The Board announces that the Company has subscribed for approximately 651,465,000 ICBC H Shares and 1,280,358,219 ICBC A Shares as part of the ICBC International Offering and ICBC A Share Offering, respectively, at a total consideration of approximately HK$5.93 billion. The Subscription constitutes a discloseable transaction of the Company under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules. A circular, providing further details of the Subscription, will be despatched to the Shareholders as soon as practicable.

BACKGROUND

The Board announces that the Company has subscribed for approximately 651,465,000 ICBC H Shares as part of the ICBC International Offering at a consideration of approximately HK$2.0 billion, and 1,280,358,219 ICBC A Shares under ICBC A Share Offering at a consideration of approximately RMB3.99 billion (equivalent to approximately HK$3.93 billion). Based on the information currently available to the Company, it is expected that the total number of ICBC H Shares and ICBC A Shares held by the Company will represent approximately 0.57836% of the shares outstanding immediately following the completion of the ICBC Global Offering and the ICBC A Share Offering, assuming that both the over-allotment option for the ICBC A Share Offering and ICBC Global Offering are exercised.

SUBSCRIPTION OF ICBC H SHARES

As part of the ICBC International Offering, the Company, as one of the corporate investors, entered into the Placing Agreement with ICBC and the Joint Bookrunners for the subscription by the Company at the offer price of the ICBC Global Offering for such number of ICBC H Shares that may be purchased with an aggregate of HK$2.0 billion.

On 23 October 2006, ICBC announced that the offer price for the ICBC Global Offering has been determined at HK$3.07 per H share (exclusive of brokerage of 1%, SFC transaction levy of 0.005% and Stock Exchange trading fee of 0.005%). Based on the information currently available to the Company, it is expected that the total number of ICBC H Shares that the Company would subscribe for would be approximately 651,465,000, which represents approximately 0.195% of the shares outstanding immediately following the completion of the ICBC Global Offering and the ICBC A Share Offering assuming that both the over-allotment option for the ICBC A Share Offering and ICBC Global Offering are exercised.

As one of the corporate investors, the Company has agreed that without the prior written consent of ICBC and the Joint Bookrunners, it will not whether directly or indirectly, at any time during the period of twelve months following the date on which the ICBC H Shares are first listed on the Stock Exchange, dispose of any of the ICBC H Shares subscribed pursuant to the Placing Agreement. After such lock-up period, the Company has further agreed to inform ICBC in writing prior to the disposal of any of their ICBC H Shares subscribed pursuant to the Placing Agreement.

The Placing Agreement is conditional upon the completion of the ICBC Global Offering.

SUBSCRIPTION OF ICBC A SHARES

Concurrently with the ICBC Global Offering, ICBC has undertaken the ICBC A Share Offering in the PRC. The Company has subscribed for ICBC A Shares through the strategic placement, institutional placement and public offering under the ICBC A Share Offering.

Based on the offer price at RMB3.12 per ICBC A Share, the total number of ICBC A shares that have been placed to the Company under the Strategic Investor Subscription Agreement would be 641,025,000. The lock-up period for the ICBC A Shares placed to strategic investors, including the Company, will be 12 months for the 50% of the ICBC A Shares placed under the Strategic Investor Subscription Agreement, and 18 months for the remaining 50%. The lock-up period will commence from the date on which ICBC A Shares are listed and traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

The lock-up period for the ICBC A Shares placed to institutional placement participants, including the Company, will be 3 months, and will commence from the date on which the ICBC A Shares are listed and traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

Under the public offering, the Company was allocated with 302,492,307 ICBC A Shares. Shares in the public offering are not subject to any lock-up period.

Accordingly, the Company has subscribed for an aggregate of 1,280,358,219 ICBC A Shares through strategic placement, institutional placement and public offering.

The subscription of the ICBC A Shares by the Company is conditional upon the successful listing of the ICBC A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief having made all reasonable enquiries, ICBC is a third party independent of and not connected with the Company and its connected persons (as defined in the Listing Rules).
