Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

NOTE 1--BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary, Maxx Motorsports, Inc. ("Maxx"), and its wholly owned subsidiary, Team Racing Auto Circuit, LLC ("TRAC") (collectively, the "Company"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Maxx, through TRAC, planned to own, operate and sanction an automotive racing league designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans. Accordingly, the operations of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary are presented as those of a development stage enterprise, from its inception, May 15, 2001, as prescribed by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 7, "Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises." The Company follows the AICPA SOP 98-5, "Reporting on the Costs of Start-Up Activities" in accounting for its start-up activities.

The condensed consolidated financial statements included in this report have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim reporting and include all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation. These condensed consolidated financial statements have not been audited.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations for interim reporting. The Company believes that the disclosures contained herein are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. However, these condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2002, which is included in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2002. The financial data for the interim periods presented may not necessarily reflect the results to be anticipated for the complete year.

Certain reclassifications of the amounts presented for the comparative period have been made to conform to the current presentation.

NOTE 2--GOING CONCERN

The Company, which had been in the development stage since its inception, May 15, 2001, did not establish sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business and pay operating expenses, resulting in a net loss of $14,817,393 from inception through September 30, 2003.

The Company is currently past due on convertible promissory notes in the amount of $625,000 and accrued interest payments on all of the convertible promissory notes. The Company does not have sufficient cash available to make payments currently due. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to find a new business to acquire or be able to raise sufficient capital to make an acquisition, in order to survive.

NOTE 3--DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

The Company, which had been in the development stage since its inception, May 15, 2001, did not establish sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business and pay operating expenses, resulting in a net loss of $14,817,393 from inception through September 30, 2003.

On August 26, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a plan to immediately discontinue its racing operation. As the racing operation was its only business, all operations of the Company have been included in discontinued operations.

As a part of the evaluation of the assets of the Company, the following assets were considered to be fully impaired based upon management's expectation that they had no future value. These amounts have been recorded as impairment losses and are included in loss from discontinued operations.

Prepaid expenses and other assets	$ 50,000
Race car designs and manufacturing equipment	1,673,400
Other property and equipment	102,416
Production contract payments	2,545,781
Goodwill	2,810,627

Total	$7,182,224

NOTE 4--PRODUCTION CONTRACT PAYMENTS AND COMMITMENTS

On October 22, 2001, TRAC entered into a Racing Car Design and Construction Agreement with Riley & Scott Race Car Engineering ("Riley & Scott"). The agreement required payments aggregating $1,515,000 during Phase I, which was 23 weeks, and included design, tooling, prototype construction and aero tooling. Phase II of the agreement commenced after completion of Phase I and was planned to be completed in 58 weeks. Phase II was based upon production of 100 racing cars, at a cost of approximately $110,000 each, plus the cost of engines. The agreement also provided for the contractor to be the sole provider of most repair service. Phase I of the agreement was completed during April 2002, and Phase II of the agreement commenced in April 2002. In August 2002, TRAC and Riley & Scott agreed upon a revised schedule based on the delay of the initial race season to 2004. This revised schedule required a $500,000 payment prior to August 31, 2002 and subsequent monthly payments of $50,000 through March 31, 2003. Phase II of the agreement was placed on hold due to TRAC not meeting the required payment schedule. At September 30, 2003, TRAC had incurred and paid in Phase II total costs of $2,545,781.

The agreement terms included that upon temporary cessation or early termination of the agreement, Riley & Scott shall have all rights and title to all racing cars, components, vendored components and spares ("Post Termination Inventory") then in its possession. Riley & Scott may sell all or part of the Post Termination Inventory in any arms length transaction in a bona fide transaction to the buyer offering the highest price. In the event that the amount realized in any such sale is less than the total amount due as of the termination date, Riley & Scott shall be entitled to money damages equal to the difference between the net proceeds of the sale and the full amount due as of the termination date plus penalties to include attorney's fees, interest on delinquent amounts, storage fees, insurance, broker's fees, and advertising expenses. In the event that the sales price of the Post Termination Inventory exceeds Riley & Scott's cost and penalties, TRAC would receive 75% of the excess.

Management of the Company has determined that the Company would be unlikely to recover anything from the ultimate sale by Riley & Scott. Accordingly, the related assets have been considered fully impaired. Management does not believe the Company has any remaining liability to Riley & Scott.

NOTE 5--STOCK OPTION PLANS

Edgar Filing: TEAM SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10QSB

The Company applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25 (APB No. 25), Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations, in accounting for its stock option plan. As such, compensation expense would be recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price.

SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation (SFAS No. 123), requires the Company to disclose pro forma information regarding option grants made to its employees. SFAS No. 123 specifies certain valuation techniques that produce estimated compensation charges that are included in the pro forma results below. These amounts have not been reflected in the Company's consolidated statement of operations, because APB No. 25 specifies that no compensation charge arises when the price of the employees' stock options equal the market value of the underlying stock at the grant date, as in the case of options granted to the Company employees, board of directors, advisory committee members, and consultants.

SFAS No. 123 pro forma numbers are as follows for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002 and for the period from inception (May 15, 2001) through September 30, 2003:

	September 30,		Fr
	2002	2003	Ince
	-----	-----	t
			Sept
			ber 3

Net loss from discontinued operations, as reported	$ 8,833,177	$ 2,883,619	$ 14,
Add: Stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair value based method for all awards	1,464,659	582,893	6,
Deduct: Stock-based employee compensation included in reported net loss	-	-
Pro forma net loss	$ 10,297,836	$ 3,466,512	$ 21,
Basic and diluted net loss per share:
Pro forma	$ (.16)	$ (.06)	$ (
As reported	$ (.14)	$ (.05)	$ (

Under SFAS No. 123, the fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. In 2001, the year in which all prior options were issued, the following weighted average assumptions were used: risk-free interest rate based on date of issuance and term between 3.83% and 4.93%, no expected dividends, a volatility factor of 138.13% and an expected life of the options of 3 to 10 years.

On April 2, 2003, the Board of Directors granted options to certain employees and directors to acquire 8,800,000 shares of the Company's common stock at prices ranging from $.42 to $1.00 per share. The options were scheduled to vest as follows: 4,500,000 on April 2, 2003, 2,210,000 on the day the 2004 racing season commences and 2,090,000 on the day the 2005 racing season commences. The following assumptions were used: risk-free interest rate of 4.67%, no expected dividends, a volatility factor of 127.59% and an expected life of the option of 1 to 2 years.

The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options that have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because the Company employee stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, it is management's opinion that the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company options.

NOTE 6--CONVERTIBLE PROMISSORY NOTES

In April 2003, holders of $1,645,000 of the $2,270,000 convertible promissory notes agreed to extend the maturity date of their respective notes from August 31, 2003 to March 1, 2004. In addition, certain holders of the notes increased the principal amount of their notes by an aggregate amount of $765,250. A 10% loan origination fee was paid on the increased principal balances through the issuance of 306,100 shares of the Company's common stock to the holders of the notes at $.25 per share. The origination fee of $76,525 is being amortized over the terms of the convertible promissory notes. Notes in the aggregate principle amount of $625,000 bear interest at 8% per annum, require quarterly interest payments, and matured August 31, 2003. The remaining notes, in the aggregate principle amount of $2,410,250, bear interest at 8% per annum, require quarterly interest payments, and mature March 1, 2004. Each note is convertible into common stock of the Company at the rate of $.20 per share. The common stock issuable upon conversion of the convertible notes payable is restricted and may only be sold in compliance with Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

At September 30, 2003, the Company owed accrued interest on the notes of $86,861 and did not make the quarterly interest payment due in August 2003.

NOTE 7--COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

In June 2002, TRAC engaged Moag & Company to be the exclusive broker of all team sales for a one-year term, and in June 2003, TRAC and Moag & Company amended and restated their agreement to extend the term of the agreement through April 16, 2004 (the "Moag Agreement"). TRAC was attempting, through Moag & Company, to sell at least six teams for its inaugural race season of 2004. Under the Moag Agreement, TRAC paid an initial fee of $25,000 and would have paid to Moag & Company upon each sale of a team a cash fee of $400,000 and warrants to purchase $200,000 of Common Stock, with an exercise price per share equal to the greater of $1.00 or the ten-day average closing price for the Common Stock ("Moag

Edgar Filing: TEAM SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10QSB

Warrants"). The Moag Warrants were to be for a seven-year term and become exercisable in equal installments over the first four years they would have been outstanding. Management is of the opinion that this agreement was terminated without future liability when racing operations were discontinued.

11

In April 2003, the Company entered into an agreement with ESPN, Inc. and ESPN Productions, Inc. (together, "ESPN"), pursuant to which ESPN was to provide for the live broadcasting of at least 13 two-hour League events and produce these television events for the 2004 and 2005 racing seasons (the "ESPN Agreement"). TRAC, subject to ESPN approvals, had the right to sell national television advertising (16 units per hour per event), billboard and signage advertising and sponsorships. The ESPN Agreement required TRAC to pay expected production fees ("Production Fees") of $525,000 per event in 2004 and $550,000 per event in 2005, with 6% annual increases thereafter during successive contract renewal periods, and an initial Production Fee of $375,000 payable in October 2003 for animation, graphics, music and track surveys, with $30,000 each year thereafter for upgrades. TRAC would also have paid ESPN consideration for broadcasting all TRAC racing league ("League") events on a per event basis ("Broadcast Consideration") in the 2004 and 2005 seasons aggregating to $3,460,000 each year, with increases of 5% each year thereafter. The ESPN Agreement was to cover the 2004 and 2005 League seasons, with ESPN having successive options to renew the agreement, first, through the 2007 season, second, through the 2009 season and finally, through the 2015 season. Before the expiration of the ESPN Agreement, TRAC would have been required to negotiate exclusively with ESPN for sixty days for broadcast rights, to make an offer to ESPN if negotiations did not result in a new ESPN agreement and to make a re-offer to ESPN if a third party offered to broadcast League events, which re-offer would have been on the same terms as those of the third party's offer. TRAC could terminate the agreement with ESPN either upon ESPN making material changes to its broadcast schedule or in the first year of the final renewal period upon payment of a $30 million termination fee to ESPN. Under the contract, the Company would have been required to make the following minimum payments:

2004	$10,285,000
2005	10,640,000

Total minimum contract payments	$20,925,000

Management is of the opinion that this agreement was terminated without future liability to the Company when racing operations were discontinued.

In April 2003, TRAC entered into an agreement with Raycom Sports ("Raycom") pursuant to which Raycom became the exclusive sales provider of all TRAC sponsorship opportunities including, media packages, car and team sponsor packages, and TRAC event and league sponsor packages for a period to expire on July 1, 2005. Under this agreement, TRAC was to pay Raycom a sales commission equal to 12.5% of the amount that TRAC actually collected from sponsors. TRAC agreed to pay Raycom a monthly nonrefundable advance against its sales commission in the amount of $14,000. Each sales commission payment was to be reduced by an amount equal to the aggregate amount of such monthly advances not previously netted against sales commissions. Management is of the opinion that this agreement was terminated without future liability to the Company when racing operations were discontinued.

Edgar Filing: TEAM SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10QSB

A letter of credit was purchased to guarantee the Company's performance or payment to a third party on their office lease. Restricted cash in the amount of $100,000 is collateral on the letter of credit. The Company has accrued $100,000 in lease settlement cost which is included in accounts payable on the condensed consolidated balance sheet.

On August 25, 2001, the Company entered into an agreement in principal with its former Chief Executive Officer under which the former Chief Executive Officer would become the local operator of a market. The agreement stated that the cost would be $100,000 plus the cost of the nine racing cars and three haulers to obtain the operating rights for the team, which was substantially less than amounts anticipated to be paid by other local operators. Under the agreement, the $100,000 was to be kept in an escrow account. The funds are not currently escrowed and the $100,000 is included in accounts payable on the condensed consolidated balance sheet.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

On May 15, 2001, the Company completed the acquisition of Maxx and TRAC. TRAC had plans to develop, own, operate, and sanction an automotive racing league (the "League") designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans. TRAC would have initially consisted of multi-car teams, strategically positioned in major North American television markets located near major motorsport venues. Each team would have represented the city or state where it was located. The initial TRAC racing season was planned to start in the second quarter of 2004 and would have consisted of a regular season race schedule, with an all-star race and a Championship Race. TRAC planned to incorporate the use of aerodynamically similar cars, fuel-injection engines and other innovative competition standards to increase parity among the teams without diminishing the entertainment value.

Our business plan provided that TRAC initially would enter into operating agreements ("Operating Agreements") with at least six third-party operators ("Area Operators") to be identified by TRAC with respect to the local operations of a TRAC racing team. Each Area Operator would have paid a fee to TRAC to obtain the right to operate the team in its market. TRAC also expected to generate revenues from national television, radio and other media agreements (including rights, fees and/or revenue sharing from sales of advertising time), sales of national corporate sponsorships for the League and for League events (such as the Championship Race), sales of sponsorships of the teams, ticket sales for the Championship Race and license fees from sales of officially licensed merchandise. Finally, TRAC hoped to receive fees from additional operators to obtain the right to operate additional teams that may be organized beyond the original six teams ("Expansion Fees"). In addition to the rights fee payable to TRAC, TRAC expected to require each Area Operator to bear all local expenses of operating the team, including the costs of all personnel (other than drivers) necessary to operate the team. Drivers would have been employees of TRAC and assigned to the teams. TRAC expected to enter into a lease for each racing venue. TRAC expected to require the Area Operator to be responsible for performing all local operations of the team, including presenting its home races, marketing the team and selling tickets for the races, maintenance and repair of the cars, and payments under the leases for its racing venue.

The Company, which had been in the development stage since its inception, May 15, 2001, did not establish sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business and pay operating expenses, resulting in a net loss of $14,817,393 from inception through September 30, 2003.

Edgar Filing: TEAM SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10QSB

TRAC would also have paid ESPN consideration for broadcasting all TRAC racing league ("League") events on a per event basis ("Broadcast Consideration") in the 2004 and 2005 seasons aggregating to $3,460,000 each year, with increases of 5% each year thereafter. The ESPN Agreement was to cover the 2004 and 2005 League seasons, with ESPN having successive options to renew the agreement, first, through the 2007 season, second, through the 2009 season and finally, through the 2015 season. Before the expiration of the ESPN Agreement, TRAC would have been required to negotiate exclusively with ESPN for sixty days for broadcast rights, to make an offer to ESPN if negotiations did not result in a new ESPN agreement and to make a re-offer to ESPN if a third party offered to broadcast League events, which re-offer would have been on the same terms as those of the third party's offer. TRAC could terminate the agreement with ESPN either upon ESPN making material changes to its broadcast schedule or in the first year of the final renewal period upon payment of a $30 million termination fee to ESPN. Under the contract, the Company would have been required to make the following minimum payments:

2004	$10,285,000
2005	10,640,000

Total minimum contract payments	$20,925,000

Management is of the opinion that this agreement was terminated without future liability to the Company when racing operations were discontinued.

On October 22, 2001, TRAC entered into a Racing Car Design and Construction Agreement with Riley & Scott Race Car Engineering ("Riley & Scott"). The agreement required payments aggregating $1,515,000 during Phase I, which was 23 weeks, and included design, tooling, prototype construction and aero tooling. Phase II of the agreement commenced after completion of Phase I and was planned to be completed in 58 weeks. Phase II was based upon production of 100 racing cars, at a cost of approximately $110,000 each, plus the cost of engines. The agreement also provided for the contractor to be the sole provider of most repair service. Phase I of the agreement was completed during April 2002, and Phase II of the agreement commenced in April 2002. In August 2002, TRAC and Riley & Scott agreed upon a revised schedule based on the delay of the initial race season to 2004. This revised schedule required a $500,000 payment prior to August 31, 2002 and subsequent monthly payments of $50,000 through March 31, 2003. Phase II of the agreement was placed on hold due to TRAC not meeting the required payment schedule. At September 30, 2003, TRAC had incurred and paid in Phase II total costs of $2,545,781.

The agreement terms included that upon temporary cessation or early termination of the agreement, Riley & Scott shall have all rights and title to all racing cars, components, vendored components and spares ("Post Termination Inventory") then in its possession. Riley & Scott may sell all or part of the Post Termination Inventory in any arms length transaction in a bona fide transaction to the buyer offering the highest price. In the event that the amount realized in any such sale is less than the total amount due as of the termination date, Riley & Scott shall be entitled to money damages equal to the difference between the net proceeds of the sale and the full amount due as of the termination date plus penalties to include attorney's fees, interest on delinquent amounts, storage fees, insurance, broker's fees, and advertising expenses. In the event that the sales price of the Post Termination Inventory exceeds Riley & Scott's cost and penalties, TRAC would receive 75% of the excess.

Management of the Company has determined that the Company would be unlikely to recover anything from the ultimate sale by Riley & Scott. Accordingly, the related assets have been considered fully impaired. Management does not believe the Company has any remaining liability to Riley & Scott.

In April 2003, TRAC entered into an agreement with Raycom Sports ("Raycom") pursuant to which Raycom became the exclusive sales provider of all TRAC sponsorship opportunities including, media packages, car and team sponsor packages, and TRAC event and league sponsor packages for a period to expire on July 1, 2005. Under this agreement, TRAC was to pay Raycom a sales commission equal to 12.5% of the amount that TRAC actually collected from sponsors. TRAC agreed to pay Raycom a monthly nonrefundable advance against its sales commission in the amount of $14,000. Each sales commission payment was to be reduced by an amount equal to the aggregate amount of such monthly advances not previously netted against sales commissions. Management is of the opinion that this agreement was terminated without future liability to the Company when racing operations were discontinued.

In June 2002, TRAC engaged Moag & Company to be the exclusive broker of all team sales for a one-year term, and in June 2003, TRAC and Moag & Company amended and restated their agreement to extend the term of the agreement through April 16, 2004 (the "Moag Agreement"). TRAC was attempting, through Moag & Company, to sell at least six teams for its inaugural race season of 2004. Under the Moag Agreement, TRAC paid an initial fee of $25,000 and would have paid to Moag & Company upon each sale of a team a cash fee of $400,000 and warrants to purchase $200,000 of Common Stock, with an exercise price per share equal to the greater of $1.00 or the ten-day average closing price for the Common Stock ("Moag Warrants"). The Moag Warrants were to be for a seven-year term and become exercisable in equal installments over the first four years they would have been outstanding. Management is of the opinion that this agreement was terminated without future liability when racing operations were discontinued.

Discontinued operations

The Company, which had been in the development stage since its inception, May 15, 2001, did not establish sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business and pay operating expenses, resulting in a net loss of $14,817,393 from inception through September 30, 2003.

On August 26, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a plan to immediately discontinue its racing operation. As the racing operation was its only business, all operations of the Company have been included in discontinued operations.

Current operations

The Company has reduced its staff to two employees and is completing the wind-down of the racing business, while evaluating other business opportunities. Any new business would require raising additional capital and would probably result in a substantial dilution of existing stockholders.

Asset impairment

On August 26, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a plan to immediately discontinue its racing operation. As the racing operation was its only business, all operations of the Company have been included in discontinued operations.

Prepaid expenses and other assets	$ 50,000
Race car designs and manufacturing equipment	1,673,400
Other property and equipment	102,416
Production contract payments	2,545,781

Total	$7,182,224
