Item 5. Other Events

On June 1, 2004, the Board of Directors of Autodesk, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), approved an amendment to its Rights Agreement, originally adopted in 1995, to eliminate all requirements sometimes referred to as dead hand provisions that only Continuing Directors approve certain actions under the Rights Agreement. A Continuing Director was generally defined as a member of the Board of Directors who was not associated with a person commencing an unsolicited hostile takeover of the Company. As a result of the amendment, decisions previously to be made pursuant to the Rights Agreement by Continuing Directors will now instead be made by a majority of all the directors in office at the time.

Effective June 1, 2004, director Mark A. Bertelsen has resigned as a member of the Company's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.
