Item 8.01

Other Events.

On July 14, 2010, the class action securities lawsuit captioned City of St. Clair Shores General Employees Retirement System, et al v. Inland Western Retail Real Estate Trust, Inc. et al., No. 07 C 6174 (the Action), pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois (the Court) was settled by Inland Western Retail Real Estate Trust, Inc. (the Company) and all other defendants (the Settlement). The Settlement remains subject to preliminary and final approval by the Court.

If the Settlement receives final approval by the Court, 9,000,000 shares of common stock of the Company will be transferred to the Company from shares of Company stock issued to the owners (the Owners) of certain entities that were acquired by the Company in its internalization transaction. Pursuant to the Settlement, the Company will pay the fees and expenses of counsel for class plaintiffs up to $10,000,000, although the Company expects that it will be reimbursed by its insurance carrier for a portion of such fees and expense. The Owners (who include Daniel L. Goodwin, who beneficially owned more than 5% of the stock of the Company as of December 31, 2009 (Goodwin), and certain directors and executive officers of the Company) have also agreed to provide a limited indemnification to certain defendants who are directors and an officer of the Company if any class members opt out of the Settlement and bring claims against them, but only after such defendants have pursued and exhausted from the Company and the Company's insurance carriers all recovery of damages caused by opt out claims. In addition to final approval by the Court, the Settlement is conditional on the Company and/or Goodwin not exercising a right to terminate the Settlement if class members holding more than an agreed-upon percentage of shares elect to opt out of the Settlement.

The statements and certain other information contained in this report, which can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as may, will, expect, continue, remains, intend, aim, towards, should, prospects, could, future, potential, believes, p focus, and probable, or the negative thereof or other variations thereon or comparable terminology, constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and are subject to the safe harbors created thereby. These statements should be considered as subject to the many risks and uncertainties that exist in the Company's operations and business environment. Such risks and uncertainties could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. These uncertainties include, but are not limited to, economic conditions, market demand and pricing, competitive and cost factors, and other risk factors.
