Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On October 6, 2017, following the evacuation of its Dominica campus in the wake of Hurricane Maria, Ross University School of Medicine (“RUSM”), an operating unit of Adtalem Global Education Inc. (“Adtalem”), informed its students of its intention to temporarily relocate RUSM operations to St. Kitts. Students, faculty and staff will reside in, and instruction will be provided on, a uniquely fitted cruise liner that will be ported off the coast of St. Kitts. RUSM will also draw upon instructional, professional, and recreational resources available at its sister institution located in St. Kitts, Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine. Adtalem and RUSM leadership are working to finalize plans and required arrangements, including regulatory approvals and student accommodations, in advance of a targeted class start the week of October 16, 2017.

Cautionary Note on Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this Form 8-K and furnished materials, including those that affect the Adtalem’s expectations or plans, may constitute forward-looking statements subject to the Safe Harbor Provision of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by phrases such as Adtalem Global Education Inc. or its management “anticipates,” “believes,” “estimates,” “expects,” “forecasts,” “foresees,” “intends,” “plans” or other words or phrases of similar import.

Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause the Adtalem’s actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied by these forward-looking statements. Additional information regarding factors that could cause results to differ can be found in Adtalem’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017.

These forward-looking statements are based on information as of October 6, 2017 and Adtalem assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.
