Item 3.03. Material Modification to the Rights of Security Holders.

On June 11, 2008, Webster Financial Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), completed the issuance and sale of 225,000 shares of its 8.50% Series A Non-Cumulative Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share, with a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share (the Series A Preferred Stock), the terms of which are more fully described in the Certificate of Designations of the Company filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on June 9, 2008 designating the rights, preferences, limitations, voting powers and relative rights of the Series A Preferred Stock.

The holders of the Series A Preferred Stock have preferential dividend and liquidation rights over the holders of the Company's Junior Securities (as defined below). Under the terms of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company's ability to declare and pay, or set aside for payment, dividends or distributions on shares of its Junior Securities or Parity Securities (as defined below) is subject to certain restrictions in the event that the Company does not pay dividends in full, or declare and set aside a sum sufficient for payment, on the Series A Preferred Stock. The Company's ability to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire shares of its Junior Securities is similarly limited.

The term Junior Securities means the Company's common stock and each other class or series of the Company's capital stock that does not expressly provide that it ranks on parity with or senior to the Series A Preferred Stock as to dividend rights and rights on liquidation, winding-up or dissolution of the Company.

The term Parity Securities means each other class or series of the Company's capital stock the terms of which expressly provide that such class or series will rank on a parity with the Series A Preferred Stock as to dividend rights and rights on liquidation, winding-up or dissolution of the Company.

A copy of the Certificate of Designations setting forth the terms of the Series A Preferred Stock and the specimen certificate of the Series A Preferred Stock, which represents the form of certificate that will be issued to holders in the event certificates are ever issued, are attached as Exhibit 3.1 and Exhibit 4.1, respectively, and are incorporated by reference herein.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On June 9, 2008, the Company filed a Certificate of Designations with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. Upon filing, the Certificate of Designations became effective with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. Dividends will be payable on the Series A Preferred Stock on a non-cumulative basis quarterly in arrears on each March 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15, commencing on September 15, 2008, at a rate of 8.50% per year on the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share.

The holders of the Series A Preferred Stock will have the right at any time to convert each share of Series A Preferred Stock into 36.8046 shares of the Company's common stock, which represents an initial conversion price of approximately $27.17 per share of common stock or a 22.5% conversion premium based on the closing price of the Company's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on June 5, 2008 of $22.18. The conversion rate, and thus the conversion price, will be subject to adjustment under certain circumstances. In addition, the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock will have the right under certain circumstances to convert each share of Series A Preferred Stock into the Company's common stock at an increased conversion rate. On or after June 15, 2013, the Company will have the right under certain circumstances to cause the Series A Preferred Stock to be converted into shares of the Company's common stock at the then applicable conversion rate.

A copy of the Certificate of Designations is included as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
