NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2003

(Unaudited)

1. Basis of Presentation

The information at December 31, 2003 and for the three and nine-month periods ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, are unaudited, but include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) which the Company's management believes to be necessary for the fair presentation of the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of results for a full year.

The accompanying financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2003.

Sale of the Product Fabrication, Distribution and Sales Operations

On September 30, 2002, the Company announced that it had sold its product fabrication, distribution and sales operations to Opti Technologies, Inc., an unrelated third party. As part of the transaction Opti Technologies was to pay the Company $275,000 in licensing fees and acquire the existing inventory at cost. The Company received $344,000 ($275,000 for the licensing fees and partial payment on the purchase of inventory) in September and the balance of $350,000, for inventory, on October 1, 2002. The Company is also entitled to quarterly royalty payments for the sale of its core logic and USB products by Opti Technologies. The Company is to receive 20% of net sales for the USB products and 40% of net sales for the core logic products. As of December 31, 2003, the Company has received approximately $1,133,000 and accrued an additional $171,000 in license and royalty payments from Opti Technologies. The maximum license and royalty payments that the Company can receive from the agreement with Opti Technologies is $1,500,000.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Stock-based compensation

Edgar Filing: OPTI INC - Form 10-Q

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation arrangements in accordance with the provisions of APB No. 25 ( APB No. 25 ), Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees and complies with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 123 ( SFAS No. 123 ), Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation . Under APB No. 25, compensation cost is, in general, recognized based on the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the Company s stock on the date of grant over the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock. Equity instruments issued to non-employees are accounted for in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 123 and Emerging Issues Task Force 96-18.

Table of Contents

SFAS No. 123 pro forma disclosures

Had compensation cost for the Company's option plans been determined using the fair value at the grant dates, as prescribed in SFAS No. 123, the Company's net income (loss) would have been as follows (in thousands, except per share amounts):

	Three- Months December 31,		Nine- Months December 31,
	2003	2002	2003	2002

Pro forma diluted net income (loss) per share	$ 0.02	$ 0.00	$ 0.05	$ 0.16

2. Net Income (Loss) Per Share

Basic net income (loss) per share and diluted net loss per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share is calculated using the weighted average number of common and dilutive common equivalent shares outstanding during the period. Common equivalent shares consist of stock options. At December 31, 2003, options for 150,666 shares at exercise prices ranging from $1.27 to $7.50 were outstanding.

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted net income (loss) per share (in thousands, except per share amounts):

	Three-Months ended December 31,		Nine- Months ended December 31,
	2003	2002	2003	2002

At March 31, 2003, net realized gains on marketable securities were included in the Company's shareholders' equity, as accumulated other comprehensive income. During the three months ended December 31, 2003, the Company realized a gain of $306,000 from the sale of its Tripath Technology, Inc. investment.

4. Segment Information

The Company had no product sales for the three and nine-month periods ended December 31, 2003.

Sales of the Company's products based on customer location for the three and nine-months ended December 31, 2002 were as follows (in thousands):

5. Concentrations

Major Customers and Credit Risks

The Company derives all of its current royalty revenues from Opti Technologies, Inc., an unrelated third party. At December 31, 2003, all of the Company's accounts receivable balance is with this company. To the extent that Opti Technologies is unable to continue selling the products containing OPTi's patented technology or has financial difficulties, OPTi's financial condition and results of operations could be negatively impacted. Substantially, all of the Company's accounts receivable balance at December 31, 2003 was collected subsequent to December 31, 2003.

Table of Contents*6. Comprehensive income (loss)

The Company's total comprehensive income (loss) is as follows (in thousands):

	Three-Months ended December 31,		Nine Months ended December 31,
	2003	2002	2003	2002

Comprehensive income (loss)	$ 48	($1)	$ 546	($691)

Accumulated other comprehensive income included in the Company's balance sheet at March 31, 2003, includes unrealized gains on marketable securities.

7. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company has from time to time been notified of claims that it may be infringing patents, maskworks rights or copyrights owned by third parties. There can be no assurance that the Company will not become involved in litigation regarding the alleged infringements by the Company of third party intellectual property rights. However, the Company believes that the final disposition of such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

The Company generally indemnifies, under predetermined conditions, its customers for infringement of third party intellectual property rights by its products or services.

The Company amended its existing lease agreement with its current landlord in October 2003. Under the amended lease the Company extended the term of the agreement for an additional eighteen months, from November 1, 2003 to April 30, 2005. The total additional commitment under the amended lease is approximately $89,000.

8. Taxes

The Company recorded no tax provisions for the three-month and nine-month periods ending December 31, 2003 due to the utilization of federal net operating carryforwards and state research and development tax credit carryforwards. The Company recorded no tax provision for the three-month period ending December 31, 2002 and a tax benefit of $165,000 for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2002. This tax benefit related primarily to the recognition of certain tax benefits that were previously reserved.

9. Distribution of Tripath shares; sale of remaining Tripath shares

On April 10, 2002, the Company's Board of directors declared a distribution of its holdings of shares of common stock in Tripath Technology, Inc. (NASDAQ NM: TRPH) to its shareholders. OPTi distributed a dividend of 0.1666 shares of Tripath stock on each share of the Company's common stock. The dividend distribution date was May 30, 2002. The total value of the dividend was approximately $2.2 million. The Company recognized a gain of $1.5 million from the realized gain of the Tripath shares.

During the December 2003 fiscal quarter, the Company realized a gain of $306,000 on the sale of its remaining shares in Tripath Technology, Inc., a publicly traded company. OPTi had made strategic investments in Tripath, then a non-public company. In April 2002, OPTi declared an asset dividend and distributed substantially all of its holdings in Tripath to OPTi shareholders. OPTi retained 52,952 shares in Tripath in order to avoid the difficulties relating to distributing fractional shares of Tripath to OPTi shareholders in the asset dividend. Following the December 2003 fiscal quarter sale of shares in Tripath, OPTi holds no further shares in Tripath or any other companies. OPTi holds substantially all of its liquid assets in cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of financing its efforts to pursue licenses and claims relating to its intellectual property and the Company has no current intention of investing or trading in securities.

10. Revenue

During the three and nine-month periods ending December 31, 2003, the Company recognized royalty revenue of $171,000 and $482,000, respectively. The remaining revenue in the nine-month period ending December 31, 2003 related to a non recurring license fee.

11. National Semiconductor Settlement

On June 26, 2003, the Company and National Semiconductor Corporation ( NSC ) reached a Settlement and Patent License Agreement in regards to the claim filed by the Company against NSC in April 2002, and NSC's counterclaim filed against the Company in September 2002.

The license agreement grants NSC a non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, worldwide license under the OPTi patents at issue in the April 2002 claim and also grants to OPTi a non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, worldwide license under the NSC patent at issue in the September 2002 counterclaim.

Table of Contents

Concurrent with the execution of this agreement NSC made a one-time payment to OPTi, which was recorded as license revenue. Both parties also executed a Stipulation and Order of Dismissal, whereby the parties dismissed with prejudice all claims and counterclaims asserted against each other.

12. Nasdaq Inquiry

In September 2003, the Nasdaq staff requested information from the Company regarding whether the Company's operations were continuing at a level and type consistent with the Nasdaq's qualitative listing criteria. The Company replied promptly to the Nasdaq's request and has not received further communication from Nasdaq on this matter. The Company continues to be listed on The Nasdaq National Market but cannot assure whether or how long it will remain listed.

Table of Contents

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations

Results Of Operations

Information set forth in this report constitutes and includes forward looking information made within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results may differ significantly from the results discussed in the forward looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including the ability of its licensee to continue to sell its licensed products, market conditions generally and in the personal computer and semiconductor industries, changes in intellectual property law in the semiconductor industry and in general and other matters. Readers are encouraged to refer to "Factors Affecting Earnings and Stock Price" found below in this Item 2.

Opti was founded in 1989 and was an independent supplier of semiconductor products to the personal computer market. During fiscal 2003, the Company announced that it had sold its product fabrication, distribution and sales operations to Opti Technologies, Inc., an unrelated third party. In addition, the Company believes that certain of its patented technology is in widespread unlicensed use and the Company has been engaged in perfecting its intellectual property position, investigating unlicensed use of its technology and developing and validating a strategy to pursue product licenses from unlicensed users. In January 2004, the Company signed an engagement letter with a major law firm to assist the Company in its attempts to license its technology.

In the future, the Company will pursue revenue from two sources: a royalty stream from the license given to Opti Technologies, Inc., an unrelated third party, and the pursuit of other licenses from users of its intellectual property. The Company anticipates that it will receive royalties from Opti Technologies of approximately $125,000 during the balance of fiscal year 2004 and does not expect to receive additional significant revenue other than any that may result through the pursuit of its patent infringement cases and associated licensee efforts.

During the December 2003 fiscal quarter, the Company realized a gain of $306,000 on the sale of its remaining shares in Tripath Technology, Inc., a publicly traded company. OPTi had made strategic investments in Tripath, then a non-public company. In April 2002, OPTi declared an asset dividend and distributed substantially all of its holdings in Tripath to OPTi shareholders. OPTi retained 52,952 shares in Tripath in order to avoid the difficulties relating to distributing fractional shares of Tripath to OPTi shareholders in the asset dividend. Following the December 2003 fiscal quarter sale of shares in Tripath, OPTi holds no further shares in Tripath or any other companies. OPTi holds substantially all of its liquid assets in cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of financing its efforts to pursue licenses and claims relating to its intellectual property and the Company has no current intention of investing or trading in securities.

Critical Accounting Policies

We have identified the policies below as critical to our business operations and the understanding of our results of operations. The impact and any associated risks related to these policies on our business is discussed throughout Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations where such policies affect our reported and expected financial results. Note that our preparation of this report on Form 10-Q requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. There can be assurance that actual results will not differ from those estimates.

Contingencies

From time to time we are subject to proceedings, lawsuits and other claims related to labor, products and other matters. We are required to assess the likelihood of any adverse judgements or outcomes to these matters as potential ranges of probable losses. A determination of the amount of reserves required, if any, for these contingencies is made after careful analysis of each individual issue. The required reserves may change in the future due to new developments in each matter or changes in approach such as a change in settlement strategy in dealing with these matters.

Fiscal 2004 Compared to Fiscal 2003

Revenues

Net revenues for the third quarter ended December 31, 2003 were $171,000, as compared to net revenues of $281,000 for the quarter ended December 31, 2002. The decrease in net revenue for the three-month period ending December 31, 2003, as compared to the three-month period ending December 31, 2002, was due to lower royalty revenues from Opti Technologies, Inc. Net revenues for the first nine-months of fiscal 2004 were $907,000 as compared to $2,805,000 for the first nine-months of fiscal 2003. The decrease in net revenues for the first nine-months of fiscal 2004 as compared to the first nine-months of fiscal 2003 were attributable to the sale of the product fabrication, distribution and sales operations, offset in part, by an increase in license revenues. During the first nine-months of fiscal 2003 the Company had $2,249,000 of product sales versus no product sales in fiscal 2004. As a result of our decision to sell our product fabrication, distribution and sales operations, we expect to have no product revenue in the foreseeable future. Any revenue will be in the form of royalty or license revenue. The Company anticipates that the maximum royalty revenue to be received from Opti Technologies as per the agreement dated September 30, 2002, will be earned by approximately June 30, 2004. The maximum license and royalty payments that the Company can receive from the agreement with Opti Technologies, Inc. are $1,500,000 of which $1,304,000 had been earned through December 31, 2003.

Cost of Sales

The Company had no cost of product sales for the quarters ending December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. For the nine-month periods ending December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, the Company had cost of product sales of $0 and $1,289,000. The decrease is due to the Company having no product sales during the nine-month period ending December 31, 2003 versus $2,249,000 for the nine-month period ending December 31, 2002.

Selling, General and Administrative

Selling, general and administrative costs were $273,000 in the quarter ending December 31, 2003 as compared to $341,000 for the quarter ending December 31, 2002. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses for the quarter ending December 31, 2003 versus the prior year is due to a decrease in consulting expenses of $21,000 and lower legal expenses by $47,000. For the nine-month periods ending December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company had selling, general and administrative costs of $762,000 and $1,520,000, respectively. The decrease in selling, general and administrative costs for the nine-month period ending December 31, 2003 versus the nine-month period ending December 31, 2002 is primarily due to lower headcount related costs of approximately $436,000 and lower legal expenses of $207,000. The Company anticipates that selling, general and administrative costs will increase in future quarters as the Company's legal expenses will grow as it pursues licenses from users of its intellectual property.

Interest and Other Income, Net

Interest and other income, net was $337,000 and $53,000 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The increase in interest and other income for the comparable periods is due to the gain on the sale of Tripath Technologies, Inc. stock of $306,000, in the quarter ended December 31, 2003. Interest and other income, net was $404,000 and $1,711,000 for the nine-month periods ending December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The decrease in the first nine-months of fiscal 2004 versus the first nine-months of fiscal 2003 is primarily due to the gain on the distribution of Tripath Technology, Inc. shares to our stockholders on May 30, 2002, of $1,544,000 and lower interest rates, offset in part, by the gain on the sale of the Tripath Technologies, Inc. shares, mentioned above.

Income Taxes

Edgar Filing: OPTI INC - Form 10-Q

The Company recorded no tax provisions for the three-month and nine-month periods ending December 31, 2003 due to the utilization of federal net operating carryforwards and state research and development tax credit carryforwards. The Company recorded no tax provision for the three-month period ending December 31, 2002 and a tax benefit of $165,000 for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2002. This tax benefit related primarily to the recognition of certain tax benefits that were previously reserved.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments increased to $15,598,000 at December 31, 2003 from $15,008,000 at March 31, 2003. The increase in cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments of approximately $0.6 million from March 31, 2003 to December 31, 2003, primarily relates to net income for the period. Working capital as of December 31, 2003 increased to $15,665,000 from 15,139,000 at March 31, 2003, this increase relates to net income during the period. During the first nine-months of fiscal 2004, operating activities generated $0.3 million of cash. Cash generated from operating activities was primarily due to net income, excluding the gain on Tripath Technology stock, and a decrease in accounts receivable of $97,000, partially offset by, a $45,000 decrease in accounts payable. The Company investing activities generated approximately $0.3 million on the sale of Tripath Technology, Inc. stock during the quarter ended December 31, 2003. The Company had no financing activities during the nine-month period ending December 31, 2003.

At December 31, 2003, the Company's principal source of liquidity included cash and cash equivalents of approximately $15.6 million. The Company believes that its existing sources of liquidity will satisfy the Company's projected working capital and other cash requirements through at least the next twelve months.

The Company has from time to time been notified of claims that it may be infringing patents, maskworks rights or copyrights owned by third parties. There can be no assurance that the Company will not become involved in litigation regarding the alleged infringements by the Company of third party intellectual property rights. However, the Company believes that the final disposition of such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

The Company generally indemnifies, under predetermined conditions, its customers for infringement of third party intellectual property rights by its products or services.

The Company amended its existing lease agreement with its current landlord in October 2003. Under the amended lease the Company extended the term of the agreement for an additional eighteen months, from November 1, 2003 to April 30, 2005. The total additional commitment under the amended lease is approximately $89,000.

Factors Affecting Earnings and Stock Price

Listing of OPTi Common Stock on Nasdaq

Our common stock will continue to trade on the NASDAQ national Market as long as we continue to meet NASDAQ's listing maintenance standards. If our common stock is de-listed from NASDAQ, trading, if any, would thereafter be conducted on the over-the-counter market in the so-called pink sheets or on the Electronic Bulletin Board of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Consequentially, if our common stock is de-listed, shareholders may find it more difficult to dispose of, or to obtain accurate quotations as to the price of our common stock. Of the NASDAQ requirements for continued listing, we believe that our ability to meet the following criteria will determine how long our common shares continue to trade on the NASDAQ National Market:

Edgar Filing: OPTI INC - Form 10-Q

Our stockholders' equity must equal or exceed $10 million; and

The minimum daily per share bid price for our stock must equal or exceed $1.

We meet the Nasdaq's corporate governance requirements.

If we fail to meet NASDAQ's minimum bid price criteria for 30 consecutive business days, NASDAQ will notify us that we are not meeting the requirement. We will then be given a 90 day grace period during which our shares must exceed the minimum bid price for at least ten consecutive trading days for us to avoid being de-listed at the end of the grace period.

Table of Contents

In addition to the Nasdaq quantitative requirements, we must also continue to satisfy its corporate governance and other qualitative listing criteria. During September 2003, we received inquiries from Nasdaq regarding our compliance with its listing criteria. We replied promptly and have received no further communication from Nasdaq on that matter. None the less, we cannot assure whether or how long we will remain listed on the Nasdaq National Market.

Dependence on Intellectual Property Position

The success of the Company's current strategy of resolving potential infringement of its patented core logic technology can be affected by new developments in intellectual property law generally and with respect to semiconductor patents in particular and upon the Company's success in defending its patent position. It is difficult to predict developments and changes in intellectual property law in advance. However, such changes could have an adverse impact on the Company's ability to pursue infringement claims on its previously developed technology.

Uncertain Revenue Stream

As the Company continues to pursue its patent infringement claims against third parties, its sole current significant ongoing revenue stream is its royalty payments from Opti Technologies, Inc., an unrelated third party to whom the Company sold rights to its product lines in September 2002. Should the business of Opti Technologies, Inc. become disrupted for any reason or should Opti Technologies become unable or unwilling to continue making the remaining royalty payments to the Company, the Company's revenue would be severely affected. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had received a total of $1,133,000 and accrued an additional $171,000 in license and royalty payments from Opti Technologies. The maximum license and royalty payments that the Company can receive from the agreement with Opti Technologies is $1,500,000. The Company expects to accrue its final license and royalty payments from Opti Technologies by June 30, 2004, if not sooner, after which its future revenues will depend on the success of its strategy of pursuing license claims related to its intellectual property position. Although the Company recently engaged a major law firm to pursue licensing and claims on its behalf, there can be no assurance whether or when revenues will result from the pursuit of such claims.

In addition, the Company's focus on pursuing claims related to its intellectual property position can result in one time payments that may increase revenues during a single fiscal period but may not be repeated in future periods. For example, in the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2003, the Company reached a settlement of certain claims and counterclaims with National Semiconductor that included, among other things, a one time cash payment to the Company. Under the terms of the settlement, the Company will not receive future payments from National Semiconductor. Consequently, settlements similar to our settlement with National Semiconductor will cause our operating results to fluctuate from period to period and revenues that we may receive from such a settlement should not be viewed as indicative of future trends in our operating results.

Fluctuations in Operating Results

The Company has experienced significant fluctuations in its operating results in the past and expects that it will experience such fluctuations in the future. In the past, these fluctuations have been caused by a variety of factors including increased competition, price competition, changes in customer demand, ability to continue to sale existing products, inventory adjustments, changes in the availability of foundry capacity, changes in the mix of products sold and litigation expenses. In the future, the Company's operating results in any given period may be adversely impacted by one or more of these factors that may affect the Company directly or licensees of its technology.

Limited Trading Volume

Since January 1, 2003, the average trading volume of shares of our common stock has been less than 28,000 shares per day. Our trading volume during that period has ranged from no activity to 867,400 shares. Therefore, investors in our stock may find liquidity in our shares to be limited.

Possible Volatility of Stock Price

There can be no assurances as to the Company's operating results in any given period. The Company expects that the trading price of its common stock will continue to be subject to significant volatility.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risks

Interest Rate Sensitivity

We maintain our cash primarily in money market funds. We do not have any derivative financial instruments. As of December 31, 2003, all of our cash investments mature in less than thirty days. Accordingly, we do not believe that our investments have significant exposure to interest rate risk.

Table of Contents

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

- (a) We carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to exchange Act Rules 13a-14 and 13a-15 as of the end of the Company's fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2003. Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer along with our Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of the end of the fiscal quarter, our disclosure controls and procedures are effective in timely alerting them to material information relating to the Company required to be included in our periodic SEC filings.

- (b) There have been no significant changes (including corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies or material weaknesses) in our internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the date of the evaluation referenced in paragraph (a) above.

We intend to review and evaluate the design and effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures on an ongoing basis and to improve our controls and procedures over time and to correct any deficiencies that we may discover in the future. Our goal is to ensure that our senior management has timely access to all material financial and non-financial information concerning our business. While we believe the present design of our disclosure controls and procedures is effective to achieve our goal, future events affecting our business may cause us to significantly modify our disclosure controls and procedures.
