Item 4.02 (a) Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

On October 31, 2007, authorized officers of the Registrant concluded that the Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2007 should no longer be relied upon because of an error in such financial statements as addressed in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 154, "Accounting Changes and Error Corrections."

In the second quarter of 2007 and the six months then ended, certain international restructuring charges were classified as domestic charges for the purposes of computing the Registrant's second quarter income tax provision. As the Registrant has established a valuation allowance against the tax benefits associated with the Registrant's year to date 2007 domestic (U.S.) net operating losses, the Registrant inaccurately established a tax valuation allowance for the restructuring charges and overstated income tax expense. The impact to correct this error in the Registrant's consolidated financial statements for the second quarter of 2007 and the six months then ended, is a reduction of $10 million to income tax expense and net loss, or $0.04 per diluted share. The Registrant will amend its Form 10Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2007, which will be filed under separate cover, to reflect the correction of this error.

As previously disclosed by the Registrant in prior 1934 Act filings, management has concluded that the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures are not effective as a result of an unremediated material weakness associated with not maintaining adequate resources relating to management's oversight and review over income taxes. The Registrant is continuing to enhance its processes and personnel resources to ensure the timely and effective review and management oversight over income tax accounts.

Authorized officers of the Registrant discussed with the Registrant's independent registered public accountant the matters disclosed in the filing pursuant to this Item 4.02(a).
