PRESS RELEASE

TELECOM ARGENTINA S.A.

In view of the upcoming Shareholders Meeting summoned for April 27, 2007, Dr. Amadeo Ramón Vázquez has sent a letter to the Board of Directors of the Company informing his decision to cease as Chairman of the Board, effective at the time of such Meeting, and to continue his career as independent director in important local and foreign companies, in the academic forum, and philanthropic pursuits.

The Board of Directors is grateful for the performance of Dr. Vázquez as Chairman during the last four and a half years during which time he was very supportive of decisions of the shareholders and actions taken by management that have resulted to be very important for the development and progress of the organization.

Dr. Vázquez was summoned to his current functions in November 2002, after an extensive career in the banking industry and top management of corporations.

During the years that Dr. Vázquez was Chairman, Telecom Argentina successfully resolved situations derived from the 2001 crisis and has redesigned its future: its has concluded with its debt restructuring, it has deepened its corporate values by implementing the best practices in corporate governance and social responsibility, and has implemented new business models for its investment plans incorporating technological developments that consolidate its leadership in the telecommunication and multimedia industry.

Hereby, the Board of Directors of Telecom Argentina publicly informs the decision of Dr. Amadeo Vázquez and reiterates its profound gratefulness for his dedication as Chairman.
