Item 8.01. Other Events.

On June 23, 2013, sTec, Inc., a California corporation (the Company), Western Digital Corporation, a Delaware corporation (WDC) and Lodi Ventures, Inc., a California corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of WDC (Merger Sub), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of WDC. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger by the Company's shareholders, expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), the absence of any material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole and other customary closing conditions.

On July 31, 2013, the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act expired with respect to the Merger. On August 1, 2013, the Taiwan Fair Trade Commission notified the Company and WDC that it will not exercise jurisdiction over the Merger. The transaction remains subject to other closing conditions, including, among others, approval by the Company's shareholders.

Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements regarding the proposed acquisition of the Company by WDC. Such forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and involve inherent risks and uncertainties, including factors that could delay, divert or change any of them, and could cause actual outcomes and results to differ materially from current expectations. Although the Company believes that the forward-looking statements contained in this Form 8-K are reasonable, it can give no assurance that its expectations will be fulfilled. Certain factors that could cause actual events not to occur as expressed in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the failure to obtain the necessary approval of the Merger by the Company's shareholders, litigation or adverse judgments relating to the Merger and the satisfaction of various other closing conditions contained in the Merger Agreement.

Additional important factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements are detailed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) made from time to time, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K, its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and its Current Reports on Form 8-K. Special attention is directed to the portions of those documents entitled Risk Factors and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations. The information contained in this Form 8-K is a statement of the Company's present beliefs and expectations. The Company may change its belief or expectation, at any time and without notice, based upon any changes in such factors, in the Company's assumptions or otherwise. Except as required by law, the Company undertakes no obligation to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances occurring after the date hereof, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
