ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On January 3, 2005, Argan, Inc. (the "Company") entered into substantially similar employment agreements (each, an "Agreement") with (i) Rainer H. Bosselmann as its President and Chief Executive Officer, (ii) H. Haywood Miller III as its Executive Vice President, and (iii) Arthur F. Trudel, Jr. as its Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (each, the "Executive"). The following is a summary of certain provisions of each Agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified by reference to all provisions in the Agreement.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company agreed to employ the Executive for an initial term of one year, which term will automatically renew for successive one year periods unless the Company or the Executive provides at least 90 days prior written notice of its or his election not to renew. The Agreement provides for the Executive to receive during the employment period an annual base salary of $150,000, subject to increase (but may not be reduced) from time to time in such amounts as the Company, in its reasonable discretion, deems to be appropriate, and an annual bonus in the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"), subject to the satisfaction of reasonable performance criteria established for the Executive with respect to such year. The Agreement further provides that the Executive may participate in any stock option, incentive and similar plans established by the Company and shall be granted stock options and other benefits similar to options and benefits granted to other executives, subject in all cases to the satisfaction by the Executive of the terms and conditions of such plans and to the reasonable exercise by the Board of any discretion granted to it or them thereunder.

In addition, under the Agreement, in the event the Executive's employment is terminated for any of the reasons specified below or there occurs a "change in control" (as such term is defined in the Agreement), the Executive will receive as severance pay in a single lump sum payment, an amount equal to 24 months of his base salary within 30 days after the Executive's termination of employment or change of control, as the case may be, based on 12 times the Executive's final full month salary at the date the Executive's employment ceases or at the date of the change in control, as the case may be, without reduction or offset for any other monies which the Executive may thereafter earn or be paid. The reasons which cause severance pay to be paid to the Executive include:

- (i) termination by the Executive because of a material diminution of the Executive's duties, authority or responsibility, or a material impairment by action of the Company of his ability to perform his duties and responsibilities, regardless of whether such diminution is accompanied by a change in the Executive's title with the Company;
- (ii) termination by the Executive because of a material breach by the Company of any provision of the Agreement, which breach continues for a period of 30 days after written notice of such breach is given by the Executive to the Company; and
- (iii) termination by the Company at any time without cause, including notice of non-renewal of the Agreement.

The Executive shall also be entitled for a period of 24 months from the termination of his employment or a change in control, as the case may be, to the continuation of all benefits provided to the Executive, excluding sick and vacation time, subject to any applicable employee co-payments.

If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company by reason of the Executive's death, disability or "for cause" (as such term is defined in the Agreement) or voluntarily by the Executive for any reason other than as set forth in the preceding paragraph, the Company will not be obligated to make any payments to the Executive by reason of his cessation of employment other than such amounts, if any, of his base salary that have accrued and remain unpaid and such other amounts which may then otherwise be payable to the Executive from the Company's benefit plans or reimbursement policies, if any.
