Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to Vote of Security Holders.

On January 19, 2011, Isle of Capri Casinos, Inc. (the Company) entered into an agreement (the Goldstein Governance Agreement) with Robert S. Goldstein, the Company's Vice Chairman, and Jeffrey D. Goldstein and Richard A. Goldstein, two of the Company's directors, and GFIL Holdings, LLC (the Goldstein Parties). The Goldstein Governance Agreement required the Company to hold a special meeting of stockholders to vote on certain amendments to the Company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation. This special meeting was convened on March 18, 2011. The Goldstein Governance Agreement further required the Company to take all commercially reasonable actions to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies if so requested by the Goldstein Parties. On March 17, 2011, the Goldstein Parties requested that the Company take all commercially reasonable actions to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies. In accordance with the Company's obligations under the Goldstein Governance Agreement, at the special meeting the Company put before the shareholders a proposal to adjourn the meeting until 9:00am central time on April 8, 2011 in order to solicit additional proxies with respect to the two proposals before the special meeting. In accordance with the Company's bylaws, in order to be approved the proposal for adjournment required a majority of the shares present or represented at the meeting and voting on the question.

The total shares present or represented and voting on the adjournment were 10,354,631 shares. The results of the vote were as follows:

10,354,631 shares voted in favor of adjournment

0 shares voted against adjournment

The special meeting was therefore adjourned until 9:00am central time on April 8, 2011.
