2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 “Interim Financial Reporting” issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the “IASB”) as well as with the applicable disclosure requirements of Appendix 16 to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. The interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Group’s annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015, which have been prepared in account with IFRSs.

3. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values.

Taxes on income in the interim periods are accrued using the tax rate that would be applicable to expected total annual earnings.

Except for the application of new or revised accounting standards as described below, the accounting policies and methods of computation used in the condensed consolidated financial statements as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2016 are the same as those followed in the preparation of the Group’s annual financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015.

In the current interim period, the Group has applied, for the first time, the following standards and amendments that are relevant for the preparation of the Group's condensed consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to IAS 1 Disclosure initiative

Amendments to IAS 27 Equity method in separate financial statements

Amendments to IFRSs Annual Improvements to IFRSs 2012–2014 Cycle

The application of the above new or revised IFRSs in the current interim period has had no material effect on the amounts reported in these condensed consolidated financial statements and/or disclosures set out in these condensed consolidated financial statements.

ESTIMATES

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expense. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing this condensed consolidated interim financial information, the significant judgements made by management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that were applied to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015.

5. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including currency risk, fair value interest rate risk, interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

The condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all financial risk management information and disclosures required in the annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the Group's annual financial statements as at December 31, 2015.

There have been no changes in the risk management department since December 31, 2015 or in any risk management policies since December 31, 2015.

Under the Law of the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") on Enterprise Income Tax, or the EIT Law, the profits of a foreign invested enterprise arising in 2008 and beyond that distributed to its immediate holding company who is a non-PRC tax resident will be subject to a withholding tax rate of 10%. A lower withholding tax rate may be applied if there is a favorable tax treaty between mainland China and the jurisdiction of the foreign holding company. For example, holding companies in Hong Kong that are also tax residents in Hong Kong (which should have commercial substance and proceed the formal treaty benefit application with in-charge tax bureau) are eligible for a 5% withholding tax on dividends under the Tax Memorandum between China and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

The Company is incorporated in the Cayman Islands, where it is not currently subject to taxation.

The EIT Law (became effective on January 1, 2008) applies a uniform 25% enterprise income tax rate to both tax resident enterprise and non-tax resident enterprise, except where a special preferential rate applies.

Pursuant to Caishui Circular [2008] No. 1 (“Circular No. 1”) promulgated on February 22, 2008, integrated circuit production enterprises whose total investment exceeds RMB8,000 million (approximately US$1,095 million) or whose integrated circuits have a line width of less than 0.25 micron are entitled to a preferential tax rate of 15%. Enterprises with an operation period of more than 15 years are entitled to a full exemption from income tax for five years starting from the first profitable year after utilizing all prior years’ tax losses and 50% reduction of the tax for the following five years. Pursuant to Caishui Circular [2009] No. 69 (“Circular No. 69”), the 50% reduction should be based on the statutory tax rate of 25%.

On January 28, 2011, the State Council of China issued Guofa [2011] No. 4 (“Circular No. 4”), the Notice on Certain Policies to Further Encourage the Development of the Software and Integrated Circuit Industries which reinstates the EIT incentives stipulated by Circular No. 1 for the software and integrated circuit enterprises.

On April 20, 2012, State Tax Bureau issued CaiShui [2012] No. 27 (“Circular No. 27”), stipulating the income tax policies for the development of integrated circuit industry. Circular No. 1 was partially abolished by Circular No. 27 and the preferential taxation policy in Circular No. 1 was replaced by Circular No. 27.

II. INCOME TAX EXPENSE (CONTINUED)

On July 25, 2013, State Tax Bureau issued [2013] No. 43 (“Circular No. 43”), clarifying that the accreditation and preferential tax policy of integrated circuit enterprise established before December 31, 2010, is applied pursuant to Circular No. 1.

On May 4, 2016, State Tax Bureau, Ministry of Finance and other joint ministries issued Caishui [2016] No. 49 (“Circular No. 49”), which highlights the implementation of the record-filing system, clarification on certain criteria for tax incentive entitlement and establishment of a post-record filing examination mechanism and enhancement of post-administration.

The detailed tax status of SMIC’s principal PRC entities with tax holidays is elaborated as follows:

33. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Group considers that the carrying amounts of financial assets and financial liabilities recognized in the condensed consolidated financial statements approximate their fair values.

Valuation techniques and assumptions applied for the purposes of measuring fair value

The fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities are determined as follows:

the fair value of financial instruments based on quoted market prices in active markets, valuation techniques that use observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data. Pricing information the Group obtains from third parties is internally validated for reasonableness prior to use in the condensed consolidated financial statements. When observable market prices are not readily available, the Group generally estimates the fair value using valuation techniques that rely on alternate market data or inputs that are generally less readily observable from objective sources and are estimated based on pertinent information available at the time of the applicable reporting periods. In certain cases, fair values are not subject to precise quantification or verification and may fluctuate as economic and market factors vary and the Group's evaluation of those factors changes.

Fair value measurements recognized in the consolidated statement of financial position

The following tables provide an analysis of financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis subsequent to initial recognition, grouped into Levels 1 to 3 based on the degree to which the fair value is observable. There is no transfer within different levels of the fair value hierarchy in the period ended June 30, 2016.

• Level 1 fair value measurements are those derived from quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities;

• Level 2 fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices);

• Level 3 fair value measurements are those derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

SALES

Sales increased by 25.4% from US$1,056.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 to US$1,324.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016, primarily due to an increase in wafer shipments during this period. The number of wafer shipments increased by 26.6% from 1,423,861 8-inch wafer equivalents for the six months ended June 30, 2015 to 1,803,170 8-inch wafer equivalents for the six months ended June 30, 2016.

COST OF SALES AND GROSS PROFIT

Cost of sales increased by 30.5% from US$730.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 to US$953.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016, primarily due to an increase in wafer shipment during this period and increased manufacturing costs as the majority-owned fab in Beijing entered into mass production in December 2015.

The Group had a gross profit of US$371.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 compared to a gross profit of US$326.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015, representing an increase of 13.9%. Gross margin decreased to 28.1% for the six months ended June 30, 2016 from 30.9% for the six months ended June 30, 2015. The decrease in gross margin was primarily due to increased manufacturing costs from the majority-owned fab in Beijing which entered into mass production in December 2015.

PROFIT FOR THE PERIOD FROM OPERATIONS

Profit from operations increased from US$106.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 to US$181.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 primarily due to the combined effect of 1) an increase in wafer shipment, 2) a decrease in accrued employee bonus and 3) higher gain realized from the partial disposal of the living quarters in Beijing in the first half of 2016 partially offset by an increase in R&D activities.

Research and development expenses increased by 8.6% from US$108.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 to US$118.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016. The increase was mainly due to an increase in R&D activities.

General and administrative expenses decreased by 35.5% from US$94.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 to US$61.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016. The decrease was primarily due to 1) a decrease in accrued employee bonus and 2) a decrease in the pre-operating related expenses in the first half of 2016, as compared to the first half of 2015, after the majority-owned fab in Beijing entered into mass production in December 2015.

Sales and marketing expenses decreased by 2.3% from US$18.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 to US$17.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016.

Other operating income were US$1.4 million and US$6.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2016, respectively, and the increase was due to the gains arising from the partial disposal of the Group's living quarters recorded in the first half of 2016.

As a result, the Group's profit from operations increased to US$181.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 from US$106.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015.

PROFIT FOR THE PERIOD

Due to the factors described above, the Group had a profit of US$146.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 compared to US$123.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015.

FUNDING SOURCES FOR MATERIAL CAPITAL EXPENDITURE IN THE COMING YEAR

In 2016, the Group plans to spend approximately US$2.5 billion in capital expenditures for foundry operations, which are subject to adjustment based on market conditions. The capital expenditures are mainly for 1) the expansion of capacity in our majority-owned 12-inch fab in Beijing, 12-inch fab in Shanghai, 8-inch fab in Shenzhen and a new majority-owned 12-inch joint venture fab for bumping services in Jiangyin, 2) a new majority-owned joint venture company, which will focus on research and development on 14nm logic technology, and 3) research and development equipment, mask shops and intellectual property acquisition.

In addition, the Group budgeted approximately US$50 million in 2016 as capital expenditures for non-foundry operations. This is mainly for the construction of living quarters for employees as part of the Group's employee retention program.

The Group's actual expenditures may differ from its planned expenditures for a variety of reasons, including changes in its business plan, process technology, market conditions, equipment prices, and customer requirements. The Group will monitor the global economy, the semiconductor industry, the demands of its customers, and its cash flow from operations and will adjust its capital expenditures plans as necessary.

The primary sources of capital resources and liquidity include cash generated from operations, bank borrowings and debt or equity issuances and other forms of financing. Future acquisitions, mergers, strategic investments, or other developments also may require additional financing. The amount of capital required to meet the Group's growth and development targets is difficult to predict in the highly cyclical and rapidly changing semiconductor industry.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RATE FLUCTUATION RISK

The Group's revenue, expenses, and capital expenditures are primarily transacted in U.S. dollars. The Group also enters into transactions in other currencies. The Group is primarily exposed to changes in exchange rates for the Euro, Japanese Yen, and RMB.

To minimize these risks, the Group purchases foreign-currency forward exchange contracts with contract terms normally lasting less than twelve months to protect against the adverse effect that exchange rate fluctuations may have on foreign-currency denominated activities. These forward exchange contracts are principally denominated in RMB, Japanese Yen or Euros and do not qualify for hedge accounting in accordance with IFRS.

CROSS CURRENCY SWAP FLUCTUATION RISK

As of June 30, 2016, the Company had long-term loan facility agreements as well as medium-term and short-term notes in the aggregate principal amount of RMB4,300 million. The Company was primarily exposed to changes in the exchange rate for the RMB.

To minimize the currency risk, the Company entered into cross currency swap contracts with a contract term fully matching the repayment schedule of the whole part of this RMB long-term loan to protect against the adverse effect of exchange rate fluctuations arising from some of the RMB denominated loans. The cross currency swap contracts did not qualify for hedge accounting in accordance with IFRS.

Issue of short term and medium term notes

The Company issued medium-term notes of RMB1,500 million and short-term notes of RMB600 million through National Association of Financial Market Institutional Investors (“NAFMII”) during the first half of 2016. The medium-term notes carry a coupon interest rate of 3.35% with note interest payable annually on June 8, 2017, June 8, 2018 and June 10, 2019 and the short-term notes carry a coupon interest rate of 2.99% with note interest payable annually on June 7, 2017. As at the issue date, the net book value of the liabilities of medium-term notes amounted to RMB1,485 million and the book value of the liabilities of short-term notes amounted to RMB600 million.

Based on the issuance quota approved by NAFMII on April 11, 2016, the Company plans to issue the rest quota of the medium-term notes and short-term notes within 2 years.

PROSPECTS AND FUTURE PLANS

In the first half of 2016, the Group achieved its historical high revenue of US$1.32 billion, an increase of 25.4% compared to the first half of 2015. With high utilizations in Q1 and Q2 of 99% and 98%, the Group targets high utilizations in the second half given their current demand situation. The Group expects third quarter revenue to increase by 8% to 11% quarter over quarter and targets to grow mid to high 20's percent annually in 2016 compared to 2015, which includes the growth from acquiring LFoundry Europe. SMIC's EBITDA margin* was around 35% in 2015; the Group targets EBITDA margin to increase for the full year of 2016 compared to 2015.

With regard to SMIC's future plans for capacity, the Group continues to expand its 8-inch and 12-inch capacities to address the great demand. The Group's planned consolidated capital expenditures are around US$2.5 billion for 2016. Shanghai 12-inch fab has already reached its target 20,000 12-inch wafers per month. The Beijing JV fab hit 15,000 12-inch wafers per month at the end of the first half of 2016 and is targeted to reach 18,000 by year-end. The Group's fully-owned Beijing 12-inch fab is targeted to grow to 45,000 12-inch wafers per month capacity by year-end from the reported 37,000 at the end of the first half of 2016. Meanwhile, Shenzhen had reached 26,000 8-inch wafers per month capacity in the first half of 2016 and is targeted to be 31,000 by year-end. SMIC completed the acquisition of majority ownership of LFoundry Europe in Q3 of 2016; subsequently, the Group will consolidate LFoundry's 40,000 8-inch wafers per month capacity.

The Group targets to grow at a 20% compound annual growth rate over the next 3–4 years and continues to focus on delivering sustainable profitable growth and building value for all stakeholders.

EBITDA margin is defined as profit for the period excluding the impact of the finance cost, depreciation and amortization, and income tax expense divided by revenue. SMIC uses EBITDA margin as a measure of operating performance; for planning purposes, including the preparation of the Group's annual operating budget; to allocate resources to enhance the financial performance of the Group's business; to evaluate the effectiveness of the Group's business strategies; and in communications with SMIC's board of directors concerning the Group's financial performance. Although EBITDA is widely used by investors to measure a company's operating performance without regard to items, such as net finance cost, income tax benefit and expense and depreciation and amortization that can vary substantially from company to company depending upon their respective financing structures and accounting policies, the book values of their assets, their capital structures and the methods by which their assets were acquired, EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool, and you should not consider it in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of the Group's results of operations as reported under IFRS. Some of these limitations are: it does not reflect the Group's capital expenditures or future requirements for capital expenditures or other contractual commitments; it does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, the Group's working capital needs; it does not reflect finance cost; it does not reflect cash requirements for income taxes; that, although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated or amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and these measures do not reflect any cash requirements for these replacements; and that other companies in SMIC's industry may calculate these measures differently than SMIC does, limiting their usefulness as comparative measures.

The following table sets forth the reconciliation of EBITDA and EBITDA margin to their most directly comparable financial measures presented in accordance with IFRS, for the periods indicated.
