Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (generally accepted accounting principles) for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the information contained herein reflects all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the information presented. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. The results of operations for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the fiscal year. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002. Certain amounts for 2002 have been reclassified to conform to current period classifications.

2. Stock Based Compensation

3. Acquisitions

On February 13, 2003, Valassis acquired 100% of the capital stock of NCH Marketing Services, Inc. (NCH) for $59.3 million cash, paid for out of existing cash on hand. NCH is the premier coupon processing and promotion information management company in the United States and worldwide. The combined product and services base of NCH and the Company allows the Company to provide integrated marketing solutions on a global basis. NCH had sales of $72.3 million for the twelve months ended December 31, 2002. The acquisition is being accounted for using the purchase method of accounting in accordance with SFAS No. 141. The Company is currently in the process of analyzing the fair value of assets purchased. Upon completion, the Company will finalize the purchase accounting entries and associated goodwill.

The Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet as of June 30, 2003 includes the assets, liabilities and accumulated other comprehensive income of NCH. The Condensed Consolidated Statement of Income includes the financial results of NCH from February 14, 2003 to June 30, 2003. The financial results of NCH were not considered material for purposes of pro forma disclosure. Revenues consist primarily of processing fees for coupon audit and analysis, data and information management, data analytics, trade marketing programs, and the management and disbursement of customer funds for coupon administration. The Company does not recognize revenue, or cost of services, for the face value of coupons processed. Once coupon processing has been completed, fee revenues are recognized.

NCH's principal executive offices are located in a leased office complex in Deerfield, Illinois. NCH owns and operates four production facilities: 279,000 square feet in Laredo, Mexico; 233,000 square feet in Juarez, Mexico; 233,000 square feet in Delicias, Mexico; and 28,000 square feet in Corby, England. NCH also owns a 29,000 square foot office facility and a 25,000 square foot warehouse in Corby, England. Additionally, NCH leases sales offices and production facilities in Laredo and El Paso, Texas; Milan, Italy; Aranjuez, Spain; Paris, France; and Hamburg, Germany.

VALASSIS COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company, after the acquisition of NCH, has minimum rental payments required under non-cancelable operating leases as of June 30, 2003 as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	(in thousands)
2003	$ 7,675
2004	7,478
2005	7,153
2006	6,736
2007	6,003
Thereafter	17,530
	$ 52,575

In June 2003, the Company acquired the remaining 20% interest of Prevision Marketing (PreVision) for $2.4 million. The Company originally purchased an 80% ownership position of PreVision in 2000 and has consolidated 100% of its operations in the financial statements since that time.

4. Foreign Currency and Derivative Financial Information

The functional currencies for the Company's foreign operations are the applicable local currencies. Accounts of foreign operations are translated into U.S. dollars using the spot rate of the local currency on the balance sheet date for assets and liabilities and average monthly exchange rates for revenues and expenses. Translation adjustments are reflected as an adjustment to equity on a cumulative basis.

Currencies to which the Company has exposure are the Mexican peso, Canadian dollar, British pound, and Euro. Currency restrictions are not expected to have a significant effect on the Company's cash flows, liquidity, or capital resources. The Company typically purchases the Mexican peso under three to six-month forward foreign exchange contracts to stabilize the cost of production in Mexico. Under SFAS No. 133, the Company's Mexican Peso forward exchange contracts meet the definition of a cash flow hedge. Accordingly, changes in the fair value of the hedge are recorded as a component of other comprehensive income. For the quarter ended June 30, 2003, and six month period ended June 30, 2003, the Company recorded an unrealized market value gain of $132,000 and $140,000, respectively, in other comprehensive income. Actual exchange losses or gains are recorded against production expense when the contracts are executed. The Company had a commitment to purchase $5.8 million in Mexican pesos over the next three months at June 30, 2003.

5. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit of Disposal Activities. The statement applies to costs associated with an exit activity that does not involve an entity newly acquired in a business combination or with a disposal activity covered by

Edgar Filing: VALASSIS COMMUNICATIONS INC - Form 10-Q

SFAS No. 144. SFAS No. 146 is effective for exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS No. 146 to have a material effect on its financial position or results of operations.

VALASSIS COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

During December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure-an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123. This Statement amends FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this Statement amends the disclosure requirements of Statement 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. The Company does not intend to make a voluntary change in its method of accounting for stock options.

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 149, Amendment of Statement No. 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. SFAS No. 133 amends and clarifies financial accounting and reporting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts and for hedging activities under SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. The pronouncement is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003, and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003, prospectively. The Company does not believe that the statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, Accounting for Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity. SFAS No. 150 requires that instruments within its scope embody obligations of the issuer and that, therefore, the issuer must classify them as liabilities. The pronouncement is effective immediately for all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003. For all other instruments, the standard goes into effect at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company does not anticipate that the implementation of SFAS No. 150 will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

6. Goodwill and Other Intangibles

Intangible assets as of June 30, 2003 are comprised of (dollars in thousands):

7. Contingencies

On July 27, 2001 a federal court jury returned a verdict against Dennis D. Garberg & Associates, Inc. d/b/a The Sunflower Group (Sunflower) awarding the Company $16.6 million which included damages for past and future lost profits. The lawsuit, brought by the Company against Sunflower in February of 1999, asserted that Sunflower wrongfully obtained proprietary information from the Company's newspaper delivered sampling business. On April 5, 2002, after a series of post-trial motions, the Court granted remittitur and entered a total judgment of approximately $5.4 million. On August 30, 2002, the Court vacated its judgment after remittitur and ordered a new trial on damages. Liability against Sunflower Group is established. A reasonable estimation of the Company's ultimate recovery can not be made at this time and the Company has not recorded any amount in its financial statements.

The Company is involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, the ultimate disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

8. Segment Reporting

The Company has five reportable segments: Free-Standing Inserts (FSIs), ROP, Cluster-Targeted Products, 1 to 1 Solutions, and International and Services. These segments are strategic business units that offer different products and services and are subject to regular review by the Company's chief operating decision makers. They are managed separately because each business requires different marketing strategies and caters to a different customer base.

Unexercised employee stock options to purchase 4,748,107 shares and 283,197 shares of the Company's common stock for the three month period ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively, were not included in the computations of diluted EPS because their exercise price was greater than the average market price of the Company's common stock during the periods.

Unexercised employee stock options to purchase 5,341,740 shares and 308,177 shares of the Company's common stock for the six month period ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively, were not included in the computations of diluted EPS because their exercise price was greater than the average market price of the Company's common stock during the periods.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Certain statements under the caption Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, including specifically statements made in Business Outlook and elsewhere in this report on Form 10-Q, constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements and to cause future results to differ from our operating results in the past. Such factors include, among others, the following: price competition from the Company's existing competitors; new competitors in any of the Company's businesses for different promotional materials, promotional strategies or coupon delivery methods; an unforeseen increase in the Company's paper costs; economic disruptions caused by terrorist activity, armed conflict or changes in general economic conditions; or changes which affect the business of our customers and lead to reduced sales promotion spending. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Results of Operations

Three Months Ended June 30, 2003 and June 30, 2002

Revenues increased 20.0% to $243.1 million for the second quarter of 2003 from $202.6 million for the second quarter of 2002. Free-standing insert (FSI) revenues were down from $139.8 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2002 to $129.3 million for the same quarter 2003 despite unit growth in the industry. The decrease is primarily a result of lower market share and pricing, although market share improved in the second quarter of 2003 versus the first quarter of 2003. We continue to face intense competitive pricing pressure in the FSI segment, which will affect contracts which extend into future years. ROP revenues increased 100% from $7.7 million to $15.4 million for the second quarter 2003 largely attributable to the Company's increased sales focus and strategy to grow the customer base. Revenues for cluster-targeted products increased 42.3% to $64.3 million for the quarter as a result of our strategy to develop customers in new sectors such as specialty retail and an increase in demand for polybag advertising. Revenues from International and Services products increased from $2.4 million in the second quarter of 2002 to $25.0 million in the second quarter of 2003 due primarily to the acquisition of NCH, which was consummated in February 2003.

Gross profit margin decreased to 33.4% in the second quarter of 2003, down from 38.5% in the second quarter of 2002. The decrease is largely due to a decrease in market share and in FSI pricing for the current quarter. In addition, revenues for the current quarter were more heavily weighted towards lower margin product lines.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 39.0% from $22.3 million in the second quarter of 2002 to $31.0 million in the second quarter of 2003. This increase is primarily due to the consolidation of both VRMS and NCH.

In May 2003, the Company issued $160 million of Senior Convertible Notes due in 2033, with a yield to maturity of 1.625% per year. The Company also repurchased $185.3 million in face value of its Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Notes issued in 2001 and due 2021. The associated premium and write-off of fees and discounts resulted in a $3.9 million refinancing charge.

Net earnings were $27.5 million for the second quarter of 2003 versus $33.8 million for the same period last year. The decrease is primarily attributable to decreased market share and lower pricing in the FSI product as well as a $2.5 million, after tax, refinancing charge.

Six Months Ended June 30, 2003 and June 30, 2002

For the six months ended June 30, 2003, revenues increased 10.3% to $448.2 million from $406.3 million for the comparable period in 2002. Free-standing insert (FSI) revenues were down from $287.1 million for the first six months of 2002 to $257.1 million for the first six months of 2003. This decrease is primarily the result of a reduction of FSI market share and price as compared to the first half of 2002. However, market share improved in the second quarter of 2003 versus the first quarter of 2003 and industry unit growth has been strong. Revenues included a 40.2% increase in ROP (run-of-press) sales. This increase is attributable to our continued efforts to increase our customer base. Cluster-targeted revenues increased 32.5% to $110.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003. The increase is primarily driven by our strategy to develop customers in new sectors such as specialty retail. Additionally, revenues from International and Services increased from $4.6 million to $38.4 million, due primarily to the acquisition of NCH, which was consummated in February 2003.

Gross margin decreased to 33.9% for the first six months of 2003, from 38.1% for the same period in 2002. The decrease is largely due to decreases in FSI pricing and market share for the first half of the year. In addition, revenues for the six month period were more heavily weighted towards lower margin product lines.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased from $44.5 million in the first half of 2002 to $58.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003. This increase is primarily the result of the consolidation of both VRMS and NCH.

In May 2003, the Company issued $160 million of Senior Convertible Notes due in 2033, with a yield to maturity of 1.625% per year. The Company also repurchased $185.3 million in face value of its Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Notes issued in 2001 and due 2021. The associated premium and write-off of fees and discounts resulted in a $3.9 million refinancing charge.

Net earnings were $53.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003 versus $66.4 million for the same period last year. The decrease is primarily attributable to decreased market share and lower pricing in the FSI product as well as a $2.5 million, after tax, refinancing charge.

Financial Condition, Liquidity and Sources of Capital

The Company's liquidity requirements arise mainly from its working capital needs, primarily accounts receivable, inventory and debt service requirements. The Company does not offer financing to its customers. FSI customers are billed for 75% of each order eight weeks in advance of the publication date and are billed for the balance immediately prior to the publication date. The Company inventories its work in progress at cost while it accrues progress billings as a current liability at full sales value. Although the Company receives considerable payments from its customers prior to publication of promotions, revenue is recognized only upon publication dates. Therefore, the progress billings on the balance sheet include any profits in the related receivables and accordingly, the Company can operate with low, or even negative, working capital.

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $147.4 million at June 30, 2003 versus $97.2 million at December 31, 2002. This was the result of cash provided by operating activities and financing activities of $54.6 million and $52.4 million, respectively, and cash used by investing activities of $57.8 million during the first six months of 2003.

Cash flow from operating activities decreased from $100.5 million at June 30, 2002 to $54.6 million at June 30, 2003. Net earnings decreased $12.9 million from $66.4 million in the first six months of 2002 to $53.5 million for the same period of 2003. Accounts receivable balances normalized during the six month period ending June 30, 2002, as compared to relatively higher balances as of December 31, 2001. Accounts receivable balances as of June 30, 2003 remain normalized. Income taxes payable as of June 30, 2003, do not include the same level of tax benefit for stock option exercises experienced in the first six months of 2002.

Net cash used in investing activities was $57.8 million up from $27.7 million in 2002. The Company paid $59.3 million ($45.0 million, net of cash acquired) for the purchase of NCH in the first quarter of 2003. The Company paid $2.4 million and $1.0 million to obtain the remaining minority interests in PreVision and VRMS in 2003.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company's debt was $310.9 million, which consists of $100.0 million of its 6³/₈% Senior Notes due 2009, $50.0 million of Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Notes due 2021, and $160.9 million of Senior Convertible Notes due 2033. The Company has a revolving line of credit of $125 million with a variable rate of interest calculated on either a Eurocurrency-based rate or a prime rate. During the quarter ended June 30, 2003, there was no outstanding balance under this line of credit and, therefore, no exposure to interest rate risk.

In May 2003, the Company issued $160 million of Senior Convertible Notes due in 2033, with a yield to maturity of 1.625% per year. The Company utilized approximately $111.0 million of the proceeds to repurchase $185.3 million in face value of its Zero Convertible Notes issued in 2001. The resulting premium and write-off of fees and discounts resulted in a $3.9 million refinancing charge.

The holders of the Zero Coupon Convertible Notes due in 2021 may require the Company to purchase all or a portion of their notes on June 6, 2004, June 6, 2006, June 6, 2011 and June 6, 2016, at a price of $602.74, $639.73, $742.43 and $861.62 per note, respectively, payable in cash or common stock at the option of the Company in 2004 and 2006 and cash only in 2011 and 2016. Also, each holder may require the Company to repurchase all or a portion of such holder's notes if a change of control of the Company occurs on or before June 6, 2006. The Company, at its option, may redeem all or a portion of the Zero Coupon Convertible Notes at their accreted value at any time on or after June 6, 2006, for cash.

The holders of the Senior Convertible Notes issued in 2003 will receive cash interest payments of 1.0843% per year on the principal amount at maturity, payable semiannually from 2003 through 2008. The holders of the Senior Convertible Notes issued in 2003 may require the Company to purchase all or a portion of their notes on May 22, 2008, May 22, 2013, May 22, 2018, May 22, 2023 and May 22, 2028 at a price of $667.24, $723.48, $784.46, $850.56 and $922.27 per note, respectively, payable in cash or common stock at the option of the Company. Also, each holder may require the Company to repurchase all or a portion of such holder's notes if a change of control of the Company occurs. The Company, at its option, may redeem all or a portion of the Notes at their accreted value at any time on or after May 22, 2008, for cash.

The Company intends to use cash generated by operations to meet interest and principal repayment obligations, for general corporate purposes, to reduce its indebtedness, make acquisitions and from time to time to repurchase stock through the Company's stock repurchase program.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company had authorization to repurchase an additional 1.9 million shares of its common stock under its existing share repurchase program. While the Company is committed long term to its share repurchase policy, it did not repurchase any shares during this quarter.

Management believes that the Company will generate sufficient funds from operations and will have sufficient lines of credit available to meet currently anticipated liquidity needs, including interest and required payments of indebtedness.

Capital Expenditures - The Company operates three printing facilities. Capital expenditures were $9.9 million for the six month period ended June 30, 2003, largely representing the addition of a new printing press. Management expects future capital expenditure requirements of approximately $18 to $20 million over each of the next three to five years to enhance technology and replace equipment as required. It is expected that these expenditures will be made using funds provided by operations.

Business Outlook - The following statements are based on current expectations. These statements are forward looking and actual results may differ materially.

FSI revenues are expected to be down 12% - 16% for the year, due primarily to a reduction in market share and resultant slight decline in price. We continue to face intense competitive pricing pressure in the FSI segment, which will affect contracts which extend into future years. FSI margin percentage is projected to be down slightly, due to efficiencies driven by a reduction in the 2003 published date schedule, which will include 40 dates, versus 44 in 2002. The Company expects that it will publish more than 10 custom co-ops (FSIs sponsored by a single corporation) in 2003. FSI circulation is expected to remain flat with 2002.

ROP revenues are expected to be up 10% - 15% for the year, due to increased sales focus and the Company's strategy to grow the customer base.

Annual cluster targeted product revenues are expected to be up 10% - 15% for 2003. Solo insert revenue is projected to increase due to an expanded customer base. Polybag sampling/advertising is expected to grow as a result of more new client product introductions.

1 to 1 revenues are expected to be up 25% - 30% for 2003.

FSI cost of goods sold on a unit basis, is expected to be down by a low single-digit percentage for the year. The Company has placed over 85% of its FSI paper requirements for the year under long term contracts, providing a stable cost environment for this commodity.

Free cash flow is projected to be between $105 million - $115 million for the year. Capital expenditures will be approximately $18 million.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that in certain circumstances affect amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has defined a company's most critical accounting policies as the ones that are most important to the portrayal of the Company's financial condition and results of operations, and which require the company to make its most difficult and subjective judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates of matters that are inherently uncertain. Based on this definition, we have identified the critical accounting policies and estimates addressed below. We also have other key accounting policies, which involve the use of estimates, judgments and assumptions. For additional information see Note 2, Significant Accounting Policies, of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002. The Company does not believe there is a great likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions related to the accounting policies described below. However, application of these accounting policies involves the exercise of judgment and use of assumptions as to future uncertainties and, as a result, actual results could differ from these estimates.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets Long-lived assets historically have been reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of the assets to future net cash flows estimated to be generated by such assets. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets.

Revenue Recognition Revenue for newspaper-delivered promotions is recognized in the period the product is distributed in the newspaper. In accordance with industry practice, the Company generally pre-bills FSI customers in advance of the related distribution date. However, these billings are reflected as progress billings (liability) until the appropriate distribution period. Products and services not distributed via newspaper are recognized in revenue when the product is shipped or the service is performed. Revenues for processing coupons for payment does not include the face value of coupons processed. Once coupon processing has been completed, fee revenues are recognized.

Stock Compensation The Company grants stock options to its employees under various incentive plans. Options are granted with exercise prices at least equal to the fair value on the date of grant. The Company accounts for all options under APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and makes various estimates used in calculating the pro forma results as required by SFAS No. 123.

Derivative Financial Instruments The Company typically purchases the Mexican peso under three to six-month forward foreign exchange contracts to stabilize the cost of production in Mexico. SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities requires that an entity recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the statement of financial position and measure those instruments at fair value. Under SFAS No. 133, the Company's Mexican Peso forward exchange contracts meet the definition of a cash flow hedge. Accordingly, changes in the fair value of the hedge are recorded as a component of other comprehensive income. Actual exchange losses or gains are recorded against production expense when the contracts are executed.

Other Matters The Company does not have off-balance sheet arrangements, financings, or other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons, also known as variable interest entities.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure about Market Risk

The Company's principal market risks are interest rates on various debt instruments and foreign exchange rates at the Company's international subsidiaries.

Interest Rates

The Company has a revolving line of credit of $125 million with a variable rate of interest calculated on either a Eurocurrency-based rate or a prime rate. During the quarter ended and six month period ended June 30, 2003, there was no outstanding balance under this line of credit and, therefore, no exposure to interest rate risk.

Foreign Currency

Currencies to which the Company has exposure are the Mexican peso, Canadian dollar, British pound, and Euro. Currency restrictions are not expected to have a significant effect on the Company's cash flows, liquidity, or capital resources. The Company typically purchases the Mexican peso under three to six-month forward foreign exchange contracts to stabilize the cost of production in Mexico. Under SFAS No. 133, the Company's Mexican peso forward exchange contracts meet the definition of a cash flow hedge. Accordingly, changes in the fair value of the hedge are recorded as a component of other comprehensive income. For the quarter ended and six month period ended June 30, 2003, the Company recorded an unrealized market value gain of $132,000 and $140,000, respectively, in other comprehensive income. Actual exchange losses or gains are recorded against production expense when the contracts are executed. The Company has a commitment to purchase $5.8 million in Mexican pesos over the next three months at June 30, 2003.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's Disclosure Committee, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 13a-15. Based on this evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that the information required to be disclosed in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms.

Part II Other Information

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

On July 27, 2001 a federal court jury returned a verdict against Dennis D. Garberg & Associates, Inc. d/b/a The Sunflower Group (Sunflower) awarding the Company $16.6 million which included damages for past and future lost profits. The lawsuit, brought by the Company against Sunflower in February of 1999, asserted that Sunflower wrongfully obtained proprietary information from the Company's newspaper delivered sampling business. On April 5, 2002, after a series of post-trial motions, the Court granted remittitur and entered a total judgment of approximately $5.4 million. On August 30, 2002, the Court vacated its judgment after remittitur and ordered a new trial on damages. Liability against Sunflower Group is established. A reasonable estimation of the Company's ultimate recovery can not be made at this time and the Company has not recorded any amount in its financial statements.

The Company is involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, the ultimate disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

- a. The Company voted on the following proposals described in (b) and (c) below at its Annual Meeting of Stockholders on May 13, 2003.
- b. The election of the nominees for directors who will serve for a term to expire at the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified was voted on by the stockholders. The nominees, all of whom were elected were: Patrick F. Brennan, Kenneth V. Darish, Seth Goldstein, Barry P. Hoffman, Walter H. Ku, Robert L. Recchia, Marcella A. Sampson, Alan F. Schultz and Faith Whittlesey. Votes were cast for election of directors as follows:

Director	For	Withheld	Broker Non-Votes

Alan F. Schultz	43,262,013	693,205	0
Faith Whittlesey	42,798,207	1,157,011	0

- c. The proposal to ratify the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP, as independent auditors of the Company for the 2003 fiscal year was approved as follows:

For	Against	Abstain	Broker Non-Votes
40,406,544	3,489,845	58,029	0

Item 5. Other Information

Under section 10A(i)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as added by Section 202 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Company is responsible for listing the non-audit services approved in the first quarter of 2003 by the Company's Audit Committee to be performed by Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's external independent auditor. Non-audit services are defined in the law as services other than those provided in connection with an audit or a review of the financial statements of the Company. During the quarterly period covered by this filing, the Audit Committee approved the engagement of Deloitte & Touche LLP for the following non-audit services: (1) tax consultation relating to the NCH transaction; (2) review of Federal and State tax returns for the Company and its subsidiaries; and (3) consulting relating to various state tax matters. These services have been approved in accord with a pre-approval from the Audit Committee.
