CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

I am glad to have the opportunity to share the operating results of the Company for the first half of 2006 with you. In the past half year, with the commencement of operations of a number of new projects as scheduled, the Company's production continued to grow steadily, while the successive discoveries in our explorations offshore China provided us with great expectations for the future.

In the first half of 2006, the Company's crude oil and natural gas production reached 68.3 million barrels and 77.6 billion cubic feet respectively. The total net oil and gas production reached 81.7 million barrels-of-oil-equivalent (BOE), representing an increase of 7.4% over the same period last year. The net oil and gas production from offshore China reached 74.4 million BOE, representing an increase of 7.2% over the same period last year.

Benefiting from strong commodity prices, our average realised oil price in the first half year reached US$62.39 per barrel, and our realised gas price was US$3.17 per thousand cubic feet, representing an increase of 42.1% and 7.6% respectively over the same period last year.

Our total revenue reached a record high of RMB48.3 billion, representing an increase of 47.2% as compared with the same period last year. The sales included sales income from oil and gas and trading income from crude oil of RMB35.5 billion and RMB12.8 billion respectively, representing an increase of 43.4% and 59.6% respectively over the first half of last year. Our profit before tax was RMB23.9 billion, representing an increase of 40.6% over the same period last year, and our net profit was RMB16.3 billion, representing an increase of 37.6% as compared with the same period of last year.

Our earnings per share in the first half year was RMB0.39. The Board of Directors approved the payment of an interim dividend of HK$0.12 per share for 2006.

In the first half of the year, our overall production operations proceeded smoothly. Despite temporary suspension of production at Liuhua 11-1 oilfield due to Typhoon Chanchu, the majority of the oil and gas fields were not affected, and measures for production enhancement have achieved satisfactory results, and a number of new projects have been put into operation as scheduled. In respect of health, safety and environmental protection, our OSHA statistical benchmarks have remained at top levels.

Our steady implementation of natural gas strategy has led to remarkable results. During the second half of May, the first shipment of liquefied natural gas from the Australian North West Shelf Project in which we have a working interest, arrived at the Dapeng receiving terminal in Guangdong province. This was the first shipment of liquefied natural gas imported into the PRC. This is the start of the provision of high quality and clean energy resources for the economic development of China.

We have enhanced our efforts in exploration research in terms of depth and scope, and will continue to step up our investments in exploration to add new achievements. It is encouraging that we have achieved 6 new oil and gas discoveries in the first half of the year, and successfully assessed two oil and gas structures.

What is more encouraging is that Husky Energy Inc., one of our PSC partners, has made a significant discovery in the deep waters of South China Sea - Liwan 3-1, which is the first deep water discovery in PRC waters. It has proved the tremendous potential of deep water oil and gas resources in PRC waters.

We strictly abide by the concept of emphasising economic efficiency, and continue to make breakthroughs in overseas development. It is worth mentioning that in April, we completed the acquisition of a 45% interest in Nigeria OML 130 block, which is our largest acquisition to date. It is believed that this project will bring substantial reserves and production to us in the near future, and I am very optimistic about its prospects.

Table of Contents

At the end of April, we also took advantage of the favourable commodity markets and stock markets by implementing a top-up placing of shares. The market responded with great interest for subscription, generating net proceeds of approximately HK$13.78 billion.

In the first half year, Dr. Edgar W.K. Cheng was appointed as an Independent Non-executive Director. I hereby extend on behalf of the Board of Directors our warm welcome to Dr. Cheng, and I believe that his professionalism and extensive experience will be beneficial to the shareholders.

2006 has been an extraordinary year, but is also a year full of expectations. We shall capitalize on the favourable market conditions, uphold the aim of creating value for shareholders, and on the basis of safe production, continue to focus on improving each segment in the business chain, striving for better performance in exploration, development, production, engineering construction, natural gas business, overseas expansions, health, safety and environmental protection and cost control simultaneously, thereby delivering satisfactory results to shareholders.

Lastly, on behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to the management and all staff for their hard work. I believe that with our concerted efforts, the Company will bring even greater returns to our shareholders.

Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

Table of Contents2. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES*Basis of preparation

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the six months ended 30 June 2006 have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard (HKAS) 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all the information and disclosures required in the annual financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the Group's annual financial statements as at 31 December 2005.

Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Group's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2005, except for the adoption of the following amendments mandatory for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2006:

HKAS 21 Amendment	The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rate - Net Investment in a Foreign Operation
HKAS 39 Amendment	Cash Flow Hedge Accounting of Forecast Intra-group Transactions
HKAS 39 Amendment	The Fair Value Option
HKAS 39 & HKFRSs 4 Amendments	Financial guarantee contracts
HKFRSs 1 & 6 Amendments	First-time Adoption of Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards and Exploration for and Evaluation of Mineral Resources
HKFRS 6	Exploration for and Evaluation of Mineral Resources
HK(IFRIC)-Int 4	Determining whether an Arrangement contains a Lease

HKFRS 6 deals with the accounting for exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources, including oil and gas. The adoption of this standard has no significant impact on the Group's result of operations and financial position.

HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement-Amendment for financial guarantee contracts which amended the scope of HKAS 39 to include financial guarantee contracts issued. The amendment addresses the treatment of financial guarantee contracts by the issuer. Under HKAS 39 as amended, financial guarantee contracts are recognized initially at fair value and generally remeasured at the higher of the amount determined in accordance with HKAS 37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets and the amount initially recognized less, when appropriate, cumulative amortization recognized in accordance with HKAS 18 Revenue.

HKAS 39 Amendment for cash flow hedge accounting of forecast intra-group transactions - which amended HKAS 39 to permit the foreign currency risk of a highly probable intra-group forecast transaction to qualify as the hedged item in a cash flow hedge, provided that the transaction is denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the entity entering into that transaction and that the foreign currency risk will affect the financial statements.

HKAS 39 Amendment for the fair value option which restricted the use of the option to designate any financial asset or any financial liability to be measured at fair value through profit and loss.

The adoption of these amendments did not affect the Group results of operation or financial position.

Table of Contents2. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)*Impact of issued but not yet effective Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (HKFRSs)

The Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants has issued a number of new and revised HKFRSs that are not mandatory for these financial statements. The Group has not early applied these HKFRSs in these financial statements. Unless otherwise stated, the following HKFRSs are effective for accounting periods beginning on 1 January 2007:

HKAS 1 Amendment	Capital Disclosures
HKFRS 7	Financial Instruments: Disclosures
HK(IFRIC)-Int 8	Scope of HKFRS 2
HK(IFRIC)-Int 9	Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives

The HKAS 1 amendment will affect the disclosures about qualitative information about the Group's objective, policies and processes for managing capital; quantitative data about what the Company regards as capital; and compliance with any capital requirements and the consequences of any non-compliance.

HKFRS 7 will replace HKAS 32 and has modified the disclosure requirements of HKAS 32 relating to financial instruments.

The Group expects that the adoption of the the pronouncements listed above will not have any significant impacts on the group's financial statement in the period of the initial application.

4. OIL AND GAS SALES AND MARKETING REVENUE

Oil and gas sales represent the invoiced value of sales of oil and gas attributable to the interests of the Group, net of royalties and the government share of allocable oil that is lifted and sold on behalf of the government. Sales are recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of oil and gas have been transferred to customers.

Marketing revenues represent the sales of oil purchased from foreign partners under production sharing contracts and the revenues from the trading of oil through the Company's subsidiary in Singapore. The costs of the oil sold are included in "Crude oil and product purchases" in the condensed consolidated income statement.

5. SPECIAL OIL GAIN LEVY

During the period, a special oil gain levy (SOG Levy) was imposed by the Ministry of Finance of China at the progressive rates ranging from 20% to 40% on the portion of the monthly weighted average sales price of the crude oil lifted in PRC exceeding US$40 per barrel. The SOG Levy paid can be claimed as a deductible expense for corporate income tax purpose and calculated based on the actual volume of the crude oil entitled.

6. FINANCE COSTS

An amount of approximately RMB102,043,000 (2005: RMB52,478,000) of accretion expense for provision for dismantlement and an amount of approximately RMB980,729,000 (2005: RMB6,320,000) of loss on embedded derivative component in convertible bonds have been recognised in the condensed consolidated income statement during the period.

7. TAX

(i) Income tax

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject to income taxes on an entity basis on the profits arising in or derived from the tax jurisdictions in which they are domiciled and operate. The Company is not liable for profit tax in Hong Kong as it does not have any assessable income currently sourced from Hong Kong.

The Company's subsidiary in the PRC, CNOOC China Limited, is a wholly -owned foreign enterprise. It is exempt from the 3% local surcharge and is subject to the enterprise income tax of 30% under the prevailing tax rules and regulations.

The Company's subsidiary in Singapore, China Offshore Oil (Singapore) International Pte. Ltd., is subject to income tax at rates of 10% and 20%, for its oil trading activities and other income generating activities, respectively. The Company's subsidiaries owning interests in oil and gas properties in Indonesia along the Malacca Strait are subject to corporate and dividend tax combined at the rate of 44%. According to current tax treaty between Indonesia and Malaysia, the Company's subsidiaries owning interests in oil and gas properties in Indonesia are subject to corporate and dividend tax combined at rates ranging from 43.125% to 51.875%. The Company's subsidiary owning interests in oil and gas properties in North West Shelf Project in Australia is subject to income tax at rate of 30%. All of the Company's other subsidiaries are not subject to any income taxes in their respective jurisdictions for the period presented.

Certain of the Group's oil and gas interests in Indonesia are held through Labuan incorporated companies. In May 2006, certain amendments to the tax treaty between Indonesia and Malaysia were agreed by the respective Ministers of the two countries whereby certain current reduced tax rates enjoyed by Labuan companies would no longer be available. The proposed amendments will need to be ratified by the two countries and will take effect two months after the ratification. It is uncertain when the ratification will be completed. If the ratification comes into effect in 2006 and the Group is not able to reorganise the holding structure of the oil and gas interests to an equivalent tax structure, the combined corporate and dividend income tax rates of certain of its Indonesian operations will increase from 43.125% to 48% and from 51.875% to 56% respectively. This change in income tax rate, had it been applicable as of 30 June 2006, would have the effect of increasing the deferred tax expense and the current tax expense of the Group by approximately RMB272 million and RMB48 million respectively, with a corresponding increase in the deferred tax and current tax liabilities as of 30 June 2006 by the same respective amount.

(ii) Other taxes

The Company's PRC subsidiary pays the following other taxes:

Production tax equal to 5% of independent production and production under production sharing contracts; and Business tax ranging from 3% to 5% on other income.

If, for any reason, the above pricing principle for a particular product or service ceases to be applicable or there is no open market for such services, whether due to a change in circumstances or otherwise, such product or service must then be provided in accordance with the following general pricing principles:

(iii) Sales of petroleum and natural gas products by the Group to CNOOC and/or its associates

(a) Sales of petroleum and natural gas products

The Group sells petroleum and natural gas products, including crude oil, condensate oil, liquefied petroleum gas, natural gas and liquefied natural gas, to CNOOC and/or its associates which engage in the downstream petroleum business at state-prescribed prices or local, national or international market prices and on normal commercial terms. It is envisaged that an individual sales contract will be entered into from time to time between the Group and CNOOC and/or its associates in relation to such sales.

(b) Long term sales of natural gas and liquefied natural gas

The Group sells natural gas to CNOOC and/or its associates which engage in the downstream petroleum business at state-prescribed prices or local, national or international market prices and on normal commercial terms, which is subject to adjustment in accordance with movements in international oil prices as well as other factors such as the term of the sales agreement and length of the relevant pipeline. Due to the size of investment and the fact that sales are usually made to markets proximate to the exploration site, and that purchasers tend to utilize the natural gas products in areas close to the exploration site, and in order to ensure the return on investment from exploration of natural gas, the Group will usually enter into long term sales contracts with a term of 15 to 20 years. It is market practice for the term of the sales contract to be determined based on the estimated reserves and production profile of the relevant gas fields. The Group has also invested and acquired interests in liquefied natural gas related upstream projects in Tangguh, Indonesia and the North West Shelf of Australia. It is also envisaged that from time to time the Group may sell liquefied natural gas extracted from these gas reserves mentioned above and other gas reserves in which the Group may invest in the future to CNOOC and/or its associates.

The Group is organised on a worldwide basis into three major operating segments and collected its information on this basis. The Group is involved in the upstream operating activities of the petroleum industry that comprise independent operations, production sharing contracts with foreign partners and trading business. These segments are determined primarily because the senior management makes key operating decisions and assesses performance of the segments separately. The Group evaluates the performance of each segment based on profit or loss from operations before income taxes.

The Group mainly engaged in the exploration, development and production of crude oil and natural gas offshore China. Any activities outside the PRC are mainly conducted in Indonesia, Australia, Canada, Singapore, Myanmar and Nigeria.

21. SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN HONG KONG GAAP AND GENERALLY ACCEPTED ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (US GAAP)Net profit and net equity(a) Impairment of long-lived assets*

Under Hong Kong GAAP, impairment charges are recognised when a long-lived asset's carrying amount exceeds the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use, which incorporates discounting the asset's estimated future cash flows.

Under US GAAP, long-lived assets are assessed for possible impairment in accordance with SFAS No.144, "Accounting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets". SFAS No. 144 requires the Group to (a) recognise an impairment loss only if the carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable from its undiscounted cash flows and (b) measure an impairment loss as the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the asset. SFAS No. 144 requires that a long-lived asset to be abandoned, exchanged for a similar productive asset, or distributed to owners in a spin-off be considered as held and used until it is disposed of.

SFAS No. 144 also requires the Group to assess the need for an impairment of capitalised costs of proved oil and gas properties and the costs of wells and related equipment and facilities on a property-by-property basis. If an impairment is indicated based on undiscounted expected future cash flows, then an impairment is recognised to the extent that net capitalised costs exceed the estimated fair value of a property. The Fair value of the property is estimated by the Group using the present value of future cash flows. The impairment is determined based on the difference between the carrying value of the assets and the present value of future cash flows. It is reasonably possible that a change in reserve or price estimates could occur in the near term and adversely impact management's estimate of future cash flows and consequently the carrying value of properties.

In addition, under Hong Kong GAAP, a subsequent increase in the recoverable amount of an asset (other than goodwill and available-for-sale equity investments) is reversed to the income statement to the extent that an impairment loss on the same asset was previously recognised as an expense when the circumstances and events that led to the write-down or write-off cease to exist. The reversal is reduced by the amount that would have been recognised as depreciation had the write-down or write-off not occurred. Under US GAAP, an impairment loss establishes a new cost basis for the impaired asset and the new cost basis should not be adjusted subsequently other than for further impairment losses.

For the period ended 30 June 2006, no impairment was recognized under Hong Kong GAAP and US GAAP.

(b) Accounting for convertible bonds

Under HKAS 32 Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation, financial instruments with cash settlement options and other derivative components will need to be bifurcated into a debt component and a derivative component. The derivative component is marked to market at each balance sheet date and the differences will be charged/credited to the income statement. The debt component is stated at amortised cost.

Under US GAAP, convertible bonds are subject to different rules on the bifurcation of the debt and derivative components. However, there is no significant difference on the accounting treatment adopted under HK GAAP and US GAAP for the Group's convertible bonds.

(c) Comprehensive income

According to SFAS No. 130 Reporting comprehensive income, it is required to include a statement of other comprehensive income for revenues and expenses, gains and losses that are included in comprehensive income and excluded from net income under US GAAP.

(d) Use of estimates in the preparation of financial statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The most significant estimates pertain to proved oil and gas reserve volumes and the future development, provision for dismantlement as well as estimates relating to certain oil and gas revenues and expenses. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates and assumptions.

(e) Segment reporting

The Group's segment information is based on the segmental operating results regularly reviewed by the Group's chief operating decision maker. The accounting policies used are the same as those used in the preparation of the Group's consolidated Hong Kong GAAP financial statements.

(f) Accounting for OML130 acquisition

The Group completed the acquisition of a 45% working interest in certain oil and gas fields in Nigeria in current period through acquiring certain interests in a production sharing contract (PSC). The oil and gas properties are still under development.

According to HKAS 12 Income Taxes, no deferred income tax liability is recognized for an asset acquisition. However, under US GAAP, a deferred income tax liability is recognized in accordance with EITF 98-11 Accounting for acquired temporary differences in certain purchase transactions that are not accounted for as business combinations . Accordingly, both the property, plant and equipments and deferred tax liabilities are increased by RMB16,014,569,000 under US GAAP.

The difference in treatment has no impact on net equity reported under US GAAP.

Except for the impact on the balance sheet relating to the acquisition of OML130 described above, there are no other significant differences between Hong Kong GAAP and US GAAPs on the consolidated balance sheets as at 31 December 2005 and 30 June 2006 and the consolidated income statements for the years ended 31 December 2005 and 30 June 2006. As such, no reconciliation tables have been presented.

PURCHASE, SALE OR REDEMPTION OF THE COMPANY'S LISTED SECURITIES

There has been no purchase, sale or redemption of the Company's listed securities by the Company or its subsidiaries during the six months ended 30 June 2006.

CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company has complied with the code provisions of the Code on Corporate Governance Practices (the Code) as set out in Appendix 14 of the Listing Rules throughout the six months ended 30 June 2006, except for the deviations from the code provisions (Code Provision) A.2.1 and A.4.1 only. The following summarizes the requirements under the relevant Code Provisions and the Company's reasons for such deviations.

Table of Contents

Code Provision A.2.1

Under Code Provision A.2.1, the roles of the chairman and chief executive officer are required to be separated and not to be performed by the same individual.

Mr. Fu Chengyu (Mr. Fu) is the Chairman of the Board. In addition to the role of the Chairman, the role of Chief Executive Officer is also designated to Mr. Fu. This constitutes a deviation from Code Provision A.2.1. The reason for such deviation is set out below.

The Company is engaged in the oil and gas exploration and production business which is different from integrated oil companies engaging in both upstream and downstream operations. In light of this, the Board considers that the interest of the Company's oil and gas exploration and production business is best served when strategic planning decisions are made and implemented by the same person. The Company's Nomination Committee also agreed that it is in the best interest of the Company that the roles of the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer be performed by the same individual.

In light of the above, the Company does not currently propose to designate another person as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Code Provision A.4.1

Under Code Provision A.4.1, non-executive directors should be appointed for a specific term and be subject to re-election.

None of the existing Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company is appointed for a specific term. This constitutes a deviation from Code Provision A.4.1. However, all the Directors of the Company (executive and non-executive) are subject to the retirement provisions under article 97 of the Articles of Association of the Company (Article 97). According to Article 97, one-third of the Directors for the time being must retire from the office by rotation at each annual general meeting. The Company has observed the need for good corporate governance practices and the incumbent Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company, except Dr. Cheng who was elected as an Independent Non-executive Director of the Company for the first time by the shareholders at the annual general meeting of the Company in May 2006, have all retired and stood for re-election in the past three years. Therefore, the Company considers that sufficient measures have been taken to ensure that the Company's corporate governance practices are no less exacting than those in the Code.

MODEL CODE FOR SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS BY DIRECTORS OF LISTED ISSUERS

The Company has adopted a code of ethics (Code of Ethics) incorporating the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Issuers (the Model Code) as set out in Appendix 10 to the Listing Rules. All Directors have confirmed that they complied, during the six months ended 30 June 2006, with the Company's Code of Ethics and the required standards set out in the Model Code.

CHANGES IN COMPANY SECRETARY AND DIRECTORSHIP

During the six months ended 30 June 2006, there was a change in the Company Secretary and Independent Non-executive Director of the Company.

On 18 April 2006, Mr. Cao Yunshi retired as the Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Company Secretary of the Company and Mr. Victor Zhikai Gao was appointed as the Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Company Secretary of the Company on the same day.

On 24 May 2006, Dr. Kenneth S. Curtis retired as an Independent Non-executive Director of the Company at the annual general meeting of the Company pursuant to article 97 of the Articles of Association of the Company, and Dr. Edgar W.K. Cheng was elected as an Independent Non-executive Director of the Company by the shareholders at the annual general meeting of the Company on the same day.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCES IN CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 303A.11 OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE LISTED COMPANY MANUAL

The Company is incorporated under the laws of Hong Kong. The principal trading market for the ordinary shares of the Company is The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. In addition, because the Company's ordinary shares are registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and are listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), the Company is subject to certain corporate governance requirements. However, many of the corporate governance rules in the NYSE Listed Company Manual (the "NYSE Standards") do not apply to the Company as a foreign private issuer and the Company is permitted to follow its home country corporate governance practices in lieu of most corporate governance standards contained in the NYSE Standards. Section 303A.11 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual requires NYSE-listed foreign private issuers to describe the significant differences between their corporate governance practices and the corporate governance standards applicable to U.S. companies listed on the NYSE.
