We entered into an intellectual property asset purchase agreement dated January 31, 2008 (the 2008 Asset Purchase Agreement) with Oxon Life Science Limited (Oxon) pursuant to which we agreed to purchase a third patent application and associated intellectual property rights from Oxon in consideration of the issuance to Oxon of 22,000,000 shares of our common stock. Subscription Agreement for Units

We entered into a subscription agreement with St. Moritz Institute of Switzerland Limited (the Investor) pursuant to which the Investor agreed to purchase 4,000,000 units at a price of $0.125 per unit. The subscription agreement is dated January 31, 2008 and we anticipate receiving funds from the Investor in the near future. As a result, we will issue, on receipt of funds, 4,000,000 shares of our common stock and 4,000,000 share purchase warrants to the Investor. The total proceeds from this offering will be $500,000. We completed this offering pursuant to Rule 903(a) and (b)(3) of Regulation S of the Act. A copy of the subscription agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

SECTION 2 - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

Acquisition of the Oxon Assets on January 31, 2008

We completed the acquisition of a third patent application and associated intellectual property rights from Oxon pursuant to the 2008 Asset Purchase Agreement on January 31, 2008 concurrently with the execution the 2008 Asset Purchase Agreement. The third patent application relates to the development of therapies for treatment of certain types of cancer. The patent application and associated intellectual property rights were acquired in consideration for the issuance by us to Oxon of 22,000,000 shares of our common stock. As a result of the completion of this acquisition, Oxon holds 36,000,000 shares of our common stock, representing approximately 22.55% of our outstanding shares.

The patent application is entitled Method for inducing breast carcinoma stem cell death and was filed with the Danish patent office under Patent Application No PA 2007 01846, patent application reference P2039EP00. The patent application is an improved method for the purification of undifferentiated stem cells from solid breast carcinomas that are normally resistant to conventional therapies. Such stem cells are valuable for identifying new tumour markers and novel therapeutic targets both for early diagnosis and for targeted therapeutic strategies. Such therapeutic strategies are based on cytokine neutralizing antibodies against interleukin-4 (IL-4) and interleukin-10 (IL-10) and antibodies reactive with HMW-MAA which are found in high levels in stem cells from solid breast carcinomas.

There is no assurance that we will be able to obtain a patent in respect of the subject matter that forms the basis of the patent application. Further, the intellectual property rights acquired are unproven and there is no assurance that we will be able to establish that the improved method that is the subject matter of the patent application will be an effective and safe method of treating cancer.

SECTION 3 SECURITIES AND TRADING MARKETS

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

We have completed the following issuances of securities without registration under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act):

- We issued 22,000,000 shares of our common stock pursuant to the 2008 Asset Purchase Agreement to Oxon in an offshore transaction (as defined in Rule 902 under Regulation S under the Securities Act) in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act, based upon representations made by Oxon in the 2008 Asset Purchase Agreement. All shares issued are “restricted securities” and have been endorsed with legends confirming their status as “restricted securities”.
- We completed an offering of 2,508,292 shares of our common stock (post-split) at a price of $0.0625 per share (post-split) to five investors on December 19, 2007. The total proceeds from this offering were $156,768. We completed this offering pursuant to Rule 903(a) and (b)(3) of Regulation S of the Act. The sale of these securities was completed as an “offshore transaction”, as defined in Rule 902(h) of Regulation S, on the basis that: (i) the investor was outside of the United States at the time the offer to purchase the units was made; and (ii) at the time the subscription agreement for the securities was executed, the investor was outside of the United States or we had a reasonable belief that the investor was outside of the United States. We did not engage in any directed selling efforts, as defined in Regulation S, in the United States. The investor represented to us that the investor was not a U.S. person, as defined in Regulation S, and was not acquiring the securities for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person. The investor represented its intention to acquire the securities for investment only and not with a view toward distribution. Appropriate legends have been affixed to the stock certificates and the warrant certificates issued to the investor in accordance with Regulation S confirming that the securities cannot be resold or transferred other than pursuant to Regulation S, registration under the Securities Act or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. None of the securities were sold through an underwriter and accordingly, there were no underwriting discounts or commissions involved. No registration rights were granted to the investor.
