Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Changes in Fiscal Year.

On April 20, 2018, the board of directors of CF Industries Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), amended the Company's Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws"), effective immediately (i) to relax a restriction on the right of stockholders, in accordance with the Bylaws, to require the calling of a special meeting of stockholders with respect to an item other than the election or removal of directors where an identical or substantially similar item was presented at an annual or special meeting held within a specified period before the delivery of the applicable special meeting request by reducing such period from 12 months to 90 days and (ii) to modify a restriction on the right of stockholders, in accordance with the Bylaws, to require the calling of a special meeting of stockholders with respect to an item, including the election or removal of directors, where an identical or substantially similar item is included in the Company's notice of meeting as an item of business to be brought before an annual or special meeting to be held within 120 days of the receipt by the Company of the applicable special meeting request so that it would instead apply only where an identical or substantially similar item is included in the Company's notice of meeting as an item of business to be brought before an annual or special meeting that has been called by the time the applicable special meeting request is delivered but not yet held.

The foregoing general description of the amendment of the Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the amendment, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 3.1 to this report and incorporated by reference herein.
