PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Based on the Registrant's delays in filing its periodic reports pursuant Section 13 of the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Registrant is also delayed in preparing and completing the financial statements required to be included in the Form 11-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The Registrant may not file the subject Form 11-K on or before the fifteenth (15th) calendar day following the prescribed due date.

|------------------------------|----------------------|--------------------------------|

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2008 Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

As a result of the significant turmoil in the mortgage market, the Company expects a decrease in the net assets of the plan of approximately $5 million to $6 million based on the decrease in the Company's stock price since December 31, 2006, as well as a reduction in participants due to a partial plan termination.

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.
