Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On February 28, 2006, Inverness Medical Innovations, Inc. (Inverness) entered into a definitive agreement to acquire CLONDIAG chip technologies GmbH (CLONDIAG) a private company located in Jena in Germany which has developed a multiplexing technology for nucleic acid and immunoassay based diagnostics. Pursuant to the agreement, Inverness has acquired 67.45% of the stock of CLONDIAG in exchange for 218,502 shares of Inverness common stock as of February 28, 2006 and approximately $3.1 million in cash. Inverness also agreed to settle obligations totaling approximately $10 million during the first quarter of 2006, primarily using cash. Under the agreement Inverness will acquire the remaining 32.55% of the stock of CLONDIAG on or about August 1, 2006 for an additional $4.9 million based on current exchange rates. The purchase agreement also calls for contingent consideration totaling approximately $8.9 million consisting of 224,316 shares of common stock and approximately $3 million of cash or stock in the event that 4 specified products are developed on CLONDIAG s platform technology during the three years following the date of the purchase agreement. Inverness has agreed to register for resale the shares of its common stock issued, and to be issued, under the agreement.

The shares issued, and to be issued, as consideration in the CLONDIAG acquisition were offered and sold without registration under the Securities Act of 1933 in reliance upon the exemption from registration provided by Regulation S.
