Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

See the disclosure under Item 2.03 below, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

As previously stated, Sonic Foundry, Inc. (the Company or Sonic Foundry) believes that its current cash position is adequate for the Company's current business plan, but that it would undertake efforts to evaluate opportunities to establish a credit facility. As a result of these efforts, on May 2, 2007, the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary Sonic Foundry Media Systems, Inc. (collectively with the Company, the Companies) entered into a Loan and Security Agreement (the Loan Agreement) with Silicon Valley Bank providing for a credit facility in the form of a $3,000,000 secured revolving line of credit and a $1,000,000 term loan. The revolving line of credit will accrue interest at a per annum rate equal to the greater of (i) one-quarter of one percentage point (0.25%) above Silicon Valley Bank's Prime Rate, or (ii) eight percent (8%). The term loan will accrue interest at a per annum rate equal to the greater of (i) one percent (1%) above Silicon Valley Bank's Prime Rate, or (ii) eight and three quarters of one percent (8.75%). Interest on the revolving line of credit and interest on the term loan will be payable monthly. The revolving line of credit matures on April 30, 2009, at which time all outstanding borrowings and any unpaid interest thereon must be repaid, and all outstanding letters of credit must be cash collateralized. Principal on the term loan will be repaid in thirty-six (36) equal monthly installments, and will be repaid in full on May 1, 2010. The term loan provides funds for the Company's recently completed facility expansion while the revolving line of credit provides flexibility in financing growth in the future, if and when the Company determines it is advisable to do so.

The Loan Agreement contains certain financial covenants, including a covenant requiring the Companies to maintain certain of their depository, operating and securities accounts with Silicon Valley Bank, maintain a tangible net worth covenant, and maintain certain ratios of quick assets to current liabilities minus deferred revenue. The Loan Agreement also contains certain other restrictive loan covenants, including covenants limiting the Companies' ability to dispose of assets, make acquisitions, be acquired, incur indebtedness, grant liens, make investments, pay dividends, and repurchase stock.

The Loan Agreement contains events of default that include, among others, non-payment of principal or interest, inaccuracy of any representation or warranty, violation of covenants, bankruptcy and insolvency events, material judgments, cross defaults to certain other indebtedness, and material adverse changes. The occurrence of an event of default could result in the acceleration of the Companies' obligations under the Loan Agreement.

Pursuant to the Loan Agreement, the Companies pledged as collateral to the Bank substantially all of their non-intellectual property business assets, and each of the Companies entered into an Intellectual Property Security Agreement with respect to their intellectual property assets (collectively, the Intellectual Property Security Agreements). The foregoing descriptions of the Loan Agreement and the Intellectual Property Security Agreements do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Loan Agreement and the Intellectual Property Security Agreements, copies of which are attached as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.
