ITEM 5.03 AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS; CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR.

On July 17, 2014, during a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors of Lannett Company, Inc. (the Corporation) convened pursuant to Article IX of the Corporation's Bylaws, the Board of Directors of the Corporation approved an amendment to the Corporation's Bylaws, effective immediately, to add a new Article XII that provides that if any current or former stockholder of the Corporation or anyone acting on their behalf initiates or asserts any claim or counterclaim, including any derivative action brought by or in the right of the Corporation, or joins, offers substantial assistance to or has a direct financial interest in any claim against the Corporation, including any derivative action brought by or in the right of the Corporation, and such party, or the third party that receives substantial assistance from such party or in whose claim such party has a direct financial interest, does not obtain a judgment on the merits and substantially achieves, in both substance and amount, the full remedy sought in such claim, then such party shall be obligated to reimburse the Corporation for all fees, costs and expenses of any kind or description of the Corporation may incur such claim, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and other litigation expenses. The amendment further provides that the provisions of Article XII shall apply to all actions filed on or after the date of the adoption of Article XII.

The amendment to the Bylaws of the Corporation reflecting this amendment is filed as Exhibit 3.4 to this report.
