ITEM 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On January 8, 2010, Advanced Battery Technologies, Inc. (the "Company") was notified that the audit practice of Bagell, Josephs, Levine & Company, LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm ("BJL"), was combined with Friedman LLP ("Friedman") effective as of January 1, 2010. On January 8, 2010, BJL resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company and, with the approval of the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, Friedman was engaged as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

During the two years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007 and from December 31, 2008 through the engagement of Friedman as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, neither the Company nor anyone on its behalf consulted Friedman with respect to any accounting or auditing issues involving the Company. In particular, there was no discussion with the Company regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the financial statements, or any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement, as described in Item 304 of Regulation S-K ("Regulation S-K") promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), with BJL, or a "reportable event" as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

BJL performed audits of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008. BJL's report did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the two years ended December 31, 2009, and from December 31, 2009 through the January 8, 2010, there were no (i) disagreements between the Company and BJL on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to its satisfaction, would have caused BJL to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with its report, or (ii) "reportable events," as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company furnished BJL with a copy of this report prior to filing with the SEC and requested that BJL furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agreed with the statements made by the Company in this report insofar as they relate to BJL's audit services and engagement as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. BJL has furnished a letter addressed to the SEC dated January 12, 2010, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.
