Item 8.01.

Other Events.

On July 31, 2018, the Pressure Cylinders segment of Worthington Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) sold the operating assets and real property related to its steel and fiberglass storage tank production facilities in Garden City, Kansas and Dickinson, North Dakota. These assets were sold to companies affiliated with Palmer Mfg. & Tank, Inc. for approximately $21 million. The company will also retain approximately $4 million of net working capital. The Company does not expect the sale to materially impact its operations going forward.

Worthington remains a leader in the oil and gas equipment business from its facilities in Tulsa, Oklahoma and Wooster and Bremen, Ohio, which engineer and manufacture value-added oil and gas separation equipment for customers nationwide. These facilities also produce steel storage tanks for oil and gas fields east of the Mississippi River and marine hoists.
