Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 29, 2009, an International Trade Commission administrative law judge ordered that L-3 Communications Mobile-Vision, Inc., a New Jersey corporation (Mobile-Vision) motion to terminate its patent infringement claim against ICOP Digital, Inc. (the Company) be granted.

Mobile-Vision s separate infringement claim in New Jersey District Court remains on file. The Company intends to vigorously defend itself against these claims.

For additional information about the Mobile-Vision cases, see the press release attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to vary materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. The Company may experience significant fluctuations in future operating results due to a number of economic, competitive, and other factors, including, among other things, our reliance on third-party manufacturers and suppliers, government agency budgetary and political constraints, new or increased competition, changes in market demand, the performance or reliability of our products, our ability to draw funds and meet obligations under the new line of credit, our ability to successfully defend itself against patent infringement claims, and our ability to regain compliance with Nasdaq listing standards. These factors and others could cause operating results to vary significantly from those in prior periods, and those projected in forward-looking statements. Additional information with respect to these and other factors, which could materially affect the Company and its operations, are included in certain forms the Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
