Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 9, 2011, Force Protection, Inc. (the Company) held an investor conference call and webcast to discuss its results of operations and financial condition for the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2010 and its business outlook. Attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K is a copy of the transcript of the Company's presentation during that call and the questions and answers that followed the presentation.

The information contained in this report (including Exhibit 99.1) shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Safe Harbor Statement

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains certain forward-looking statements that are not historical facts, including statements about beliefs and expectations. These statements are based on beliefs and assumptions of the Company's management and on information currently available. These forward-looking statements include, among other statements: the growth, demand and interest for the Company's services and products, including the Buffalo, Cougar, Ocelot and JAMMA vehicles; current backlog; anticipated awards and expected deliveries of Ocelot vehicles; the effect of the LPPV award for future growth; expectations for future programs, including Land 121, TAPV and GAARV and the timing of proposals and awards; modernization and spares and sustainment contracts and the effect of operations in Afghanistan; the ability to meet current and future requirements; the Company's execution of its business strategy and strategic transformation, including its development initiatives and opportunities to broaden its platform; the effect of the Company's undefinitized contracts; the Company's expected financial and operating results, including its revenues, cash flow and margins, for future periods; and the Company's share repurchase program. Examples of these factors include, but are not limited to, the ability to effectively manage the risk in the Company's business; the ability to execute the Company's strategic transformation; the ability to develop new technologies and products and the acceptance of these technologies and products; the ability to obtain new orders for our vehicles, products, and services; the impact of the rate of operations in Afghanistan; and other risks and factors and cautionary statements listed in the Company's periodic reports filed with the SEC, including the risks set forth in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010.
