TAT Technologies Reports Second Quarter 2009 Results

Thursday August 18, 2009 15:00 pm ET

GEDERA, Israel, August 18 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ TAT Technologies Ltd. (NASDAQ: TATTF__ News), reported today its results for the three month and six month periods ended June 30, 2009.

TAT Technologies Ltd. (TAT), directly and through its subsidiaries, provides a variety of services and products to the military and commercial aerospace and ground defense systems industries. Such products and services primarily include the design, development, manufacture, maintenance and repair of (i) a broad range of heat transfer components (such as heat exchangers, pre-coolers and oil/fuel hydraulic coolers) used in mechanical and electronic systems on-board commercial, military and business aircraft; (ii) environmental control and cooling systems on-board aircraft and for ground applications; and (iii) a broad range of electrical motion applications for airborne and ground systems.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of OperationsBackground

TAT operates under four operational segments: (i) Original Equipment Manufacturing or OEM of Heat Transfer products (ii) OEM of Electric Motion Systems (iii) Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul or MRO services; and (iv) parts services, each with the following characteristics.

TAT's activities in the area of OEM of Heat Transfer products primarily relate to the (i) design, development, manufacture and sale of a broad range of heat transfer components (such as heat exchangers, pre-coolers and oil/fuel hydraulic coolers) used in mechanical and electronic systems on-board commercial, military and business aircraft; and (ii) manufacture and sale of environmental control and cooling systems and (iii) a variety of other electronic and mechanical aircraft accessories and systems such as pumps, valves, power systems and turbines.

TAT's activities in the area of OEM of Electric Motion Systems primarily relate to the design, development, manufacture and sale of a broad range of electrical motor applications for airborne and ground systems. TAT activities in this segment commenced with the acquisition of Bental in August 2008 and accordingly, the results in this segment for fiscal year 2008 are not compared with the previous years.

TAT's MRO services include the remanufacture, overhaul and repair of heat transfer equipment and other aircraft components, APUs, propellers and landing gear. TAT's Limco subsidiary operates FAA certified repair stations, which provide aircraft component MRO services for airlines, air cargo carriers, maintenance service centers and the military.

TAT's parts segment focuses on inventory management and sale of APU parts, propellers and landing gear. TAT offers parts services for commercial, regional and charter airlines and business aircraft owners.

Revenues. Total revenues decreased to $21.4 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from $23.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 7.6%. This decrease reflects increased revenues in the OEM operations due to organic growth in the OEM of Heat Transfer products segment, as well as revenues in the OEM of Electric Motion Systems segment derived from the Company's 70% controlled subsidiary, Bental, which did not exist during the second quarter of fiscal 2008; offset by decreased revenues in the MRO services segment and in the Parts services segment.

All of the following revenues data are before the elimination of inter-segment transactions:

Revenues from MRO services decreased to $11.7 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from $13.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 11.3%. This decrease in MRO services revenues was primarily attributable to operational issues incurred at our Tulsa facility including parts shortages and processing difficulties.

Revenues from OEM of Heat Transfer products segment increased to $7.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from $6.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008, an increase of 1.5%. The increase in that segment's revenues was primarily attributable to increased sales to existing customers.

Revenues from OEM of Electric Motion Systems segment were $2.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009, and are attributable to the consolidation of Bental operations commencing from August 18, 2008.

Revenues from parts services decreased to $2.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from $4.5 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 50.9%. The decrease in parts services revenues was primarily attributable to a general decline in the part services market.

Cost of revenues. Cost of revenues decreased to $17.6 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from $18.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008, an decrease of 3.77%. The decrease in cost of revenues was primarily attributable to the decreased revenues in the MRO and Part services operations, off-set by additional cost related to Repair Center and Storefront agreements. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues after eliminating intercompany transactions was 82% in the three months ended June 30, 2009, compared to 79% for the three months ended June 30, 2008.

All of the following cost of revenues data are before the elimination of inter-segment transactions:

Cost of revenues for MRO services. Cost of revenues for MRO services was $11.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009, similar to the three months ended June 30, 2008. This is resulting primarily from additional cost related to Repair Center and Storefront agreements, off set by the decrease in revenues in this segment. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues in this segment increased to 96% in the three months ended June 30, 2009 from 84% for the three months ended June 30, 2008, primarily as a result of product mix with lower margin products sold during the three months ended June 30, 2009, increased production costs in 2009 as well as to additional cost related to Repair Center and Storefront agreements affected retroactively.

Edgar Filing: TAT TECHNOLOGIES LTD - Form 6-K

Cost of revenues for OEM of Heat Transfer products. Cost of revenues for OEM Heat Transfer products decreased to $4.8 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from $4.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 1.9%, primarily as a result of decreased fixed labor cost and production expenses. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues in this segment decreased to 68% in the three months ended June 30, 2009, from 71% for the three months ended June 30, 2008, primarily resulting from the incline in the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the Israeli Shekel that resulted in decreased production expenses, as well as improved efficiency in the production processes during 2009 compared with 2008.

Cost of revenues for OEM of Electric Motion System. Cost of revenues for OEM of Electric Motion Systems segment were $1.5 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009, and are attributable to the consolidation of Bental operations commencing from August 18, 2008. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues in this segment was 65% in the three months ended June 30, 2009.

Cost of revenues for parts services. Cost of revenues for parts services decreased to $1.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from $3.6 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 48.0%, primarily as a result of decreased parts revenues. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues increased to 85% in the three months ended June 30, 2009 from 81% for the three months ended June 30, 2008, primarily as a result of product mix with lower margin products sold during the three months ended June 30, 2009. TAT expects that its cost of revenues for parts services will vary from year to year and period to period due to the high degree of volatility in this segment.

Research and development. Research and Development expenses were $0.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009, and are related to new products and technologies within the OEM operations in Israel. Research and Development expenses as a percentage of revenues was 1.0% in the three months ended June 30, 2009. TAT did not incur any material research and development expenses in the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007. TAT does expect to continue to incur and record research and development expenses in coming years.

Selling and marketing expenses. Selling and marketing expenses were $1.1 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009, a slight increase compared to $1.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008. These expenses were attributable to increased expenses in the OEM operations off-set by decreased expenses in the MRO services and in lesser extent in the parts service segment. Selling and marketing expenses as a percentage of revenues were 5.2% for the three months ended June 30, 2009, compared to 4.4% for the three months ended June 30, 2008.

General and administrative expenses. General and administrative expenses were $2.8 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009, a slight decrease compared to $2.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008. This is primarily attributable to a one time expenses in 2008 associated with the retirement of certain management members off set by increased expenses in the OEM operations as a result of the consolidation of Bental operations commencing August 18, 2008. General and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues slightly increased to 12.9% for the three months ended June 30, 2009 from 12.4% for the three months ended June 30, 2008.

Relocation Expenses. Relocation expenses were $0.1 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009, compared to none during the three months ended June 30, 2008, and are related to the relocation of the operations of TAT's Tulsa, Oklahoma based subsidiary Limco Airepair, Inc. (Limco) to the location of its Piedmont Aviation Component Services, Inc. subsidiary in Kernersville, North Carolina. On July 28, 2009 the Company had determined not to go forward with the planned relocation

Operating income. For the three months ended June 30, 2009 there was an operating loss of $0.4 million from compared to an operating income of $1.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008. That reflects an increased gross and operational margins in the OEM operations due to improved margins in the OEM of Heat Transfer products segment, as well as operational income in the OEM of Electric Motion Systems segment derived from the company's 70% controlled subsidiary, Bental Industries Ltd. which did not exist during the second quarter of fiscal 2008; offset by decreased gross and operational margins in the MRO and in the Parts services segments in 2009 compared to 2008.

Financial income. Financial income for the three months ended June 30, 2009 was $0.6 million, compared to $0.5 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008 and was primarily attributable to hedging activities related to exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the Israeli Shekel and interest received for short-term investments.

Financial expenses. Financial expense for the three months ended June 30, 2009 was $0.4 million, compared to $0.1 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008. In the three months ended June 30, 2009 financial expense was primarily resulted from changes in the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the Israeli Shekel, as well as interest payments on long-term loans. In the second quarter of 2008 financial expense was primarily resulted from changes in the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the Israeli Shekel.

Other Income (expenses). TAT had other expense of $0.4 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 compared to insignificant other income for the three months ended June 30, 2008. Other expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2009 primarily resulted from a change in the fair value of unrealized forward transactions gains as of June 30, 2009.

Edgar Filing: TAT TECHNOLOGIES LTD - Form 6-K

Net income attributable to noncontrolling interest. TAT recognized a net loss attributable to noncontrolling interest of $ 0.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2009 compared with a net income attributable to noncontrolling interest of $0.24 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008.

Taxes. Total tax income for the three months ended June 30, 2009 amounted to $0.1 million, compared to tax expense of $0.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008. The decrease in tax expense for the three months ended June 30, 2009 is primarily attributable to tax income in the operation in the U.S. due to decreased pretax income, off-set increased tax expenses in the operation in Israel.

Net income. For the three months ended June 30, 2009, net income was $0.6 million, compared with net income of $1.4 million for the three months ended June 30, 2008.

Six Months ended June 30, 2009 compared with Six months ended June 30, 2008

Revenues. Total revenues increased to $46.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $45.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008, an increase of 1.2%. This increase reflects increased revenues in the OEM operations due to organic growth in the OEM of Heat Transfer products segment, as well as revenues in the OEM of Electric Motion Systems segment derived from the Company's 70% controlled subsidiary, Bental, which did not exist during the second quarter of fiscal 2008; offset by decreased revenues in the MRO services segment and in the Parts services segment.

All of the following revenues data are before the elimination of inter-segment transactions.

Revenues from MRO services decreased to $23.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $26.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 11.4%. The decrease in MRO services revenues in six months ended March 31, 2009 was primarily attributable to operational issues incurred at our Tulsa facility including parts shortages and processing difficulties.

Revenues from OEM of Heat Transfer products segment increased to $14.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $13.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008, an increase of 9.7%. The increase in that segment's revenues was primarily attributable to increased sales to existing customers.

Revenues from OEM of Electric Motion Systems segment were $6.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009, and are attributable to the consolidation of Bental operations commencing from August 18, 2008.

Revenues from parts services decreased to $4.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $8.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 43.8%. The decrease in parts services revenues was primarily attributable to a general decline in the part services market.

Cost of revenues. Cost of revenues decreased to $35.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $34.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008, an increase of 2%. The increase in cost of revenues was primarily attributable to the increased revenues in the OEM operations and by additional cost related to Repair Center and Storefront agreements affected retroactively in the MRO segment, off-set by the decreased revenues in the MRO and Part services. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues after eliminating intercompany transactions was 77% in the six months ended June 30, 2009, compared to 76% in the six months ended June 30, 2008, primarily as a result of the additional cost related to Repair Center and Storefront agreements affected retroactively, mentioned above.

All of the following cost of revenues data reflects the elimination of inter-segment transactions.

Cost of revenues for MRO services. Cost of revenues for MRO services slightly decreased to $20.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $20.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008. This is resulting primarily from the decreased revenues in this segment; however there was additional cost incurred, related to a commercial dispute with regards to the Company's Repair Center and Storefront agreements. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues in this segment increased to 89% in the six months ended June 30, 2009 from 79% for the six months ended June 30, 2008, primarily as a result of product mix with lower margin products sold during the six months ended June 30, 2009, increased production costs in 2009, as well as additional cost related to Repair Center and Storefront agreements, mentioned above.

Cost of revenues for OEM of Heat Transfer products. Cost of revenues for OEM Heat Transfer products increased to $9.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $9.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008, an increase of 1.2%, primarily as a result of increased revenues. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues in this segment decreased to 67% in the six months ended June 30, 2009, from 72% for the six months ended June 30, 2008, primarily resulting from the incline in the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the Israeli Shekel that resulted in decreased production expenses, as well as improved efficiency in the production processes during 2009 compared with 2008.

Edgar Filing: TAT TECHNOLOGIES LTD - Form 6-K

Cost of revenues for OEM of Electric Motion System. Cost of revenues for OEM of Electric Motion Systems segment were $3.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009, and are attributable to the consolidation of Bental operations commencing from August 18, 2008. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues in this segment was 64% in the six months ended June 30, 2009.

Cost of revenues for parts services. Cost of revenues for parts services decreased to $3.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 from $6.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008, a decrease of 43.3%, primarily as a result of decreased parts revenues. Cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues slightly increased to 81% in the six months ended June 30, 2009 from 80% for the six months ended June 30, 2008, primarily as a result of product mix with lower margin products sold during the six months ended June 30, 2009. Net income. For the six months ended June 30, 2009, net income was $1.6 million, compared with net income of $2.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

During the three months ended June 30, 2009, TAT received a $1.25 million loan from Bank Mizrahi (in addition to a $5 million loan already received during 2008) to finance the acquisition of Bental's shares.

As of June 30, 2009 TAT had cash and cash equivalents and short-term deposits of $19.1, in addition to marketable securities of $21.8 million, as compared with cash and cash equivalents and short-term deposits of $17.2 million, in addition to marketable securities of $21.6 million, as of June 30, 2008.

Seasonality

TAT believes that the growth of its business over the last three years has masked a historical seasonal trend in the MRO services sector. Historically, TAT has seen many airlines decrease their maintenance requirements in the peak air travel summer months and increase its maintenance requirements in the winter months when air travel is not as great.

Subsequent Event

On July 3, 2009 the Company resolved its commercial dispute with one of its key suppliers relating to its MRO business, whereby the Company will continue to act as a Storefront and Authorized Repair Center for an extended period through May 31, 2014. The Company paid such supplier $3.6 million. The Company performed preliminary allocation of the amount paid on July 3, 2009 to different components based on their estimated fair value. The residual amount of $1,550, net of tax benefit of $590, is being recognized as an expense in the second quarter and is assigned to the settlement of the dispute with the supplier for the period June 2006 until June 2009.

TAT's executive offices are located in the Re'em Industrial Park, Neta Boulevard, Bnei Ayish, Gadera 70750, Israel, and TAT's telephone number is 972-8-862-8500.

Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements which include, without limitation, statements regarding possible or assumed future operation results, synergies, customer benefits, growth opportunities, financial improvements, expected expense savings and other benefits anticipated from the merger. These statements are hereby identified as forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause our results to differ materially from management's current expectations. Actual results and performance can also be influenced by other risks that we face in running our operations including, but are not limited to, general business conditions in the airline industry, changes in demand for our services and products, the timing and amount or cancellation of orders, the price and continuity of supply of component parts used in our operations, and other risks detailed from time to time in the company's filings with the Securities Exchange Commission, including its registration statement on form F-4, its annual report on form 20-F and its periodic reports on form 6-K. These documents contain and identify other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in our projections or forward-looking statements. Stockholders and other readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. We undertake no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statement.
