Past performance cannot predict future results. Performance will fluctuate with market conditions. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data shown. Performance information does not reflect the deduction of taxes that shareholders would pay on Fund distributions or the sale of Fund shares. An investment in the Fund involves risk, including loss of principal.

Shares of closed-end funds frequently trade at a discount to net asset value. The price of the Fund's shares is determined by a number of factors, several of which are beyond the control of the Fund. Therefore, the Fund cannot predict whether its shares will trade at, below or above net asset value.

LIBERTY ALL-STAR® EQUITY FUND
PRESIDENT'S LETTER

July 2008

Fellow Shareholders:

The second quarter got off to a promising start, as broad market indices posted gains in April and May after declining for five straight months from November through March. June, however, proved to be a different story, as it dashed investors' hopes and led most equity indices to post double-digit declines for the first half of 2008. As shareholders may have read already, it was the worst June for the Dow Jones Industrial Average since the Great Depression. Looking at more recent history, it was the third straight quarterly decline for the S&P 500 Index, and the worst second quarter since 2002.

In the second quarter, the woes that have plagued stock markets since the latter half of 2007 continued with a vengeance. Oil and other commodity prices soared to record levels. The housing market remained in the doldrums. Unemployment ticked upward and consumer sentiment fell to its lowest level since 1980. And the credit crisis, with all its far-reaching implications, seemed to raise new doubts about the stability of financial institutions large and small. In fact, financials were the poorest performing sector, as banks and other financial institutions took write-downs and reported disappointing earnings. With vehicle sales falling dramatically, General Motors Corp. lost 40 percent of its value during the quarter. Twenty-two of 30 Dow Industrial stocks closed the quarter in the red.

Volatility moderated somewhat over the quarter, but it would be hard to convince many investors of that. As measured by the Volatility Index (VIX), volatility was 108 percent higher in the first quarter of 2008 than in the year-earlier period. The VIX declined in the second quarter but was still 51 percent higher on average than it was in the second quarter of 2007.

At June 30, the S&P 500 Index had fallen 2.7 percent for the quarter and 11.9 percent for the first half. The Nasdaq Composite Index actually rose 0.8 percent, but was off 13.2 percent for the half. The Lipper Large-Cap Core Mutual Fund Average, the primary benchmark for Liberty All-Star Equity Fund, lost 1.6 percent for the quarter and 11.5 percent for the half.

Turning to the Fund itself, the net asset value (NAV) declined 3.4 percent for the second quarter and was off 3.0 percent with shares valued at NAV with dividends reinvested. Shares valued at market price with dividends reinvested showed a 5.4 percent decline. For the first half, the same measures, respectively, were -13.2 percent, -12.6 percent and -11.7 percent. Though poor in absolute terms, that final figure—the year to date market price return—was slightly ahead of the S&P 500 Index and marginally behind the Lipper benchmark.

For the quarter and the half, the greatest detractor for the Fund was its allocation to financial stocks, where it is overweighted relative to the S&P 500 Index. Two of the Fund's five managers often take contrarian points of view, whereby they focus on stocks with extremely negative investor sentiment. These managers view the pessimism surrounding financials—as well as other out of favor sectors—as an opportunity, even though the news and current environment would dictate otherwise. In many respects, the current situation is not unlike 1990-91 when money center banks – for example, Citigroup, Inc. – were extremely out of favor and was the last time these managers saw as compelling values in financial stocks as they see today.

In the current environment, there are few satisfied investors. Count us among them. We are not satisfied with the Fund's recent performance – as distinct from its much better long-term performance – but we feel it would be a mistake if skilled, seasoned managers were to deviate from their investment disciplines. Frequently, times of financial turmoil – and, perhaps, irrational behavior – create opportunities for these value managers. We would point out that there are contrarian indicators that signal a possible reversal of the present trend. One is more than $3.5 trillion in money market funds, indicating not only the current fear, but also the potential liquidity that could be committed to equities. Another is net outflows from equity mutual funds for 14 straight months, indicating how low investor sentiment is. We're not suggesting an immediate turnaround, but we are saying things are rarely as bad (or as good) as they seem. Emotion leads markets to overreact during both extremes.

We recommend that shareholders read this quarter's investment manager interview with Craig Blum, CFA, of TCW, one of the Fund's two growth style managers. He has interesting comments on two powerful growth opportunities – mobile computing and biotech – as well as some reflections on the current market environment and how he is navigating it during this difficult period.

We will continue to monitor the Fund and the broader markets and act in accord with our objective of consistent long-term returns for shareholders. Liberty All-Star Equity Fund remains a quality investment in which shareholders can be confident.

Sincerely,

William R. Parmentier, Jr.

President

* The Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains exceeded the amount to be distributed under the Fund's 10 percent distribution policy. In each case, the Fund elected to pay taxes on the undistributed income and passed through a proportionate tax credit to shareholders.

** The number of shares offered was increased by an additional 25% to cover a portion of the over-subscription requests.

DISTRIBUTION POLICY - Liberty All-Star Equity Fund's current policy, in effect since 1988, is to pay distributions on its shares totaling approximately 10 percent of its net asset value per year, payable in four quarterly installments of 2.5 percent of the Fund's net asset value at the close of the New York Stock Exchange on the Friday prior to each quarterly declaration date. The fixed distributions are not related to the amount of the Fund's net investment income or net realized capital gains or losses and may be taxed as ordinary income up to the amount of the Fund's current and accumulated earnings and profits. If, for any calendar year, the total distributions made under the 10 percent pay-out policy exceed the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains, the excess will generally be treated as a non-taxable return of capital, reducing the shareholder's adjusted basis in his or her shares. If the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains for any year exceed the amount distributed under the 10 percent pay-out policy, the Fund may, in its discretion, retain and not distribute net realized capital gains and pay income tax thereon to the extent of such excess. The Fund retained such excess gains in 1993, 1996 and 1997.

DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN - Through the Fund's Automatic Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan, the Fund's shareholders have the opportunity to have their dividends automatically reinvested in additional shares of the Fund. Participants are kept apprised of the status of their account through quarterly statements.

MANAGER INTERVIEW

Craig C. Blum, CFA

TCW Investment

Management Company

High quality, fast growing companies: There are very few of them, so TCW runs a concentrated portfolio

TCW Investment Management Company is one of All-Star's five investment management firms. TCW is a growth manager, seeking to invest in companies that have superior sales growth, leading and/or rising market shares, and high and/or rising profit margins. TCW's concentrated growth equity strategy seeks leading companies with distinct advantages in their business model and an inherent edge over competitors. Research plays a critical role in the selection process, and the investment horizon is long term. The portion of the Liberty All-Star Equity Fund portfolio that is allocated to TCW is managed by Managing Director, Craig C. Blum, CFA. The Fund's Investment Adviser, ALPS Advisers, Inc., moderated the interview.

How, in general, are companies in the portion of the Liberty All-Star Equity Fund that you manage performing in this difficult economic environment?

They're performing quite well, actually. There has been no departure in our philosophy, which is based on high quality growth, concentrated positions and a long-term orientation. But, turnover year to date is about 35 percent, and that's higher than normal. Earlier in the year, I felt that some selective pruning was in order, and that accounts for the higher turnover.

More specifically to your question, portfolio companies are generally meeting expectations. Our largest holding is QUALCOMM, and it is doing well as a supplier of 3G technology, which, as you know, is the third generation of mobile phone standards. It enables network operators to offer users a wider range of advanced services while achieving greater network capacity. Salesforce.com—the leader in on-demand customer relationship management—and some of our health care holdings are also doing well. In the first quarter, over 75 percent of our companies met or exceeded expectations and I expect the same sort of ratio in the second quarter. I believe that certain long-term secular trends can overwhelm cyclical headwinds, and we have tried to populate the portfolio with companies that are positioned to benefit from these trends. Everyone has an opinion on the macro environment, but what our research department is really good at is company-specific fundamentals and finding the most compelling growth opportunities longer term.

certain long-term secular trends can over-whelm cyclical head-winds, and we have tried to populate the portfolio with companies that are positioned to benefit from these trends.

When you talk about long-term secular trends, what would be an example?

One would be smartphones, such as the BlackBerry devices. Overall, we believe smartphones are the largest unit growth opportunity in the history of consumer electronics. I know that s a bold statement, but the cell phone industry sells 1.3 billion handsets every year. The smartphone segment of the market is still very small, but it's growing very rapidly about 50 percent a year. So, even growing at 50 percent a year for three years, smartphones would still represent less than 10 percent of the market. If you look at Apple's iPhone, it's less than 1 percent of the market. Research In Motion, which makes the BlackBerry, is about 1 percent of the market. So, these are small market share stories but the growth rate is very high. QUALCOMM is a beneficiary, too. Its technology powers these new 3G devices. More recently, we added Marvell to the portfolio because it is another electronics company that is levered to the smartphone industry.

Another theme that I would highlight within health care is biotech/biopharma. There are great growth stories and the companies in the industry aren't too closely correlated to GDP growth, which is a plus if the economy remains weak for several quarters. Companies such as Genzyme, Genentech, Cephalon and Gilead Sciences should do quite well. Gilead Sciences, which is new to the portfolio, dominates the market for frontline therapy for HIV. It's an uncomfortable subject, but the fact is HIV-AIDS infection rates continue to grow around the world.

You invest in quality growth companies. What is your definition of quality growth?

It's first defined by a big revenue opportunity, because if you want to be a growth business and if you're like us and you want to own the stock for several years, you better have a big revenue opportunity facing you. If it's too small, you're going to penetrate the opportunity too quickly. It's also defined by competitive advantages inherent in the business that we can see and even measure.

Advantages have to be real and sustainable, they can't just be stories. And then, quality is always verified. It's always validated when the company can capture share profitably year after year. In other words, we don't want to own a company that is cutting price and destroying margins just to get market share. We want high or even rising margins and market share capture. So, that's how we define it: big revenue opportunity, competitive advantages that are real and sustainable, and numbers generated by the company that confirm to us that it is a quality business. Now, there aren't many companies that can do this. The universe is probably 50 to 100 companies.

[We define quality growth as] big revenue opportunity, competitive advantages that are real and sustainable, and numbers generated by the company that confirm to us that it is a quality business.

And, that's one reason for the concentrated portfolio?

That's right. We have high standards that not many companies meet. Naturally, there are fewer of these companies, so it's difficult to find them.

What is a stock in the portion of the Liberty All-Star Equity Fund portfolio that you manage that you feel has been treated unfairly by investors in other words, a quality company whose performance is lagging its strong underlying fundamentals.

I would say Amazon. It was a great stock in 2007 when investors recognized all the value creation that has been going on for years. This year it has underperformed and is well off its highs. Investors seem to be concerned about valuation, but I believe they don't realize that the potential margins in this business are much higher in the future than they are today. Management has been spending aggressively to continue to grow the business and to differentiate Amazon, and they're doing it successfully. Amazon is growing its third-party business in Europe and in the U.S., and it's entering new product categories, such as jewelry, apparel and even wine. The company is doing lots of exciting things, but that's keeping margins artificially low—in the 5 percent range. We think that longer term this is a double-digit pre-tax margin retail business. Amazon could push a button, stop spending and margins would go to double digits right away, but we don't want the company to do that. We want management to continue to use the strong cash flow to innovate, differentiate and grow the business. Plus, the opportunity is just so huge. Amazon may be 1 percent or 1.5 percent of retail. If it got to be 10 or 12 percent of retail it would become a Wal-Mart. Finally, it's running uncontested with its type of retail model. No one talks about this, but there's no one else that has Amazon's infrastructure. They're it. For everyone else, it's too late to try to replicate what Amazon has done. That's driving the third-party opportunity, in which other retailers who can't compete simply list their products for sale on Amazon and share the profits.

When we get into these difficult markets, do you do anything differently? Obviously, you are going to adhere to your style and strategy. We mean, for instance, trading, or doubling up on due diligence, monitoring portfolio companies more closely.

In this kind of environment, the easy answer is that we do even more work and we're more diligent and we check and double check and even triple check. But, I would say that the more insightful answer would be that your margin of safety has to be larger and you've almost got to expect that management isn't going to have all the answers in an environment with so many surprises. So, we stress test our models even more to see how they respond in a wide variety of scenarios. And we are very careful about picking our entry points, i.e., the price we pay for a stock. This matters a lot in the kind of high volatility environment that we have. That doesn't mean we're trading or trying to outsmart the market. It just means we're being patient and waiting for the optimal moment to buy. If the stock rolls over and drops 20 percent but we still believe in it, we've got to be ready to buy more because that's our opportunity. That's what we get paid to do: Deliver our best thinking and our best ideas every day.

In this kind of [difficult] environment, the easy answer is that we do even more work and we're more diligent—but the more insightful answer would be that your margin of safety has to be larger

Many thanks for a good interview.

June 30, 2008 (Unaudited)

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION

Liberty All-Star Equity Fund (the Fund) is a Massachusetts business trust registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the Act), as amended, as a diversified, closed-end management investment company.

Investment Goal

The Fund seeks total investment return comprised of longterm capital appreciation and current income through investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of equity securities.

Fund Shares

The Fund may issue an unlimited number of shares of beneficial interest.

NOTE 2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

Security Valuation

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY ALL STAR EQUITY FUND - Form N-CSRS

Equity securities are valued at the last sale price at the close of the principal exchange on which they trade, except for securities listed on the NASDAQ, which are valued at the NASDAQ official closing price. Unlisted securities or listed securities for which there were no sales during the day are valued at the closing bid price on such exchanges or over-the-counter markets.

Debt securities generally are valued by pricing services approved by the Fund's Board of Trustees (the Board), based upon market transactions for normal, institutional-size trading units of similar securities. The services may use various pricing techniques which take into account appropriate factors such as yield, quality, coupon rate, maturity, type of issue, trading characteristics and other data, as well as broker quotes. Debt securities for which quotations are readily available are valued at an over-the-counter or exchange bid quotation.

Short-term debt obligations maturing in more than 60 days for which market quotations are readily available are valued at current market value. Short-term debt obligations maturing within 60 days are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value.

Investments for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined in good faith under consistently applied procedures approved by and under the general supervision of the Board.

Foreign Securities

The Fund invests in foreign securities which may involve a number of risk factors and special considerations not present with investments in securities of U.S. corporations.

Security Transactions

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Cost is determined and gains (losses) are based upon the specific identification method for both financial statement and federal income tax purposes.

Repurchase Agreements

The Fund may engage in repurchase agreement transactions with institutions that the Fund's investment adviser has determined are creditworthy. The Fund, through its custodian, receives delivery of underlying securities collateralizing a repurchase agreement. Collateral is at least equal, at all times, to the value of the repurchase obligation including interest. A repurchase agreement transaction involves certain risks in the event of default or insolvency of the counterparty. These risks include possible delays or restrictions upon a Fund's ability to dispose of the underlying securities and a possible decline in the value of the underlying securities during the period while the Fund seeks to assert its rights.

Income Recognition

Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Premium and discount are amortized and accreted, respectively, on all debt securities. Corporate actions and dividend income are recorded on the ex-date.

The Fund estimates components of distributions from real estate investment trusts (REITs). Distributions received in excess of income are recorded as a reduction of the cost of the related investments. If the Fund no longer owns the applicable securities, any distributions received in excess of income are recorded as realized gains.

Fair Value Measurements

The Fund adopted the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157 (FAS 157), Fair Value Measurements, on January 1, 2008. FAS 157 established a three-tier hierarchy to establish classification of fair value measurements for disclosure purposes. Inputs refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may be observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability that are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability that are developed based on the best information available.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments as of the end of the reporting period. These inputs are categorized in the following hierarchy under applicable financial accounting standards:

Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical investments

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY ALL STAR EQUITY FUND - Form N-CSRS

Level 2 Other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)

Level 3 Significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments)

The following is a summary of the inputs used to value the Fund's investments as of June 30, 2008.

Valuation Inputs	Investments in Securities	Other Financial Instruments*
Level 1- Quoted Prices	$ 1,145,405,745
Level 2- Other Significant Observable Inputs	$ 45,298,716
Level 3- Significant Unobservable Inputs	$ 0
Total	$ 1,190,704,461

---

* Other financial instruments are derivative investments not reflected in the Schedule of Investments such as futures, forwards and swap contracts, which are valued at the unrealized appreciation/depreciation on the investment.

LIBERTY ALL-STAR® EQUITY FUND

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2008 (Unaudited)

For the six months ended June 30, 2008, the Fund did not have significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) used in determining fair value. Therefore, a reconciliation of assets in which significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) were used in determining fair value is not applicable.

Federal Income Tax Status

Consistent with the Fund's policy to qualify as a regulated investment company and to distribute all of its taxable income to shareholders, no federal income tax has been accrued.

Distributions to Shareholders

The Fund currently has a policy of paying distributions on its shares of beneficial interest totaling approximately 10% of its net asset value per year. The distributions are payable in four quarterly distributions of 2.5% of the Fund's net asset value at the close of the New York Stock Exchange on the Friday prior to each quarterly declaration date. Distributions to shareholders are recorded on ex-date.

Indemnification

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties and which provide general indemnities. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims against the Fund. Also, under the Fund's organizational documents and by contract, the Trustees and Officers of the Fund are indemnified against certain liabilities that may arise out of their duties to the Fund. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss due to these warranties and indemnities to be minimal.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Effective January 1, 2007, the Fund adopted FASB Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48) Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, which requires that the financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return be recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Management has concluded that the Fund has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of FIN 48. The Fund files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Colorado. The statute of limitations on the Fund's federal tax return filings remains open for the years ended December 31, 2004 through December 31, 2007. The Fund's Colorado tax return filings remain open for the years ended December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2007. To our knowledge there are no federal or Colorado income tax returns currently under examination.

In March 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ( FASB ) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 161 ( FAS 161 ), Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities . FAS 161 is intended to improve financial reporting about derivative instruments and hedging activities. It is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008. Management has begun to evaluate the impact the adoption of FAS 161 will have on the Fund 's financial statement disclosures.

NOTE 3. FEDERAL TAX INFORMATION

The timing and character of income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. Reclassifications are made to the Fund 's capital accounts for permanent tax differences to reflect income and gains available for distribution (or available capital loss carryforwards) under income tax regulations.

For the year ended December 31, 2007, permanent book and tax basis differences

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Fund also reimburses ALPS for out-of-pocket expenses and charges, including fees payable to third parties for pricing the Fund's portfolio securities and direct internal costs incurred by ALPS in connection with providing fund accounting oversight and monitoring and certain other services.

Custody Credits

The Fund has an agreement with its custodian bank under which custody fees may be reduced by balance credits. These credits are recorded as a reduction of total expenses on the Statement of Operations. The Fund could have invested a portion of the assets utilized in connection with the expense offset arrangement in an income-producing asset if it had not entered into such an agreement.

Fees Paid to Officers

RE-APPROVAL OF THE INVESTMENT ADVISORY CONTRACTS

June 30, 2008 (Unaudited)

BOARD CONSIDERATION AND RE-APPROVAL OF THE INVESTMENT ADVISORY CONTRACTS

The Investment Company Act of 1940 requires that the Board of Trustees of the Fund (the Board), including all of the Trustees who are not interested persons of the Fund (Independent Trustees), annually review the Fund's investment advisory agreements and consider whether or not to re-approve them for an additional year. At its meeting on June 11, 2008, the Board, including the Independent Trustees, with the exception of Mr. John Benning who was unavoidably absent, conducted such a review and approved the continuation of the Fund Management Agreement between the Fund and ALPS Advisers, Inc. (AAI) and the five separate Portfolio Management Agreements, each among the Fund, AAI and a Portfolio Manager (each, an Agreement) (Matrix Asset Advisors, Inc.; TCW Investment Management Company; Pzena Investment Management, LLC; Schneider Capital Management Corporation; and Chase Investment Counsel Corporation, each a Portfolio Manager and collectively the Portfolio Managers). Prior to the Board action, the Independent Trustees met to consider management's recommendations as to the renewal of each Agreement. As part of the process to consider these matters, legal counsel to the Independent Trustees requested certain information from AAI and each Portfolio Manager. In response to these requests, the Independent Trustees received extensive reports from AAI and each Portfolio Manager that addressed specific factors designed to inform the Board's consideration of the Agreements. Counsel also provided the Independent Trustees and the Board with a memorandum detailing their responsibilities pertaining to the renewal of each Agreement. Based on its evaluation of all material factors, the Board unanimously concluded that the terms of each Agreement were reasonable and fair and that the renewal of each Agreement was in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders.

In voting to approve the continuation of each Agreement, the Board did not identify any single factor as all-important or controlling. The following summary does not detail all the matters considered by the Board, but provides a summary of the material matters it considered. The Board considered whether each Agreement would be in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders, an evaluation based on: (1) the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided under each Agreement; (2) the investment performance of the Fund; (3) the cost to the Fund (including management fees and expense ratios) of the services provided and profits realized by AAI and its affiliates from their relationships with the Fund and with respect to other funds and accounts managed by AAI; (4) the extent to which economies of scale would be realized as the Fund grows and whether fee levels will reflect economies of scale for the benefit of shareholders; (5) potential fall-out benefits to AAI and each Portfolio Manager from their relationships with the Fund; and (6) other general information about AAI and each Portfolio Manager. The following is a summary of the Board's discussion and conclusions regarding these matters.

NATURE, EXTENT AND QUALITY OF THE SERVICES PROVIDED

The Trustees considered the nature, extent and quality of the portfolio manager selection, evaluation and monitoring services provided by AAI, and the portfolio management services provided by each Portfolio Manager, in light of the investment objective of the Fund. In connection with its review, the Board considered the AAI team's long-term history of care and conscientiousness in the management of the Fund and the administrative services provided to the Fund by AAI and its affiliates. The Board also considered each Portfolio

RE-APPROVAL OF THE INVESTMENT ADVISORY CONTRACTS

Manager s demonstrated consistency in investment approach. It reviewed the background and experience of the personnel at AAI responsible for portfolio manager selection, evaluation and monitoring for the Fund and the Portfolio Managers personnel responsible for managing the Fund s portfolio. The Board also considered the compliance records of AAI and each Portfolio Manager. The Board concluded that the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by AAI and the respective Portfolio Managers to the Fund were appropriate and consistent with the terms of the respective Agreements and that the Fund was likely to continue to benefit from services provided under the Agreements. The Board also concluded that the quality of those services had been consistent with or superior to quality norms in the industry and that AAI and the respective Portfolio Managers had sufficient personnel, with the appropriate education and experience, to serve the Fund effectively and had demonstrated their continuing ability to attract and retain well-qualified personnel. Finally, the Board concluded that the financial condition of each of AAI and the respective Portfolio Managers was sound.

INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE

The Board reviewed the long-term and short- term investment performance of the Fund and other investment companies and other accounts managed by the Portfolio Managers. The performance information provided demonstrated to the Trustees a generally consistent pattern of favorable long-term performance for shareholders of the Fund.

COSTS OF THE SERVICES PROVIDED TO THE FUND AND THE PROFITS REALIZED BY AAI FROM ITS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE FUND

The Board reviewed the fees paid by the Fund to AAI and the fees paid by AAI to the Portfolio Managers as well as information provided by AAI about the rates of compensation paid to investment advisers, and overall expense ratios, for funds comparable in size, character and investment strategy to the Fund. The Board also compared the Fund s management fees to the fees charged by AAI and the Portfolio Managers to their other accounts, including fees for institutional accounts. The Board considered that the Portfolio Managers were paid by AAI, not the Fund. The Board also considered the differences in the level of services provided and the differences in responsibility of AAI and the Portfolio Managers to the Fund and to other accounts. The Board also reviewed the fee breakpoint schedule that lowers the advisory fee rate as the Fund s assets increase. The Board concluded that the management fees payable by the Fund to AAI and the fees payable by AAI to the Portfolio Managers were reasonable in relation to the nature and quality of the services provided, taking into account the fees charged by other advisors for managing comparable funds with similar strategies and the fees AAI and the Portfolio Managers charge to other clients.

PROFITABILITY AND COSTS OF SERVICES TO AAI

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY ALL STAR EQUITY FUND - Form N-CSRS

The Board reviewed reports of the financial position of each of AAI and the Portfolio Managers. The Board determined that the profitability of AAI was reasonable in relation to the services provided and to the costs of providing fund management services to the Fund. The Trustees also considered the potential fall-out benefits (including the receipt of research products and services from unaffiliated brokers) that AAI or the Portfolio Managers might receive in connection with their association with the Fund, and acknowledged AAI's and each Portfolio Manager's well-established stand-alone management relationships independent of the Fund and the regulatory risks each assumed in connection with the management of the Fund.

EXTENT OF ECONOMIES OF SCALE AS THE FUND GROWS AND WHETHER FEE LEVELS REFLECT ECONOMIES OF SCALE

The Board reviewed the fee breakpoint schedule and concluded that it reflects certain economies of scale with respect to the selection, evaluation and monitoring of Portfolio Managers and other services by AAI and the management of Fund assets by each Portfolio Manager.

The Board also considered its long association with AAI and AAI's relationships with the Portfolio Managers and their personnel, and the Board's familiarity with their culture to evaluate the services to be provided. The Board will meet at least four times per year in order to oversee the operations of the Fund. At such meetings, AAI and the Portfolio Managers will submit and/or make presentations and discuss performance, compliance and other relevant issues

The Fund has delegated to ALPS Advisers, Inc. (the Adviser ) the responsibility to vote proxies relating to portfolio securities held by the Fund. In deciding to delegate this responsibility to the Adviser, the Fund's Board reviewed and approved the policies and procedures adopted by the Adviser. These included the procedures that the Adviser follows when a vote presents a conflict between the interests of the Fund and its shareholders and the Adviser, its affiliates, its other clients or other persons.

The Fund has delegated to ALPS Advisers, Inc. (the Adviser ) the responsibility to vote proxies relating to portfolio securities held by the Fund.

The Adviser's policy is to vote all proxies for Fund securities in a manner considered by the Adviser to be in the best interest of the Fund and its shareholders without regard to any benefit to the Adviser, its affiliates, its other clients or other persons. The Adviser or an affiliate examines each proposal and votes against the proposal, if, in its judgment, approval or adoption of the proposal would be expected to impact adversely the current or potential market value of the issuer's securities. The Adviser or an affiliate also examines each proposal and votes the proxies against the proposal, if, in its judgment, the proposal would be expected to affect adversely the best interest of the Fund. The Adviser or an affiliate determines the best interest of the Fund in light of the potential economic return on the Fund's investment.

The Adviser addresses potential material conflicts of interest by having predetermined voting guidelines. For those proposals that require special consideration or in instances where special circumstances may require varying from the predetermined guideline, a Proxy Committee determines the vote in the best interest of the Fund, without consideration of any benefit to the Adviser, its affiliates, its other clients or other persons. The Proxy Committee is composed of representatives of equity investments, equity research, compliance, legal and fund administration functions. In addition to the responsibilities described above, the Proxy Committee has the responsibility to review, on a semi-annual basis, the Adviser's proxy voting policies to ensure consistency with internal and regulatory agency policies and to develop additional predetermined voting guidelines to assist in the review of proxy proposals.

The Proxy Committee may vary from a predetermined guideline if it determines that voting on the proposal according to the predetermined guideline would be expected to impact adversely the current or potential market value of the issuer's securities or to affect adversely the best interest of the client. References to the best interest of a client refer to the interest of the client in terms of the potential economic return on the client's investment. In determining the vote on any proposal, the Proxy Committee does not consider any benefit other than benefits to the owner of the securities to be voted. A member of the Proxy Committee is prohibited from voting on any proposal for which he or she has a conflict of interest by reason of a direct relationship with the issuer or other party affected by a given proposal. Persons making recommendations to the Proxy Committee or its members are required to disclose to the Committee any relationship with a party making a proposal or other matter known to the person that would create a potential conflict of interest.

The Adviser has retained Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), a third party vendor, to implement its proxy voting process. ISS provides proxy analysis, record keeping services and vote disclosure services.
