Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On March 7, 2012, Asbury Automotive Group, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an amendment to the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the “First Amendment”) with Craig T. Monaghan, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. The First Amendment (i) modifies the change of control definition in his employment agreement to conform to the change of control definition in the recently amended 2002 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”); and (ii) provides that all equity and long term incentive awards granted to Mr. Monaghan on or after January 1, 2012 will vest in accordance with the provisions of the applicable incentive plans and award agreements.

As previously disclosed in a Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by the Company on February 14, 2012, the Company recently amended the Plan to provide for so-called “double-trigger” vesting treatment for any equity award granted after January 1, 2012. The “double-trigger” vesting provision generally provides that equity awards granted will not be accelerated upon a change of control of the Company if (1) an acquiror replaces or substitutes outstanding awards in accordance with the requirements of the Plan, and (2) a participant holding the replacement or substitute award is not involuntarily terminated within two years following the change of control. Awards previously granted under the Plan will not be affected by the addition of the “double-trigger” vesting provision. The Company's form of award agreements were also amended to incorporate the “double-trigger” vesting treatment for awards granted after January 1, 2012. As such, the First Amendment incorporates the “double-trigger” vesting treatment for any equity awards granted to Mr. Monaghan after January 1, 2012.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the First Amendment, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
