 16.2% and 13.0%, respectively. Our worst performing investments during the first six months of 2005 were Bedford Property Investors, Inc., Eagle Hospitality Properties Trust, Inc. and Trustreet Properties Inc. with total returns (losses) during the first six months of (15.2)%, (6.5)% and (4.2)%, respectively.

Thank you for your continued support, and be sure to view our website, at www.rmrffunds.com.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. O'Brien
President

Relevant Market Conditions

Real Estate Industry Fundamentals. We believe the investment environment for most real estate companies at June 30, 2005, and for the remainder of 2005 is generally positive. We believe that the environment for the remainder of 2005 will include revenue growth and stabilizing to improving occupancy rates. We believe that a majority of real estate investment trust's balance sheets reflect modest debt leverage and low floating rate debt.

Real Estate Industry Technicals. We believe demand for real estate securities over the long term will continue to increase. Demographic trends in the U.S. include growth in the over age 50 population; we believe that individuals in that age category tend to focus their investments in higher yielding stocks like real estate investments trusts, or REITs. Institutions, too, seem to be increasing their allocations to real estate securities as the market capitalization of REITs has increased. Both of these are positive factors affecting the real estate securities market.

Fund Strategies, Techniques and Performance

Our primary investment objective is to earn and pay a high level of current income to our common shareholders by investing in real estate companies. Our secondary investment objective is capital appreciation. There can be no assurance that we will meet our investment objectives.

During the first six months of 2005, our total return on net asset value, or NAV (including NAV changes and assuming a hypothetical reinvestment of distributions at NAV) was 4.8%. During that same period, the total return for the MSCI US REIT Total Return Index was 6.4% and the total return for the MSCI REIT Preferred Index was 2.8%. We believe these two indices are most relevant to our investments because our investments, excluding short-term investments, as of June 30, 2005, include 72.7% REIT common stocks and 26.1% REIT preferred stocks. The S&P 500 Index (an unmanaged index published as Standard and Poor's Composite Index of 500 Stocks) total return (loss) for the first six months of 2005 was (0.8)%.

RMR Real Estate Fund
Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2005 (unaudited)

Note A

(1) Organization

RMR Real Estate Fund, or the Fund, was organized as a Massachusetts business trust on July 2, 2002, and is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a non-diversified closed end management investment company. The Fund had no operations prior to December 18, 2003, other than matters relating to the Fund's establishment and registration of the Fund's common shares under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Interim Financial Statements

The accompanying June 30, 2005, financial statements have been prepared without audit. The Fund believes the disclosures made are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. In the opinion of the Fund's management, all adjustments, which include only normal recurring adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation, have been included. The Fund's operating results for this interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected in the future.

(3) Use of Estimates

Preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires the Fund's management to make estimates and assumptions that may affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and related notes. The actual results could differ from these estimates particularly for reasons described in Note A(7), and for other reasons.

(4) Portfolio Valuation

Investment securities of the Fund are valued at the latest sales price whenever that price is readily available on the day of valuation; securities for which no sales were reported on that day, unless otherwise noted, are valued at the last available bid price on that day. Securities traded primarily on the NASDAQ Stock Market, or NASDAQ, are normally valued by the Fund at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price, or NOCP, provided by NASDAQ each business day. The NOCP is the most recently reported price as of 4:00:06 p.m., eastern time, unless that price is outside the range of the "inside" bid and asked prices (i.e., the bid and asked prices that dealers quote to each other when trading for their own accounts); in that case, NASDAQ will adjust the price to equal the inside bid or asked price, whichever is closer. Because of delays in reporting trades, the NOCP may not be based on the price of the last trade to occur before the market closes. Some fixed income securities may be valued using pricing provided by a pricing service. Any of the Fund's securities which are not readily marketable, which are not traded, which have other characteristics of illiquidity or whose quotations are unreliable are valued by the Fund at fair value as determined in good faith under the supervision of the Fund's board of trustees. Numerous factors may be considered when determining fair value of a security, including cost at date of purchase, type of security, the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the security and whether the issuer of the security being fair valued has other securities of the same class outstanding. Short term debt securities with less than 60 days until maturity may be valued at cost, which when combined with interest accrued, approximates market value.

(5) Securities Transactions and Investment Income

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Non-cash dividends included in dividend income, if any, are recorded at the fair market value of the securities received. Interest income, including accretion of original issue discount, where applicable, and accretion of discount on short term investments, is recorded on the accrual basis. Realized gains and losses from securities transactions are recorded on the basis of identified cost.

(6) Federal Income Taxes

The Fund has qualified and intends to qualify in the future as a "regulated investment company" and to comply with the applicable provisions of subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, so that it will generally not be subject to federal income tax.

(7) Distributable Earnings

The Fund earns income, net of expenses, daily on its investments. It is the policy of the Fund to pay a stable distribution amount to common shareholders on a monthly basis and distributions to Fund shareholders are declared pursuant to this policy. On June 28, 2005, the Fund declared distributions of $0.10 per common share payable in August, September and October 2005. Distributions to Fund shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

The Fund's distributions may consist of ordinary income (net investment income and short term capital gains), long term capital gains and return of capital. The Fund estimates that the sum of the distributions declared for the 2005 year through June 30, 2005, is not greater than distributions and interest received or accrued by the Fund on its investments over expenses and cost of leverage plus net realized capital gain from sales of securities during 2005.

For financial reporting purposes as required by generally accepted accounting principles, the Fund generally reflects distributions and interest received or accrued on its investments and distributions made to shareholders as ordinary income, long term capital gains and return of capital in accordance with the characterization of these amounts required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. However, it is not possible to characterize distributions received from real estate investment trusts, or REITs, in which the Fund has invested a substantial portion of its assets, during interim periods because these issuers do not report their tax characterization until subsequent to year end 2005. Final characterization of the Fund's 2005 distributions to shareholders is also dependent upon the magnitude or timing of the Fund's securities transactions prior to year end. Therefore, it is likely that some portion of the Fund's 2005 investment income and distributions to shareholders will be recharacterized as long term capital gain and return of capital for financial statement and federal income tax purposes subsequent to year end and reflected accordingly in the Fund's year end financial statements.

To the extent the Fund's net realized capital gains, if any, can be offset by capital loss carry forwards, it is the policy of the Fund not to distribute such gains.

Although subject to adjustments, the cost, gross unrealized appreciation and unrealized depreciation of the Fund's investments for federal income tax purposes, as of June 30, 2005, are as follows:

Cost	$	148,463,067
Gross unrealized appreciation	$	15,883,130
Gross unrealized depreciation		(1,110,265)
Net unrealized appreciation	$	14,772,865

(8) Concentration of Risk

Under normal market conditions, the Fund's investments are concentrated in income producing common shares, preferred shares and debt securities, including convertible preferred and debt securities, issued by real estate companies and REITs. The value of Fund shares may fluctuate more than the shares of a fund not concentrated in the real estate industry due to economic, legal, regulatory, technological or other developments affecting the United States real estate industry.

Note B

Advisory and Administration Agreements and Other Transactions with Affiliates

The Fund has an advisory agreement with RMR Advisors, Inc., or RMR Advisors, to provide the Fund with a continuous investment program, to make day to day investment decisions and to generally manage the business affairs of the Fund in accordance with its investment objectives and policies. Pursuant to this agreement, RMR Advisors is compensated at an annual rate of 0.85% of the Fund's average daily managed assets. Managed assets means the total assets of the Fund less liabilities other than any indebtedness entered into for purposes of leverage. For purposes of calculating managed assets, indebtedness entered for the purpose of leverage and the liquidation preference of preferred shares are not considered liabilities.

RMR Advisors has contractually agreed to waive a portion of its annual fee equal to 0.25% of the Fund's average daily managed assets until December 18, 2008.

On May 16, 2005, Barry M. Portnoy became the sole owner of RMR Advisors. This change in ownership is deemed to be a change in control resulting in termination of the then existing investment advisory agreement under the Investment Company Act of 1940. A new investment advisory agreement with the same terms as the previous agreement (except for dates of execution and effective dates) was approved by the shareholders on May 11, 2005.

RMR Advisors, and not the Fund, has agreed to pay the lead underwriter of the Fund's initial public offering an annual fee equal to 0.15% of the Fund's managed assets. This fee is paid quarterly in arrears during the term of RMR Advisors' advisory agreement and is paid by RMR Advisors, not the Fund. The aggregate fees paid pursuant to the contract plus reimbursement of legal expenses of the underwriters will not exceed 4.5% of the total price of the common shares in the initial public offering.

RMR Advisors also performs administrative functions for the Fund pursuant to an administration agreement with the Fund. RMR Advisors has entered into a sub-administration agreement with State Street Bank and Trust Company ("State Street") to perform substantially all Fund accounting and other administrative services. Under the administration agreement RMR Advisors is entitled to reimbursement of the cost of providing administrative services. During the six months ended June 30, 2005, the Fund reimbursed RMR Advisors for $65,351 of sub-administrative fees charged by State Street.

The Fund pays each trustee who is not a director, officer or employee of RMR Advisors and who is not an interested person of the Fund as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, (a "disinterested trustee") an annual fee plus fees for board and committee meetings.

The Fund's board of trustees and separately the disinterested trustees have authorized the Fund to make reimbursement payments to RMR Advisors for costs related to the Fund's compliance and internal audit programs. The Fund also participates in pooled insurance programs with RMR Advisors and other funds managed by RMR Advisors and makes payments of the allocated portions of related premiums.

Note C

Securities Transactions

During the six months ended June 30, 2005, there were securities purchases and sales transactions (excluding short term securities) of $14,032,332 and $16,745,343, respectively. Brokerage commissions on securities transactions, exclusive of transactions settled on a net basis, amounted to $26,730 during the six months ended June 30, 2005.

Note D

Preferred Shares

The Fund's 2,000 outstanding Series M auction preferred shares have a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus an amount equal to accumulated but unpaid distributions. The preferred shares are senior to the Fund's common shares and rank on parity with any other class or series of preferred shares of the Fund as to the payment of periodic distributions, including distribution of assets upon liquidation. If the Fund does not timely cure a failure to (1) maintain asset coverage for the preferred shares as required by rating agencies, or (2) maintain asset coverage, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, of at least 200%, the preferred shares will be subject to redemption at an amount equal to their liquidation preference plus accumulated but unpaid distributions. The holders of the preferred shares have voting rights equal to the holders of the Fund's common shares and generally vote together with the holders of the common shares as a single class. Holders of the preferred shares, voting as a separate class, also are entitled to elect two of the Fund's trustees. The Fund pays distributions on the preferred shares at a rate set at auctions held generally every seven days. Distributions are generally payable every seven days, on the first business day following the end of a distribution period. The preferred share distribution rate was 3.05% per annum as of June 30, 2005.

RMR Hospitality and Real Estate Fund

June 30, 2005

To our shareholders,

In the pages that follow, you will find data summarizing our financial results for the first six months of 2005 and our financial position as of June 30, 2005.

As a result of our investment activities for the first six months of 2005, our net asset value was $23.31 per common share as of June 30, 2005, a 1.2% increase from $22.94 per common share six months earlier. In addition to this increase in net asset value per common share, we made monthly distributions totaling $0.75 per common share during the first six months of 2005.

For the first six months of 2005, our investment allocation to the sub-sector of diversified real estate investment trusts, or REITs, increased from 12.0% to 13.6% of total investments, the largest sub-sector increase. During the same time period, our allocation to the hospitality sub-sector decreased from 31.2% to 27.0% of total investments, the largest sub-sector decrease. These changes partly reflect our view of the performance of each sub-sector and the companies in them and partly reflect the impact of stock market conditions. During the remainder of 2005, we will continue to monitor market conditions and position our portfolio according to our view of those conditions.

For shares that we held continuously during the first six months of 2005, our three best performing investments during the period were Gables Residential Trust, Equity Office Properties Trust and Colonial Properties Trust, with total returns during this period of 24.9%, 17.3% and 16.2%, respectively. Our worst performing investments during the first six months of 2005 were Bedford Property Investors, Inc., Eagle Hospitality Properties Trust, Inc. and Trustreet Properties Inc. with total returns (losses) during the first six months of (15.2)%, (6.5)% and (4.2)%, respectively.

Thank you for your continued support, and be sure to view our website, at www.rmrfunds.com.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. O'Brien
President

Relevant Market Conditions

Hospitality Industry Fundamentals. We believe the favorable operating environment for hospitality companies that existed in 2004 has continued into 2005. In general, strong earnings reports have been released for the first two quarters from most of the major U.S. lodging companies. The first six months of 2005 for the hospitality industry were characterized by improvement in revenue per available room, or RevPAR, as a result of improved demand and limited growth in new room supply. The positive impact of revenue gains was offset somewhat in the period by increased labor, benefits and energy costs.

Barring any material unexpected economic or geopolitical events, we see positive trends continuing through the second half of 2005.

Real Estate Industry Fundamentals. We believe the investment environment for most real estate companies at June 30, 2005, and for the remainder of 2005 is generally positive. We believe that the environment for the remainder of 2005 will include revenue growth and stabilizing to improving occupancy rates. We believe that a majority of real estate investment trust's balance sheets reflect modest debt leverage and low floating rate debt.

Real Estate Industry Technicals. We believe demand for real estate securities over the long term will continue to increase. Demographic trends in the U.S. include growth in the over age 50 population; we believe that individuals in that age category tend to focus their investments in higher yielding stocks like real estate investments trusts, or REITs. Institutions, too, seem to be increasing their allocations to real estate securities as the market capitalization of REITs has increased. Both of these are positive factors affecting the real estate securities market.

Fund Strategies, Techniques and Performance

Our primary objective is to earn and pay our shareholders a high level of current income by investing in hospitality and real estate companies. Our secondary objective is capital appreciation. There can be no assurance that we will meet our investment objectives.

During the first six months of 2005, our total return on net asset value, or NAV (including NAV changes and assuming a hypothetical reinvestment of distributions at NAV) was 5.10%. During that same period, the total return for the MSCI US REIT Total Return Index was 6.4% and the total return for the MSCI REIT Preferred Index was 2.8%. We believe these two indices are most relevant to our investments because our investments, excluding short term investments, as of June 30, 2005, include 55.9% REIT common stocks and 28.9% REIT preferred stocks. The S&P 500 Index (an unmanaged index published as Standard and Poor's Composite Index of 500 Stocks) total return (loss) for the first six months of 2005 was (0.8)%.

- (d) Amounts are net of expenses waived by RMR Advisors.
- (e) As discussed in Note A(7) to the financial statements, these amounts are subject to change to the extent 2005 distributions by the issuers of the Fund's investments are characterized as capital gains and return of capital.
- (f) Total returns for periods less than one year are not annualized.
- (g) Total return based on per share market price assumes the purchase of common shares at the market price on the first day and sales of common shares at the market price on the last day of the period indicated; distributions are assumed to be reinvested at market prices. The total return based on net asset value, or NAV, assumes the purchase of common shares at NAV on the first day and sales of common shares at NAV on the last day of the period indicated; distributions are assumed to be reinvested at NAV. Results represent past performance and do not guarantee future results. Total return would have been lower if RMR Advisors had not contractually waived a portion of its investment advisory fee.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2005 (unaudited)

Note A

(1) Organization

RMR Hospitality and Real Estate Fund, or the Fund, was organized as a Massachusetts business trust on January 27, 2004, and is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a non-diversified closed end management investment company. The Fund had no operations until April 27, 2004, other than matters relating to the Fund's establishment and registration of the Fund's common shares under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Interim Financial Statements

The accompanying June 30, 2005, financial statements have been prepared without audit. The Fund believes the disclosures made are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. In the opinion of the Fund's management, all adjustments, which include only normal recurring adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation, have been included. The Fund's operating results for this interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected in the future.

(3) Use of Estimates

Preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires the Fund's management to make estimates and assumptions that may affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and related notes. The actual results could differ from these estimates particularly for reasons described in Note A(7), and for other reasons.

(4) Portfolio Valuation

Investment securities of the Fund are valued at the latest sales price whenever that price is readily available on the day of valuation; securities for which no sales were reported on that day, unless otherwise noted, are valued at the last available bid price on that day. Securities traded primarily on the NASDAQ Stock Market, or NASDAQ, are normally valued by the Fund at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price, or NOCP, provided by NASDAQ each business day. The NOCP is the most recently reported price as of 4:00:06 p.m., eastern time, unless that price is outside the range of the "inside" bid and asked prices (i.e., the bid and asked prices that dealers quote to each other when trading for their own accounts); in that case, NASDAQ will adjust the price to equal the inside bid or asked price, whichever is closer. Because of delays in reporting trades, the NOCP may not be based on the price of the last trade to occur before the market closes. Some fixed income securities may be valued using pricing provided by a pricing service. Any of the Fund's securities which are not readily marketable, which are not traded, which have other characteristics of illiquidity or whose quotations are unreliable are valued by the Fund at fair value as determined in good faith under the supervision of the Fund's board of trustees. Numerous factors may be considered when determining fair value of a security, including cost at date of purchase, type of security, the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the security and whether the issuer of the security being fair valued has other securities of the same class outstanding. Short term debt securities with less than 60 days until maturity may be valued at cost, which when combined with interest accrued, approximates market value.

(5) Securities Transactions and Investment Income

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Non-cash dividends included in dividend income, if any, are recorded at the fair market value of the securities received. Interest income, including accretion of original issue discount, where applicable, and accretion of discount on short term investments, is recorded on the accrual basis. Realized gains and losses from securities transactions are recorded on the basis of identified cost.

(6) Federal Income Taxes

The Fund has qualified and intends to qualify in the future as a "regulated investment company" and to comply with the applicable provisions of subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, so that it will generally not be subject to federal income tax.

(7) Distributable Earnings

The Fund earns income, net of expenses, daily on its investments. It is the policy of the Fund to pay a stable distribution amount to common shareholders on a monthly basis and distributions to Fund shareholders are declared pursuant to this policy. On June 28, 2005, the Fund declared distributions of $0.125 per common share payable in August, September and October 2005. Distributions to Fund shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

The Fund's distributions may consist of ordinary income (net investment income and short term capital gains), long term capital gains and return of capital. The Fund estimates that the sum of the distributions declared for the 2005 year through June 30, 2005, is not greater than distributions and interest received or accrued by the Fund on its investments over expenses and cost of leverage plus net realized capital gain from sales of securities during 2005.

For financial reporting purposes as required by generally accepted accounting principles, the Fund generally reflects distributions and interest received or accrued on its investments and distributions made to shareholders as ordinary income, long term capital gains and return of capital in accordance with the characterization of these amounts required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. However, it is not possible to characterize distributions received from real estate investment trusts, or REITs, in which the Fund has invested a substantial portion of its assets, during interim periods because these issuers do not report their tax characterization until subsequent to year end 2005. Final characterization of the Fund's 2005 distributions to shareholders is also dependent upon the magnitude or timing of the Fund's securities transactions prior to year end. Therefore, it is likely that some portion of the Fund's 2005 investment income and distributions to shareholders will be recharacterized as long term capital gain and return of capital for financial statement and federal income tax purposes subsequent to year end and reflected accordingly in the Fund's year end financial statements.

To the extent the Fund's net realized capital gains, if any, can be offset by capital loss carry forwards, it is the policy of the Fund not to distribute such gains.

Although subject to adjustments, the cost, gross unrealized appreciation and unrealized depreciation of the Fund's investments for federal income tax purposes, as of June 30, 2005, are as follows:

Cost	$	64,599,914
		<hr/>
Gross unrealized appreciation	$	9,180,735
Gross unrealized depreciation		(237,901)
		<hr/>
Net unrealized appreciation	$	8,942,834

(8) Concentration of Risk

Under normal market conditions, the Fund's investments are concentrated in income producing common shares, preferred shares and debt securities, including convertible preferred and debt securities, issued by hospitality and real estate companies and REITs. The value of Fund shares may fluctuate more than the shares of a fund not concentrated in the hospitality and real estate industries due to economic, legal, regulatory, technological or other developments affecting the United States hospitality and real estate industries.

Note B

Advisory and Administration Agreements and Other Transactions with Affiliates

The Fund has an advisory agreement with RMR Advisors, Inc., or RMR Advisors, to provide the Fund with a continuous investment program, to make day to day investment decisions and to generally manage the business affairs of the Fund in accordance with its investment objectives and policies. Pursuant to this agreement, RMR Advisors is compensated at an annual rate of 0.85% of the Fund's average daily managed assets. Managed assets means the total assets of the Fund less liabilities other than any indebtedness entered into for purposes of leverage. For purposes of calculating managed assets, indebtedness entered for the purpose of leverage and the liquidation preference of preferred shares are not considered liabilities.

RMR Advisors has contractually agreed to waive a portion of its annual fee equal to 0.25% of the Fund's average daily managed assets, until April 27, 2009.

On May 16, 2005, Barry M. Portnoy became the sole owner of RMR Advisors. This change in ownership is deemed to be a change in control resulting in termination of the then existing investment advisory agreement under the Investment Company Act of 1940. A new investment advisory agreement with the same terms as the previous agreement (except for dates of execution and effective dates) was approved by the shareholders on May 11, 2005.

RMR Advisors, and not the Fund, has agreed to pay the lead underwriters of the Fund's initial public offering an annual fee equal to 0.15% in the aggregate of the Fund's managed assets. This fee is paid quarterly in arrears during the term of RMR Advisors' advisory agreement and is paid by RMR Advisors, not the Fund. The aggregate fees paid pursuant to the contract plus reimbursement of legal expenses of the underwriters will not exceed 4.5% of the total price of the common shares sold to non-affiliates in the initial public offering.

RMR Advisors also performs administrative functions for the Fund pursuant to an administration agreement with the Fund. RMR Advisors has entered into a sub-administration agreement with State Street Bank and Trust Company ("State Street") to perform substantially all Fund accounting and other administrative services. Under the administration agreement RMR Advisors is entitled to reimbursement of the cost of providing administrative services. During the six months ended June 30, 2005, the Fund reimbursed RMR Advisors for $65,330 of sub-administrative fees charged by State Street.

The Fund pays each trustee who is not a director, officer or employee of RMR Advisors and who is not an interested person of the Fund as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, (a "disinterested trustee") an annual fee plus fees for board and committee meetings.

The Fund's board of trustees and separately the disinterested trustees have authorized the Fund to make reimbursement payments to RMR Advisors for costs related to the Fund's compliance and internal audit programs. The Fund also participates in pooled insurance programs with RMR Advisors and other funds managed by RMR Advisors and makes payments of the allocated portions of related premiums.

Note C

Securities Transactions

During the six months ended June 30, 2005, there were securities purchases and sales transactions (excluding short term securities) of $3,630,338 and $7,309,107 respectively. Brokerage commissions on securities transactions, exclusive of transactions settled on a net basis, amounted to $3,401 during the six months ended June 30, 2005.

Note D

Preferred Shares

The Fund's 680 outstanding Series Th auction preferred shares have a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus an amount equal to accumulated but unpaid distributions. The preferred shares are senior to the Fund's common shares and rank on parity with any other class or series of preferred shares of the Fund as to the payment of periodic distributions, including distribution of assets upon liquidation. If the Fund does not timely cure a failure to (1) maintain asset coverage for the preferred shares as required by rating agencies, or (2) maintain asset coverage, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, of at least 200%, the preferred shares will be subject to redemption at an amount equal to their liquidation preference plus accumulated but unpaid distributions. The holders of the preferred shares have voting rights equal to the holders of the Fund's common shares and generally vote together with the holders of the common shares as a single class. Holders of the preferred shares, voting as a separate class, also are entitled to elect two of the Fund's trustees. The Fund pays distributions on the preferred shares at a rate set at auctions held generally every seven days. Distributions are generally payable every seven days, on the first business day following the end of a distribution period. The preferred share distribution rate was 3.10% per annum as of June 30, 2005.

In June 2005, the Fund's board authorized the issuance of additional preferred shares. Subject to market conditions, the Fund intends to offer additional preferred shares which together with the Series Th preferred shares will represent approximately 33% of the Fund's managed assets after issuance.

June 30, 2005

To our shareholders,

In the pages that follow, you will find data summarizing our financial results for the first six months of 2005 and our financial position as of June 30, 2005.

As a result of our investment activities for the first six months of 2005, our net asset value was $23.54 per common share as of June 30, 2005, a 1.9% decrease from $23.99 per common share six months earlier. We paid five monthly distributions totaling $0.73 per common share during the first six months of 2005. We completed investing the proceeds from our December 2004 preferred share offering in the first six months of 2005 and paid our first monthly dividend in February 2005.

Our allocation in the hospitality sub-sector increased from 2.4% to 10.9% of total investments, the largest sub-sector increase. During the same time period, our allocation in bank securities decreased from 16.4% to 12.9% of total investments, the largest sub-sector decrease. These changes partly reflect trading activity based upon our view of business environments in these industries and the strengths and weakness of individual companies and partly reflect stock market conditions for real estate investment trusts and relatively weaker stock market conditions for banks. During the remainder of 2005, we will continue to monitor market conditions and position our portfolio according to our view of those conditions.

For shares that we held continuously during the first six months of 2005, our three best performing investments were Equity Office Properties Trust, Colonial Properties Trust and American Capital Strategies, Ltd., with total returns during the period of 17.3%, 16.2% and 13.1%, respectively. Our worst performing investments during the first six months of 2005 were Freidman, Billings, Ramsey Group, Inc., Bedford Properties Investors, Inc. and Farmers Capital Bank Corp., with total returns (losses) during the first six months of (22.8)%, (15.2)% and (14.3)%, respectively.

Thank you for your continued support, and be sure to view our website, at www.rmrffunds.com.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. O'Brien
President

Relevant Market Conditions

Financial Services Industry Fundamentals. Financial stocks had a difficult first six months in 2005. The treasury yield curve flattening that has so far been the net result of Federal Reserve rate increases, has reduced most bank's spread between cost of funds and asset yields (commonly referred to as net interest margin). Despite this difficulty weighing on share prices, fundamentals have held firm for most banks. Consumer and real estate loan growth continued during the period and residential mortgage growth was much stronger than expected. Despite fears of possible credit quality deterioration, we have seen very little diminishing loan quality in reported statistics, a factor which has confounded the expectations even of some companies' management teams.

The first six months of 2005 also saw a dramatic slow down of merger activity. Recently, the consolidation that we believe may favorably impact bank share prices seems to have begun again.

Real Estate Industry Fundamentals. We believe the investment environment for most real estate companies at June 30, 2005, and for the remainder of 2005 is generally positive. We believe that the environment for the remainder of 2005 will include revenue growth and stabilizing to improving occupancy rates. We believe that a majority of real estate investment trust's balance sheets reflect modest debt leverage and low floating rate debt.

Real Estate Industry Technicals. We believe demand for real estate securities over the long term will continue to increase. Demographic trends in the U.S. include growth in the over age 50 population; we believe that individuals in that age category tend to focus their investments in higher yielding stocks like real estate investments trusts, or REITs. Institutions, too, seem to be increasing their allocations to real estate securities as the market capitalization of REITs has increased. Both of these are positive factors affecting the real estate securities market.

Fund Strategies, Techniques and Performance

Our investment objective is to provide high total returns to our common shareholders through a combination of capital appreciation and current income. There can be no assurance that we will meet our investment objective.

During the first six months of 2005, our total return on net asset value, or NAV (including NAV changes and assuming a hypothetical reinvestment of distributions at NAV) was 1.4%. During the same period the S&P 500 Financial Sector Index total return (loss) was (2.3)%, the total return for the MSCI US REIT Total Return Index was 6.4% and the MSCI REIT Preferred Index was 2.8%. We believe these three indices are most relevant to our investments because our investments, excluding short-term investments, as of June 30, 2005, include 27.6% of financial services stocks, 31.5% REIT common stocks and 38.1% REIT preferred stocks. The S&P 500 Index (an unmanaged index published as Standard and Poor's Composite Index of 500 Stocks) total return (loss) for the first six months of 2005 was (0.8)%.

RMR F.I.R.E. Fund
Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2005 (unaudited)

Note A

(1) Organization

RMR F.I.R.E. Fund, or the Fund, was organized as a Massachusetts business trust on August 6, 2004, and is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a non-diversified closed end management investment company. The Fund had no operations until November 22, 2004, other than matters relating to the Fund's establishment and registration of the Fund's common shares under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Interim Financial Statements

The accompanying June 30, 2005, financial statements have been prepared without audit. The Fund believes the disclosures made are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. In the opinion of the Fund's management, all adjustments, which include only normal recurring adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation, have been included. The Fund's operating results for this interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected in the future.

(3) Use of Estimates

Preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires the Fund's management to make estimates and assumptions that may affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and related notes. The actual results could differ from these estimates particularly for reasons described in Note A(7), and for other reasons.

(4) Portfolio Valuation

Investment securities of the Fund are valued at the latest sales price whenever that price is readily available on the day of valuation; securities for which no sales were reported on that day, unless otherwise noted, are valued at the last available bid price on that day. Securities traded primarily on the NASDAQ Stock Market, or NASDAQ, are normally valued by the Fund at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price, or NOCP, provided by NASDAQ each business day. The NOCP is the most recently reported price as of 4:00:06 p.m., eastern time, unless that price is outside the range of the "inside" bid and asked prices (i.e., the bid and asked prices that dealers quote to each other when trading for their own accounts); in that case, NASDAQ will adjust the price to equal the inside bid or asked price, whichever is closer. Because of delays in reporting trades, the NOCP may not be based on the price of the last trade to occur before the market closes. Some fixed income securities may be valued using pricing provided by a pricing service. Any of the Fund's securities which are not readily marketable, which are not traded, which have other characteristics of illiquidity or whose quotations are unreliable are valued by the Fund at fair value as determined in good faith under the supervision of the Fund's board of trustees. Numerous factors may be considered when determining fair value of a security, including cost at date of purchase, type of security, the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the security and whether the issuer of the security being fair valued has other securities of the same class outstanding. Short term debt securities with less than 60 days until maturity may be valued at cost, which when combined with interest accrued, approximates market value.

Edgar Filing: RMR F.I.R.E. Fund - Form N-CSR

(5) Securities Transactions and Investment Income

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Non-cash dividends included in dividend income, if any, are recorded at the fair market value of the securities received. Interest income, including accretion of original issue discount, where applicable, and accretion of discount on short term investments, is recorded on the accrual basis. Realized gains and losses from securities transactions are recorded on the basis of identified cost.

(6) Federal Income Taxes

The Fund has qualified and intends to qualify in the future as a "regulated investment company" and to comply with the applicable provisions of subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, so that it will generally not be subject to federal income tax.

(7) Distributable Earnings

The Fund earns income, net of expenses, daily on its investments. It is the policy of the Fund to pay a stable distribution amount to common shareholders on a monthly basis and distributions to Fund shareholders are declared pursuant to this policy. On June 28, 2005, the Fund declared distributions of $0.146 per common share payable in August, September and October 2005. Distributions to Fund shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

The Fund's distributions may consist of ordinary income (net investment income and short term capital gains), long term capital gains and return of capital. The Fund estimates that the sum of the distributions declared for the 2005 year through June 30, 2005, is not greater than distributions and interest received or accrued by the Fund on its investments over expenses and cost of leverage plus net realized capital gain from sales of securities during 2005.

For financial reporting purposes as required by generally accepted accounting principles, the Fund generally reflects distributions and interest received or accrued on its investments and distributions made to shareholders as ordinary income, long term capital gains and return of capital in accordance with the characterization of these amounts required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. However, it is not possible to characterize distributions received from real estate investment trusts, or REITs, in which the Fund has invested a substantial portion of its assets, during interim periods because these issuers do not report their tax characterization until subsequent to year end 2005. Final characterization of the Fund's 2005 distributions to shareholders is also dependent upon the magnitude or timing of the Fund's securities transactions prior to year end. Therefore, it is likely that some portion of the Fund's 2005 investment income and distributions to shareholders will be recharacterized as long term capital gain and return of capital for financial statement and federal income tax purposes subsequent to year end and reflected accordingly in the Fund's year end financial statements.

To the extent the Fund's net realized capital gains, if any, can be offset by capital loss carry forwards, it is the policy of the Fund not to distribute such gains.

Edgar Filing: RMR F.I.R.E. Fund - Form N-CSR

Although subject to adjustments, the cost, gross unrealized appreciation and unrealized depreciation of the Fund's investments for federal income tax purposes, as of June 30, 2005, are as follows:

Cost	$ 54,199,439
Gross unrealized appreciation	$ 802,361
Gross unrealized depreciation	(1,556,331)
Net unrealized depreciation	$ (753,970)

(8) Concentration of Risk

Under normal market conditions, the Fund's investments are concentrated in common and preferred shares issued by F.I.R.E. companies. "F.I.R.E." is a commonly used acronym for the combined financial services, insurance and real estate industries. The value of Fund shares may fluctuate more than the shares of a fund not concentrated in the F.I.R.E. industries due to economic, legal, regulatory, technological or other developments affecting the United States F.I.R.E. industries.

Note B

Advisory and Administration Agreements and Other Transactions with Affiliates

The Fund has an advisory agreement with RMR Advisors, Inc., or RMR Advisors, to provide the Fund with a continuous investment program, to make day to day investment decisions and to generally manage the business affairs of the Fund in accordance with its investment objectives and policies. Pursuant to this agreement, RMR Advisors is compensated at an annual rate of 0.85% of the Fund's average daily managed assets. Managed assets means the total assets of the Fund less liabilities other than any indebtedness entered for purposes of leverage. For purposes of calculating managed assets, the liquidation preference of preferred shares are not considered liabilities.

RMR Advisors has contractually agreed to waive a portion of its annual fee equal to 0.25% of the Fund's average daily managed assets, until November 22, 2009.

On May 16, 2005, Barry M. Portnoy became the sole owner of RMR Advisors. This change in ownership is deemed to be a change in control resulting in termination of the then existing investment advisory agreement under the Investment Company Act of 1940. A new investment advisory agreement with the same terms as the previous agreement (except for dates of execution and effective dates) was approved by shareholders on May 11, 2005.

RMR Advisors, and not the Fund, has agreed to pay the lead underwriters of the Fund's initial public offering an annual fee equal to 0.15% in the aggregate of the Fund's managed assets. This fee is paid quarterly in arrears during the term of RMR Advisors' advisory agreement and is paid by RMR Advisors, not the Fund. The aggregate fees paid during the term of the contract plus reimbursement of legal expenses of the underwriters will not exceed 4.5% of the total price of the common shares sold to non-affiliates in the initial public offering.

RMR Advisors also performs administrative functions for the Fund pursuant to an administration agreement with the Fund. RMR Advisors has entered into a sub-administration agreement with State Street Bank and Trust Company ("State Street") to perform substantially all Fund accounting and other administrative services. Under the administration agreement RMR Advisors is entitled to reimbursement of the cost of providing administrative services. During the six months ended June 30, 2005, the Fund reimbursed RMR Advisors for $63,628 of sub-administrative fees charged by State Street.

The Fund pays each trustee who is not a director, officer or employee of RMR Advisors and who is not an interested person of the Fund as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, (a "disinterested trustee") an annual fee plus fees for board and committee meetings.

The Fund's board of trustees and separately the disinterested trustees have authorized the Fund to make reimbursement payments to RMR Advisors for costs related to the Fund's compliance and internal audit programs. The Fund also participates in pooled insurance programs with RMR Advisors and other funds managed by RMR Advisors and makes payments of the allocated portions of related premiums.

Note C

Securities Transactions

During the six months ended June 30, 2005, there were securities purchases and sales transactions (excluding short term securities) of $24,287,405 and $15,808,877, respectively. Brokerage commissions on securities transactions, exclusive of transactions settled on a net basis, amounted to $21,985 during the six months ended June 30, 2005.

Note D

Preferred Shares

The Fund's 800 outstanding Series W auction preferred shares have a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus an amount equal to accumulated but unpaid distributions. The preferred shares are senior to the Fund's common shares and rank on parity with any other class or series of preferred shares of the Fund as to the payment of periodic distributions, including distribution of assets upon liquidation. If the Fund does not timely cure a failure to (1) maintain asset coverage for the preferred shares as required by rating agencies, or (2) maintain asset coverage, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, of at least 200%, the preferred shares will be subject to redemption at an amount equal to their liquidation preference plus accumulated but unpaid distributions. The holders of the preferred shares have voting rights equal to the holders of the Fund's common shares and generally vote together with the holders of the common shares as a single class. Holders of the preferred shares, voting as a separate class, also are entitled to elect two of the Fund's trustees. The Fund pays distributions on the preferred shares at a rate set at auctions held generally every seven days. Distributions are generally payable every seven days, on the first business day following the end of a distribution period. The preferred share distribution rate was 3.05% per annum as of June 30, 2005.

Note ESubmission of Proposals to a Vote of Shareholders

RMR Preferred Dividend Fund

June 30, 2005

To our shareholders,

In the pages that follow, you will find data summarizing our financial results for the period from May 25, 2005, the date we commenced operations, through June 30, 2005, and our financial position as of June 30, 2005.

As a result of our investment activities for this initial period, our net asset value increased to $19.25 per common share as of June 30, 2005, a 0.8% increase from $19.09 per common share on May 25, 2005. In July 2005, we declared our first monthly distributions to common shareholders of $0.15 per common share to be paid in each of August and September 2005.

During this period we believe we have taken the initial steps in building what we believe will be a sound investment portfolio. Subsequent to June 30, 2005, we issued auction rate preferred shares, as described in the accompanying financial statements, and have begun to invest the net proceeds of that issuance.

Thank you for your continued support, and be sure to view our website, at www.rmrffunds.com.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. O'Brien
President

Relevant Market Conditions

Real Estate Industry Fundamentals. We believe the investment environment for most real estate companies at June 30, 2005, and for the remainder of 2005 is generally positive. We believe that the environment for the remainder of 2005 will include revenue growth and stabilizing to improving occupancy rates. We believe that a majority of real estate investment trust's balance sheets reflect modest debt leverage and low floating rate debt.

Real Estate Industry Technicals. We believe demand for real estate securities over the long term will continue to increase. Demographic trends in the U.S. include growth in the over age 50 population; we believe that individuals in that age category tend to focus their investments in higher yielding preferred and common stocks like real estate investments trusts, or REITs. Institutions, too, seem to be increasing their allocations to real estate securities as the market capitalization of REITs has increased. Both of these are positive factors affecting the real estate securities market.

Fund Strategies, Techniques and Performance

Our primary investment objective is to provide our common shareholders high current income. Our secondary investment objective is capital appreciation. There can be no assurance that we will meet our investment objectives.

During the period from May 25, 2005 through June 30, 2005, our total return on net asset value, or NAV was 0.8%. During that same period, the total return for the MSCI REIT Preferred Index was 1.0%. We believe this index is most relevant to our investments because our investments as of June 30, 2005, excluding short-term investments, include 76.4% REIT preferred stocks. The S&P 500 Index (an unmanaged index published as Standard and Poor's Composite Index of 500 Stocks) total return for the same period was 0.3%.

RMR Preferred Dividend Fund
Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2005 (unaudited)

Note A

(1) Organization

RMR Preferred Dividend Fund, or the Fund, was organized as a Massachusetts business trust on November 8, 2004, and is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a non-diversified closed end management investment company. The Fund had no operations until May 25, 2005, other than matters relating to the Fund's establishment, registration of the Fund's common shares under the Securities Act of 1933, and the sale of 5,000 common shares for $100,000 to RMR Advisors, Inc., or RMR Advisors. On May 25, 2005, the Fund sold 2,300,000 common shares in an initial public offering including 62,500 common shares sold to affiliates of RMR Advisors. Proceeds to the Fund were $43,896,750 after deducting underwriting commissions and $89,500 of offering expenses. There were no underwriting commissions or offering expenses paid on common shares sold to the affiliates of RMR Advisors. On July 11, 2005, the Fund sold 275,000 common shares pursuant to an over allotment agreement with the underwriters for net proceeds of $5,241,500 after deducting underwriting commissions and $11,000 of offering expenses.

(2) Interim Financial Statements

The accompanying June 30, 2005, financial statements have been prepared without audit. The Fund believes the disclosures made are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. In the opinion of the Fund's management, all adjustments, which include only normal recurring adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation, have been included. The Fund's operating results for this interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected in the future.

(3) Use of Estimates

Preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires the Fund's management to make estimates and assumptions that may affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and related notes. The actual results could differ from these estimates particularly for reasons described in Note A(7), and for other reasons.

(4) Portfolio Valuation

Investment securities of the Fund are valued at the latest sales price whenever that price is readily available on the day of valuation; securities for which no sales were reported on that day, unless otherwise noted, are valued at the last available bid price on that day. Securities traded primarily on the NASDAQ Stock Market, or NASDAQ, are normally valued by the Fund at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price, or NOCP, provided by NASDAQ each business day. The NOCP is the most recently reported price as of 4:00:06 p.m., eastern time, unless that price is outside the range of the "inside" bid and asked prices (i.e., the bid and asked prices that dealers quote to each other when trading for their own accounts); in that case, NASDAQ will adjust the price to equal the inside bid or asked price, whichever is closer. Because of delays in reporting trades, the NOCP may not be based on the price of the last trade to occur before the market closes. Some fixed income securities may be valued using pricing provided by a pricing service. Any of the Fund's securities which are not readily marketable, which are not traded, which have other characteristics of illiquidity or whose quotations are unreliable are valued by the Fund at fair value as determined in good faith under the supervision of the Fund's board of trustees. Numerous factors may be considered when determining fair value of a security, including cost at date of purchase, type of security, the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the security and whether the issuer of the security being fair valued has other securities of the same class outstanding.

Edgar Filing: RMR F.I.R.E. Fund - Form N-CSR

Short term debt securities with less than 60 days until maturity may be valued at cost, which when combined with interest accrued, approximates market value.

(5) Securities Transactions and Investment Income

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Non-cash dividends included in dividend income, if any, are recorded at the fair market value of the securities received. Interest income, including accretion of original issue discount, where applicable, and accretion of discount on short term investments, is recorded on the accrual basis. Realized gains and losses from securities transactions are recorded on the basis of identified cost.

(6) Federal Income Taxes

The Fund has qualified and intends to qualify in the future as a "regulated investment company" and to comply with the applicable provisions of subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, so that it will generally not be subject to federal income tax.

(7) Distributable Earnings

The Fund earns income, net of expenses, daily on its investments. It is the policy of the Fund to pay a stable distribution amount to common shareholders on a monthly basis and distributions to Fund shareholders are expected to be declared pursuant to this policy. Subsequent to June 30, 2005, the Fund declared distributions of $0.15 per common share payable in August and September 2005. Distributions to Fund shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

The Fund's distributions may consist of ordinary income (net investment income and short term capital gains), long term capital gains and return of capital.

For financial reporting purposes as required by generally accepted accounting principles, the Fund generally reflects distributions and interest received or accrued on its investments and distributions made to shareholders as ordinary income and long term capital gains in accordance with the characterization of these amounts required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. However, it is not possible to characterize distributions received from real estate investment trusts, or REITs, in which the Fund has invested a substantial portion of its assets, during interim periods because these issuers do not report their tax characterization until subsequent to year end. Final characterization of the Fund's 2005 distributions to shareholders is also dependent upon the magnitude or timing of the Fund's securities transactions prior to year end 2005.

To the extent the Fund's net realized capital gains, if any, can be offset by capital loss carry forwards, it is the policy of the Fund not to distribute such gains.

Although subject to adjustments, the cost, gross unrealized appreciation and unrealized depreciation of the Fund's investments for federal income tax purposes, as of June 30, 2005, are as follows:

Cost	$	44,179,405
		<hr/>
Gross unrealized appreciation	$	322,039
Gross unrealized depreciation		(55,387)
		<hr/>
Net unrealized appreciation	$	266,652

(8) Organization Expenses and Common Offering Costs

RMR Advisors paid all the organizational expenses and all of the offering costs (other than the sales load) of the Fund's initial public offering of common shares which exceeded $0.04 per share on shares sold to the public. The total amount of expenses and costs incurred by RMR Advisors is estimated at $420,000. The Fund incurred offering costs of $89,500 in connection with the common shares sold in the initial public offering which were charged as a reduction of paid in capital and $11,000 in connection with the common shares sold pursuant to the over allotment option.

(9) Concentration of Risk

Under normal market conditions, the Fund's investments are concentrated in preferred securities issued by real estate investment trusts. The value of Fund shares may fluctuate more than the shares of a fund not concentrated in the real estate industry due to economic, legal, regulatory, technological or other developments affecting the United States real estate industry.

Note B

Advisory and Administration Agreements and Other Transactions with Affiliates

The Fund has an advisory agreement with RMR Advisors to provide the Fund with a continuous investment program, to make day to day investment decisions and to generally manage the business affairs of the Fund in accordance with its investment objectives and policies. Pursuant to this agreement, RMR Advisors is compensated at an annual rate of 0.85% of the Fund's average daily managed assets. Managed assets means the total assets of the Fund less liabilities other than any indebtedness entered into for purposes of leverage. For purposes of calculating managed assets, indebtedness entered for the purpose of leverage and the liquidation preference of preferred shares are not considered liabilities.

RMR Advisors has contractually agreed to waive a portion of its annual fee equal to 0.55% of the Fund's average daily managed assets, until May 24, 2010.

RMR Advisors also performs administrative functions for the Fund pursuant to an administration agreement with the Fund. RMR Advisors has entered into a sub-administration agreement with State Street Bank and Trust Company ("State Street") to perform substantially all Fund accounting and other administrative services. Under the administration agreement RMR Advisors is entitled to reimbursement of the cost of providing administrative services. As of June 30, 2005, the Fund has a liability to RMR Advisors of $13,500 for sub-administrative fees charged by State Street during the period ending June 30, 2005.

The Fund pays each trustee who is not a director, officer or employee of RMR Advisors and who is not an interested person of the Fund as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, (a "disinterested trustee") an annual fee plus fees for board and committee meetings.

The Fund's board of trustees and separately the disinterested trustees have authorized the Fund to make reimbursement payments to RMR Advisors for costs related to the Fund's compliance and internal audit programs. The Fund also participates in pooled insurance programs with the Advisor and other funds managed by the Advisor and makes payments of the allocated portions of related premiums.

Note C

Securities Transactions

During the period ended June 30, 2005, there were securities purchases and sales transactions (excluding short term securities) of $31,139,359 and $0, respectively. Brokerage commissions on securities transactions, exclusive of transactions settled on a net basis, amounted to $0 during the period ended June 30, 2005.

Note D

Use of Leverage

On July 18, 2005, the Fund issued 900 auction preferred shares, Series M, for $22,500,000, or net proceeds of $22,132,500 after deducting underwriting commissions and offering expenses of $367,500. The preferred shares have a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus an amount equal to accumulated plus unpaid distributions. The preferred shares are senior to the Fund's common shares and rank on parity with any other class or series of preferred shares of the Fund as to the payment of periodic distributions, including distributions of assets on liquidation. If the Fund does not timely cure a failure to (1) maintain asset coverage for the preferred shares as required by rating agencies, or (2) maintain asset coverage, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, of at least 200%, the preferred shares will be subject to redemption at an amount equal to their liquidation preference plus accumulated but unpaid distributions. The holders of the preferred shares have voting rights equal to the holders of the Fund's common shares and generally vote together with the holders of the common shares as a single class. Holders of the preferred shares, voting as a separate class, also are entitled to elect two of the Fund's trustees. The Fund pays distributions on the preferred shares at a rate set at auctions held generally every seven days. Distributions are generally payable every seven days, on the first business day following the end of a distribution period. The initial preferred share distribution rate was 3.10% per annum as of July 18, 2005.

RMR Real Estate Fund
RMR Hospitality and Real Estate Fund

RMR Preferred Dividend Fund
June 30, 2005

For the purposes of the following, RMR Real Estate Fund, RMR Hospitality and Real Estate Fund, RMR F.I.R.E. Fund and RMR Preferred Dividend Fund are each referred to as a "Fund" or collectively as the "Funds".

Consideration of Advisory Agreements

RMR Advisors serves as the investment advisor to each of RMR Real Estate Fund, RMR Hospitality and Real Estate Fund, RMR F.I.R.E. Fund and RMR Preferred Dividend Fund. On May 16, 2005, a change of ownership of RMR Advisors occurred.

RMR Real Estate Fund, RMR Hospitality and Real Estate Fund and RMR F.I.R.E. Fund

The change of ownership was deemed to be a change in control of RMR Advisors that resulted in the assignment, and therefore termination, of the then current advisory agreements. On May 16, 2005, each Fund entered into a new advisory agreement with RMR Advisors, each such agreement having been approved: (1) on February 14, 2005, by the boards of each Fund, and separately by the disinterested trustees of each Fund, subject to the change in ownership of RMR Advisors occurring; and (2) on May 11, 2005, by the shareholders of each Fund.

In making their determination to approve each new agreement, each board, including the disinterested trustees, considered all of the factors described below.

Each board considered the benefits to shareholders of retaining RMR Advisors. The boards' considerations included, among others: the nature, scope and quality of services that RMR Advisors has provided under each Fund's then current advisory agreement and would provide under the new agreements; that the advisory and other fees paid and the contractual fee waivers would not change as a result of entering the new agreements; the quality and depth of personnel of RMR Advisors' organization before and after the change in ownership; the capacity and future commitment of RMR Advisors to perform its duties under each new agreement; the financial condition and profitability of RMR Advisors; the experience and expertise of RMR Advisors as an investment adviser; the performance of each Fund as compared to similar funds; the level of fees paid to RMR Advisors and the total expense ratio of each Fund as compared to similar funds; and the potential for economies of scale. Each board also considered RMR Advisors' representation that it would provide advisory and other services to each Fund of a scope and quality at least equivalent to the scope and quality provided to each Fund under the then current advisory agreements with RMR Advisors and that, other than the change of ownership, no structural, managerial or operational changes are expected to affect any of the Funds. Each board also considered that the terms of the new agreements would be substantially the same as the terms of the current agreements, except for dates of execution and effectiveness.

Each board considered the level and depth of knowledge of RMR Advisors. In evaluating the quality of services provided by RMR Advisors, each board took into account its familiarity with RMR Advisors' management through board meetings, conversations and reports. Each board also took into account RMR Advisors' compliance policies and procedures.

Each board compared the advisory fees and total expense ratio of its respective Fund with various comparative Fund data. Each board considered the Fund's recent performance results and noted that the board reviews on a quarterly basis information about the Fund's performance results, portfolio composition and investment strategies. Each board further noted that RMR Advisors has waived a portion of its management fee in order to reduce the Fund's operating expenses. Each board also took into consideration the financial condition and profitability of RMR Advisors and any indirect benefits derived by RMR Advisors from RMR Advisors' relationship with the Funds.

In considering the approval of the new agreements, each board, including the disinterested trustees, did not identify any single factor as controlling. Based on each board's evaluation of all factors that it deemed to be relevant, each board, including the disinterested trustees of each board, concluded that: RMR Advisors has demonstrated that it possesses the capability and resources to perform the duties required of it under the new agreement for that Fund; RMR Advisors maintains an appropriate compliance program; performance of the Fund is reasonable in relation to the performance of funds with similar investment objectives; and the proposed advisory fee rates are fair and reasonable, given the scope and quality of the services provided and to be provided by RMR Advisors. Each board noted in particular that the change in ownership of RMR Advisors did not present any material change in the type and quality of service it would provide to each Fund.

RMR Preferred Dividend Fund

At a meeting held on February 14, 2005, the board of trustees, including a majority of the disinterested trustees, approved two advisory agreements between RMR Advisors and the Fund in order to comply with the statutory requirements relating to the anticipated change in ownership of RMR Advisors. The first advisory agreement was effective from February 14, 2005 until May 16, 2005. The second advisory agreement was effective on May 16, 2005, the date of change of ownership of RMR Advisors. The two advisory agreements were substantially the same, except for dates of execution and effectiveness. In making their determination to approve the advisory agreements, the board, including the disinterested trustees, considered all of the factors described below.

In considering the approval of these two advisory agreements, the board reviewed various materials and considered: (1) the level of fees of the Fund as compared to competitive funds of a comparable size; (2) the estimated expense ratio of the Fund as compared to competitive funds of a comparable size, the fact that the estimated expense ratio of the Fund is reasonable compared to other funds and the fact that RMR Advisors has agreed to waive a portion of its fee during the first five years of the Fund's existence; (3) the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by RMR Advisors, including the experience of RMR Advisors and its affiliates in managing public companies; (4) the performance of similar funds managed by RMR Advisors; (5) anticipated benefits derived by RMR Advisors from its relationship with the Fund; (6) the costs of providing services to the Fund; (7) the financial condition and anticipated profitability of the Fund to RMR Advisors; (8) the benefits, in particular the research and related services, within the meaning of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which could be derived by RMR Advisors as a result of allocation of its brokerage transactions and the fact that RMR Advisors does not expect to seek or participate in these so-called "soft-dollar" arrangements; and (9) any potential for economies of scale. The board of trustees also considered that RMR Advisors agreed to pay all of the Fund's organizational costs and all of the Fund's offering costs for the initial offering of the Fund's common shares, other than sales load, that exceeded an amount equal to $0.04 per common share issued to non-affiliates.

The board also considered that the terms of both agreements would be substantially the same, except for dates of execution and effectiveness. The board considered RMR Advisors' representation that it would provide advisory and other services to the Fund of a scope and quality at least equivalent under both advisory agreements with RMR Advisors and that, other than the change of ownership, no structural, managerial or operational changes are expected to affect the Fund.

Edgar Filing: RMR F.I.R.E. Fund - Form N-CSR

The board considered the level and depth of knowledge of RMR Advisors. In evaluating the quality of services provided by RMR Advisors, the board of trustees took into account its familiarity with RMR Advisors' management through board meetings, conversations and reports of the other funds managed by RMR Advisors.

The board of trustees considered the historical performance of the other funds managed by RMR Advisors and noted that it would review on a quarterly basis information about the Fund's performance results, portfolio composition and investment strategies. The board of trustees also took into account RMR Advisors' compliance policies and procedures.

The board compared the advisory fees and estimated total expense ratio of the Fund with various comparative fund data. The board further noted that RMR Advisors would waive a portion of its management fee for the first five years in order to reduce the Fund's operating expenses. The board also took into consideration the financial condition and profitability of RMR Advisors and any indirect benefits to be derived by RMR Advisors from its relationship with the Fund. The board of trustees concluded, based upon a review of the financial statements provided by RMR Advisors, that the level of profitability to RMR Advisors from its relationship with the Fund was reasonable.

In considering the approval of the advisory agreements, the board, including the disinterested trustees, did not identify any single factor as controlling. Based on the board's evaluation of all factors that it deemed to be relevant, the board of trustees, including the disinterested trustees, concluded that: RMR Advisors has demonstrated that it possesses the capability and resources to perform the duties required of it under the advisory agreements; RMR Advisors maintains an appropriate compliance program; and the proposed advisory fee rates are fair and reasonable, given the scope and quality of the services to be rendered by RMR Advisors. The board noted that the change in ownership of RMR Advisors did not present any material change in the type and quality of service it would provide to the Fund.
