Columbia Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements

The slides include forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which can be identified by words such as may, expected, anticipate, continue, or other comparable words. In addition, all statements other than statements of historical facts that address activities that Columbia expects or anticipates will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. Readers are encouraged to read the reports of Columbia filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), particularly its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, for a discussion of risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward looking statements. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include failure of the respective companies' shareholders to approve either or both of the transactions discussed in the slides, delays or other difficulties in obtaining required regulatory approvals of one or both of the transactions, or failure to consummate one or both of the transactions for any other reason.

Additional Information About the Transaction and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed acquisition of Town Center Bancorp, Columbia intends to file with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a proxy statement of Town Center Bancorp that also constitutes a prospectus of Columbia. Town Center will mail the proxy statement/prospectus to its shareholders. Shareholders of Town Center and other interested parties are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available and other relevant documents Columbia has filed or will file with the SEC at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov because they contain important information. The proxy statement/prospectus (when it is available) and other documents may also be obtained free of charge by requesting them in writing from Columbia Banking System, Inc., Attention: Corporate Secretary, 1301 A Street, Suite 800, Tacoma, Washington 98402. Copies of the proxy statement/prospectus may also be obtained for free by contacting Bob Ekblad, Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer, Town Center Bancorp, 0413 SE 82nd Avenue, Portland, OR 97266.

Participants in the Solicitation

Town Center, Columbia and their respective directors, executive officers and certain other members of management may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from Town Center shareholders in favor of the proposed transaction. Information regarding the persons who may, under the rules of the SEC, be considered participants in the solicitation of the Town Center shareholders in connection with the proposed transaction will be set forth in the proxy statement/prospectus when it is filed with the SEC. You can find information about Columbia's executive officers and directors in Columbia's definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the SEC on March 19, 2007. Information relating to Town Center's directors and executive officers will be included in the proxy statement/prospectus that will be filed with the SEC. You can also obtain free copies of these documents from Columbia using the contact information above.
