GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2004
(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company

Genesis Technology Group, Inc. (the "Company" or "Genesis") is a business development firm that specializes in assisting small and mid-sized companies in entering the Chinese market. The Company currently owns 80% of a Company selling computer hardware and peripherals in China, and derives approximately 98% of its revenues from the sale of computer hardware and peripherals. The Company's strategy includes marketing itself as a resource for small and mid-sized companies in marketing, distribution, manufacturing, forming joint ventures, or establishing a base in China. As a part of that strategy, the Company has become a member of the Shanghai United Assets and Equity Exchange (SUAEE) (formerly known as the Shanghai Technology Stock (Property Rights) Exchange), an organization that promotes the influx of technology into China. The Company also has acquired companies in the U.S. and China for the purposes of further developing these companies, with operational, managerial and financial support. The strategy also envisions and promotes opportunities for synergistic business relationships among all of the companies that Genesis works with, both clients and subsidiaries.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The accompanying consolidated financial statements for the interim periods are unaudited and reflect all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and operating results for the periods presented. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly and partially owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. These consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2003 and notes thereto contained on Form 10-KSB of the Company as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The results of operations for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results for the full fiscal year ending September 30, 2004.

Net income (loss) per share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each period. Diluted loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of shares of common stock, common stock equivalents and potentially dilutive securities outstanding during each period.

Inventories

Inventories, consisting of computer equipment and accessories, are stated at the lower of cost or market utilizing the first-in, first-out method, and are located in China.

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

Marketable equity securities

Marketable equity securities consist of investments in equity of publicly traded and non-public domestic and foreign companies and are stated at market value based on the most recently traded price of these securities at June 30, 2004. All marketable securities are classified as available for sale at June 30, 2004. Unrealized gains and losses, determined by the difference between historical purchase price and the market value at each balance sheet date, are recorded as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income in Stockholders' Equity. Realized gains and losses are determined by the difference between historical purchase price and gross proceeds received when the marketable securities are sold. Restricted marketable equity securities are shown as long-term assets.

Foreign currency translation

Transactions and balances originally denominated in U.S. dollars are presented at their original amounts. Transactions and balances in other currencies are converted into U.S. dollars in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation," and are included in determining net income or loss.

For foreign operations with the local currency as the functional currency, assets and liabilities are translated from the local currencies into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date. Revenues, expenses and cash flows are translated at the average exchange rate for the period to approximate translation at the exchange rate prevailing at the dates those elements are recognized in the financial statements. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating the local currency financial statements into U.S. dollars are included in determining comprehensive loss. As of June 30, 2004, the exchange rate for the Chinese Renminbi (RMB) was $1 US for 8.28 RMB.

The functional currency of the Company's Chinese subsidiaries is the local currency. The financial statements of the subsidiary are translated to United States dollars using period-end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and the average rate of exchange for the period for revenues, costs, and expenses. Net gains and losses resulting from foreign exchange transactions are included in the consolidated statements of operations and were not material during the periods presented. The cumulative translation adjustment and effect of exchange rate changes on cash at June 30, 2004 were not material.

Stock-based compensation

The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Such compensation amounts, if any, are amortized over the respective vesting periods of the option grant. The Company adopted the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and SFAS 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation -Transition and Disclosure", which permits entities to provide pro forma net income (loss) and pro forma earnings (loss) per share disclosures for employee stock option grants as if the fair-value based method defined in SFAS No. 123 had been applied. The Company accounts for stock options and stock issued to non-employees for goods or services in accordance with the fair value method of SFAS 123.

Had compensation cost for the stock option plan been determined based on the fair value of the options at the grant dates consistent with the method of SFAS 123, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation", the Company's net loss and loss per share would have been changed to the pro forma amounts indicated below for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 and 2003:

	-----	-----
Net loss as reported	$ (973,673)	$ (979,140)
Less: stock-based employee compensation included in reported net loss	277,494	-
Add: stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair-value based method, net of related tax effect	(189,309)	(230,000)
	-----	-----

Basic loss per share:
As reported	$ (.03)	$ (.03)
	=====	=====
Pro forma	$ (.03)	$ (.04)

The above pro forma disclosures may not be representative of the effects on reported net earnings for future years as options vest over several years and the Company may continue to grant options to employees.

NOTE 2 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Due from related party

From time to time, an officer of the Company advances funds to the Company for working capital purposes. The advances are non-interest bearing and are payable on demand. At June 30, 2004, the Company did not owe this officer any funds. Additionally, a minority shareholder of the Company's Chorry (Zhaoli) subsidiary, advanced $362,320 to this subsidiary for working capital purposes. These advances are non-interest bearing and are payable on demand.

NOTE 3 - SEGMENT INFORMATION

The following information is presented in accordance with SFAS No. 131, Disclosure about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information. In the periods ended June 30, 2004 and 2003, the Company operated in two reportable business segments - (1) sale of computer equipment and accessories and (2) business development services for small public and private companies regarding public relations, corporate financing, mergers and acquisitions, e-commerce, business operations support and marketing. The Company's reportable segments are strategic business units that offer different products. They are managed separately based on the fundamental differences in their operations.

Currently, the Company's revenues are primarily derived from sale of computer equipment and accessories to customers in the Peoples Republic of China (PRC). The Company hopes to expand its operations to countries outside the PRC, however, such expansion has not been commenced and there are no assurances that the Company will be able to achieve such an expansion successfully. Therefore, a downturn or stagnation in the economic environment of the PRC could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition.

NOTE 4 - LOANS PAYABLE

On April 1, 2002, the Company borrowed $80,000 from an individual related to an officer of the Company. The loan bears interest at 10% per annum and is unsecured. All unpaid principal and accrued interest was payable on April 1, 2003. In the event of default of the loan agreement, the lender is to receive shares of the Company's common stock at a 25% discount to the average closing price of the previous 20 trading days of the Company's common stock equal to the total amount due to the lender. In June 2004, the Company repaid the entire principal amount of this loan plus all accrued interest.

On July 31, 2002, the Company borrowed $20,000 from an individual related to an officer of the Company. The loan bears interest at 10% per annum and is unsecured. All unpaid principal and accrued interest was payable on January 1, 2003. At the option of the lender, the entire obligation may be repaid with common stock calculated by dividing the amount due by the average closing common stock price for ten days prior to the repayment discounted by 40%, with a maximum price of $0.13 per share. The beneficial conversion feature present in the issuance of this note payable as determined on the date funds were received under the loan agreement totaled $12,500 and was recorded as interest expense and additional paid-in capital. As of June 30, 2004, no conversion had occurred. As of June 30, 2004, the loan remains unpaid.

In January 2004, the Company's subsidiary, Yastock, borrowed $97,318 from an officer of the Company. The loan is non-interest bearing, unsecured, and was payable on June 30, 2004. In May 2004, this balance was repaid by offsetting the loan payable against funds receivable from the exercise of 1,250,000 stock options totaling $97,500.

The Company's Chinese subsidiary, Chorry (Zhaoli), entered into a loan agreement with a Chinese bank to borrow $120,773. The loan bears interest at a rate of 5.85% per annum and is payable prior to March 25, 2005. As of June 30, 2004, the loan was repaid.

NOTE 5 - STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Preferred stock

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

The Company is authorized to issue 20,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $.001, with such designations, rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

In January 2004, the Board of Directors established a Series A 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock") authorized to be issued by the Company, with the designations and amounts thereof, together with the voting powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of the shares of each such series, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions as follows:

The number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be 218,000. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall have a stated value equal to $10 (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations or splits with respect to such shares) (the "Stated Value"), and $.001 par value.

The Holders of outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive preferential dividends in cash out of any funds of the Company legally available at the time for declaration of dividends before any dividend or other distribution will be paid or declared and set apart for payment on any shares of any Common Stock, or other class of stock presently authorized or to be authorized (the Common Stock, and such other stock being hereinafter collectively the "Junior Stock") at the rate of 6% simple interest per annum on the Stated Value per share payable quarterly commencing with the period ending March 31, 2004 when as and if declared. At the Holder's option, however, the dividend payments may be made in additional fully paid and non assessable shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a rate of one share of Series A Preferred Stock for each $10 of such dividend not paid in cash.

Shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have the following conversion rights and obligations:

(a) Subject to the further provisions in the agreement, each Holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have the right at any time commencing after the issuance to the Holder of Series A Preferred Stock, to convert such shares into fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock of the Company determined in accordance with the Conversion Price as defined below (the "Conversion Price"). All issued or accrued but unpaid dividends may be converted at the election of the Holder simultaneously with the conversion of principal amount of Stated Value of Series A Preferred Stock being converted.

(b) The number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall equal (i) the sum of (A) the Stated Value per share and (B) at the Holder's election accrued and unpaid dividends on such share, divided by (ii) the Conversion Price. The Conversion Price shall be, at the election of the Holder, the lesser of: (x) $.36, or (y) 80% of the Closing Bid Price for the trading day immediately preceding the initial purchase of Series A Preferred Stock by the first Holder thereof. The Closing Bid Price shall mean the closing bid price of the Corporation's Common Stock as reported by the Bloomberg L.P. OTC Bulletin Board or the principal exchange or market where traded.

On January 16, 2004, the Company consummated a securities purchase agreement under which the Company agreed to issue $2,000,000 stated value of its newly created Series A Preferred Stock to several institutional investors. On January 16, 2004 the Company closed its initial Series A Preferred Stock and issued 100,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock ($1,000,000 stated value) for net proceeds of $944,987. The Series A Preferred Stock is convertible at $0.232 per share. In addition, the Company issued warrants to purchase 215,517 shares of its common stock at $0.3045 on the initial closing.

On March 31, 2004, the Company closed on the remaining balance of its Series A Preferred Stock with various institutional investors. As part of this closing phase, the Company issued 100,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock ($1,000,000 stated value) for net proceeds of $957,488. These shares of Series A Preferred Stock are convertible into common stock at $0.232 per share, and included warrants to purchase 215,517 shares of its common stock exercisable at $0.3045.

On the date of issuance of the Series A Preferred Stock, the effective conversion price was at a discount to the price of the common stock into which it was convertible. The Company recorded a $500,000 preferred stock dividend related to the beneficial conversion feature.

Common stock

On April 6, 2004, the Company's Board of Directors authorized, approved and adopted the 2004 Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") covering 10,000,000 shares of common stock. As of April 21, 2004, 5,650,250 shares underlying options had been granted under the Plan. The purpose of the Plan is to encourage stock ownership by the Company's officers, directors, key employees and consultants, and to give such persons a greater personal interest in the success of the business and an added incentive to continue to advance and contribute to the Company.

In March 2004, the Company issued 1,740,469 shares of common stock in connection with the conversion of 40,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

On March 29, 2004, the Company issued an aggregate of 240,000 shares of its common stock to officers for services rendered. The Company valued these shares at $0.245 per share and recorded stock-based compensation expense relating to this issuance of $58,800.

In April 2004, the Company issued 2,694,249 shares of common stock in connection with the conversion of 62,500 shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

In May and June 2004, the Company issued 2,896,770 shares of its common stock relating to the exercise of options granted to executives, employees and consultants, respectively. The Company received proceeds of $30,744, reduced accrued salaries by $154,557, reduced related party loans by $97,500, and reduced accounts payable by $24,293 related to these share issuances.

Stock options and warrants

In connection with the preferred stock funding, the Company granted warrants to purchase 731,034 shares of its common stock at $0.3045. The Warrants shall be exercisable for five years after the issue dates of the Warrants.

In May 2004, 1,310,770 options were granted to officers and employees of the Company with an exercise price of $.13 for accrued salary. The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Since the current market price equaled the exercise price, no compensation expense was recognized in connection with these options under the intrinsic value method of APB 25.

NOTE 6 - SETTLEMENT INCOME

On December 31, 2003, the Company settled its litigation against Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. ("HYTT"). The Settlement Agreement resulted in the Company accepting 3,750,000 common shares of restricted Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. stock (OTCBB: HYTT). In a related matter, the Company conveyed 300,000 of those shares to Elite Financial Communications Group, which had initially introduced the Company to key principals among the HYTT parties. In connection with the settlement, the Company recorded settlement income of $196,650 based on the fair market value of 3,450,000 net shares that the Company received.

NOTE 7 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company signed a letter of intent to acquire a 60% interest in ExtremA LLC on May 17, 2004. Based in Miami, ExtremA LLC is a computer hardware wholesaler, established in 1982, with an extensive sales network in Latin America. Genesis intends to acquire controlling interest in this company primarily to resell computer hardware and peripherals manufactured in China to the Latin American markets. The due diligence has been completed and the acquisition agreement is in the final stages of negotiation. If the acquisition is to occur, it should be completed by the end of August 2004.

The Company acquired a 90% interest in Shanghai Yastand Information Technology Company, Limited on July 1, 2004. Robert Zhuang, a director of the Company and President of Shanghai Yastock Investment Consulting Services Company, Limited (a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company), transferred his 90% ownership of Shanghai Yastand to Shanghai Yastock. In return, Shanghai Yastock forgave a loan of $30,000 that Shanghai Yastand previously owed to Shanghai Yastock. Shanghai Yastand owns an SMS license from the China government to become a service provider in the wireless SMS industry. In August 2004, the Company lent $75,000 to Shanghai Yastand as part of a $200,000 commitment to invest in the SMS business in China. As of June 30, 2004, Shanghai Yastand has not generated substantial revenue and does not have substantial assets. Shanghai Yastand financials will be consolidated into the Company's financials effective on July 1, 2004.

Subsequent to June 30, 2004, the Company entered into a joint venture with China International Intellectech Corporation and formed a joint venture called CIIC Investment Banking Services (Shanghai) Company Limited ("CIIC"). The Company invested $60,000 in this joint venture and holds a 30% ownership interest. The CIIC joint venture serves as an incubator for elite Chinese companies. Robert Zhuang, President of Shanghai Yastock, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, acts as Vice General Manager of the joint venture and is in charge of daily operations.

Genesis Latin America, Inc. (GLA) is a collaborative venture in which the Company, as of July 2004, holds a 51% interest and Global Boardroom Solutions, a Latin American-focused consulting and business development firm owns a 49% interest. GLA, funded by both partners on a pro rata basis in July 2004, launched an active initiative by sourcing Chinese companies interested in exploring opportunities in the Southern Hemisphere.

ITEM 2.MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following analysis of the results of operations and financial condition of the Company should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of Genesis Technology Group, Inc. for the year ended September 30, 2003 and notes thereto contained in this Report on Form 10-KSB of Genesis Technology Group, Inc.

This report on Form 10-KSB contains forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements and from historical results of operations. Among the risks and uncertainties which could cause such a difference are those relating to our dependence upon certain key personnel, our ability to manage our growth, our success in implementing the business strategy, our success in arranging financing where required, and the risk of economic and market factors affecting us or our customers. Many of such risk factors are beyond the control of the Company and its management.

OVERVIEW

We are an international company with operations in the United States and the People's Republic of China. Our computer equipment and accessories division represented approximately 97.5% of our consolidated revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 and approximately 98% of our consolidated revenues for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003. Our consulting services division represented approximately 2.5% of our consolidated revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 and approximately 4% of our consolidated revenues for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003.

We believe that the computer and equipment accessories division of our business will become a less significant phase of our operations in future periods as we expand our consulting services segment. We believe we will further develop our consulting services segment, more opportunities to expand our operations through acquisitions will also be presented to us. It is critical to our long-term business model to both increase our revenues from the consulting services segment of our existing business, as well as to diversify our revenue base. By virtue of the nature of our consulting services and the professional experience of our management and directors, we interact with a number of both U.S. and Chinese companies. Through broadening of our relationship base, we believe that we will continue to provide better services to our client and we will have certain advantages over other companies our size when it comes to identifying and closing acquisitions.

Our computer equipment and accessories division is an established business which can grow internally without significant additional capital. The fee-based structure of our consulting services division is such that if our client company is successful in its particular venture, we can earn additional fees. These fees could range from a flat cash fee, to a fee which includes a combination of equity in our client's venture and a success fee payable upon the completion of transactions such as acquisitions, formations of joint ventures, or licensing or selling technologies in China. These fees could also include a solely performance based fee upon the completion of the project. We do not intend to operate as an investment company or become subject to the Investment Company Act of 1940. However, in order to materially grow our business we will need to raise additional working capital. Capital will typically be needed not only for the acquisition of additional companies, but also for the effective integration, operations and expansion of these businesses.

There are no assurances we will be able to raise additional capital. If we are unable to secure additional capital as needed, this inability will in all likelihood hamper or restrict our ability to acquire and integrate additional companies and to otherwise increase our revenues in future periods.

Our consulting services division is an international business development firm that specializes in leading and assisting companies in penetrating the Chinese market for business development and commerce, as well as assisting Chinese companies in penetrating the US market. We have a seat as a member of the Shanghai United Assets and Equity Exchange (formerly the Shanghai Technology (Property Rights) Exchange), an organization that promotes the influx of technology into China.

In January, the Company signed a collaboration agreement with Global Boardroom Solutions (GBS), a private business development firm that focuses on Latin America. GBS management has a combined history of nearly 30 years in South America running the operations for Xerox, Ryder, Purina and other major multi-nationals. Genesis proposed bridging the economic interests of China and Latin America. GBS's top executives accompanied Gary Wolfson and Xun Mei DelSesto from Genesis on a 2-week trip to China in April. As a result, the collaboration agreement was significantly expanded and resulted in the creation of Genesis Latin America, Inc., of which Genesis owns 51% and GBS 49%, with both parties providing pro rata funding. This Latin American initiative could result in increased revenues to Genesis in the next 6-24 months, and actual business activities have commenced.

After receiving the $2 million in funding through the private placement, the Company is planning to undertake a merger and acquisition program. No mergers or acquisitions have been completed to date, but several are in negotiations.

In May 2004, the Company responded to inquiries from shareholders by creating a page entitled "Shareholders Ask" on the www.genesis-technology.net and www.genesis-china.net websites. A recurring question has been an update on progress made in China for contract clients. As numerous of these contracts are with other public companies, it is difficult for Genesis to offer a unilateral assessment, without the concurrence of the client. Most Chinese initiatives generally require a 12-36 month period before any significant revenues are realized.

Perhaps illustrating the prominence of the Company, its web page entitled "Chinese Charities" is listed first on Google among over 125,000 such listings.

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

The purpose of this page is solely philanthropic, and the Company intends to use its good will and efforts to promote and support such worthy Chinese charities.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONSIDERATIONS

Because revenues from our operations in the PRC accounted for approximately 97.5% and approximately 98% of our consolidated net revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2004 and the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003, respectively, how we report net revenues from our PRC-based companies is of particular importance to understanding our consolidated financial statements. Transactions and balances originally denominated in U.S. dollars are presented at their original amounts. Transactions and balances in other currencies are converted into U.S. dollars in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation," and are included in determining net income or loss. For foreign operations with the local currency as the functional currency, assets and liabilities are translated from the local currencies into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the respective balance sheet date. Revenues and expenses are translated at weighted average exchange rates for the period to approximate translation at the exchange rates prevailing at the dates those elements are recognized in the financial statements. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating the local currency financial statements into U.S. dollars are included in determining comprehensive loss.

The functional currency of our Chinese subsidiaries, Chorry (Zhaoli) and Shanghai Yastock, is the Chinese RMB, the local currency. The financial statements of the subsidiaries are translated to U.S. dollars using year-end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and average rates of exchange for the period for revenues, costs, and expenses. Net gains and losses resulting from foreign exchange transactions are included in the consolidated statements of operations and were not material during the periods presented. The cumulative translation adjustment and effect of exchange rate changes on cash at June 30, 2004 was not material.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

NINE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2004 COMPARED TO NINE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2003

CONSOLIDATED RESULTS:

The following discussion relates to our consolidated results of operations. Further discussion and analysis of operating results follows and is discussed by segment.

Revenues

For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we had consolidated revenues of $18,055,384 as compared to $18,020,770 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003. This increase resulted from an increase in revenues from our business development segment offset by a decrease in revenues from our computer hardware and accessories segment and is discussed below.

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS (continued)

Cost of Sales

For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, cost of sales was directly related to our computer equipment and accessories segment and amounted to $17,249,843 as compared to $17,349,184 for nine months ended June 30, 2003. This decrease resulted substantially from decreased revenue from our computer segment and is outlined below.

Operating Expenses

For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, operating expenses which include consulting fees, rent, salaries and non-cash compensation, depreciation expense and other selling, general and administrative, were $1,953,284 as compared to $1,611,306 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003 and is outlined by segment below.

Loss from sale/disposal of marketable securities

For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we recorded a loss from the sale of marketable securities of $13,333 as compared to a loss of $12,099 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003.

Settlement income

On December 31, 2003, we settled our litigation against Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. ("HYTT"). The Settlement Agreement resulted in us accepting 3,750,000 common shares of restricted Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. stock (OTCBB: HYTT). In a related matter, we conveyed 300,000 of those shares to Elite Financial Communications Group, which had initially introduced us to key principals among the HYTT parties. In connection with the settlement, we recorded settlement income of $196,650 based on the fair market value of 3,450,000 net shares that we received.

Interest expense, net

Interest expense was $8,144 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 as compared to $27,503 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003.

OVERALL

We reported a net loss for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 of $(973,673) compared to a net loss for the nine months ended June 30, 2003 of $(979,140). During the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we recorded a preferred stock dividend of $500,000 related to the beneficial conversion feature of our Series A Preferred Stock. This translates to an overall per-share loss available to shareholders of ($.03) for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 compared to per-share loss of ($.03) for nine months ended June 30, 2003.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS BY SEGMENT:

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

Consulting Services Segment

Revenue for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 was $432,605 as compared to $360,715 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003. This revenue was generated from business development services. The increase in revenues was attributable to the fact that during fiscal 2003 and in the first and second quarter in fiscal 2004, we entered into business development contracts to assist companies in introducing their products into the Chinese marketplace. We have been aggressively marketing our business development services through round-table meetings and through our referral sources. In 2004, our employees have made several trips with our clients to China to meet with prospective partners, and are actively working on behalf of our clients to secure distribution and partnership agreements.

At an earlier roundtable event, the Company met the principals of Global Boardroom Solutions, which--after six months--resulted in the creation of Genesis Latin America, Inc. Also, among its new clients sourced through such efforts, BersaChem, Inc, has received distribution proposals from several qualified Chinese companies. Additionally, the Company led a business mission with over 20 South Florida delegates, including Broward County, Florida Mayor Ilene Lieberman, to four Chinese cities.

In August 2004, CEO Gary Wolfson returns to China to launch an initiative between the Russian Federation and China. The Company could benefit from any contracts signed between interests in these thriving economic forces. Meetings with over 50 Chinese companies have been arranged in Beijing and Shanghai.

For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we incurred operating expenses of $1,585,862 as compared to $1,306,065 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003. For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, operating expenses consisted of rent of $35,991, consulting fees of $183,585, salaries and non-cash compensation of $947,714, and other selling, general and administrative expenses of $418,572. For the nine months ended June 30, 2003, operating expenses consisted of rent of $67,328, consulting fees of $462,744, salaries and non-cash compensation of $406,712 and other selling, general and administrative expenses of $369,281. The increase in operating expenses was primarily attributable to the following:

- (1) During the nine months ended June 30, 2003, we incurred rent in an office on Minneapolis, MN which is now closed. Accordingly, our rent expense decreased during the nine months ended June 30, 2004 as compared to June 30, 2003.
- (2) Our consulting expenses decreased to $183,585 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, from $462,744 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003. The decrease was due to decreased non-cash consulting expenses recorded during the nine months ended June 30, 2003 in connection with the grant of stock options to consultants for services rendered.

- (3) Salaries and non-cash compensation expense increased to $947,714 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 from $406,712 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003, an increase of

$541,002. In the latter part fiscal 2003, we increased our marketing and administrative staff by two persons. The remaining increase in salaries and non-cash compensation expenses were attributable to the recording of non-cash compensation in connection with the granting of stock options to officers, employees, and directors and the issuance of common shares during the nine months ended June 30, 2004 for bonuses and the amortization of deferred compensation.

- (4) Other selling, general and administrative expenses increased to $405,663 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 from $369,281 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003, an increase of $136,382. The increase was attributable to additional travel related expenses of approximately $52,000 related to increased travel to China, increased marketing costs associated with our Chinese round table events, and increased administrative and office expenses due to increased operations. Additionally, our professional fee expenses increased by approximately $50,000 due to the filing of our registration statement of Form SB-2.

For the nine months ended June 30, 2004 and 2003, we incurred an interest expense of $8,144 and $27,519, respectively.

Computer Equipment and Accessories Segment

Revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 were $17,622,779 as compared to $17,660,055 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003 from our subsidiary Chorry (Zhaoli), a Chinese company, a decrease of $37,276 or less than 1%. This revenue was generated from sales of printers, copiers, network equipment and software licensing fees.

Cost of sales for Chorry (Zhaoli) for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 amounted to $17,249,843 or 97.9% of net sales as compared to $17,349,184 or 96.3% of net sales for the nine months ended June 30, 2003. We continue to experience low gross profit margins on our product sales.

For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we incurred operating expenses of $367,422 compared to $299,391 for the nine months ended June 30, 2003 and consisted of the following:

	2004	2003
Salaries	$ 108,845	$ 41,776
Rent	111,464	102,102
Other selling, general and administrative	147,113	155,513
	-----	-----
Total operating expenses	$ 367,422	$ 299,391

In fiscal 2004, we incurred additional rent due to our growing need for warehouse space. Additionally, during the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we incurred increased salary expenses as we increased our workforce.

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At June 30, 2004, we had a cash balance of $2,147,069. As of June 30, 2004, our cash position by geographic area is as follows:

United States	$ 2,040,810
China	106,259

Total	$ 2,147,069

On January 16, 2004, we consummated a securities purchase agreement under which we agreed to issue $2,000,000 stated value of our newly created Series A 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock") to several institutional investors. The stated value of the Series A Preferred Stock is $10.00 per share. Through June 30, 2004, the Company sold 200,000 Series A Preferred shares for net proceeds of $1,902,475. We intend on using these proceeds for working capital purposes and to seek acquisition candidates.

Management has invested substantial time evaluating and considering numerous proposals for possible acquisitions developed by management or presented by investment professionals, the Company's advisors and others. We continue to consider acquisitions, business combinations, or start up proposals, which could be advantageous to shareholders. No assurance can be given that any such project, or acquisition will be concluded.

We intend to continue our trading activities and as a consequence the future financial results of the Company may be subject to substantial fluctuations. As part of our investment activities, we may sell a variety of equity or debt securities obtained as revenues for business development services. Such investments often involve a high degree of risk and must be considered extremely speculative.

Net cash used in operations was $(417,012) for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, as compared to net cash used in operations of $(511,072) for the nine months ended June 30, 2003. For the nine months ended June 30, 2004 we used cash to fund our net loss of $973,673 offset by non-cash items such as stock-based compensation of $611,632, depreciation expense of $19,392 and settlement income of $(196,650) as well as changes in assets and liabilities of $134,675. For the nine months ended June 30, 2003, we used cash to fund our net loss of $979,322 offset by non-cash items such as stock-based compensation of $558,196, depreciation expense of $11,014, as well as changes in assets and liabilities of $(9,684).

Net cash provided by investing activities for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 was $221,118 as compared to net cash provided by investing activities for the nine months ended June 30, 2003 of $11,041. For nine months ended June 30, 2004, we received $233,551 from the sale of marketable securities offset by cash used for capital expenditures of $(12,433). For the nine months ended June 30, 2003, we received cash from the sale of marketable securities of $12,826 offset by cash used for capital expenditures of $(1,785).

activities related primarily to proceeds from the exercise of stock options and related party loans of $346,324 and $13,208, respectively, proceeds from the sale of preferred stock of $1,902,475, and proceeds from notes payable of $97,500 offset by loan repayments of $200,919. For the nine months ended June 30, 2003, net cash provided by financing activities related to proceeds from related party loans of $373,625, proceeds from the exercise of stock options of $429,139 offset by payment on loans payable of ($120,919).

We currently have no material commitments for capital expenditures. Our future growth is dependent on our ability to raise capital for expansion, and to seek additional revenue sources. If we decide to pursue any acquisition opportunities or other expansion opportunities, we may need to raise additional capital, although there can be no assurance such capital-raising activities would be successful.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of significant accounting policies is included in Note 1 to the audited consolidated financial statements included in our filing on Form 10-KSB as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the year ended September 30, 2003. Management believes that the application of these policies on a consistent basis enables the Company to provide useful and reliable financial information about the company's operating results and financial condition.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

We account for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Such compensation amounts, if any, are amortized over the respective vesting periods of the option grant. We adopted the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and SFAS 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation -Transition and Disclosure", which permits entities to provide pro forma net income (loss) and pro forma earnings (loss) per share disclosures for employee stock option grants as if the fair-value based method defined in SFAS No. 123 had been applied. We account for stock options and stock issued to non-employees for goods or services in accordance with the fair value method of SFAS No. 123.

Our revenues from the sale of products are recorded when the goods are shipped. Consulting income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the period of the service agreement. Deferred revenues relates to consulting revenues that is being recognized over the period of the service agreement.

Marketable equity securities consist of investments in equity of publicly traded and non-public domestic companies and are stated at market value based on the most recently traded price of these securities at June 30, 2004. All marketable securities are classified as available for sale at June 30, 2004. Unrealized gains and losses, determined by the difference between historical purchase price and the market value at each balance sheet date, are recorded as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income in Stockholders' Equity. Realized gains and losses are determined by the difference between historical purchase price and gross proceeds received when the marketable securities are sold.

OPERATING RISK

(a) Country risk

Currently, the Company's revenues are primarily derived from the sale of computer equipment and accessories to customers in the Peoples Republic of China (PRC). The Company hopes to expand its operations to countries outside the PRC, however, such expansion has not been commenced and there are no assurances that the Company will be able to achieve such an expansion successfully. Therefore, a downturn or stagnation in the economic environment of the PRC could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition. As experienced in Spring 2003, diseases such as SARS can significantly impact the PRC economy and affect the Company productivity.

(b) Products risk

In addition to competing with other computer and electronics equipment companies, the Company could have to compete with larger US companies who have greater funds available for expansion, marketing, research and development and the ability to attract more qualified personnel if access is allowed into the PRC market. If US companies do gain access to the PRC markets, it may be able to offer products at a lower price. There can be no assurance that the Company will remain competitive should this occur.

(c) Exchange risk

The Company generates revenue and incurs expenses and liabilities in Chinese renminbi (RMB) and U.S. dollars. As a result, the Company is subject to the effects of exchange rate fluctuations with respect to any of these currencies. For example, the value of the renminbi depends to a large extent on the PRC's domestic and international economic and political developments, as well as supply and demand in the local market. Since 1994, the official exchange rate for the conversion of renminbi to U.S. dollars has generally been stable and the renminbi has appreciated slightly against the U.S. dollar. However, given recent economic instability and currency fluctuations, the Company can offer no assurance that the renminbi will continue to remain stable against the U.S. dollar or any other foreign currency. The Company's results of operations and financial condition may be affected by changes in the value of renminbi and other currencies in which its earnings and obligations are denominated. The Company has not entered into agreements or purchased instruments to hedge its exchange rate risks, although the Company may do so in the future.

Although Chinese governmental policies were introduced in 1996 to allow the convertibility of renminbi into foreign currency for current account items, conversion of renminbi into foreign exchange for capital items, such as foreign direct investment, loans or security, requires the approval of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange, or SAFE, which is under the authority of the People's Bank of China. These approvals, however, do not guarantee the availability of foreign currency. The Company cannot be sure that the Company will be able to obtain all required conversion approvals for its operations; or that Chinese regulatory authorities will not impose greater restrictions on the convertibility of the renminbi in the future. Because a significant amount of its revenues are in the form of renminbi, its inability to obtain the requisite approvals or any future restrictions on currency exchanges will limit its ability to utilize revenue generated in renminbi to fund its business activities outside PRC.

(d) Political risk

Currently, the PRC is in a period of growth and is openly promoting business development in order to bring more business into the PRC. Additionally, the PRC allows a Chinese corporation to be owned by a United States corporation. If the laws or regulations are changed by the PRC government, the Company's ability to operate the PRC subsidiaries could be affected.

(e) Our future performance is dependent on its ability to retain key personnel

Our performance is substantially dependent on the performance of our senior management. In particular, the Company's success depends on the continued effort of our Senior Management to maintain all contact with our Chinese subsidiaries. The Company's inability to retain Senior Management could have a material adverse effect on our prospects, businesses, Chinese operations and financial condition.

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer (collectively, the "Certifying Officers") are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures for us. Based upon such officers' evaluation of these controls and procedures as of a date within 45 days of the filing of this Quarterly Report, and subject to the limitations noted hereinafter, the Certifying Officers have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in this Quarterly Report is accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive officers as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

The Certifying Officers have also indicated that there were no significant changes in our internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect such controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, and there were no corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.

Our management, including each of the Certifying Officers, does not expect that our disclosure controls or our internal controls will prevent all error and fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. In addition, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within a company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people or by management override of the control. The design of any systems of controls also is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Over time, control may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. Because of these inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Item 2. Changes in Securities and Use of Proceeds

Common stock

In April 2004, we issued 2,694,249 shares of common stock in connection with the conversion of 62,500 shares of Series A Preferred Stock. The issuances of these shares are exempt under section (3)(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933

Item 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities

None

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

None

Item 5. Other Information

We signed a letter of intent to acquire a 60% interest in Extrema LLC on May 17, 2004. Based in Miami, Extrema LLC is a computer hardware wholesaler, established in 1982, with an extensive sales network in Latin America. Genesis intends to acquire controlling interest in this company primarily to resell computer hardware and peripherals manufactured in China to the Latin American markets. The due diligence has been completed and the acquisition agreement is in the final stages of negotiation. If the acquisition is to occur, it should be completed by the end of August 2004.

We acquired a 90% interest in Shanghai Yastand Information Technology Company, Limited on July 1, 2004. Robert Zhuang, a director of the Company and President of Shanghai Yastock Investment Consulting Services Company, Limited (a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company), transferred his 90% ownership of Shanghai Yastand to Shanghai Yastock. In return, Shanghai Yastock forgave a loan of $30,000 that Shanghai Yastand previously owed to Shanghai Yastock. Shanghai Yastand owns an SMS license from the China government to become a service provider in the wireless SMS industry. In August 2004, the Company lent $75,000 to Shanghai Yastand as part of a $200,000 commitment to invest in the SMS business in China. As of June 30, 2004, Shanghai Yastand has not generated substantial revenue and does not have substantial assets. Shanghai Yastand financials will be consolidated into the our financials effective on July 1, 2004.

Subsequent to June 30, 2004, we entered into a joint venture with China International Intellectech Corporation and formed a joint venture called CIIC Investment Banking Services (Shanghai) Company Limited ("CIIC"). We invested $60,000 in this joint venture and hold a 30% ownership interest. The CIIC joint venture serves as an incubator for elite Chinese companies. Robert Zhuang, President of Shanghai Yastock, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, acts as Vice General Manager of the joint venture and is in charge of daily operations.

Genesis Latin America, Inc. (GLA) is a collaborative venture in which the Company, as of July 2004, holds a 51% interest and Global Boardroom Solutions, a Latin American-focused consulting and business development firm owns a 49% interest. GLA, funded by both partners on a pro rata basis in July 2004, launched an active initiative by sourcing Chinese companies interested in exploring opportunities in the Southern Hemisphere.
