On October 5, 2005, Apogee Technology, Inc. (the Company) completed a transaction with SigmaTel, Inc. (SigmaTel), whereby certain assets associated with its audio division, including the Direct Digital Amplifier (DDX®) technology, were sold to SigmaTel for approximately $9.4 million plus a one-year earn-out of potentially up to $4.5 million (the Transaction). In addition, the Company's engineering and marketing staff related to the audio division were offered positions at SigmaTel as a part of the Transaction.

The Company will use the proceeds from the Transaction to repay approximately $2.1 million owed to Laurus Master Fund, Ltd., pursuant to the Company's Secured Convertible Note and the related Securities Purchase Agreement dated as of August 9, 2005; to pay certain expenses related to the Transaction, and to enhance the development of its MEMS/Nanotechnology division and emerging line of MEMS products.

The Asset Purchase Agreement dated as of October 5, 2005 (the Agreement) associated with the Transaction provides for the payment of $420,000 of the purchase price into escrow to be held for a period of eighteen (18) months in the event of a breach by the Company, or any of the Principal Stockholders, of any representation or warranty made in connection with the Transaction. Further, the Agreement includes a $1.0 million set aside, held by SigmaTel, of the purchase price to cover amounts owed by the Company to a supplier. The Agreement also provides for a $205,000 deduction from the purchase price to reimburse SigmaTel for certain advances paid to the Company under a prior agreement.

The Company has granted SigmaTel the right to purchase inventory pursuant to certain terms and conditions as set forth in the Agreement and has agreed to refrain from competing with SigmaTel and its affiliates in regards to the Class D amplifier IC business for a period of two (2) years from October 6, 2005. SigmaTel is not assuming any liabilities related to the Company, all of which will remain the sole responsibility of the Company. The Company has agreed to indemnify SigmaTel upon the occurrence of certain events, as more fully described in Article IX of the Agreement. The Company and certain of the Principal Stockholders also entered into an additional Indemnification Agreement. The Company is authorized to indemnify the Principal Stockholders in the event any one or more of them has to satisfy any obligations thereunder.
