Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 23, 2007, the Company announced that it had joined a number of other colleges and universities across the country in adopting a new College Code of Conduct established by the New York Attorney General's Office to ensure best practices in student lending. Additionally, the Illinois Attorney General's Office has joined with the New York Attorney General's Office in recognizing DeVry University's adoption of the Code of Conduct.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain information in this Form 8-K and the related press release may be deemed to contain forward-looking statements within the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements other than those that are purely historical are forward-looking statements. Words such as "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "intend," "plan," and similar expressions also identify forward-looking statements.

Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements including, without limitation, the risk that subsequent unanticipated events, including unanticipated costs, may occur in connection with the Company's adoption of the new College Code of Conduct. Additional information regarding potential risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause results to differ are described more fully in Item 1A "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. Readers should also consult the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2006.

These forward-looking statements are based on information as of April 23, 2007, and the Company assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.
