State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

(Attach extra sheets if needed)

The Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 could not be filed within the prescribed time period because its independent accountant, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, San Francisco, California ("PWC"), previously engaged as the principal accountant to audit the financial statements of Mission West Properties, Inc., (the "Company"), resigned as independent auditors for the Company on January 26, 2004. PWC did not issue a report of independent auditors' with respect to the Company's 2003 financial statements prior to its resignation. On February 12, 2004, PWC informed the Company that PWC's audit reports dated January 21, 2002 and January 28, 2003 on the financial statements of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2002 should no longer be relied upon. The Audit Committee of the Company's board of directors has retained independent counsel to investigate matters asserted by PWC subsequent to its resignation. The Company is unable to retain new independent accountants until that investigation has been concluded. Hence, the Company is unable to obtain reports of independent auditors for the financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2001, December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2003 at this time.
