Item 2.05. Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On February 15, 2011, Aerosonic Corporation (the “Company”) decided to close its repair facility in Charlottesville, Virginia and transfer the repair operations to its Clearwater, Florida facility. The Company’s decision resulted from its efforts to reduce costs by utilizing the enhanced capacity at its Clearwater facility created through recent “lean manufacturing” and other operational improvement programs. The Company expects the closure to be completed by June 30, 2011.

The Company estimates that it will incur approximately $220,000 to $415,000 of costs associated with the closure as follows:

- $60,000 to $75,000 of severance costs;
- $50,000 to $60,000 of retention bonus costs;
- $15,000 to $25,000 of employee relocation costs;
- $20,000 to $30,000 of asset relocation costs; and
- $75,000 to $225,000 of lease costs for the Charlottesville facility after completion of operations.

The Company expects that all of the estimated costs described above will result in future cash expenditures.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements, including statements concerning the Company’s expectations regarding the amounts of costs associated with the closure of its Charlottesville, Virginia facility. Investors are cautioned that all forward-looking statements in this report involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ from those currently anticipated, including, without limitation, unanticipated difficulties in transferring the repair operations and inaccuracies in the Company’s assessment of the amount of costs and future cash expenditures, as well as other risks discussed in the Company’s Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on May 3, 2010 and in the Company’s other current and periodic reports filed from time to time with the SEC. Copies of the Company’s SEC filings are posted on the Company’s web site and are available from the Company without charge. Forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this report, and, except as required by law, the Company does not undertake an obligation to update its forward-looking statements to reflect future events or circumstances.
