Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 1, 2004, we granted a performance based restricted stock unit award to Brian P. Anderson pursuant to the company's 2003 Boise Incentive and Performance Plan, which we previously filed with our 2003 Report on Form 10-K. The award consists of 45,000 restricted stock units, at no cost to Mr. Anderson. The award is subject to a three-year restriction period and performance goals based on return on net assets.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

Effective November 11, 2004, Theodore Crumley resigned as the company's chief financial officer. Mr. Crumley will continue to provide transition services to the company until his retirement later this year.

Effective November 11, 2004, the following individual became a principal officer of OfficeMax Incorporated:

Brian P. Anderson, age 54, was elected chief financial officer. Mr. Anderson joined the company on November 1, 2004, as executive vice president of finance. Mr. Anderson most recently served as senior vice president and chief financial officer of Baxter International, Inc., from 1998 to 2004. Prior to joining Baxter International, he was an audit partner with Deloitte & Touche. Mr. Anderson is a member of the board of directors of W.W. Grainger Inc. where he chairs the board's audit committee. Mr. Anderson is neither related to any other director or executive officer of the company nor does he have relationships or transactions with the company outside the context of his employment.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On November 11, 2004, the company announced Brian P. Anderson's election as chief financial officer. For further information, please refer to the company's news release, which is furnished with this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
