Each of the parties to the Merger Agreement makes certain customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Holdings and Distribution Services also have agreed to certain pre-closing covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among other things, (i) covenants that Holdings and Distribution Services will carry on their businesses in the ordinary course during the period between the date of the Merger Agreement and closing, and that they will not engage in certain types of transactions without the consent of the Company during such period, and (ii) covenants not to solicit, initiate, encourage or take any other action to facilitate the submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers from any third party of any third party transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement), or agree to or endorse or enter into discussions or negotiations related to any third party transaction. The Merger Agreement provides the Company and Holdings and Distribution Services with customary termination rights.

The Merger has been approved by the boards of directors of both the Company and Holdings. The Company currently anticipates completing the Merger in the second quarter of fiscal 2008, subject to various closing conditions, including regulatory review and approval under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, approval of the Merger by greater than 95% of Holdings' voting shareholders and other customary conditions.
