Item 2.03, Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On November 20, 2009, General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (the “Company”) completed the execution of a Loan and Security Agreement (the “Loan Agreement”) with Crestmark Bank (“Crestmark”). Under the Loan Agreement, Crestmark will make advances to the Company upon the request of the Company, subject to certain limitations specified in the agreement. The aggregate loan amount outstanding at any one time may not exceed the lesser of $3,500,000 or 85% of eligible accounts receivable, as defined in the agreement. The Company granted to Crestmark a security interest in all of its accounts receivable and other property, as defined in the agreement, and the Loan Agreement requires the Company to comply with certain financial covenants. Advances will be charged interest at the rate of 1.00 percentage point above the prime rate, and they are payable on demand. The Loan Agreement will continue in effect until demand, but if not sooner demanded then for three years from the date of the agreement, and it will be automatically renewed for consecutive two year terms unless terminated by either party. Each of Stephen B. Pence, the Company’s Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Ronald E. Heineman, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, individually, has provided Crestmark with a guaranty of validity for certain representations and covenants made by the Company under the Loan Agreement.
