Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on June 15, 2010, First Community Corporation (the Company) entered into a memorandum of understanding (the MOU) with the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond (the Federal Reserve). That MOU included, among other things, a requirement that the Company obtain the prior written approval of the Federal Reserve before declaring or paying any dividends or directly or indirectly accepting dividends or any other form of payment representing a reduction in capital from its bank subsidiary, First Community Bank, N.A. (the Bank).

The above-mentioned MOU has been terminated and replaced in its entirety by a new MOU with the Federal Reserve, which eliminates the requirement that the Company receive prior approval from the Federal Reserve before declaring or paying any dividends. The new MOU provides that the Company will ensure that any Company dividends on common or preferred stock, or payments on trust preferred securities, are paid in accordance with applicable Federal Reserve regulations and guidance.

The new MOU provides that if the Bank or the Company (on a consolidated basis) were to become less than adequately capitalized then the Company would not make payments on subordinated debt not related to trust preferred securities without Federal Reserve approval. The Bank and the Company are currently considered well capitalized. To be considered adequately capitalized, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and Federal Reserve minimum regulatory capital guidelines for Tier 1 risk-based capital, total risk-based capital and Tier 1 leverage ratios are 4.0%, 8.0% and 4.0%, respectively. As of September 30, 2011, the Bank's risk-based capital ratios of Tier 1 capital, total capital and leverage were 14.52%, 15.77% and 8.90%, respectively, and the Company's risk-based capital ratios of Tier 1 capital, total capital, leverage ratio were 14.82%, 16.07% and 9.10%, respectively.

As in the previous MOU, the new MOU includes, among other things, a requirement that the Company obtain the prior written approval of the Federal Reserve before appointing any new director or senior executive officer, or changing the position of any senior executive officer; directly or indirectly, incurring, increasing or guaranteeing any debt; and directly or indirectly, purchasing or redeeming any shares of its stock. The new MOU eliminates the requirement contained in the previous MOU that the Company obtain written approval from the Federal Reserve prior to taking dividends from the Bank. With respect to bank dividends, the new MOU only requires that any dividends from the Bank must be paid in compliance with requirements established by the Bank's regulators. The new MOU will remain in effect until further modified or terminated by the Federal Reserve.
